THE ANDOVER NEWS.

HAMILTON C. NORRIS, EDITOR

ANDOVER, N. Y., SEPT. 17, 1890.

The wifes and mothers of the Central strikers, fearing starvation, are pleading that the men be reinstated.

The political nominations will soon be made, when it is hoped the editors and politicians of the county will quit calling each other horse-theives and liars.

Stanley, who has now quite recovered from his severe illness, sails with his bride for America on October 26th, and begins his series of lectures on the 12th of November at the Metropolitan Music Hall, New York. Mrs. Tennant will accompany her daughter and son-in-law to the states. Stanley is booked for a lecture in Buffalo.

A Washington dispatch to the New York Mail says that during the coming recess of Congress, Postmaster General Wanamaker intends to make an investigation into the present condition of postal transportation, with a view to ascertaining the possibilities of a successful change of rate on first-class matter, from two to one cent per ounce. One-cent postage was one of the planks in the last Republican national platform.

Dr. Talmage has at last secured the money with which to rebuild the Brooklyn Tabernacle, and the work of construction will shortly be begun. Russell Sage has advanced $125,000 for the period of one year at 6 per cent. interest. The land cost $105,000 and has been paid for. Besides this collateral Dr. Talmage insures his life for $25,000 as part payment. The cost of the new church is estimated at $350,000, and with its new organ and other incidental expenses, the entire cost, including the land, will reach $505,000.

THE EMPIRE STATE.

New York's population is nearly half as large again as that of all six of the New England states, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut.

It is as large as the combined population of the two western giants, Illinois and Indiana.

It is nearly three times as great as the combined population of the three states that touch the Pacific—California, Oregon and Washington.

It is more than 300,000 greater than the combined population of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Delaware, West Virginia, Florida, Colorado, North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, Wyoming, Idaho, Nevada, Oregon and Washington—17 states with a representation of 34 in the United States Senate against New York's little two—Evarts and Hiscock.

It would be easy to show in a hundred other different ways quite as striking a supremacy that New York still holds after 80 years of undisputed possession. She became the Empire State. The year 1910 will find her still the Empire State. The seat of empire is here.—New York Sun.

The Knoll-McNeil concert company will appear at Harman's hall Saturday evening of this week. The company is composed of the following persons: A. H. Knoll and Miss Marie McNeil, the two greatest cornetists and duetists in the world; G. Paul Smith, America's greatest impersonator and lightning crayon artist; Miss. Carrie Childs, soprano and pianist.

The steam shovel which was recently taken from the gravel pit, has been brought back and is again in operation. The force will be kept busy several weeks filling up the places washed out by the last flood.—Wellsville Reporter.

M. S. Blair of Angelica, has been appointed receiver of the Rochester, Hornellsville & Lackawanna railroad.

The State Presbyterian Synod meets in Lockport, October 22d, holding a three days' session. This is the highest body next to the General assembly and consists of clergy and lay delegates, comprising 300 or 400 members.

Horseheads has a police officer in the person of John Hogan, who is determined to see that some laws are enforced at least. He has given notice through the Reporter that all truants from school will be arrested and also boys under a perscribed age caught smoking cigars and cigarettes will share the same fate.

There is a young lady in the Clifton Springs sanitarium being treated for an uncontrollable appetite for chocolate. To such an extent has she eaten sweets of this kind that her skin has become a chocolate color. Every merchant in the place who sells chocolate has been warned not to sell the young lady anything with chocolate in its composition.

The residence of H. G. Burch at Castile Corners was entered by burglars last week. Miss Jane Scribner, a member of the family, heard the noise they made and upon going down stairs to ascertain the cause was confronted by one of the burglars. She was so badly frightened as to be thrown into a fit from which she died a few hours later. The burglars escaped.

Morris Hoyle of Carlton, Orleans county, while engaged in feeding a threshing machine a few days ago, put his hand in the machine to pull out some straw that was clogging it. His hand was caught by the teeth of the cylinder and he was pulled into the machine. His skull and shoulder were crushed and run through the machine on to the straw pile before it could be stopped.

Cuba Fair and Races.

The Cuba Fair and Races will occur Sept. 23, 24, 25, and 26. Indications point to one of the most successful exhibitions ever given in Cuba. Among the varied attractions special mention is made of the following:

The 43d Separate Company, N. G. S. N. Y., of Olean, will be present one day. The company will arrive in Cuba on special trains about 9 a. m. After a parade on the streets of the village for about one hour, the display will take place on the grounds, including the skirmish drill which will occur from 10 a. m. to noon. The skirmish drill will occupy the whole width of the grounds.

THE TARIFF.

The tariff debate which will occur about 1 p. m. the 26th, will touch the keynote of the times. These debates are attracting immense throngs of people where they have been held, and reports state that the crowd will linger with interest as long as the debates last.

MUSIC.

All lovers of music will have a treat in store in the concerts by the 43d band which is conceded to be one of the finest in the state, composed of 20 men handsomely uniformed. Evening concerts in the streets of the village.

RACING.

The purses are the largest ever offered, and most attractive to sportsmen. The Association are members of the National Association, and also the trotting circuit of western New York.

MACHINERY.

A large display of all kinds of machinery will be in motion on the grounds, propelled by steam power provided by the Association.

AGRICULTURE.

The display of agricultural products promises to be the largest and finest ever on the grounds.

STOCK.

Exhibits of stock—always creditable at Cuba fairs, promises to be larger and finer, and better bred than ever before.

The Angelica Fair continued Monay and Tuesday of this week.

A wooden bridge is being built ver the creek near the tannery.

The Buffalo Express has moved the own of Allegany into Allegany county.

A force of Italian laborers were busy n the railroad at this place the first f the week.

Look in next week's issue for the Mr. Cook and Seaman advertisement nd day of opening.

The undersigned wishes to express hanks to the kind friends who rendered assistance during the illness and eath of his wife. FRANCIS UPDYKE.

G. Paul Smith, in his remarkable impersonations, including the pathetic, he humorous and the dramatic, Saturday evening, Sept. 20th, at Harman's Hall.

Hon. Milo M. Acker was re-nominated by acclamation for assemblyman from the second district of Steuben county, at the convention held at Corning on Saturday.

W. E. Green has had the misfortune to lose a valuable two-year-old colt. It was in Thos. Comstock's pasture and it is supposed was struck by lightning during the storm Friday evening.

Brown, who assaulted T. N. Boyd last summer, was not tried at court last week, owing to the inability of some of Brown's witnesses to get to Angelica, on account of the high water. The case goes over until November.

Miss Hattie McCormick has been absent for the past week, learning a new system of cutting, the French and plain dart, seamless waist and wraps, raglans, &c., and a perfect mode of cutting and matching plaids and stripes on the bias.

The large Oxford bible offered by the County I. O. G. T. to the lodge having the best attendance during the past two quarters, was won by the Andover Lodge. Their average attendance was 58 per cent. This speaks well for our Good Templars.

Died, in Andover, Thursday, Sept. 11, 1890, of malarial fever, Mrs. Ella Jones, wife of Edward D. Jones, aged 22 years. The funeral services were held in the Pingrey school house on Saturday, Rev. G. W. Gibson officiating, and the burial taking place in the Lever cemetery. The deceased leaves a husband and a 18-months-old child.

On Monday Dr. O'Donnell took an epithelial cancer from the face of Mrs. Henri, of West Moreland, Kas. She is a sister of H. P. Benton of this place, and has been treated by Dr. O'Donnell for a few weeks. The operation Monday was entirely successful, and the patient is doing finely, with the best of chances for complete recovery.

Monday's Wellsville Reporter says: As train 3 was near Alfred this morning a coupling broke and the two sleepers at the rear end of the train separated from the other cars. The sudden stopping of the forward portion of the train allowed the sleepers to overtake the main body of the train with considerable force. Little damage was done beyond breaking some windows in the smoking car and giving the passengers a good lively shaking up.

The Boston Herald has the following, apropos the midsummer musical festival at Point of Pines. "The sensation of the day and evening was caused by the playing of Knoll, the cornet soloist, and Miss McNeil, his associate artist, as these two players fairly carried the immense throng of music lovers by storm, their vision and duets creating the wildest enthusiasm. Do not fail to hear them on Saturday evening, Sept. 20th, at Harman's Hall.

Improvements are being made in the interior of the dwelling house owned by Mrs. Sophia Burrows, lately vacated by W. H. Phillips. The house will soon be occupied by W. E. Bundy.

At the Republican caucus held at Harman's hall Saturday evening, Chas. Cochrane was elected chairman and H. C. Norris Secretary. E. J. Atwood and T. N. Boyd were elected delegates to attend the Congressional Convention, and W. H. Phillips, H. Mourhess, and Jesse Snyder were elected delegates to attend the county convention. H. D. Smith, J. C. Green, and N. L. Beebe were elected town committee for the ensuing year.

Personal.

Jason Beebe visited friends in Alfred last week.

F. R. Hincher attended the Elmira Fair last week.

L. D. Cobb was in town the first of the week. He is now located in Detroit, Mich.

Miss Effie Cook has gone to Jasper, where she is engaged to teach the fall term of school.

W. G. Tucker and J. Clarke arrived home from the Elmira Fair Saturday with their stock.

Rev. G. M. Janes and family left on Monday for a vacation of two or three weeks at Silver Lake.

Mrs. S. G. Herrick of Shadyside, N. J., visited the family of G. B. Herrick of this place the first of the week.

C. N. Tucker of Belmont, son of W. G. Tucker of Elm Valley, was in town Saturday. Charlie runs a creamery in Belmont and has a reputation for making butter that is butter.

The following from this place attended the County I. O. G. T., held in Scio, Sept. 9th and 10th: Mrs. H. E. Miner, Miss Sarah Guinn, Wm. Chase, V. D. Sackett, Floyd Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Bundy are in New York where they will remain during this week. They left town Friday morning for Wellsville, where they stayed until Saturday evening, taking train 12 for the east.

Three Floods in One Week.

Andover experienced three distinct floods last week. The NEWS gave an account of two of them last week. The third occurred Friday evening. Shortly before 6 o'clock the rain came down in a perfect torrent and at 7 o'clock the water was running over the banks of all the creeks, and flooding all the low lands. The water did not reach as great a height as it did a couple of days before, but the amount of damage done was enormous. Many small streams seemed to change their channels, and several persons suffered loss of crops and damage to land who had previously escaped.

The railroad track, which had been put in passable shape after Thursday night's high water, was again overflowed, and the work had to be done over again before trains could run.

James Owen had ground up about $150 worth bark on Friday, and used it to make new liquors for his tannery. This was spoiled Friday night. Mr. Owen's loss by last week's high water will exceed $3,000.

The shop belonging to J. M. Goodwin, on the bank of Dyke creek at Main street was carried away, as was also the ground it stood on.

The North bank of Dyke creek at the point where the Main street bridge stood was washed out for a distance of about 18 feet, leaving the span nearly twice its former length.

Many acres of potatoes were washed out in different portions of the town.

The people of this town are getting used to floods, but we would dispense with them with pleasure for the balance of the season.

At the Cuba Fair.

The great military display at the Cuba Fair, by the 43d separate company of Olean, will occur Thursday forenoon, Sept. 25. The tariff debate will occur Friday, immediately after noon. The speakers will be as follows: For protection, Gen. Charles H. Grosvenor, M. C., of Ohio; for tariff reform, Hon. Thomas G. Shearman, of New York city.

These two attractions will doubtless draw large crowds to the Cuba Fair.

For Sale.

One run of stone for grinding feed, in good condition, will be sold at a low price. I was seriously damaged by the flood and have no further use for the stone. CLARK BOYD,

Andover, N. Y.

WARREN B. HOOKER.

Chautauqua County Secures the Congressional Nominee.

Cattaraugus County Laid low—Allegany Makes the Nomination.

The Congressional Convention for the 34th congressional district, comprising the counties of Allegany, Cattaraugus and Chautauqua, convened at Olean on Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock p. m. Dr. J. M. Williams of Dunkirk, was elected chairman. The secretaries elected were as follows: Chas. H. Brown of Allegany county, J. E. Hazard of Cattaraugus county, and John Woodward of Chautauqua county. Hon. A. B. Cottrell of Allegany county, A. F. Mixer of Chautauqua, and S. E. Chaplin of Cattaraugus, were elected tellers.

The convention proceeded at once to ballot for a candidate for member of Congress. The candidates developed by the first ballot were Oscar Fuller and D. P. Richardson of Allegany, Norman Allen and W. G. Laidlaw of Cattaraugus, and Warren B. Hooker of Chautauqua. The first ballot was as follows:

Fuller	22
Richardson	18
Laidlaw	40
Allen	34
Hooker	58

The balloting continued without material change until five ballots had been taken, when the convention adjourned until 7 o'clock p. m.

At the evening session six more ballots were taken and the convention adjourned until 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. The eleventh ballot was as follows:

Fuller	21
Richardson	19
Laidlaw	27
Allen	35
Hooker	62

The convention assembled at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. The first ballot this morning showed that the delegates from Allegany county had concentrated their strength, the 12th ballot resulting as follows:

Fuller	45
Richardson	2
Laidlaw	28
Allen	35
Hooker	63

Fuller gained steadily until upon the 16th ballot he received 57 votes, this being four more than the entire vote of Allegany county. Hooker received 67 votes on this ballot.

At 11 o'clock a recess was taken until 1 o'clock p. m., 22 ballots having been taken, the 22d ballot resulting as follows:

Fuller	56
Laidlaw	20
Allen	33
Hooker	68

At the afternoon session Allegany's forces were again divided, although it had been said that an effort was being made to concentrate her vote upon Richardson, to which the Ward faction would not consent. The 23 ballot stood as follows:

Richardson	23
Fuller	19
Laidlaw	27
Allen	33
Hooker	70

The 26th ballot brought in a dark horse in the person of Chas. H. Brown of Bolivar, who received 10 votes from Allegany county, nearly all of which came from Fuller's strength, bringing the latter gentleman's vote down to 12.

After the 28th ballot Mr. Fuller withdrew his name from the convention. When Hamilton Ward's name was called he announced that his vote was cast for Richardson.

The 29th ballot was as follows:

Richardson	36
Laidlaw	24
Allen	31
Hooker	74
Brown	8

No material change occurred until 32 ballots had been taken, when the convention took a recess for an hour.

Allegany had presented a solid delegation for Fuller in the morning, with the understanding that enough delegates would come to him from Cattaraugus to make the nomination. The Cattaraugus delegates did not come to time, however, and at noon all hopes of his nomination was gone. After dinner the understanding between Cattaraugus and Allegany was that Richardson should receive the nomination. Allegany presented nearly a solid front for him, and Cattaraugus again failed to keep her word.

During the recess it became known that Allegany, having abandoned all hope of making a combination with Cattaraugus on an Allegany man, would support Hooker, and the latter gentleman was nominated upon the 39d ballot, which stood as follows:

Richardson	22
Laidlaw	20
Allen	24
Hooker	111

Loud cheers accompanied the announcement of Hooker's nomination, and the nominee was called for. In a brief speech he thanked the convention for the honor.

Mr. Hooker is a young man about 35 years, and he created a decidedly favorable impression upon those who had not known him. He is said to be the first man who has ever been able to concentrate the entire delegation of Chautauqua county.

Philip Phillips Coming.

Mr. Phillips is well known in Allegany county. He is also well known in nearly every state and territory in the the Union, and he is regarded as a friend by thousands of people in England, Ireland, Scotland, and ather parts of Europe, as well as in India, China, Australia and other countries. He is to visit Andover Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, Sept. 25, 25, and 27. The entertainment will be photo-opticon views of cities, buildings, natural scenery, famous people, &c. from all parts of the world. He will intersperse singing and narratives between the scenes.

Tickets for sale at L. A. Burrows' drug store and D. B. Spauldings' drug store. Admissions are: Adults, 25 cents; children, 15 cents; season tickets, 60 cents. The entertainments will be given in Harman's hall.

INDEPENDENCE NEWS.

The Ladies' Aid Society convened at the residence of D. E. Livermore, last week Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Potter are enjoying a visit to their respective mothers.

Mr. W. J. Potter is re-shingling and otherwise repairing the old John P. Livermore house, into which he intends to move as soon as it is ready to occupy.

Mr. Oscar Potter has taken the job and is building a substantial new bridge over the Chenunda creek near the cheese factory.

John and Leroy Cottrell, sons of Rev. I. L. Cottrell, former pastor of the S. D. B. church of Independence, but now of Ashaway, R. I., who are students of Alfred University, were in town and attended church here last Saturday.

Mr. Ransom Fish of Whitesville, was in this place Sunday and said that the late flood did not do much damage in that village, except to overflow the streets.

Messrs. H. C. Coleman and L. G. Backus of Alfred Centre, were in town Saturday night, to attend a business meeting of the I. O. G. T., but the C. T. was conspicuous for his absence, and the meeting was postponed till next Saturday evening.

Mr. LeGrand W. Hull of Whitesville, a cousin once removed of your correspondent, took the $50 cash prize on the best 50 pounds of butter at the Wellsville Fair.

Mr. J. J. Brown who has been on an extended visit to his sister, Mrs. Daniel Plaisted of Penn Yan, returned home last week Thursday. He reports the apple, pear and plum crop a failure in that vicinity, but grapes as plentiful with very little mildew or rot among them, but not ripe enough for gathering.

Mr. John Briggs, who had been ill for a long time, was laid to rest in the cemetery at Hallsport last Friday, Eld. J. Kenyon officiating. Mr. Briggs died of hardening of the liver, and was worn to a skeleton, as his stomach would not retain food for any length of time.

At the Republican caucus held in Whitesville Saturday night the following delegates were elected: To the Congressional Convention at Olean, H. K. Bassett, W. Ladd. To the County Convention at Angelica, J. M. Green, D. O. Rollins, Theodore Cobb.

Mr. Albert Seymour of Wilkesbarre, Pa., and his sister, Miss Adelaide, of New York city, were guests of their sister, Mrs. Verne Teater, several days last week.

Mr. Calvin Smythe and family, late of New York City, are visiting relatives and friends in Hallsport, Mr. Smythe's former home. They are on their way to Ohio, where they intend to locate.

Mrs. Lorana, wife of Mr. Ephraim Stillman, died of typhoid fever Saturday about 11:30 p. m. She is the first victim of the fevor in this vicinity. Funeral services are to be held at the church to-morrow (Monday) at 11 o'clock, Eld. H. D. Clark officiating. Her age was 61 years, one month, and eight days. She leaves a sick husband, two sons and two daughters, one of whom, Mrs. C. H. Austin of Spring Mills, is reported very low of the fever, and a large number of relatives and friends to mourn her untimely taking off. SOME GUMPTION.

CORWIN HILL NEWS.

The terrible rain storm of last week did considerable damage to crops in this vicinity.

A number of people of this place were called to attend court at Angelica last week.

Geo. McKurg of Almond, has been staying with his sister, Mrs. Charles Church, the past week.

Will Boyd went to Troupsburg to attend the fair last week. He had quite a serious time getting back again, the roads were so badly washed out by the flood.
