Cut to Fit

Has the significance of this phrase ever arrested your attention? Hasn't it occurred to you in the past that mighty little so-called ready-made clothing is cut to fit? Ours is.

Nothing better can be made. Only choicely tested and trustworthy fabrics and trimmings are used. The patterns and styles are up-to-date.

In short, our Ready-to-wear garments have reached that degree of fitness, style and character that is otherwise to be found only in the better grade of custom-made clothing. The difference in price in favor of SCHAUL & ROOSA clothing is practically the only difference.

Men's Suits $8. to $25.

Overcoats are loose and boxy. Every one has the close fitting collar and hand padded shoulders. In three lengths, short, medium and long.

Overcoats $8. to $35.

Rain Coats $10 to $22.

Perhaps our illustrated catalogue will help you in determining what you will wear this Fall and Winter. You may have a copy for the asking.

Stepped Against a Hot Stove.

A child of Mrs Geo. L. Benson, when getting into bed at Saturday night bath, stepped back against a hot stove which burned him severely. The child was in great agony and his mother could do nothing to pacify him. Remembering that she had a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the house, she thought she would try it In less than half an hour after applying it the child was quiet and asleep, and in less than two weeks was well. Mrs. Benson is a well known resident of Kellar, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment and especially valuable for burns, cuts, bruises and sprains. For sale by O. E. Vars & Son, Andover, and N. E. Coston, Greenwood.

Overcoat Distinction.

No matter what your choice may be in Overcoat styles you'll find that all Hart, Schaffner & Marx Overcoats have a distinction of appearance which is unusual even with the best custom tailo ing. You will not fully understand how good these clothes are until you try them on; then you'll see that in fit, in style in tailoring they are pre-eminently superior. Just the same with H. S. & M. suits. Glad to have you see them any time.

HATS & FURNISHINGS.

Our Hat and Furnishing department gains new friends daily, and keeps on pleasing the old ones. Men who are particular about their out-fitting, who want the best qualities, but want them for the least possible money, will find this just the place to make dollars do splendid duty.

Trouble Threatened in Transvaal.

A correspondent of the London Times has been traveling among the repatriated Boers in the Transvaal and trying to discover the true state of their feelings toward Great Britain. He says that he believes that most of them are friendly and grateful for what has been done for them, but that they feel considerable anxiety about the future. The great majority of them are in the government's debt, and it is the doubt as to how far their share of the free gift of £3,000,000 will get them out of debt which weighs upon their minds.

The correspondent thinks that the hardest task is still in front—namely, the collection of debts, the just assessment of claims and, above all, the fulfillment of promises made. It is the manner in which this work is carried out, he says, which will determine the attitude to be adopted by the greater proportion of the Boer population. There must be the most scrupulous fairness and the utmost tact, he declares, and no promise must remain unfulfilled.

The Boers do not accept the new order of things without considerable misgiving, and the hurt to their national pride cannot be quickly healed, but he believes for the most part they have confidence in their new government and will be content so long as they are fairly treated. But, he adds, there is a considerable number of temporary irreconcilables who may be expected to make trouble as soon as government benefactions have been exhausted.

Moreover, there is a body of irreconcilables who still dream of a South African republic and are already sowing the seeds of discontent among the more peaceable inhabitants. Evidently Great Britain is not finding it altogether easy to retain in peace what was acquired by a most costly war.

That was pretty good advice which Dr. Lyman Abbott gave to young ministers the other day when he told them not to preach politics and to "beware of the temptation to preach to the press."

Doesn't Respect Old Age.

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off maladies no matter how severe and irrespective of old age. Dyspepsia, jaundice, fever, constipation all yield to this perfect pill. 25c, at O. E. Vars & Son's Drug Store.

Your Hair

"Two years ago my hair was falling out badly. I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor, and soon my hair stopped coming out."
Miss Minnie Hoover, Paris, Ill.

Perhaps your mother had thin hair, but that is no reason why you must go through life with half-starved hair. If you want long, thick hair, feed it with Ayer's Hair Vigor, and make it rich, dark, and heavy.

As to Sleeping Car Blankets.

It is not wholly reassuring to be told that the sleeping car authorities out of a kindly consideration for the health of passengers have the blankets used in these cars washed "at least once in six months." The trustful public, which boils its water as a matter of course and sterilizes its money, has been relying upon an impression, somewhat vague, to be sure, that at the end of every trip a sleeping car is fumigated, the blankets boiled and the porter sent to an isolation camp for observation.

According to statements made before the American Public Health association, lately in session in Washington, the sleeping car blanket is one of the very choicest mediums for the transmission of disease. It collects and holds dust and fosters dormant bacteria till life admirably. The sleeping cars are frequented by "all sorts and conditions of men." No line is drawn by the management against the sick. They are taken in as cheerfully as the well. The semisick, if persons suffering from tuberculosis in its earlier stages may be so called, are carried, of course, without question. In consequence of the extremely bad ventilation of the cars, especially the sleepers, there is a grave peril of the spread of many diseases.

It is now announced that efforts are being made by the railroad managers to secure means of better ventilation and otherwise of improving the sanitary conditions of the cars under their control. This is gratifying as far as it goes, but meanwhile the traveling public would be most thankful for an assurance that the sleeping car blankets are washed a little oftener than twice a year.

A Runaway Bicycle.

Terminated with an ugly cut on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. It developed a stubborn ulcer unyielding to doctors and remedies for four years Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured. It's just as good for burns, scalds, skin eruptions and piles. 25c, at O. E. Vars & Son's Drug store.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

NO PAY, NO PAPER AFTER JANUARY 1, 1904.

The "News" Adopts the Cash in Advance System, Believing it Better for both Publishers and Readers.

The ANDOVER NEWS is to-day the only paper in Allegany county printing eight six-column pages all at home, that does not charge more than $1.00 per year subscription. It is a close thing to issue such a sheet at that price and make both ends meet. The price of print paper has doubled within the past four years. The only way the NEWS can possibly maintain the present $1.00 rate is to carry no deadheads. Believing it unjust that a good subscriber be taxed to help pay for his deadbeat neighbor's paper, we have determined to adopt the "No pay, no paper" policy January 1st, 1904, and live rigidly up to it after that date. Kindly read the label on your paper and if you are not credited beyond Jan. 1st, 1904, you are hereby notified that your paper will then be discontinued unless you walk up to the Captain's office and settle before that date. After Jan. 1st, 1904, all subscription accounts then due us will be placed in an attorney's hands fro collection.

THE PUBLISHERS.

NAMES OF FABRICS.

Muslin is named for Mosul, in Asia.

Serge comes from Xerga, the Spanish for a certain sort of blanket.

Bandanna is derived from an Indian word signifying to bind or tie.

Calico is named for Calicut, a town in India, where it was first printed.

Alpaca is the name of a species of llama from whose wool the genuine fabric is woven.

The name damask is an abbreviation of Damascus; satin is a corruption of Zaytown, in China.

Velvet is the Italian "vellute," woolly and is traceable farther back to the Latin vellus, a hide or pelt.

Shawl is from the Sanskrit sala which means floor, shawls having been first used as carpet tapestry.

Cambric comes from Cambrai, gauze from Gaza, baize from Bajac, dimity from Dametta and jeans from Jean.

Blanket bears the name of Thomas Blanket, a famous English clothier who aided the introduction of woolens into England in the fourteenth century.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

The Great Game of Chance.

"But why," asked the author, "are you young women so interested in this antigambling crusade?"

"Because," was the reply, "if we succeed marriage will be the only game of chance left open to the men."—Chicago Post.

Cured of Piles after 40 Years.

Mr. C. Haney, of Geneva, O., had the piles for 40 years. Doctors and dollars could do him no lasting good. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. Invaluable for cuts, burns, bruises, sprains, lacerations, eczema, tetter, saltrheum, and all other skin diseases. Look for the name DeWitt on the package—all others are cheap, worthless counterfeits. Sold by O. E. Vars & Son.

Not a Sick Day Since.

I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble, and tried all sorts of medicines none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad. of your Electric Bitters and determined to try them. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of rheumatism, neuralgia, liver and kidney troubles and general debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C. writes. Only 50c, at O. E. DEATH AT ALMOND.

Aged Mother of Supervisor Stillman Passed Away Friday Morning.

Mrs. Fannie M. Stillman of Almond, relict of the late Daniel Stillman, died at the old homestead a mile west of Almond at 2 o'clock Friday. Nov. 13. Deceased was eighty-eight years of age, and was the mother of Horace G. Stillman, the Supervisor of Almond. About five weeks ago Mrs. Stillman fell and broke her hip and since that time has been confined to the bed.

The funeral was held at the house on Sunday, with interment at Alfred. Deceased was born in Otsego county in 1815 and has lived in this town since she was ten years old. Two sons survive, H. G. Stillman, the present supervisor, and E. P. Stillman, both of Almond. The late Dr. Stillman of Andover was a son of the deceased.

A Mammoth Holiday Issue.

The December Delineator (Christmas Number) represents the high-water mark of beauty and utility, and possibility of circulation also, in a woman's magazine, having a first edition of more than a million copies. It contains 240 pages. To produce this mammoth edition 728 tons of paper and 49 presses working 25 days were required. In addition to exquisite color work, clever fiction and strikingly illustrated articles, the number includes a display of charming Winter fashions covering forty-two pages; letters from the foreign fashion centres and illustrated articles on the fashionable fabrics and trimmings, millinery, etc. Among the notable contributors are: Richard Le Gallienne, with a delicate romance, A Wedding Ring in the Garden, containing lyrics in the author's best vein; W. A. Frazer, with an Indian tale, the Net of Leo; Albert Bigelow Paine, with a delightful sketch founded on the foibles of the collector; Harriett Prescot Spofford, with a love story of unusual interest; Andrew Lang, with a clever travesty on the usual fairy tale; and Gustav Kobbe, with an interesting paper describing the life of Mme. Emma Eames, in her Italian home, with her portrait in colors. There is also the third installment of the Evolution of a Club Woman, the piquent narrative of clubdom by Agnes Surbridge, and a remarkable photographic article by J. C. Hemment. SALUTED THE FLAG.

Recognition of Panama Republic by U. S. Navy.

OFFICIAL VISIT TO THE JUNTA.

Rear Admiral Glass, Consul General Gudger and Commander Phelps and Other Officers Called on the Provisional Government—Toast Proposed to a New Canal Treaty.

Panama, Nov. 18.—At 5:30 yesterday morning the United States flagship Marblehead hoisted the flag of the republic of Panama and saluted it with 21 guns. The Tres Noviembre, a gunboat of Panama, displaying the American flag, answered the salute the American flag, answered the salute of 21 guns which the Marblehead answered.

At 10 a. m. Rear Admiral Glass Consul General Gudger and Commander Phelps, accompanied by Lieutenants Philip Andrews and S. P. Treilinwider, officially called on the junta. They were received by the members of the junta, the cabinet ministers and General Huertias, Jefries, Diaz and Veron and their staffs.

REAR ADMIRAL HENRY GLASS.

Admiral Glass said he was glad to officially call upon the Government of the republic of Panama. It had been a great pleasure for him to salute the flag of the new republic, for whose prosperity and greatness he made the best wishes.

Senor Arango, a member of the junta, answered, saying that in the name of the junta and of the people of Panama he expressed sincere pleasure at the presence of the gallant fleet in Panama bay, representing the noble people and government of the United States, "to whom the isthmus is grateful for the hand of fellowship so generously and promptly extended to them by its great president."

Mr. Gudger proposed a toast to a new Panama canal treaty, which was answered by General Varon, who toasted President Roosevelt and the United States army.

The people of Panama are happy over the official recognition of the flag and the event is being celebrated enthusiastically.

During the ceremonies large crowds of people surrounded the palace of the government.

The flag of the republic of Panama which was saluted by the Marblehead was made on board that vessel.

SEPARATION IRREVOCABLE.

Colombian Commissioners So Informed at Conference on the Mayflower.

Colon, Nov. 18.—During the conference on board the Mayflower Nicanor Insignares, a brother of the governor of Bolivar, who was the spokesman of the Colombians, made a strong appeal to the Panamanians not to disrupt Colombia and he supplemented his appeal by the solemn assurance that Colombia would grant all the rights demanded by the isthmians and eventually carry out their project of building the canal.

Replying Senor Arias, representing the junta, said that the revolution was born absolutely of the unanimous desire of the entire people of Panama and was irrevocable. It was the act of a new independent government already thoroughly organized and formally recognized by the United States, France and Italy. Continuing, Senor Arias said:

"Colombia will always find in this country the most sincere brotherly feeling. The political ties binding the isthmus to Colombia have been broken, but the fault is not that of the isthmus. The ties of affection however, never can be broken."

Senor Insignares in answer expressed his deep sorrow at finding reconciliation impossible. He declared that all the people of Colombia would unite in an effort to enforce the rights of Colombia on the isthmus of Panama even at the cost of great sacrifice.

The threat of Senor Insignares that Colombia would enforce its alleged threat did not cause apprehension to the Panamanian commissioners who did not give it any serious consideration.

It was unofficially announced by the Colombian commissioners that General Reyes, representing the Bogota government, was coming to the isthmus to confer with the provisional government of Panama.

Dr. Pablo Arosemena, a lawyer of Panama, who will sail for New York soon, will act in an advisory capacity with Frederico Boyd and Dr. Manuel Amador, the commissioners of the new republic at Washington.

A dozen marines have been ordered to land to act as signal men between the shore and the Marblehead at 2 o'clock in the morning.

The peace commissioners left the Mayflower at 11 o'clock and returned to Panama.

Three special trains were made up for the occasion.

Some marines were landed to protect the Panama railroad.

Some of the officers of the Colombian gunboat Bogota were landed and buried with military honors.

A Press correspondent learns that Colombia would be willing to contract with the national body.

Bogota, Nov. 18.—The senate has ratified the action of the government of the state of Bolivar in the matter of the course of the senate in refusing to ratify the Hay-Herran treaty.

A Press correspondent learns that the senate will not be in a position to take any action on the Mayflower disclosures of the government of the United States relations to the Colombian government.

Colombia's Protest to the Senate.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Secretary Hay laid before the president and cabinet the protest against the action of the senate by the Bogota government. The protest which went to the senate by President Marroquin of Colombia. The protest which was read in the senate by Senator Frye, a friend of the president, was turned over to the senate committee on foreign relations. No decision yet has been reached whether the document will be formally received or not.

For a Bad Cold.

If you have a bad cold you need a good reliable medicine like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to lo-sen and relieve it, and to allay the irritation and inflamation of the throat and lungs. For sale by O. E. Vars & Son, Andover, and N. E. Coston, Greenwood.

The Best Remedy for Croup.

[illegible] Remedy is the best remedy for croup, known to me. It has never failed to relieve the most severe attack of croup when the medicine has been given according to the directions. I have presented the remedy to many others with the same results and they all agree that it is the best remedy for croup they have ever used. I can safely recommend it to be the best remedy for croup in use or to be used in case of emergency." There used to be an old-fashioned remedy for croup, known as lye syrup and tolu, but some modern mothers say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better, and does not cost so much. It causes the patient to "throw up the phlegm" quicker and gives relief in a shorter time. Give this remedy as soon as the croup cough appears and it will prevent the
