THE ANDOVER NEWS.

HAMILTON C. NORRIS, - EDITOR

ANDOVER, N. Y., DEC. 10, 1890.

The site of the old Andersonville prison is now the property of F. S. Jones Post, G. A. R., of Macon, Ga., the Commander, I. D. Crawford, having recently made the formal transfer of the property. The purchase, negotiations for which were begun a year ago, include eighty acres of land, on which were located the stockade, fortifications and rifle pits of the historic prison. The land was bought from Geo. Kennedy, a negro, and the purchase price was $1,500. In a few days the work of converting the site into a National G. A. R. Park will be begun.

The was a Citizen's Alliance formed at Ocala, Fla., on Saturday, for the purpose of establishing local Citizens' Alliances in the cities and large towns of the country. It is organized with J. D. Holden of Kansas, president; Ralph Beaumont of New York, secretary, and S. P. Wild of Washington, D. C., treasurer. These three officers also constitute its executive committee. It will at once establish national headquarters in Washington, D. C., and as it increases its membership of ex-membership will be enlarged to include one from each state in the organization. This body is the outgrowth of the citizens alliance movement in Kansas City and other western states. As these local Citizens' Alliances are increased the national body will still continue to hold its distinct organization. The membership will be made up of prominent residents of cities.

Secretary of the Interior Noble has been talking of the so-called "pension sharks." He says: "Think of it, the Pension Bureau is now issuing 14,000 and 15,000 dertificates a week. What does this mean to Attorneys? It means that they are receiving every week as fees out of moneys appropriated by Congress to relieve the necessities of our old soldiers between $150,000 and $350,000. I look over the list of attorneys and I find that many of them are men who, upon their knowledge of law, could not build up even a petty practice before a country justice of the peace, but here in Washington they manage in a few years to accumulate a million dollars and more acting as so-called attorneys for pension claimants. And then it would be some comfort if they would leave the old soldiers with one fee, but some of them work them as I saw people work cotton seed in my trip to the South this fall. They gin them once for an original pension, and then gin them over again for an increase, and this process of ginning is kept up so long as anything remains. I am becoming thoroughly convinced that something should be done, and that soon, to relieve the old soldiers of this greviously heavy burden."

The Erie's Annual Statement.

The annual report of the Erie railway company has just been made, showing gross earnings in 1890 of $29,068,935 against $27,204,406 in 1889. The balance over all charges this year was $860,524 against $774,776 in 1889. Of merchandise 6,719,tons were carried in 1890, against 5,706,986 in 1889, and this year 11,421,734 passengers were transported against 10,107,306 in 1880. The figures are very gratifying to every well wisher of the Erie.

President King in his annual report, treats at great length on the various questions which came before the management during the year. Heretofore the lease of the Nypano provided that the Erie pay a rental of 32 per cent. on the gross earnings up to $6,000,000, and that percentage will decrease one-tenth of 1 per cent. on all over that amount. The new contract has worked satisfactorily. On the Erie at the present time the average speed of freight trains is 25 miles per hour, freight engines average 60 tons weight, and 80-pound steel rails are being used. During the past year 18,479 tons of steel rails have been laid on the main line of the Erie proper, of which 13,883 were 80-pound rails. Numerous iron and wooden bridges were moved and new steel bridges substituted.

Mr. King continues in his report: "The harassing litigations which the company inherited, growing out of transactions entered into by former administrations, are now substantially ended, and the company, for the first time, is free from any but the ordinary lawsuits common to all railroad companies. The Marine bank litigation, the Erie and Genesee Valley litigation, the Narrow Guage railroad litigation, the Chicago & Atlantic litigation; the litigation regarding the Pennsylvania coal properties, are all of this class, and their successful termination is a matter of earnest congratulation."

State Board of Canvassers.

The state officers comprising the State Board of Canvassers met Friday morning and canvassed the returns of the last election.

The total vote on the Court of Appeals judgeship was as follows:

Robert Earl (Democrat, and endorsed by Republicans,) 927,233.

Silas W. Mason (Prohibitionist), 33,621.

Francis Gerau (Socialist), 367.

Defective, blank and scattering, 28,965.

Total state vote 1,003,533.

WOMAN'S COLUMN.

I will vote for no man unless he loves God and hates whiskey.

You say let men drink who want to, and take the consequences—but some one else takes the consequences—the man drinks and the woman takes the consequences.

Some say—You temperance people are in such a minority. Well, are the majorities always in the right. How would you liked to have been with the majority in the flood? Would you not rather have been with Noah in the minority and the Ark?

Young man! if you would avoid the risk of remorse which stings the soul of a son, who with a spade of vice, digs a grave for his own mother, take the vow of total abstainence, bind it as a talisman about your character and resolve never to cross the threshold of a liquor-saloon.

MISCELLANEOUS.—Miss Phœbe Couzins made an eloquent address before the St. Louis Bar a few days ago, on the character and public services of the late Justice Miller.—Miss Wilkinson is a professional landscape gardener and, according to Penny Paper, has all the work for the Metropolitan Public Gardens Association and the Kyrl Society in London, England.—Mrs. Mary H. Hunt was tendered the use of the House of Representatives of Ga., to present the subject of scientific temperance before the general assembly.—Elizabeth Comstock, the Quaker, who has visited more prisons than any one else in the nation, was an honored guest at the National W. C. T. U.

It may seem strange, but it is nevertheless true, that alcohol, regularly applied to the thrifty farmer's stomach, will remove the boards from the fence, let the cattle into the crops, kill his fruit trees, mortgage his farm, and sow his fields with wild oats and thistles. It will take the paint off his buildings, break the glass out of his windows and fill them with rags. It will take the gloss from his clothes and the polish from his manners, subdue his reason, arouse his passions, bring sorrow and disgrace upon his family, and topple him into a drunkard's grave. It will do this to the artisan and the capitalist, the matron and the maiden, as well as to the farmer; for, in its deadly enmity to the human race, alcohol is no respecter of persons.—St. Louis Christian Advocate.

It is said that the Erie company is contemplating running their through trains from New York to Chicago, making but one change of trainmen. One crew will run from Jersey City to Salamanca and another crew will take the train from Salamanca to Chicago, and so on when returning. There are five or six changes under the present arrangement. It is said that the contemplated extension of runs is the idea of General Passenger Agent Rinearson, who expects thereby to facilitate the handling of tickets.

'Buffalo Express' Holiday Issues.

Judged by average newspaper standards, every issue of the Illustrated Buffalo Express is worthy to be called a Holiday Number. This excellent journal has made great strides in popularity and in merit during the past year. That is saying a good deal, for as most of our readers must know, it has been popular and good from the first. The announcement which the Express now makes of special Holiday Numbers on December 14th, 21st, and 28th, means a good deal. The Express is never satisfied unless it does things better than anyone else would try to do them, consequently, we shall be disappointed if these Holiday issues are not marvels of beautiful pictures and the best of Holiday reading matter.

Veterans Should Join the G. A. R.

Commander-in-chief Veazey, of the G. A. R., urges all veterans to become members of that order. The circular recently issued by him on this subject is as follows:

"The Grand Army of the Republic was never in better condition than at the present time. Its strength and power are commensurate with its numbers, now nearly one-half million Comrades. But its mission is not complete. We are comrades not for personal benefit to ourselves, but to enable us individually the better to do good to others who stood at our side in the shock of battle. There are far too many such, not enrolled with us and therefore not within the reach of the full benefits of our order. They lose the advantage and inspiration of fraternal associations which the Post room, the only club house of the average veteran, affords. The relief fund of the Post is not sure to reach them in their distress. They do not go with us to visit the sick, to feed the hungry, or bury the dead comrades. Our badge, which Grant and Sheridan prized and Sherman wears, does not decorate their breasts as the insignia of honor for their valient service.

"No veteran joins the Grand Army of the Republic and enters into its work in the spirit of true comradeship, without being lifted to a loftier manhood and to the plane of better citizenship. We therefore fail in duty if we fail to do our utmost to bring all who offered their lives for flag and country within our organization. They all now know that such membership cannot infringe the free exercise of political inclination or religious faith.

"The Commander-in-chief therefore appeals to Posts and comrades to bring upon our rolls all worthy veterans of the Union army and navy, who are not there already, and let none be dropped therefrom for inability to pay the small dues incumbent upon membership.

"He also solicits from Department Commanders and all comrades frank suggestions upon matters within administrative jurisdiction pertaining to the welfare of the order. By vigorous co-operation along our lines they are sure to be greatly advanced, and our countrymen will ever rise up to bless us for true devotion to "Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty," even as they hold us in honor for brave deeds on the battlefields of the Republic."

Last Saturday evening Mrs. Sarah Chase, the aged mother of comrade James L. Chase, of Whitesville, met with a very serious accident, which may and may not prove fatal. In some unaccountable manner she fell down stairs, breaking several ribs and injuring herself internally, as she vomited blood. On account of her unconsciousness the cause of her accident could not be ascertained, but her physician, A. J. Remington, may possibly succeed in saving her.

The donation for the benefit of Rev. H. D. Clarke last week Tuesday evening was a very pleasant affair. Miss Anna Crandall of this place, and Miss Carrie Berry of Ashaway, R. I., rendered some fine instrumental music, and Mr. D. Randolph Clark and family sang a number of favorite songs. Delegations were present from Andover and Hornellsville, and the Elder was assured of many friends and some money, which is very acceptable these hard times.
