How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.

NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED.

As a general family remedy for dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever use anything else, and have never been disappointed in the effect produced; it seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

A Week's Record of Events at the National Capital.

[From the NEWS Regular Correspondent.]

WASHINGTON, May 11, 1891.

Senator Stewart's familiar Santa Claus beard was the beacon by which I steered to-day at the capitol until he was cornered in a committee room. The Senator is a pretty good Farmer's Alliance man on at least two very important questions—the tariff and the free coinage of silver, and he insists most vehemently that no party can win next year that does not put a free coinage plank in its platform. His pet aversions among the possible candidates are Messrs. Harrison and Cleveland, and he thinks if they should be the nominees of their respective parties that a third candidate on a free coinage platform would be elected.

The Senator proposes using every opportunity which presents itself during the coming session of Congress, to push through a free coinage bill, and he thinks the probabilities favor the passage of the bill, but he has little hope of the bill becoming a law, on account of the Presidential veto, but it is evident that he has not entirely abandoned converting Mr. Harrison, notwithstanding that gentlemen's recent remarks on the subject.

* * *

Something important is going on between Mr. Blaine and the British minister, but no one seems to know precisely what it is, further than it relates to Behring Sea matters. They are both at present in New York, where they can confer without exciting the notice that it would here. From the best information obtainable it is believed that an agreement between the United States and England, which may possibly include Russia, will shortly be announced that will put an end to the killing of seals in the Behring Sea for this season certainly, and possibly until the whole question at issue between the governments shall have been decided by arbitration or otherwise. It is known that the Treasury department is waiting upon Mr. Blaine's decision to issue orders to the commanders of revenue cutters, now on the Pacific coast, for their guidance during the coming sealing season.

* * *

Secretary Foster has big faith in the benefit of the new immigration law, and he has directed Assistant Secretary Nettleton to give it his personal attention until it is thoroughly understood by the Federal officers in all our ports, and the Assistant Secretary has gone to New York that he may know by personal obeservation just how it works.

* * *

In addition to the new Senators there will be quite a change around in the seats of some of the old ones, when Congress again assembles. Mr. Dixon of Rhode Island will have the front seat so long held by Mr. Edmunds; Mr. Sanders, of Montana, will have Mr. Dixon's old seat; Mr. Sanders' vacant seat will be occupied by Mr. Dubois, one of the "baby" Senators from Idaho. Mr. Peffer has been extremely modest, being satisfied with a seat in the rear row on the Republican side. Mr. Blair's chair will be taken by Mr. Pasco, of Florida, and Mr. Colquitt, of Georgia, will have the front row seat so long occupied by Senator Brown, of Georgia, which Mr. Reagan, recently resigned, had filed an application for. Mr. Paddock takes Mr. Evart's old seat, and Mr. Washburn will get the one occupied at the last session by Mr. Ingalls. Mr. Wolcott of Colorado, who has had a back seat, will take the one vacated by Mr. Spooner. The rear row on the Democratic side will contain an aggregation of new faces that in the eyes of all good democrats might be called the "big four." There will be seated Vilas, of Wisconsin; Gordon, of Georgia (Farmers' Alliance man); Brice of Ohio; and Hill, of New York. It has leaked out that Senator Dixon filed his application for Mr. Edmunds' seat last winter, which indicates that he knew of the contemplated resignation.

* * *

What action this government will take about the severance of diplomatic relations by the Italian government, will not be determined until Mr. Harrison gets back, but it is probable that our minister to Italy will be recalled and that the American legation in Rome will be closed indefinitely.

* * *

The Washington correspondent to the New York World has been arrested, charged with criminal libel, for having stated that Dr. Hammond, of this city, charged Mrs. Senator Stanford $5,000 for the removal of a wen from her head.

* * *

The forty-second annual meeting of the American Medical Association was in session here last week. More than a thousand physicians from all sections of the country were in attendance.

* * *

News has been received here of the acceptance by the government of Venezuela of the reciprocity proposition submitted to it some time ago by Mr. Blaine. It only requires the President's proclamation now to put it into effect.

SUNSHINE.

The thrush was singing his love song
In the sunny summer morn,
The voice of the merry crane oddity
Over the fields waded forth.

By the side stood bonnie Mary,
With a blush of fond surprise,
For Robin he lent above her,
With the love light in his eyes.

His voice it was low and tender,
As the sky mild poised to hear,
Why the crickets at his feet only
That restrained the song sweet and clear.

The tremulous leaves next lower
And hankered in silence, too
Oh! fondly she smiled, half dreaming,
And fancied the story new.

The old, old story, a new one!
The bees that flirt in the grass
Are humming the same glad music
To the clover as they pass.

While the daisies turning upward
In wonder their starry eyes
Are telling the self same secret
To cloudlets and summer skies.

But Mary will never believe you.
To her 'twill ever be new.
Could any one plead like Robin?
Are any so fond and true?

—Minnie G. Frazer in Washington Star.

When Grasshoppers Were Human.

According to an Arab legend grasshoppers were human beings in an age long before the Muses. When the Muses came and song appeared they were ravished with delight, and, singing always, never thought of eating or drinking, until at last, in their forgetfulness, they died. And now they live again as grasshoppers, and this is the return the Muses make to them for their devotion to music.

They hunger no more, neither thirst any more, but are always singing from the moment they are born. Never eating or drinking except when they go to destroy the crops of some person or persons who have offended the gods of music, they soon die and straightway go and inform the Muses in heaven who has honored them on earth, that person getting his share of the good things when he goes to the world beyond.—St. Louis Republic.

Don't Waste Postage Stamps.

"Why do you Americans put five cents on a letter to Mexico when two are enough?" asks a business man writing from the city of Mexico. "Is cash so abundant in northern homes that you can so waste it? Pray tell your people that only a 'phule' will put any more postage on a Mexican letter or paper than on one destined for the United States—else why the postal treaty? One-half my correspondents thus foolishly contribute to Uncle Sam's exchequer." This advice is well timed. Most people know that letters to Canada need bear but two cents postage for each ounce or fraction thereof, but it is less generally known that the same rate applies to letters sent to Mexico, which is too often regarded as a "foreign country."—Springfield Republican.
