How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.

NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED,

as a general family remedy for dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever use anything else, and have never been disappointed in the effect produced; it seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.

More Dresses for Less Money.

Dressmaking at home is one of the "social nuisances," but a stylish wardrobe at half the cost is one of its compensations. Besides, you have an opportunity of working out your own ideas, which the modiste either can't or won't do. The great fatigue has deterred many ladies from making their own dresses, but with Hall's Bazar Form this objection is entirely removed. It is adjustable, and can be made to fit NEARLY EVERY size. When covered with a waist and arranged to fit your own proportions, the Form becomes an exact model of yourself.

Price of Complete Form, $6.50; Price of Skirt Form, $3.50; Price of Skirt Form, Wood Standard, $3.00. Sent to any address on receipt of price.

All the fashion publishers—Butterick, McCall, Taylor, Demarest, Harper's Bazar, and others—unite in saying that Hall's Bazar Form is the only perfect dress-form made. When not in use can be folded and put away like an umbrella.

Write for our illustrated brochure, "More Dresses for Less Money," giving full particulars.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

A Week's Record of Events at the National Capital.

[From the NEWS' Regular Correspondent.]

WASHINGTON, June 15, 1891.

Mr. Harrison might well have cried "save me from my friends," when the negro ex-Congressman, J. M. Langston, got himself interviewed for the purpose of saying that the main issue of the next campaign would be the "Force Bill," and that Mr. Harrison was the strongest living advocate of that measure, and more of the same sort. It is only necessary for Mr. Harrison to endorse this position to kill him as dead as if he never had existed. The Democratic national committee would probably pay Langston to keep it up on this line, as they are just hankering to make the force bill one of the issues of the campaign.

* * *

The State department has placed a special train at the disposal of the diplomatic corps, and the other day all of the countries whose representatives were in town were figuratively put aboard a Pullman and started for Chicago, where they will be shown what has been done towards the great exposition. It is expected that this visit will be productive of much good.

* * *

Director General Davis of the World's Fair was here last week consulting with department officials as to the Goverment exhibit at the exposition, and perfecting arrangements for sending a commission abroad for the purpose of interesting foreign manufacturers and merchants in the exposition. He says success is already assured.

* * *

If it be true that Hon. Charles E. Mitchell, Commissioner of Patents will shortly retire, as is generally believed here, the poor inventors of the country will lose a valuable friend, as he has just shown by changing the rules of practice so as to make it impossible for examiners in the patent office to reject applications that ought to be granted, and then afterwards as patent attorneys get a fee from the same applicant for getting through what should have properly gone through on its own merits in the first place. The new rule prohibits any person who has been employed in the Patent office appearing as agent or attorney in any case upon which he has taken any action while so employed, and is commended by everyone except the men it is intended to hit—the ex-Examiners now practicing as attorneys.

* * *

Postmaster General Wanamaker has the sympathy of everybody in the attempt that has been made to couple his name with the crookedness of the Keystone National Bank of Philadelphia.

Before leaving on a speaking tour of the North and West Senator Peffer called at the White House to pay his respects to Mr. Harrison. He had an interview with Mr. Daniels, editor of the State Chronicle of Raleigh, North Carolina, that has been commented on. "The People's Party," said Senator Peffer, "will most assuredly nominate a national ticket next year, and if we gather our forces as well all over the country as we did in Kansas we can easily elect a President and Congress in 1892. "Is it not better," said Mr. Daniels, "for Alliance men in the South to remain in the Democratic party in order to prevent the domination of the negro?" "We do not care about that," replied the Senator, "We want to destroy both old parties unless they will help us. It is not a part of our program to tamper with either. We cannot concern ourselves with such matters. It is time that sectionalism ceased, and there is only one way to effect it. It is time for the people who are tired of this policy of political ostracism, whether we live in the North, South, East or West, to join hands in Friendship, and make a union that is worth maintaining, and which will not have to be pinned together with bayonets. Let us nationalize the people; we don't need any force bill; we don't need any standing armies to see that the people vote right. What we need most in this direction, is to see that the union is restored in fact as in name, by going among the Southern people, black and white, and doing all that we can and as friends of peace and good government to assist them whenever they need assistance in adjusting their relations among themselves in a just and honorable way, consulting their interests and not those of persons living in other parts of the country."

* * *

Mr. Harrison can scarcely be accused of partisanship in the appointment of the justices of the Private Land Claims court, as he appointed three Republicans and two Democrats. The Chief Justice is Joseph R. Reed of Iowa, and the Associate Justices Wilbur F. Stone of Colorado; H. C. Sluss, of Kansas; T. Fuller, of North Carolina, and W. W. Murray, of Tennessee. The U. S. Attorneys are M. G. Reynolds of Missouri, and L. W. Colby, of Nebraska.

WOMAN'S COLUMN.

Mr. J. N. Stearns of the National Temperance Advocate, writes an interesting letter on board his steamer, en route to Edinburg, Scotland, to attend the great meeting of the Good Templars. Speaking of the drinking customs among sea travelers, he says: "Near me at the table is an English clergyman who takes his 'bottle of medicine' with him to every meal. He is a very fine gentleman, but with his education on the side of 'medicine.' He says he believes thoroughly in the inspiration and divinity of the Scriptures, and quoted the passage which says, 'Give strong drink to him that is ready to perish,' and wanted to know what I had to say to that. I told him I wasn't quite 'ready to perish' yet, and he didn't look as if he was."

A movement is on foot to erect a monument to the women of the South for their services in nursing the sick and in every way giving aid and comfort to their husbands and brothers during the war. Southern women have taken an active part in raising money for the monuments that have been raised in many Southern States to the Confederate dead, and now the men think something should be done to commemorate the women. The Press Club of South Carolina warmly favors the idea, and has headed the subscription with a substantial sum.
