PROF. LEON COOK FOR WILSON

Ithaca, N. Y.,
Oct. 28, 1916.

Mr. J. H. Backus,
Andover, N. Y.,
My dear Mr. Backus;

In a recent issue of The News I see that you are supporting President Wilson, for which you are surely to be commended. As an independent voter I supported Mr. Hughes for governor, but I am unable to see the same man running for president as was running for governor of New York State. It is gratifying to know of so many voters who are renouncing strict party allegiance and are willing to recognize and support merit wherever they find it. Had Mr. Hughes been willing to give the Wilson administration credit for at least some of its excellencies he would have made a much stronger impression on the public than he has. In this connection I thought you might be interested in the discussion by members of the University faculty as reported in the Cornell Sun, so I am sending you two copies containing some good articles, especially the one by Dean Thilly.

Sincerely yours,
LEON E. COOK.

AL. BROWN FOR WILSON

In a letter to the News from Al. Brown, a former Andover man, now in Philippi, West Virginia, Mr. Brown says:

Harvey, I see your last few papers contain some pretty good articles for Woodrow Wilson and Woman Suffrage.

I see where you are right in standing up for Woodrow Wilson. This country was never in better shape than it is to-day and I think he has been one of the best presidents we have ever had.

I never voted anything but a Republican ticket, but Woodrow Wilson is too good a man to turn down and I shall support him.

I shall also support the good women of West Virginia, because I know they are worthy of it. They will help our schools, homes and politics in general.

If you see fit to put this in the News use what you think best.

Kindly yours,
AL. BROWN.

If you don't know President Wilson and what he stands for, it's because you have been too busy with your own personal prosperity. If you don't realize how safe you are in his hands for four years more, it is because you have felt so secure during his present administration that you haven't felt the need of bothering about your own safety.

HARRY ZIMMERMAN WANTS HUGHES TRIMMED

We publish herewith a letter from H. L. Zimmerman, of Bolivar, who is the Treasurer of the National Progressive party in Allegany County and a member of its executive committee. Mr. Zimmerman says:

Editor Andover News,
Friend Backus:

I see by a recent issue of your paper, that the Chairman of the County Committee of the Progressive party in Allegany County, and a friend of mine, was rather conspicuous at a Republican blowout or mass meeting in your village recently. I was more than surprised at this and believe he will be with Mr. Hughes and our "Teddy." Within ten days after election, if the Republicans win, he will see that he has made the mistake of his life, politically.

I am still a Progressive at heart but Col. Roosevelt can't tell me how to vote, or who to vote for.

I can read between the lines, and see that the entire G. O. P. bunch are in "hot water," or between the "devil and the deep sea." It's going to be mighty close, and not the landslide for the G. O. P. that they predict.

The silent voter is going to cut a whole lot of ice Nov. 7th, and too well the Republicans know and realize it. I hope and trust that the members of the Progressive party in Old Allegany County who are REAL Progressives, will remember when they go to the polls next Tuesday that their vote will help to decide the character of the man who will be at the head of our nation four years more.

H. L. ZIMMERMAN.

P. S. I only hope Wilson or Hanley will clean them up for surely they need it.

MOOSE LEADER OUT FOR WILSON

Chairman Hale Resents Attempt of Roosevelt to Deliver Party to Hughes

Chicago, Oct. 26. — Matthew Hale, Chairman of the Progressive National Committee and former friend of Col. Roosevelt, resents the Colonel's attempt to deliver the Progressives to Hughes. In a statement to-day he said:

"The Progressive voters are not going to be delivered to Mr. Hughes by Mr. Perkins and his Wall Street crowd, nor by any one to any candidate. The Progressive voters are going to make up their own minds and are going to cast their votes as individuals for Mr. Wilson and Mr. Hughes. It is to your conscience and to your reason that we appeal now in behalf of Wilson.

"We ask you to support Mr. Wilson and to oppose Mr. Hughes and the Republican party because exactly the same elements which controlled the party in 1912 control it to-day— Penrose, Smoot, Galinger, Crane and Cannon.

We ask you to support Mr. Wilson and oppose Mr. Hughes because Mr. Wilson's administration has put through more progressive legislation than has any other administration that this country ever has had. He has carried out most of the Progressive platform elements of 1912."

CAREY FOR WILSON

Cheyenne, Wyo., Oct. 24.—Joseph M. Carey, former Republican governor of Wyoming, has taken the stump for Woodrow Wilson. His speeches are being received with enthusiastic demonstrations.

"I was a member of what was the Progressive party," the former governor said in his first address. "I was a member of the resolutions committee of the convention which nominated Theodore Roosevelt in 1912, and I thank God that I had a part in the proceedings of that convention.

"Two-thirds of the platform that was there adopted has been enacted into law by Woodrow Willson."

BRADFORD LEADER FOR WILSON

Bradford, Pa., Oct. 28. — Hon. Spencer M. DeGolier, former mayor of Bradford, has come out as an ardent supporter of President Wilson and the entire Democratic ticket. Mr. DeColier was elected Mayor of Bradford as a Republican candidate. He has always been a Republican until 1912, when he voted for Mr. Roosevelt. In discussing the present political situation Mr. DeColier says:

"An old proverb has it — and wisely put—that 'A wise man changeth his mind; but a fool never!' We take issue with Theodore Roosevelt, the man, — the wise man, the statesman, the great leader of thought political—in relation to certain broad and sweeping statements which he makes in an article appearing in Collier's Weekly, date of October 14th.

"We must not presume to sit in judgment upon the motives of any man in his statement of facts, as he sees them, we must take him verbatim and allow him the benefit of all honest doubt and human frailties. Let us take some of Mr. Roosevelt's broadest statements, in the article referred to, and place them under close scrutiny in the light of well-known facts relating to Mr. Wilson and his policies. He says, 'Since 1912 we have had four years of a policy which has been an opiate to the spirit of idealism.' Is that so? Why 'since 1912?' Did the golden age end then? If the statement be true, does the blame Wilson for it? Did Roosevelt and his mighty band of followers — almost large enough to have carried the 1912 election for him — forsake those lofty ideals for which they then stood, simply because the Progressive party not ushered into power? he lost in that campaign which no mightier was conducted in this nation, assume to criticise and because all men did not we did, and to assert that is dead! Nay! Those ideas conceptions of honest are NOT dead! They persisted and continued test under Democratic rule shape of much helpful legislation which the Progressives have for and which they promised have enacted if put into Not all has been accomplished but a moiety of it—enough trying circumstances to pledge that the 'larbin better day' has called and that more may, and follow!

"Mr. Roosevelt says: meant the relaxation of fibre. A sordid appeal interests and to fear paralyzed the national conscience Has he been stung by a relaxation?' Has 'a sordid appeal paralyzed' notion to fight for the the affairs of this great the nation which gave us and has afforded him such opportunities? And if he been thus affected, why impute to the nation such a paralysis? Have intelligence and insight, as he? My moral obligation rest as heavily upon me, zeal is as great and sincere when I stood beside Roosevelt the Progressive ranks, in the of 1912, and with him down to defeat which was glorious but one of the victories, for principle R. may ever count to him

WOODROW WILSON

On November 7th,

Mr. Voter, you are to choose whether you will go FORWARD with WILSON—who has

Kept You Out of War,
Prepared You Against War,
Worked for You and Yours,
Ended Wall Street's Rule,
Liberated Honest Business,
Established Sound Prosperity,
Kept Faith with Labor,
Lifted the Farmer's Mortgage,
Freed the Child,
Kept All His Promises,

—OR—

Undo Wilson's Deeds, go BACKWARD with the Candidate of the Old Guard and Wall Street —and take a chance on PLUNGING INTO WAR under Roosevelt and Hughes!

YOU ARE WORKING INSTEAD OF FIGHTING!

FOR WILSON AND YOUR FIRESIDE!

WILLIAM F. McCOMBS

President Wilson's Administration in four years has given the nation more constructive legislation than the Republican Party has had the imagination to promise in the last forty years.

President Wilson plans further constructive legislation along, safe, sane, constructive, conserving lines, and it is necessary that he should have a Democratic Congress behind him to carry this legislation into effect.

William F. McCombs's record is such as to qualify him as a worthy candidate for the United States Senate. He is a scholar and a gentleman. Educated at Princeton and Harvard Universities, he has practiced law in New York, managed the National campaign which resulted in the election of Woodrow Wilson as President, was Chairman of the Democratic National Committee and was tendered the Ambassadorship to France. He is a trustee of the College of the City of New York and a member of the American Bar Association.

Mr. McCombs is eminently qualified by training, experience and inclination to faithfully serve his State and his Nation along lines followed by this Democratic administration and in accordance with the promises of the Platform of the Democratic Party.

VOTE for WILSON and MARSHALL, SEABURY, and McCOMBS, and the entire Democratic Ticket so as to insure Peace with Honor, Prosperity, Economy, Efficiency, and Justice for the State and Nation.

Sign Boards on the Up-road

By Hamilton B. Williams

It is characteristic of the right sort of folks that they "do" because they like to.

In some houses one feels a something outshining the conventional courtesies of hospitality, something difficult to name, but distinctly felt.

In some poems what is not read in the words is its charm. In a picture one feels the same thrill. In some people's words and deeds one feels the same indefinable "plus."

It is very likely the "gladness" of courtesy, the "vision of the poet, the "genius" of the painter, the "enthusiasm" of the gentleman and gentlewoman.

These are two words which true hearted folks do not employ — Duty, Responsibility.

Jesus would have been a strange God's Man if He had gone about His task under the spur of duty and responsibility.

A miserable kingdom He would have established on such a foundation.

The true word of life is — Liberty.

I can!

There are hirling souls who go to a task because they feel they must. They get no joy in service. They find no gladness in the House of the Lord. With laggard feet the perfunctorily perform the exercises of religion, and never a gleaming sky is theirs.

There are certain souls that respond only to the pressure of responsibility. They walk a little higher then the hireling souls but fail to find the glorious peaks. Their idea of religion is mechanical. They miss, as a consequence the joy which is packed into service by the Christ, because they do not go deeply enough.

But they who serve because they "can" are they who find the joyousness of fellowship with deeds.

They see on every side opportunity.

They can: Therefore they open their heart's gates and send forth the battalion of service, in the gladness of being fellow-workers with the joyous God.

Lord-Father, rich in grace,
Snow shining face
unto all folk that press
In weariness
Sweet wine for others' weal.
Their pilgrimage
Give love as wage
And peace all wounds to heal.

Lord-Father, garnisher
Of mansions fair,
Remember homes of earth,
And give life's worth
In gentle friends. Let cheer
Side comforting
The stroke and stint,
All doubt and dark and drear.

Lord-Father, common task
Bless Thou. We ask
But Thy "well done." Enough
To smoothe the rough
Road that the multitude
Must trudge along.
Lift up thy song
That we may bear our rood.

OF COURSE WE WILL

O yes; we'll vote for Wilson,
The most wise counselor.
Of course, we'll vote for Wilson,
He 's kept us out of war.

Across the seas to Fatherland,
Those white-winged notes he sent,
They 've kept for us our glorious
peace:
O, he 's the man for president!

He 's kept the banks from failing,
too,
To farmers, cash he 's lent.
He 's eased the load on childhood's back:
O, he 's the man for president!

He 's learned too, and statesman-like,
And for the place he 's pat.
Don't swap horses in mid-stream,
'Twas "Honest Abe" said that.

O, yes: we 'll vote for Wilson.
The most wise counselor.
Of course, we 'll vote for Wilson.
He 's kept us out of war.

JUST GOT OVER A COLD?

Look out for kidney troubles and backache. Colds overtax the kidneys and often leave them weak. For weak kidneys — well, read what an Andover woman says:

Mrs. P. J. Doherty, W. Center St., Andover says: "A cold which settled in my kidneys brought on an attack of kidney complaint. A heavy, dull pain in my kidneys and across my loins made me feel in constant misery and every step I took seemed to jar my whole system. 'I was tired and dragged out, too, and it seemed as though I would never get around. I had a dull pain in the back of my head. One of the family told me about Doan's Kidney Pills and I procured a supply. Two boxes gave me wonderful relief and did me lots of good."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills — the same that Mrs. Doherty had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

WHY SUFFER WITH BACKACHE, KIDNEY OR BLADDER ROW?

Letter Tells of Long-to-Last-for Preparation.

Dear Readers—If I can do any good in the world for others, I wish to do it, and I feel that it is my duty to write about the wonderful results I received from the use of "Anuric." I was suffering from kidney and bladder troubles, scalding urine, backache and rheumatism, and feet and ankles swelled so that at times I could not walk without assistance. I had taken several different kinds of kidney remedies but all failed. I sent for a box of Dr. Pierce's newest discovery, "Anuric," which I received by mail in tablet form. I soon got better and am convinced that this popular new medicine is good. I wish to recommend it to my neighbors and everybody suffering from such troubles.

—Mrs. M. J. SARGENT.

NOTE! You've all undoubtedly heard of the famous Dr. Pierce and his well-known medicines. Well, this prescription is one that has been successfully used for many years by the physicians and specialists at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., for kidney complaints, and diseases arising from disorders of the kidneys and bladder, such as backache, weak back, rheumatism, dropsy, congestion of the kidneys, inflammation of the bladder, scalding urine, and urinary troubles.

Up to this time, "Anuric" has not been on sale to the public, but by the persuasion of many patients and the increased demand for this wonderful healing Tablet, Doctor Pierce has finally decided to put it into the drug stores of this country within immediate reach of all sufferers.

Simply ask for Doctor Pierce's Anuric Tablets. There can be no imitation. Every package of "Anuric" is sure to be Dr. Pierce's. You will find the signature on the package just as you do on Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the over-famous friend to ailing women, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, proven by years to be the greatest general tonic and reconstructor for any one, besides being the best blood-maker known.

A CLOGGED SYSTEM MUST BE CLEARED

You will find Dr. King's New Life Pills a gentle yet effective laxative for removing impurities from the system accumulated waste poisons the blood; dizziness, biliousness and pimply, muddy complexion are the distressing effects. A dose of Dr. King's New Life Pills to-night will assure you a free, full bowel movement in the morning. At your Druggist, 25c.—Advertisement.
