THE ANDOVER NEWS.

HAMILTON C. NORRIS, - - EDITOR

ANDOVER, N. Y., MAY 20, 1891.

Mr. Blaine appears to be too busy "sawing wood" these days to talk about the Presidential nomination of his party.

Ex-Speaker Reed, J. S. Clarkson and "Mark Twain" are among the distinguished Americans now traveling in Europe, but these three cannot be classed as "Innocents abroad."

Who was it that said Spain was a century behind the rest of the world? They are plowing by electricity over there, which would seem to indicate that they are up to, if not a little in advance of the head of the procession. America is highly progressive, but we haven't a monopoly in that line.

Are we becoming a nation of lunatics? We are not by nature inclined to take the alarmist's side of any public question, but a bulletin issued by the Census bureau makes the percentage of increase in insanity during the last decade 73.53, against an increase in population of only 28.86 per cent., which, we think, makes the question pertinent.

Every now and then a statement of some sort headed, "Surprised the Doctors," goes the round of the press. If our medical friends would only own up we dare say they meet with surprises in nearly every case they treat. The practice of medicine is not an exact science, nor is it one that can be entirely learned from books. When the physician receives his diploma he is just fairly entered upon his studies, and he ends them only when he dies or retires from practice.

In these days when partisan politics may be found in almost everything, it is a positive pleasure to note the unanimity with which the press of the United States has endorsed and stood by Secretary Blaine in the controversy with the Italian Government. It shows that although we may carry on bitter quarrels among ourselves about our home affairs, we are all Americans, and as such we are ready to stand shoulder to shoulder in opposition to any foreign power that may attempt to tread on the tails of Uncle Sam's coat.

Mr. Harrison, if one may judge from the published report of one of his Colorado speeches, has followed the example of Mr. Cleveland in intimating that he might change his mind on the silver question, at least that is the meaning we put upon this language: "I believe we shall find a common interest and safe ground upon all these great questions. By moderating our own views and making reasonable and just concessions we shall find them all settled wisely and in the true interests of the people." It is of course possible that Mr. Harrison referred to the silver men exclusively when he said "by moderating our views," as it is a part of human nature to believe that it is always the other fellow's views that need moderating.

President Harrison has returned safe and sound from his long trip. He finds plenty of work waiting for him, and if the fear expressed by many that Mr. Blaine will not be able to resume his duties until he takes a long trip is verified, he will find it extremely difficult to dispose of some of it, particularly that relating to foreign nations, much of which is at this time in an unfinished state, where it requires skillful handling if we are to maintain the prestige which Mr. Blaine has undoubtedly given us by his administration of the State department. Our Washington correspondent, writing to the NEWS concerning Mr. Blaine's stay in New York on account of illness, makes the following surprising statement: "I do not think that Mr. Blaine's health is in the condition that some people are trying to make the country think it is. He had his own reasons for remaining in New York a few days, and his health had nothing to do with it. See if you don't hear more about Blaine before long." We do not know just what our correspondent means by this, but if there is anything in it he will probably keep our readers posted concerning the matter.

The Dairy School.

The dairy school at Cuba which was announced for May 11th has been deferred one week later. It will begin on Tuesday, May 26, and last four days. The local committee consists of Chas. Guilford, C. F. Moulton and William Campbell. Persons who desire to enroll themselves for the school will confer a favor by sending their names to one of the committee. The sessions of the school will probably be held in Fireman's hall. L. D. Stowell has kindly consented to furnish a creamer, churn and butter worker, all of which will be utilized in the school. The lectures delivered and the work done will be thoroughly practical. Pupils will be expected to take notes and make themselves familiar with all the work. All are requested to attend, and young people especially are requested to enroll themselves as students.—Patriot.

INDEPENDENCE NEWS.

A fire in the stove is a great comfort these cold nights.

Ice formed ¼ of an inch thick Saturday night and Sunday forenoon. Overcoats were in demaud.

Elder J. Kenyon returned home from Hebron, Pa., last week Monday.

Elder and Mrs. H. D. Clarke attended the convention of the S. O. E. at Alfred Centre last week.

Mrs. Edson Clarke of Lanpheare Valley, attended church here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse O'Donnell of Hornellsville. were in town for several days last week.

Sunday, 17th inst., Dea. W. S. Livermore reached the 83d mile-post in his earthly pilgrimage, and is quite active for one of his age.

W. S. Ault and Tom Hunter have taken the job to cut about 300 cords of heads for cheese boxes, for Ladurna Jones of Whitesville.

Mrs. T. R. Bassett went to Akron, N. Y., last week, to join her husband, who has located at that place and engaged in the jewelry business.

Saturday night the G. A. R. boys met and perfected arrangements for decorating the graves of the fallen comrades, the 30th inst. Not being present I know nothing of their program.

See here, Norris, you exercised your inventive genius in the wrong direction when you told that "whopper" regarding the circus last week, but as you had the frankness to acknowledge the corn, you are entitled to half-a-dozen "complimentaries." [If you call that a "whopper" you ought to have heard some of the gilt-edged lies told by the circus men.—Ed. NEWS.]

Elder L. A. Platts, editor of the Recorder, Alfred Centre, occupied the pulpit of the S. D. B. church last Saturday, and in the evening he gave a talk before the Society of Christian Endeavor, and left for home Sunday.

The Elmira, N. Y., Telegram for next Sunday, May 24, will be printed on prismatic paper made to order for this special issue. It will be the most original, unique and popular paper ever presented to the American public. Nothing like it ever attempted by a newspaper in the nineteenth century. As a mechanical wonder and a military literary library there will be nothing to even compare with it issued in this country. An edition of over 200,000 of this newspaper novelty will be printed. No soldier of the late war can afford to be without a copy of this great, patriotic, and novel newspaper publication. It's worth ten times what it costs [illegible] to hand down [illegible]

"It isn't often that people can get a good farm journal, like the American Farmer, free for one year. We have just made arrangements whereby we will send it to any address for one year absolutely free of charge. You need to see a copy of this publication to realize that it is of inestimable value to you. Call at this office and see a sample copy.

THE DUST

Arising from the use of a broom on your carpets, and the unnecessary wear, may be done away with, and save you housekeepers many a weary arm and lame back. The new Cosmopolitan Sweepers, for which we have the exclusive sale, is the medium through which this result is accomplished. The dust is drawn into the pans by suction, and nothing escapes.

When you come in to look at our Carpetings, ask to see the Sweeper. Any purchaser not satisfied with the machine may return it. It isn't like the "Friendship Sweepers."

THE ANDOVER NEWS.

"Your Uncle" is here!

Read "A Sweet Revenge."

Farmers should use Cayuga land plaster when they can't get rain.

"Separation" and "Uncle Rube" next week. Secure your tickets at once.

A number of Andover veterans attended the meeting of the County G. A. R. at Wellsville Thursday.

Miss Nellie Potter and Mrs. Clarence O'Donnell visited friends in Hornellsville the latter part of last week.

Manager Prest has placed a brand new upright piano in the opera house. People may expect metropolitan performances next week.

E. W. Van Slyke of Friendship has moved to Lestershire, N. Y. He can give the people of that growing town some pointers about house building.

J. P. McGinty, who has been in Pittsburgh several months, is doing a lively business handling potatoes. Last week he handled several car loads of California tubers.

The usual Sunday Memorial services will be held this year at the M. E. church, with a sermon by Rev. G. W. Gibson. The services will be held next Sunday evening at the usual hour.

W. B. Bundy, manager of the dramatic club's entertainment next week, will personally refund the money to any and all who are not satisfied with the performance of "Uncle Rube" and "Separation."

The Equitable Life Assurance Society having secured the desired $2,000,000 of insurance from residents of Des Moines, Ia., through Mr. L. B. Durstine, its general agent there, is now fulfilling its promise regarding the erection of an office building in that city. Mr. Will H. Crandall represents the Equitable for Western New York.

I have a quantity of house mouldings on hand, and any one wishing anything in this line can be supplied promply.
E. L. HANN.

Expects
People will
All enjoy "Uncle
Rube" again,
And is sure
That "Separation"
Is a play
Of as many pleasing qualities.
Now be sure and see both.

"A Sweet Revenge."

We begin this week the publication of a serial story with the above title, from the pen of Hugh Conway. This is one of this celebrated author's best works, and we are sure it will prove an interesting feature in the NEWS for several weeks to come. Don't fail to read the opening chapters.

L. D. Cobb of Charlotte, Mich., is in town.

Cayuga land plaster is good to use in dry weather.

Mrs. M. L. Rumpff, editor of the Angelica Every Week, visited the family of the NEWS man last week.

The Erie railroad officials are giving the people a most satisfactory train service under the new timetable.

Forest fires raged to a great extent in this vicinity yesterday, and the smoke was almost thick enough to walk on.

The sale of seats for "Uncle Rube" and "Separation" has already begun at L. A. Burrows'. People from out of town will do well to order early.

Judge Norton will deliver the Memorial Day address at Angelica; Hon. D. P. Richardson will speak at Andover; District Attorney Brown will speak at Hume.

H. D. Smith and F. R. Hincher will represent Andover lodge No. 558, F. & A. M., at the laying of the corner stone of the Masonic home at Utica, which interesting event takes place to-morrow.

Wellsville voted to raise $15,000 to build a new school house. This with the insurance of $10,000 received from the building recently destroyed by fire, will give that place a $25,000 school building and apparatus.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Eva, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Miller of Bath, to Rev. James A. Miller of Angelica, formerly of West Greenwood, at the home of the bride's parents, May 21.

Frank Emery a few days ago found a dead lizard in the pond above the village, which measured 19 inches long and three inches wide. This is supposed to be the largest specimen of the kind in the world outside of E. O. Rogers' aquarium.

The village of Perry, near Silver Lake, had a $100,000 fire on Monday. The town happened to be out of fire apparatus, and Warsaw, Castile and Hornellsville were called on for help. While firemen from those places were getting there the fire got in its deadliest work.

H. W. Dowdney of Wellsville has been convicted of the crime of selling beer to minors and allowing them to play pool in his saloon. He was sentenced to six months in the county jail, but has appealed the case. It is said the evidence against him was very strong.

The anniversary of the great Johnstown flood of May 31, 1889, will be observed at Johnstown by a great gathering together of the organizations of the city, marching to the cemetery where 764 of the unidentified persons are buried. Orations, music and other things appropriate will be rendered.

The dwelling house owned by the Levi F. Rogers estate, occupied by S. Murray, which burned last week, was insured in the Andover agency, as was also Mr. Murray's household goods. Both losses have been satisfactorily adjusted, and the insurance will be promptly paid.

Arrangements are well under way for the observance of Memorial Day in Andover, and it is expected that the usual large attendance will be seen. The Hon. D. P. Richardson of Angelica will deliver the address, and many other interesting features will be placed on the program. Everybody should make arrangements to attend.

The Steuben-Allegany Christian Endeavor convention, held at Alfred Centre last Wednesday, was largely attended. There are in Steuben county 32 societies, and in Allegany 19, with a total membership of over 3,000. About 125 conversions have occurred in the societies during the past year. A large number of societies, particularly of Allegany county, were represented, and the reports from all were of a most encouraging nature.

The Seventh Day Adventists of the Pennsylvania Conference will hold their annual camp meeting and conference at Elmira, N. Y., on Water St., June 2 to 9, 1891. Public services will be held every day at 10:30 a. m. and at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. in a large pavillion erected especially for the purpose. Reduced rates on all the principal railroads. Representative men of the denomination will be present and speak. No charge for admission and everybody is invited.

Hop Soda, Ginger Ale and Gardner's Refined Cider at Harman's.

Mrs. S. T. Sheldon and son, of Providence, R. I., are visiting Mrs. Sheldon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Colegrove.

Frank Pettibone and wife of Friendship visited Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Phillips Saturday, returning Sunday morning.

Grace Dutcher, daughter of F. A. Dutcher, is in Hornellsville where an operation has been performed on her eyes.

Judge Norton held County Court in Buffalo last week, and Judge Ward occupied the Supreme Court bench for the first time at Mayville.

A. A. Porter will soon remove to Tioga, Pa., where he is engaged in the manufacture of cigars. Mrs. Porter is at present staying at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Frisbey.

"Uncle Rube" says he'll paralyze the NEWS if it gives him the same kind of notice it gave Rogers' show. We'll compromise by leaving off the post script. What say you to that, Mr. Sidman?

Mrs. D. K. Porter is ill at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Dell Hawkins, in Wellsville. She went to Belmont last week to attend the funeral of a relative, and being taken ill on the way home was obliged to stop at Wellsville.

The Big Dramatic Event.

The best performance ever given in Andover will be presented in Prest's new opera house next week Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, when "Separation" and "Uncle Rube" will be produced by Arthur C. Sidman and the Andover Dramatic Club. "Uncle Rube" will be presented by the same cast which produced it here with such grand results last February. "Separation" will be entrusted to the following people:

HARRY GRANTLEY, the husband.....Mr. J. E. Cannon
FLORENCE GRANTLEY, the wife.....Mrs. W. B. Bundy
BLANCH STERLING, an adventuress.....Miss Minnie Freeborn

In Memoriam.

Mrs. T. Barker died at her home in Andover, May 16, 1891, at 1:45 a. m., in the 41st year of her age. In February, 1890, she had la grippe, and since that time a malignant tumor, which caused her death, has been consuming her strength. Medical skill was sought at home, in Buffalo, Wisconsin, and other places, but gave her no permanent relief, for the chariot wheels of death were approaching. "Thou knowest 'tis common; all that live must die, passing through nature to eternity."

Mrs. Barker when in health was a regular attendant at the Baptist church and filled her place in the Sunday School. She was a thoughtful and reverent hearer of the word and regretted that she did not sooner resolve to cast every burden on the Lord. She took a deep interest in the work of the church she attended, and her cheerful presence and willing services will be missed by this society.

One of her two sisters, Mrs. Powers of Belmont, was present toward the last, but the other one, Mrs. Haskins, who resides in Wisconsin, could not endure the thought of coming with the prospect of finding her sister either unconscious or a corpse. Her kind husband, and devoted daughter, May B., now Mrs. Akin of Washington, Pa., and all mourning ones have the sympathy of their many friends. The Relief Corps, of which she was a member, attended in a body her funeral, which took place from her late residence Sunday afternoon, Rev. L. C. Davis officiating. The burial took place in the Bundy cemetery near this village.
