THE ANDOVER NEWS.

HAMILTON C. NORRIS, - EDITOR

ANDOVER, N. Y., MAY 27, 1891.

The third party got away from its leaders. Such men as Congressman Simpson, Gen. Weaver and President Polk of the Farmers' Alliance were opposed to a third party formation, at this time.

The New York Herald publishes a cock-and-bull story to the effect that Mr. Blaine's mind is giving away. On the same page it publishes an account of his treatment of the Italian complication. The one story sufficiently refutes the other.

The present centre of population of the United States, twenty miles east of Columbus, Indiana, has been marked by a handsome monument bearing the inscription "Centre of Population of United States." This is the second monument of the kind ever erected, the first being twenty-three miles west of the city of Washington, D. C., on the spot which was the centre of population in 1810.

The National Union Conference of Farmers' organizations in session last week at Cincinnati adopted a platform and inaugurated a party to be known as the "People's Party of the United States." The St. Louis and Ocala platforms were endorsed. Universal suffrage was recommended and a resolution favoring an eight-hour day was passed, but one favoring the abolition of the liquor traffic was defeated. A call for a national convention for the nomination of candidates for President and Vice President was agreed upon.

The Buffalo News says that the canal freight to New York on grain is 2½ cents per bushel and much of it is going forward by rail at that price. It does not say however, neither does any other Buffalo or Erie canal paper, that the people could shut up the canals, pay the freight on every pound transported by them out of the annual appropriation to the canal and have money left. Every assemblyman on the line of the canal, by favoring or killing other appropriations, logrolls for canal boodle. The thing is a stench to honest nostrils, but the steal goes on just the same.—Friendship Register.

An Expression of Confidence.

Geo. P. Rowell & Co., of New York, the publishers of the American Newspaper Directory, undertake to rate newspaper circulations very much as the mercantile agencies report the capital and credit of the business community. About one publisher in ten tells his exact issue with truthful precision. Some of the other nine decline to tell the facts because they assert that those who do tell are in the habit of lying. Geo. P. Rowell & Co., after an experience of more than twenty years, have come to the conclusion that this view cannot be sustained. In the 23d annual issue of their book, issued in April, they designate every paper that is rated in accordance with a detailed statement from the publisher; and offer to pay a hundred dollars for every instance which can be pointed out of a misstatement for which a publisher is responsible. The NEWS is one of the papers that is willing to have it known how many it prints and whose good faith the Directory publishers will guarantee.

Messrs. Rowell & Co. write us that an average of only one paper in nineteen has given such a straight-out statement of actual issues as the NEWS has.

"Engravings; how to estimate their cost," is the title of a profusely illustrated book just published by F. P. Burgin and Leon Barrett of the New York Press. The work gives the cost of engravings used in books, newspapers, magazines, and for commercial work, describing the process by which they are made. It is one of great value to the printing trade, enabling any one to give exact prices for any kind of illustration. The wood engravings in the volume are from the Century and Harper's Magazine. The lithographic and photogravure reproductions are elaborate and beautiful.

THE ANDOVER NEWS.

Trout fishing is excellent in this section.

New features and songs in "Uncle Rube."

Have you secured your seats for "Uncle Rube" and "Separation?"

The cornet band will help to make the music for Memorial day.

H. P. Benton's store building on Main street is being newly painted inside and out.

Cannon's orchestra has been improved by the addition of one or two pieces. Their music is first class.

P. C. Lynch is having his building on Greenwood street improved by building a new awning and making other changes.

A game of ball was played on the school grounds Saturday afternoon. The "Cincinnati Reds" won the game by a few scores.

"Separation" to-night, "Uncle Rube" Thursday night, "Separation" again Friday night, and "Uncle Rube's" last appearance Saturday night.

A tennis club is being formed in town. Tennis is one of the most pleasurable and healthful games known, for either ladies or gentlemen.

The prettiest stage settings, best music, most gorgeous costumes ever seen in Andover, at the new opera house this week, commencing to-night.

A. O'Donnell has received blank forms for application for bounty on maple sugar production, and if any of our readers desire to apply for the said bounty, Mr. O'Donnell will be prepared to furnish them the necessary blanks.

The County Lodge of Good Templars will meet at West Almond, June 9 and 10. Mrs. Emma Conn, J. W. Richardson and Frank Miner are the delegates elected from the Andover lodge, and Maud Wescott, Will Barney and Ella Beebe are alternates.

The Farmers' Club picnic is to be held in Cuba on Wednesday, June 3. D. B. Sill will deliver the opening address and President Lienhard will respond. Coffee will be served to all bringing cups. The farmers who desire to enjoy a day of genuine pleasure should make arrangements to attend, as it is a well known fact that these picnics are all they are advertised to be, and more too. Uriah Davis and J. W. Richardson are the Andover members of the general committee.

Don't forget "Uncle Rube" and "Separation."

Mr. Sidman admits that he never made better local dramatic talent than Andover possesses, and in about nine cases out of ten it is not as good.

A ball game is soon to be played between the clerks and proprietors in this village. The game will probably be played next week Thursday. Look out for lots of fun.

Maple sugar producers who intend to make sugar in the spring of 1892, under the bounty provisions, are required to file their notices and execute their bonds before July 1st.

Grand Holiday performance of "Uncle Rube" Decoration Day at Prest's new opera house. Curtain will rise at 8 o'clock on the funniest play ever written.

A gospel temperance meeting will be held at Union Hall next Wednesday evening, under the direction of the Good Templars. An invitation to be present is extended to all.

The Fidelity and Casualty Company has secured the privilege of selling all the accident insurance tickets on the lines of the St. Paul Railway Company after May 1st. The Travelers has had this plum on the St. Paul lines for the past twenty years.—Investigator, Chicago. Will H. Crandall represents the above company in Allegany County.

There is already a large advance sale of seats for the dramatic performances this week. Indications point to the largest houses of the season.

Charles Warner, a young man of 18 years, who lives with his parents on Arkport street in Hornellsville, was killed instantly Sunday forenoon in Canaseraga. In company with a number of other boys he caught on a freight to go to Portage. At Canaseraga he was jumping off when a lurch of the train threw him under the wheels. He was decapitated, a leg cut off and otherwise mutilated.

The memorial services held last Sunday evening at the M. E. church were largely attended, Seaman Post, G. A. R., Lincoln Camp, S. V. and the Ladies' Relief Corps being present in a body. Appropriate musical selections were sung, and a powerful sermon was preached by Rev. G. W. Gibson. Rev. G. M. Janes assisted in the services. After the sermon a collection was taken for the Grant monument fund.

The Andover NEWS gives E. O. Rogers' circus a grand send off, and then adds as a p. s., "The above is an unmitigated lie." It says the man in the ballon wasn't in it. The most successful feature of the day was the shell game. If people like humbugging Rogers ought to get rich in about two weeks. If Rogers gets a few more such affectionate notices he will have to, like the Arab, fold his tent and steal silently away to other fields of humbuggery.—Coba Patriot.

Program for Memorial Day.

Seaman Post, the Sons of Veterans, and the Woman's Relief Corps are requested to meet at the Post rooms at 10 a. m., and to bring material for luncheon to be served at 11:30. Seaman Post and Sons of Veterans will march from Union Hall at 1:30 for the school grounds, thence by Greenwood and Main streets to the cemetery, the Relief Corps falling into line at Union hall. Upon arrival at the cemetery the graves will be decorated and after services the salute will be fired. The line of march will then be taken up for Prest's opera house, where seats will be reserved for the organizations in line, Seaman Post halting at Greenwood street and being the last to enter the hall. After a short service will come the reading of the Roll of Honor, music, &c., the exercises closing with an address by Hon. D. P. Richardson.

Memorial Services at Alfred Centre.

We are indebted to John F. Langworthy, Commander of B. F. Maxson Post, G. A. R., for a program of Memorial Services to be held at Alfred Centre. The annual Memorial sermon will be given by the pastor, Rev. T. R. Williams, at the First Alfred church at 11 o'clock a. m., May 30.

Sunday, May 31. Memorial service will be held in the church at 2 o'clock p. m., with a program consisting of prayer, music, reading, roll of honor, &c., and an address by Judge E. W. Hatch. After these exercises the column will be formed and march to the cemetery.

In the evening there will be a patriotic literary and musical entertainment in the church, the program including prayer, music, recitations, readings, and an address by Prof. W. R. Prentice.

Sutton's Photograph Gallery.

Personal.

Will H. Crandall of Alfred Centre, was in town Monday.

Rev. W. M. Veenschoten of Hornellsville, will exchange pulpits next Sunday with Rev. G. M. Janes.

School Commissioner Pollard visited the schools in this vicinity last week. Of course he found them all flourishing.

Mrs. Jason Hunt of Andover, is stopping for a few days at her daughter's, Mrs. Chas. F. Hough.—Alfred Sun.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Watson of West Almond, visited Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Robinson last week from Thursday till Saturday.

W. C. Lever has so far recovered from his recent attack of grip and inflammatory rheumatism as to be able to sit up. Hope to see him on the streets soon.

C. H. Richardson, Erie station agent at Wellsville, is at his home in this village on leave of absence, by reason of ill health. He is improving and it is hoped will be able to resume his duties soon.

Rev. Willard Parsons, manager of the New York Tribune's fresh air excursions, was in town last week, to make arrangements for the entertainment of some of the "freshies" in this place during the coming summer.

D. D. Remington, J. C. Cartwright, L. D. Cobb and County Clerk Green went fishing yesterday over beyond Whitesville. They were gone all day and didn't take any lunch basket. By the way, some one says if you you want to bring on a rain storm, you can do it by getting the County Clerk to go fishing.

M. A. Woodbury started on train one Monday night for Ord, Nebraska, where he will engage in business. Of course we all wish him success, but we would not at all be displeased if he should find the climate out there disagreeable and return to Andover. This place can't afford to lose him. He was accompanied by Dell Chapman of Greenwood.

This Should be Done.

The organizations most interested in the observance of Memorial Day, will through the NEWS, to request the business men of Andover to close their respective places of business between the hours of 1 and 4 p. m. on Memorial Day, believing that such action will tend in a great degree to make successful the effort to observe this day in a becoming manner.

WISPS FROM WELLSVILLE.

DEAR NEWS:—Walter L. Main's circus has come and gone, and so has the crowd, and no doubt there are some who wish they hadn't. I mean some who wish they hadn't come and gone, who think now that Wellsville's public building is not worth the price of admission, some who think the architectural design is rather faulty, and we are not going to quarrel with them about it either.

And we want to let the Andover citizens know that the Cincinnati Reds, or the Queens of the Emerald Diamond, alias female ballet—isn't that correct? If not we will simply say some females claiming to hail from Cincinnati have been to Wellsville and burlesqued the national game in nine style. Do you want to know who patronized the show? Alas, their number were legion. Who did not? Well, you could hardly count them on the fingers of one hand, but the fingers of both hands—well that is different. Most of them went to take care of the rest. To the honor of the Y. M. C. A. team, be it said, they refused to play, but there were enough picked up who did.

Police Justice Whitwood has been very kind in furnishing out of town boarding places for some of our residents, who, during the recent warm wave, came near collapsing. Some of them like it and some of them don't. One instance where the free hearted justice engaged board for his patron for six months, and it wasn't to cost him a cent either, the man was said to have bawled right out, and nobody counted the handkerchiefs used to mop his weeping eyes during the next twenty-four hours. Even the whiskey dealer finds Wellsville a hard road to travel sometimes.

Dr. H. H. Nye, who had a long siege with la grippe, and is now suffering from nervous prostration from its effects, is said to be better to-day. The doctor is a familiar figure on our streets and would be sadly missed—perhaps no man in town, or even county, more, and it is the earnest wish of all that he may soon be on our streets again.

There are still many sick here, but not as many as two weeks ago, as measles have about subsided, for the reason that everybody has had them.

We were in your town a few days since and regretted that time and tide would not allow us to give the NEWS a friendly call. By the way, Mr. Agent of Andover, Depot, while we may not know where the much-abused Moses was when the lights went out, we do know where some ladies were while waiting for the train not long since. They were in the waiting room and in the dark, decidedly. Light up, Mr. Agent, oil isn't very high. O.
