THE ANDOVER NEWS.

HAMILTON C. NORRIS, — EDITOR

ANDOVER, N. Y., JUNE 3, 1891.

The Friendship Register says Geo. A. Green will have a walk-over at the polls for a second term of the County Clerkship. That is one statement the Register has made that nobody disputes.

"Gov. Hill of New York is trying the virtue of a new hair restorer." He may be bald himself, but he appears to have the faculty of raising other people's hair, judging from the political scalps at his belt.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

The canals of New York are a fruitful source of political corruption. It is said to be a condition of employment that every lock-tender and laborer shall control a specified number of votes, twenty or more, for the politicians who secure his appointment.

One of the large New York dailies gives one page to the reports of Decoration-day services in honor of the dead and two pages to descriptions of Decoration-day sports. That is about the right proportion—one part mourning to two parts sport is the composition of Decoration Day as it has grown to be.—Buffalo Express.

It was at Salt Lake City that President Harrison said: "The foundation of American Life is the American home, where one wife sits in single, uncrowned glory." It was a brave thing to say in the Mormon capital, and the American people will honor the President for his courage in declaring his convictions on the marriage question.

At Owensboro, Ky., a gang of roughs attacked the Grand Army men who were decorating the soldiers' graves on Saturday, and tore up the floral emblems. Such an affair is a disgrace to any State. The blood of Grand Army men throughout the country will boil when they hear of it. Two of the leaders of the gang were mortally wounded in the conflict and are beyond human punishment, but it will be a lasting dishonor to Kentucky if the others are not made to feel the power of the law.

Candidates for the several offices to be filled this fall are becoming more numerous every day. The following persons have announced themselves as candidates for sheriff: Messrs. N. B. Sherman, Canadea; O. F. Rowley, Bolivar; Geo. Nobles, Wellsville; David H. Norton, Friendship. For Member of Assembly, Mark M. Congden, of Clarksville; A. B. Cottrell, Richburg; Dr. W. K. Paul and C. S. Whitney, of Belmont, have been mentioned. The numerous candidates for Superintendent of the Poor include the present incumbent, Wm. Weaver; ex-Supt. E. D. Barnum, the present Sheriff, W. J. Garwood, Angelica; and Sidney Crandall, of Whitesville.

FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF THE POOR.

Sidney Crandall of Whitesville, was in Andover last week and announced that he was a candidate for the office of Superintendent of the Poor of this county. Mr. Crandall says the outlook is favorable for his success in securing the nomination. In the towns he has visited thus far he finds a large element in his favor. It would be pleasing to Mr. Crandall's many friends in this and other towns if he should be nominated and elected. He is fully qualified to perform the duties of the office, and his record as an honest man and faithful Republican is above reproach. It is anybody's race this year, and it will not be surprising if the roll-call of delegates shows a majority for Mr. Crandall. Certainly the people would be assured that in such an event the duties of the office would be performed in a manner most satisfactory to the people and creditable to the incumbent.

Do You See the Point?

Belmont streets, side walks and other public conveniences were never in better condition. It is as handsome a town as there is in the state.—Belmont Post.

Very true, perhaps, but your people are heavily burdened to pay the enormous taxes required to keep things in good shape. The village officers are extravagant, insurance costs more than it is worth, and none but the rich can afford to submit to the outrageous demands made upon their pockets to pay the village expenses. The people ought to rise in their might and rid themselves of the abuses, and——

What's that you say? "Taxes are not as high as under the old system, insurance rates are comparatively low, the village officers are economical and account for every cent paid into the treasury, and the people are prosperous and happy." Is that really so? We have been led to think differently. But come to think of it, if what you say isn't true, the people wouldn't be slow to return to old methods. Guess not!

INDEPENDENCE NEWS.

Mrs. Jesse Witter of Andover, was a guest at the parsonage last Wednesday.

Mrs. A. P. Saunders and nephew Leon LaForge, of Alfred Centre, were guests of Mrs. Saunders' son, Mr. Oscar Potter, last week.

Elder and Mrs. H. D. Clarke were visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Austin at Spring Mills last Thursday.

Last week Tuesday night
Old Jack Frost feared he was lost,
While wandering near Gehenna,
So turned about and changed his route
Through "Grand Old Allegany."

The long drouth was broken by a copious shower of rain last Friday, and vegetation looks as "bright as a daisy kissed by the dew."

Mr. Steven Coats recently had a leg broken by a heavy beam falling upon it, while he was assisting in raising a lean-to on his barn. Drs. Remington and Titus reduced the fracture and the patient is doing well.

Elder Kenyon returned home from Hebron, Pa., last week Wednesday, via Shingle House, where he called to see his brother, Amos, who is slowly dying of Bright's disease of the kidneys.

Mrs. Barbara Kingsley of Wiscoy, N. Y., the aged sister of Dea. W. S. Livermore, arrived in town last week Wednesday, and is visiting her numerous friends and relatives in company with her brother, Edmund Livermore of New Market, N. J., whose arrival I chronicled last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jacobs of Whitesville, made your reporter's family a short call Sunday. Jud reported a heavy fall of rain at Whitesville Saturday night, but this section received but little benefit in that respect.

Mr. Ed. Lanphear is said to be a very sick man. Cause, rheumatism.

SOME GUMPTION.

CORWIN HILL NEWS.

The sick ones are all improving except Miss Payne, who was worst at last report.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Duke of Wellsville, made a short call on relatives in this vicinity one day last week.

Mr. David Bullard went to Greenwood the first of this week, to build a barn for Wisner Cook.

Mr. Joseph O'Donnell of Potter Co., Pa., was in this place on business last week.

B. C. Cole, W. Diffin and A. Moland are pressing hay in this vicinity.

Unclaimed Letters.

The following is a list of letter remaining in the Andover post office May 31, 1891:

Frank Annin, Mrs. Mary Green, Geo. Gregg, Gordon E. McCoy.

Persons calling for the above will please say "advertised."

J. C. GREEN, P. M.

Obstruction on the Track.

Floyd Davis, aged about 15, who has been working for F. M. Lee of Tip Top, was arrested yesterday and brought before Esquire Kinney of this place, charged with an attempt to wreck a train of cars by placing a broken coupling link on the rail at a point near the town line between Andover and Alfred. The boy admitted the deed, but denied the intent to do harm. The case was adjourned to 1 o'clock this afternoon when an examination will take place.

Ed. LaMonte, who published the Whitesville Herald a short time ago, attempted suicide a few days ago, by taking poison. The dose was not sufficient to kill him. He is now publisher of the Nunda Times.

It isn't often that people can get a good farm journal, like the American Farmer, free for one year. We have just made arrangements whereby we will send it to any address for one year absolutely free of charge. You only need to see a copy of this publication to realize that it is of inestimable value to you. Call at this office and see a sample copy.

The Belmont Post says the Good Templars Insurance Company is contesting the claim for Insurance on the life of Samuel Kemp of this place, who was found dead last fall.

Miss Lottie Brown expected to entertain the Epworth League and her friends this week Friday evening, but for many reasons the event has been postponed a short time.

Canaseraga is to have a bank, and the Times celebrates the event in advance by printing a rooster over the announcement. It's all right, make folks think you have money to deposit if you can, brother Miller.

Rev. Father B. B. Gratton of Rexville, celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of his admittance to the Priesthood, last Tuesday. A large number of priests from abroad were present, and a right royal time was had. He received a large number of presents, many of which were very costly.—Canisteo Times.

The reports from the different parts of the state as to the result of the Arbor Day vote on the state flower seems to indicate that the rose has carried the day by a large majority. At all events the rose is far ahead in the country districts and in the smaller cities and villages, and the larger cities will have to come in with large majorities for the golden rod to overcome the rose's lead.

The publishers of the Buffalo Express say: "This paper has no friends to reward nor enemies to punish. It has no axes of its own to grind. It seeks no political favors. It is Republican in National and State politics, but always sets measures and principles above men and place party names. It expects to succeed solely by pleasing its readers and advertisers, but it will never sacrifice truth and honesty to do even this."

COL. CURTIS' DEATH.

It Occurred at Cuba Where He was Conducting a Dairy School.

(Special to the NEWS.)

CUBA, N. Y., June 1.—Col. F. D. Curtis, who is well known as a conductor of Dairy Schools and a writer and lecturer upon dairy topics, died here during a session of the Dairy School of which he was a conductor. He was taken ill with heart trouble while speaking, and was obliged to go to the hotel, where he died soon afterward. His remains were sent to his home on Saturday, the G. A. R. Post acting as escort to the depot.

OTHER NOTES.

Everything is in readiness for the Farmers' pic nic at the Cuba camp grounds Wednesday.

Fishermen are having great sport at Lake Cuba this season. Bass weighing from two to five pounds being caught every day and bullheads by the bushel.

Jake Kilrain, the pugilist, was walking our streets one day last week.

Miss Beulah Forbes spent Decoration Day in Andover, and while there decorated the grave of her grandfather, Chas. Campbell. She reports Andover quite a lively place. F.

Memorial Day Exercises.

The observance of Memorial Day in Andover was very successful and highly satisfactory to all concerned. A large crowd of people was in town, and the program was carried out substantially as announced. At 1:30 Seaman Post G. A. R., Lincoln Camp S. V., and the W. R. C. marched to the cemetery, where the usual exercises were held, and the soldiers' graves were decorated with flowers. The column then formed and marched to Prest's opera house, which was soon filled to its full capacity. The exercises were opened with a song entitled "Let Them Sleep," followed by prayer by Rev. G. W. Gibson. Then the song "Dropping from the Ranks" was rendered, after which Commander Boyd introduced the Hon. D. P. Richardson of Angelica, who delivered a most eloquent, logical and pleasing address, which was listened to with close attention. It is safe to say that no one who could have been invited to speak would have interested the audience more, and it is fortunate for our people that Mr. Richardson was able to be present. After the song "They Rest in Peace," Rev. G. M. Janes pronounced the benediction.

The choir was composed of the following persons: Mrs. A. M. Burrows, Miss Flora Bundy, Messrs A. P. Wood, W. Oatley, R. Hardy; Miss Minnie Clair, pianist.

"Uncle Rube" and "Separation."

There isn't much that is new to say concerning the production of "Uncle Rube" by Arthur C. Sidman and the Andover dramatic club, last week at Prest's opera house, except that the play was produced with new scenery, especially adapted for this production, and gave if possible better satisfaction than when played here in February by the same people. It is a better entertainment than is usually given here by traveling companies, and no one in the large audiences found any criticisms necessary. The play is brim-full of fun and wit, with a score of interesting situations and pleasing scenes. Mr. Sidman has a play which never fails to please an audience, and the fact that the leading part is always played by himself is a sufficient guarantee that it is always played as it should be, especially if he happens to have the support of first-class talent, like that which supported him here.

"Separation is a first-class society drama and not nearly as funny as "Uncle Rube," but which affords ample opportunity for the display of dramatic talent, and we doubt if it could be presented with better effect by any company than it was last week by those who played it here. This is also the opinion of outsiders who were present.

The music by Cannon's orchestra was superb, and added much to the success of the entertainment. It is a first-class organization and the people are proud of it.
