When you cast a slur on Religion, stop and think whether you have any-thing better to offer the poor wayfarer to guide, him through this life in ways of peace and respectability. Of all the thousands who are doing their best to tar down Christianity, who offers to tear down Christianity, who offers to brild up a better and astronger temple than that they would destroy? Were you in a house with a family of children, would you, while a force eterm raged outside, tear its shelter from over their heaks, Because it was not perfoci in its architecture, if you had no other house of safety into which to conduct your family? As a rule, it is not well to change a faith in middle or nature life, which has thus far carried a soul in safety through videstindes and temptations.
