THE ANDOVER NEWS.

HAMILTON C. NORRIS, - EDITOR

ANDOVER, N. Y., JUNE 17, 1891.

~~Amos Cummings makes much crisp~~ newspaper matter; but whether he can make Crisp Speaker of the House ~~remains to be seen.~~

New York has a hard time erecting a monument to anybody, but her twin sister, Brooklyn, erects monuments even to her living citizens.

The head of the Great Northern Pacific railroad is only forty years old. He began his career as a surveyor's rodman. Who would not be proud to live in a country where such progress is possible?

Mr. Blaine has got the W. C. T. U. after him, and he will probably find it more troublesome than the gout. The ladies object to his efforts for the introduction of American beer and whiskey into South and Central America.

Pennington, the air-ship inventor, now says that he will make his first extended trip on the Fourth of July. He doesn't say whether he will travel by rail or boat, so that it is fair to assume that he actually expects to go in his air-ship.

Senator Sherman's proposed new residence will not be built until the Ohio legislature has decided upon his successor. Meanwhile the Senator will devote his exclusive attention to fencing in that recently erected Ohio barn. Senator Sherman has a good memory, and has not forgotten the part a new and elegant residence in Washington took in retiring the late Senator Windom from the United States Senate, a few years ago.

The great city newspapers are, as usual at this season of the year, wasting much space in telling the farmers how to profitably run their farms. As reciprocity is the order of the day the farmers should devote some of their spare time, if they ever get such a commity, to telling the editors of the big dailies how to run their papers. The advice in one case would be equally as valuable as in the other.

For years it has been stated and re-stated in the colums of presumably well informed newspapers that Sir John Macdonald was the only obstacle to the peaceful annexation of Canada to the United States. Now that Sir John is dead we shall watch with interest the movements of the annexationists both in Canada and the United States, in order to ascertain how much truth there was in these oft repeated assertions.

These words of President Polk of the National Farmers' Alliance are at this time suggestive: "We are not making war on any political party, but simply teaching the people how to get relief as laid down in our platform." And for several months to come President Polk will take a hand personally in teaching the people. There are to be large mass meetings held in forty states this summer, besides a large corps of speakers are to be kept constantly at work addressing small meetings in isolated communities. Whatever the outcome, this certainly looks like business.

The Democratic Senators and the Democratic editors are not in accord concerning the desirability of again making Mr. Cleveland the standard bearer of that party. If there is a single Democratic Senator who champions the cause of Mr. Cleveland he is doing it so quietly that we have not heard of him, while nearly every Democratic Senator has put himself on record as believing that Mr. Cleveland should not be nominated. Democratic editors, particularly those controlling country papers, which as a rule closely represent the opinions of their constituents, appear to think that Mr. Cleveland will and should be nominated.

Representative McCreary, of Kentucky, is strongly in favor of the election of President and Vice President and United States Senators by direct vote of the people, and so are about seven out of every ten individuals whose opinion is asked.

County Lodge, I. O. G. T.

[The following report was received so late that we are obliged to cut it down to some extent in order to publish this week.—Ed. NEWS.]

Allegany County Lodge, I. O. G. T. held its twenty-eight quarterly session with Good Will Lodge at West Almond, June 9 and 10, C. W. Stevens, County Chief Templar, in the chair.

The reports from lodges were in most cases encouraging. Two lodges reported that they had been largely the means of carrying their towns for no license, one of which towns has nearly the largest Good Templar membership in the county, and a large imposing hotel whose proprietor boarded up his windows with rough hemlock boards, because he could not sell liquor, and no doubt thought he was disgracing the town. Another lodge reported that they had joined hands with the Royal Templars, and had some cases on trial in the county court for selling cider in the hotels. One other item of interest is the reformation of the son of one of our statesmen. He told a friend he never felt that anyone cared what became of him, or that it made any difference to anyone what he did. But since he has been persuaded to join the Good Templars he felt that he had found a home and that the members were indeed his brothers and sisters.

The Secretary's report showed the membership to be 806, a gain of 16 over last quarter, and about 240 Juvenile Templars, also that the County Lodge was free from debt and had $30.91 in the hands of its treasurer.

The evening session was held in the Methodist church, which was filled to overflowing with Good Templars and friends of temperance. The address of welcome was given by sister Martha Adams of the West Almond Lodge, and the response by the County Chief Templar. Bro. S. H. Davis of Alfred Centre, Grand Lodge lecturer of this state, then gave an address that was listened to with intense interest, until the close air of the room and the fumes of tobacco coming in at the open door made Brother Davis ill and he had to leave the room. West Almond sang a song, after which the congregation joined in singing and were then dismissed.

C. W. Stevens, C. C. T., was chosen delegate to the Grand Lodge, and A. A. McCarn alternate. W. H. Bassett of Alfred Centre Lodge, No. 165, and Sister Carrie Allen of Belmont Lodge, No. 319, were recommended for our County Deputy and County Superintendent of Juvenile Temples. The County Degree was conferred on thirteen candidates.

Adjourned to meet with P. A. Burdick Lodge at Alfred Centre, Sept. 8 and 9, 1891. After the close of the session a Juvenile Temple was started with 28 members.

AN INTERESTING LETTER.

Written from Andover—Strong Testimonial for Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root.

ANDOVER, N. Y., May 3, 1891.

DR. KILMER:—

Dear Sir: I thought I would write you a few lines and tell you how much we think of your remedies. About three years ago my husband commenced to fail very rapidly with kidney trouble. He lost his appetite and became so weak that the least exertion would cause him to lie down. He could scarcely walk. He doctored with all the local physicians here, but without getting any relief. He gave up and said that he could not live three months. One day we received one of your 'Guides to Health" through the mail, and I persuaded him to get a bottle of your Swamp Root and try it. Before he had taken the whole of the first bottle we could see a change for the better. He kept up the treatment for some time, until he was able to do considerable work, and to-day he is so much improved that it is not necessary for him to take the medicine all the time, and he can walk a mile and a half to the village and back.

We have also tried your Indian Cough Cure, and never found anything that could beat it. I noticed in our "Guide to Health" that you would send six beautiful cards and a picture of yourself. We would be very glad to get your picture, as we are certain he would have been in his grave, if it had not been for your Swamp Root. We recommend your medicines everychance we get.

Mrs. D. B. LEE.

New arrival of ladies' slippers and low tie shoes at Phillips'. Call and see them.

The Andover base ball team expect to hold a dance on the evening of July 3. Get ready to "circle 'round."

Read the ad. of the Andover grist mill.

The ladies of the Baptist church and society will serve ice cream next Tuesday (Commencement Day) on Mrs. N. Clair's lawn.

Five men have been killed by the cars at Canaseraga within three weeks. Two Italians, who were killed Sunday, were the latest victims.

Beebe, Williams & Co. will pay the highest price for wool.

Frank R. Utter has been appointed postmaster at Friendship, in place of Robert A. Scott, resigned. Mr. Scott had six months more to serve had he been so inclined.

The Andover Cornet Band will serve ice cream Saturday evening of this week on W. E. Chase's lawn on Elm street. Follow the crowd and the music and get some good cream.

Ladies call and see the new stock of slippers at W. H. Phillips'.

Delos Remington has a weather bulletin in front of his store. This week it is filled with weather predictions which are warranted to prove true. We may expect rain about June 20th. P.S.—The rain came yesterday.

The Bradford Era says: "The well at Greenwood Centre, Steuben county, N. Y., drilled by the citizens of that place, has been completed and is totally dry. This well is on a northeast line with the Allegany county development."

Sheriff Garwood and E. D. Barnum of Angelica, have each published a card stating that they are out of the race for Superintendent of the Poor. This narrows down the contest to two candidates—Wm. Weaver, the present Superintendent, and Sidney Crandall of Whitesville.

When you want a good cigar call on Beebe, Williams & Co.

Monday evening Dr. O'Donnell was driving home after drawing been out in the country. When he arrived at the "flat iron" on Greenwood street the whiffletree broke and fell on the horse's heels. The horse became unmanageable and ran furiously. The doctor, seeing that it was impossible to control the horse, concluded to jump, which he did, alighting on his right side and arm, which was consequently bruised, but no serious results are looked for.

Large quantities of ice are now being shipped to Hornellsville from Prangen's ice house at the pond above this village.

Chas. Thomas, of Scio, aged 12, was drowned while bathing on Monday. Boys can't be too careful about going into the water beyond their depth, or when perspiring.

All the newspapers in the county concede a second term to County Clerk Green without exception. He has made an excellent record in the office and if it was not for political lines there wouldn't be any votes against him.—Belmont Post.

The band benefit which was to have been given this week Friday and Saturday evenings has been dropped and no entertainment will be given. The reason is announced to be failure to secure a sufficient number of people to take part.

The Hornellsville correspondent to the Elmira Advertiser says: Attorney Chas. A. Dolson of this city has been appointed counsel to the State Dairy Commission for entire western New York. This is a very responsible and honorable, but none the less lucrative position.

The measles have interfered to a great extent with school work during the past few weeks, and there is no material improvement at present. About every pupil in the school has been exposed, and those who never had the disease are now finding out how funny it is.

"I havn't got time!" was the salutation received by a young gentleman from Andover who stepped into a store in Alfred a few days ago to make a purchase. The man who said it was the proprietor and he was in the back part of the store swapping stories with somebody.

A base ball nine has been organized in this village. It is composed of the following people: L. A. Burrows, Timothy Regan, Frank Miner, W. E. Chase, J. R. M. Barrett, Jas. Hammond, R. Salisbury, Frank Emery, Joseph Brown. W. B. Bundy was elected manager of the team.

Don't forget to attend the graduating exercises next Tuesday afternoon at Prest's opera house. The following are the names of the members of the graduating class: John M. Boyd, Mary T. Cannon, Jennie L. Comstock, Minnie B. Hall, Daniel S. McGinty, Marguerite McAndrew, Frederic S. Potter, Jesse S. Phillips, Timothy J. Regan, Nancy B. Raplee, Mary Snyder, Raymond E. Smith.

At the term of Supreme Court held last week in Angelica, two "milk cases" were tried which resulted in a complete vindication of the farmers who had been accused of sending diluted milk to cheese factories. The juries promptly returned verdicts of "No cause of action," and it is said the bottom has suddenly dropped out of a large number of actions that had been brought against farmers in the northern part of this county.

A new departure has been instituted in Wayland, Steuben county, that might profitably be adopted in Andover. The "laying on of hands" for certain complaints, especially in children, is now taking the place of christian science. A mother cured her son of the cigarette habit one day last week with one dose. She laid her left hand on the boy's neck and her right hand on her slipper and laid the slipper where it would do the most good. It effected a cure and a relapse is not looked for.

John H. Barker died at his home in Hornellsville last week Tuesday evening, after a long and painful illness. The deceased formerly lived in Andover, and married Adelia, a daughter of Lewis Green of this place, who, with two sons and one daughter, survive him. He did service in the 86th and 141st regiments of New York Volunteers, and has held a position in the treasury department at Washington. His funeral was held Thursday afternoon, under the management of the I. O. O. F. of Hornellsville.

Rev. Father Brown is slowly gaining strength.

O. M. Kemp of Crystal, Pa., was in town the latter part of last week.

W. C. Lever is gaining his health quite rapidly. He walked down town Friday morning.

Mrs. A. J. Hibbard of Angelica visited Miss Fannie Spaulding a few days during the past week.

Mrs. Preston has been quite ill for some days past. At last accounts she was slightly improved.

Mr. Jennings, of the firm of Roth & Jennings, oil producers of Bradford, was in town last Thursday.

L. G. Backus of the Bliss Publishing House, Alfred Centre, was in town Saturday and called on the NEWS.

Mr and Mrs. Grant Tompkins of Wayland spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Chase. Mrs. Tompkins was well known here as Miss Carrie Chase.

Frank Gilder was called home to Dansville last week by the death of his mother, who died on Monday and was buried Wednesday. Frank returned home Thursday.

Prof. H. A. Benedict of Bolivar spent Sunday with W. H. Phillips. His school year at Bolivar has closed and the Professor will now retire from teaching. He has accepted a responsible position with a manufacturing firm near New York.

GARFIELD COCHRANE.

Union Prohibition League.

Societies named as above are being extensively organized in Pennsylvania, and efforts are being made to extend the organization to other states. The following declaration of object and principles will perhaps best explain the character of the organization:

OBJECT:—The suppression of the saloon. This by

1. The strict enforcement of existing laws.

2. The early enactment of more stringent and prohibitory statutes.

3. The final adoption of Constitutional Prohibition for State and Nation.

DECLARATION:—

1. Primary Allegiance to God and humanity, to Country and Commonwealth. All party affiliation subordinate to these higher claims.

2. Liberty to choose political associations, but freedom from the dominion of the liquor power, through whatever political party.

Union services were held last Sunday evening by the Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian churches of this place, with a sermon by Rev. G. W. Gibson, who spoke at length concerning the Union Prohibition League, explaining its manner of working and strongly urging the formation of a League in Andover. Mr. Gibson argued that the suppression of the liquor traffic could not be accomplished by either or any of the political parties, and gave his reasons for so thinking, discussing the matter with reference to each party separately, and alleging that a party that would work the reform hadn't the power, and a party that had the power wouldn't use it. He claimed that the organization of this League, if the temperance voters and temperance workers of this place would join, would be a power that no man would fail to recognize, and which would have ample power and opportunity to at least enforce existing laws. Those who heard him were deeply impressed by his earnestness, and he made a strong plea for the adoption of this plan.

It is proposed to make further efforts to complete an organization, and appearances now indicate that the scheme will be successful. Further announcements will no doubt be made soon, and the NEWS will give its readers all available information as the work progresses.

This seems a most practical way of doing effective temperance work, and no man or woman who desires the suppression of the liquor traffic should fail to act promptly and vigorously. Now is the opportunity—do not let it pass unnoticed.

Rev. Father Walsh.

J. Driscoll, who was in Buffalo a few days ago, went to see Rev. Father Walsh, with whom he spent several hours in a very pleasant manner. It is evident that Father Walsh has not forgotten Andover and her people, if we may judge from the fact that he inquired about them in a very interested manner, Mr. Driscoll saying that he believes he mentioned the name of every family in town during the time he was with him, and wished to be kindly remembered to all. While Mr. Driscoll was there Father Walsh's mail was brought in and contained a copy of the ANDOVER NEWS of current date. Father Walsh said he derived much pleasure from reading the NEWS each week, and thought he was able to draw a map of Andover with all the improvements made since he left here.

The kindly feeling entertained by Father Walsh for the people of Andover is not less in degree than that of the people toward him, and he retains a very warm place in our hearts which grows not less warm as the years roll by.
