THE ANDOVER NEWS.

HAMILTON C. NORRIS, - EDITOR

ANDOVER, N. Y., JULY 8, 1891.

Dan Lamont makes a prediction. It is that Harrison and Cleveland will be the nominees of their respective parties next year.

An exchange says there are thirteen murderers awaiting trial in Livingston county. Thirteen victims, at least, have been unlucky, and the rest of the people will be if the thirteen guilty ones are not brought to justice.

An exchange says one very important fact has been brought out by the last census, which is of vital importance to farmers. It is that the population of cities has increased 57 per cent during the last ten years, while the rural population has grown only 14 per cent. In other words the food consumers have increased four times as much as the food producers. If these facts mean anything, they mean there are better times ahead for the farmers. More food is needed and they must supply it. Let them get ready for it by improving their farms and methods.

Somebody is in a hole. The Angelica Republican charged ex-Superintendent of the Poor Barnum with saying bad things about Joe Norton and the Wellsville Democrat, in a conversation with Superintendent Weaver in relation to Mr. Weaver's candidacy for renomination. Messrs. Barnum and Weaver have given the Democrat a statement to the effect that the Republican's charges are not true. It will now be in order for the Republican to prove that Messrs. Barnum and Weaver are liars—which is a bigger job than most newspapers would care to undertake this warm weather, considering the reputation those gentlemen enjoy for truth and veracity.

The Olean Times publishes a letter received by a resident of that place from Capt. L. W. Gifford, of Col. Kane's famous Bucktail regiment, who now holds a position in Washington. The letter gives an account of the Memorial Day exercises in the national cemetery at Alexandria, Va., which Capt. Gifford witnessed. He writes: "Never, on any like occasion did I ever witness a Decoration where so many tears were shed as at Alexandria, where lie thirty-six hundred brave men who sacrificed their lives upon the altar of their country. A company of ex-Confederate veterans met us at the depot and escorted us to the cemetery, which is a national one, and at the close of the speeches the confederates helped us decorate every one of the three thousand six hundred graves. Their tears mingled with ours and it was a love-feast in every sense of the word. At the close one of the Confederates took me by the hand and with tears falling from his manly eyes said: 'I thank God that I came here to-day to witness this grand and beautiful ceremony, and I also thank our Father in Heaven that the war terminated as it did. Although from '61 to '65 I fought you to the bitter end, and thought I was doing right, time, with its logic of events has shown me that I was wrong!'"

Many years practice have given C. A. Snow & Co., Solicitors of patents at Washington, D. C., unsurpassed success in obtaining patents for all classes of invention. They make a specialty of rejected cases, and have secured allowance of many patents that have previously been rejected. Their advertisement in another column will be of interest to inventors, patentees, manufacturers, and all who have to do with patents.

The degree of Doctor of Divinity has been conferred upon Rev. T. J. Bissell, presiding elder of the Olean district of the M. E. Conference, by the Wesleyan University of Middletown, Ct. This institution is one of the oldest and most conservative in connection with the M. E. Church, and very rarely grants honorary degrees.

Chauncey M. Depew has been looking into the World's Fair situation at Chicago and takes a very encouraging view of it. He says the Fair will be a success. "It has passed the danger period. The pride and enthusiasm of the whole west are in it, and it is destined to be a marvelous success as an American exhibit, anyhow. Whatever comes from foreign countries will be by way of addition."

A horrible accident occurred to No. 8, the Erie vestibule train, at Ravenna, Ohio, last Friday morning. The train was standing still while the engineer was making some slight repairs on the engine. A flagman was sent back but went only a few feet beyond the rear car. Suddenly around the curve west of the city came a fast freight train at 25 miles an hour, and down a heavy grade. A moment more and the heavy freight crashed into the passenger train. For an instant there was silence of death, and then began the most frightful cries ever heard. The moans of the dying, the piteous cries for help, and the mutilated and bloody remains of the dead seen through the fragments of debris, formed a terrible scene. Eighteen persons were killed and scores of others were injured. Seventeen of those killed lived at Corning, N. Y. and were glassblowers returning from Findlay, O., where they had been at work. They occupied the rear car on No. 8.

INDEPENDENCE NEWS.

Several rains last week might have helped vegetation had not a cold wave scared a week's growth out of the undergrowth.

School closed here Friday.

Mr. Fred Heseltine of Alfred Centre was in town from Friday night until Sunday afternoon.

Miss Mary Forsyth finished her term of school in the Crittenden district last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Coleman and son Luther, of Alfred Centre, attended church here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Green of Alfred and Mrs. C. C. Livermore of Andover, were visiting friends in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Warfield and little daughter, of Andover, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Potter Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Miles F. Livermore went to Hornellsville last week to enter upon a five months' course in the commercial college of Prof. T. M. Davis.

The body of Mr. John J. Carr of Andover passed through here last week Sunday, on the way to Hallsport for burial, where Mr. Carr formerly resided and was well known.

It is reported that Mr. Floyd Green, who owns a fine, large span of horses, recently hauled over three tons of baled hay from here to Andover at one load.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Foster and Mrs. Rebecca Livermore, of Willing, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Bundy of Andover, and Mrs. A. L. Heseltine and grandson Jesse, of Alfred Centre, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Green last week Wednesday.

Last week Thursday morning Mrs. Aaron Crittenden died of blood poisoning. The funeral services were held at the S. D. B. church here at 2 o'clock p. m. Friday, Elder Jared Kenyon officiating. She left a loving husband to whom she had been married a little over five years, one daughter about three years of age, and her eleven-days-old babe, which latter fact makes it peculiarly destressing on account of the child's tender age, a father, mother, brother and hosts of loving relatives and affectionate friends, to mourn her early demise. Her age was 22. May she rest sweetly on the bosom of the Savior.

Standing at a safe distance, I recently took a peep into the political cauldron, and from present indications I rather think Comrade Sidney Crandall of Whitesville, who desires the Republican nomination for Superintendent of the Poor, has been caught up by the tidal wave that will, in all human probability land him high and dry in the office he covets. And why not? Are not the brave and gallant Boys in Blue entitled to the suffrages of those whose homes they fought to save from the "demnition bow-wows?" Comrade Crandall was a good soldier, a member of the brave old 85th N. Y. V. for nearly four years, one year of that time being a boarder [or starver] at "hotel de Andersonville," where he suffered the tortures of h—l. Mr. Crandall is an honorable, experienced business man, and if elected will probably make as good a county official as we have ever had. That he may be elected is the wish of all honor able minded men in this section.

SOME GUMPTION.

AN INTERESTING LETTER.

Written from Andover—Strong Testimonial for Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root.

ANDOVER, N. Y., May 3, 1891.

DR. KILMER:—

Dear Sir: I thought I would write you a few lines and tell you how much we think of your remedies. About three years ago my husband commenced to fail very rapidly with kidney trouble. He lost his appetite and became so weak that the least exertion would cause him to lie down. He could scarcely walk. He doctored with all the local physicians here, but without getting any relief. He gave up and said that he could not live three months. One day we received one of your "Guides to Health" through the mail, and I persuaded him to get a bottle of your Swamp Root and try it. Before he had taken the whole of the first bottle we could see a change for the better. He kept up the treatment for some time, until he was able to do considerable work, and to-day he is so much improved that it is not necessary for him to take the medicine all the time, and he can walk a mile and a half to the village and back.

We have also tried your Indian Cough Cure, and never found anything that could beat it. I noticed in our six beautiful cards and a picture of yourself. We would be very glad to get your picture, as we are certain he would have been in his grave, if it had not been for your Swamp Root. We recommend your medicines everywhere we get a chance.

MRS. D. B. LEE.

THE ANDOVER NEWS.

For good pasture, well fenced and watered, inquire of W. B. Mead.

Another assessment company in Boston came to grief last week. Next!

Rev. L. C. Davis has been pastor of the Baptist church in this place three years instead of two as we stated last week.

M. H. Harman received a new boat last Friday, which he has placed on the pond above the village. It has two sets of oars and also runs by sail.

H. P. Witherstine, secretary of the Herkimer Firemen's Association, has remembered us with a press ticket for the coming State Firemen's Convention to be held in Herkimer Aug. 18 to 21 Nothing will be left undone to make this the largest and most successful affair of the kind ever held in the state.

David Slocum, son of Abram Slocum of this place started to return from Wellsville the other day on the top of a high bark car. When the train reached the Madison street bridge in Wellsville, which is over the track, David's head struck a timber in the bridge and he was thrown at full length upon the roof of the car and rendered unconscious, in which condition he remained until the train reached the Stearns crossing west of this village, when he managed to jump to the ground and went home. Dr. Comstock was called and found two severe cuts on his head besides other injuries. He has since lain in a critical condition, but it is thought he will recover.

Rev. Lucius C. Davis preached his farewell sermon to the Baptist congregation in this place last Sunday morning. In the evening the union services were held at this church instead of the Presbyterian church, where they would have been held if the regular plan of rotation had been adhered to. The change was made because of this being Mr. Davis's last Sunday in this place, and it was desired that he should conduct the service. The house was well filled, and Mr. Davis preached a very interesting and instructive sermon. The singing by the Baptist choir was especially good. Mr. Davis has departed for his new field of labor in Yates, N. Y., and carries with him the wishes of this people for his success in the work of teaching the word of God to his fellow men. He is an earnest worker and a consistent Christian, and deserves the hearty cooperation of all Christian people.

Rev. G. M. James will exchange pulpits next Sunday with Rev. J. G. Snyder of Belmont.

Minnie L. Walker closed a very successful term of school in district No. 9 June 26. She is now visiting friends in Genesseo, after which she will attend a summer school in Glens Falls.

A pleasant surprise was given to Mrs. Sophia Burrows on Monday, by a number of near relatives. It was the seventy-fifth anniversary of her birthday and a program had been arranged unbeknown to her, which was successfully carried out, and all enjoyed the occasion. The guests did not forget to carry appropriate presents for Mrs. Burrows.

Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Frisbey spent last week in Tioga, Pa. and Elmira.

Mrs. David Davis returned Thursday from a visit with friends in Buffalo.

Mrs. Chas. Freeborn visited friends in Hornellsville from Friday till Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Deming arrived in Andover Thursday evening from their wedding trip.

John Diffin came home last week from Hammond, La., where has been for about six months past.

Miss Roxie Bundy left town the first of the week for Shabbona, Ill., where she will make an extended visit.

Ed. Donnelly of New York came up Saturday to spend a few days with his friends. He returned yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Comstock and daughter, Miss Wilmie Wright, visited friends in Salamanca during the past week.

Miss Nellie Hincher was taken much worse again on Monday. She had progressed far towards recovery but her condition is now serious.

Rev. G. M. Janes and wife are in Angelica to day, where Mr. Janes assists in the ceremonies attending the ordination and installation of Rev. James A. Miller.

Miss Grace Dolson of Hornellsville has been visiting at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. E. A. Harman, and that of her uncle, M. H. Harman, for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael McTighe arrived home from their wedding trip Saturday evening. They found many warm greetings and a hearty welcome awaiting them.

Miss Anna McCormick, who has been at Kanona, N. Y. for some time past, returned home last week. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. McCormick, of that place.

Thomas McAndrew of Youngstown, Ohio, is visiting his uncle, R. McAndrew and other friends in this vicinity. Also Mr. McAndrew's sister, Mrs. Garvin, of Bradford, is making him a visit.

R. Salisbury, who has been an employe of the NEWS office for the past eighteen months, left last Friday evening for Hyde Park, Mass., where has secured a position on the Hyde Park Times. He has been a faithful workman and has made many friends in Andover. We all wish him success and a rapid advancement in his vocation.

Richardson--Stillman.

Mr. A. B. Richardson and Miss Ada M. Stillman were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents in this village on Sunday, July 5, 1891. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jared Kenyon of Independence. Only the immediate families and a very few friends were present. The happy couple left the same evening for a trip to Syracuse, Elmira, Tioga and other places.

The contracting parties are so well known in this vicinity that personal comment seems perhaps superfluous, but this article would scarcely be complete without stating that Mr. Richardson is the Erie railroad company's agent at Andover station. He is the son of C. H. Richardson and has lived here almost from boyhood. He has established a reputation among the people which any young man might well envy. Gifted and popular, he has rapidly advanced to a position of responsibility in business life and a standing in the community rarely equaled by young men of his age. Miss Stillman is the daughter of Dr. E. M. Stillman, and it is no libel upon the attainments of Andover's many fair ones to say that a more accomplished, popular or charming young lady does not reside within the limits of this town. She possesses all the virtues which go to make up true womanhood, and every acquaintance is a friend, every friend a sincere admirer and well-wisher. Surely nothing but happiness and prosperity can attend the union of two such worthy young people, and all of these that can come into their lives will not be more than would be measured out to them by their friends if mortals had control over the destiny of others.

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson will be at home in this village after July 20.

ELECTROCUTION!

Four Murderers at Sing Sing Pay the Death Penalty.

Four murderers, Slocum, Smiler, Wood and Jugiro, were executed by electricity at Sing Sing Prison yesterday morning. The executions went off without a hitch and the men, who were executed separately in the same chair, all died instantly at the first contact. Those present, some of whom had been opposed to this manner of execution say the method is a success beyond doubt.

Ordination of James A. Miller.

The ordination of Rev. James A. Miller and his installation as pastor of the Angelica Presbyterian church occurs at that place to-day (Wednesday.) The following is the program:

Presbytery will convene, in the afternoon of that day at 3 o'clock. The installation service will be held in the evening at 8 o'clock.

Rev. Z. N. Bradbury, Moderator, will direct the exercises, assisted in the installation services as follows:

Charge to the Pastor, Rev. M. N. Preston, of Bath.

Charge to the people, Rev. G. M. Janes of Andover.

Sermon, Rev. E. M. Deems, of Hornellsville.

Silver in Steuben.

The following, which sounds as much like a fairy story as anything, is taken from the Hornellsville Tribune, and were it not for that paper's reputation for truth and veracity, we would be inclined to think Jules Verne or Edward Bellamy wrote it to see how far they could stretch their imaginative powers. Here is the story, and we hope the fondest hopes of those interested may be realized. We could use a little of the silver up this way, and if it comes "free" all the better:

"In a wood ravine about seven miles from Canisteo, up the Colonel Bill's Creek road, are daily to be found three men who labor every day, yet few are aware of the cause or the object of their work. This is guarded most carefully, and only by persistent inquiry on the part of a Times correspondent was the secret at last divulged. They are searching for silver, and each day gives new and encouraging evidences that their diligence will be rewarded. Experts in minerals have been shown specimens of the ore, and have also been brought to the place where, after carefully surveying the land and studying the nature of the ground and stones in the neighborhood, they give as their opinion that there is something worth looking after in that locality. The story, as gleaned from some old settlers in that vicinity, runs as follows: About the year 1870, three men were seen by two young lads to enter a piece of woods in that near vicinity. Out of curiosity the young men followed them, they being strangers in the neighborhood. They made their way into the forest till they entered a deep ravine, where a pure stream of water was winding its way to a larger stream. The three strangers in question were closely watched by the two boys, and at a certain point were seen to halt, scrutinize the ground, dig up some earth, and a few minutes after cover the ground with leaves. They looked cautiously around as if to make sure they were not being watched, then marked a tree by cutting off some of the bark and then quietly departed. The two young men returned home and reported what they had seen, and were going next day to show a party the place, and see what the strangers had found as it was surmised that in this ravine were rich deposits of ore of some kind. But during the night one of the boys was taken sick with fever, and on the fourth day thereafter died. The next day after the discovery, the other boy was thrown from a horse and received injuries from which he never rallied. Tradition has it that the men also met with violent deaths a short time thereafter, and all efforts to find the spot proved futile until a few weeks ago, when George Criskaton and a companion came to a deep ravine and were struck dumb for a few moments by seeing a stone as large as a good-sized house apparently raised up from the ground about twenty feet, and then slowly come down to mother earth and disappear therein. It is needless to say that the men hunted no more that day, but hastened for home. Geo. Criskaton on going to bed dreamed he had found the spot above described, not only for one night, but several nights in succession, and finally went back to the place and made a thorough examination of the ground and found what he and others pronounced silver ore. He has since been to Canisteo and leased the land of the owner, and is at the present time searching for the precious metal, assisted by two other men."

NOTES.

There are over three hundred subordinate Alliances in this State.

A State mass meeting is to be held in Penn Yan Aug. 18 and 19, with addresses by Senator Peffer and Congressman Simpson.

There seems to be a feeling among many Alliance members that the new Peoples party is not in the interest of the agricultural class but is to be run to a great extent by city labor organizations.

State Lecturer W. C. Warner of Yorkshire has resigned and moved to Ohio. No person has yet been appointed to fill the vacancy.

A State mass meeting will be held in Machias July 11. National President Polk and Ralph Beaumont will be the speakers.

The Allegany County Alliance will meet at the Court House in Belmont on Tuesday, July 14, to elect county officers and transact other important business.

A Farmers' Cooperative Fire Insurance Company is being organized in Steuben county by leading members of the Alliance. The organization will be similar to the one now existing in Allegany county. A good start has already been made toward securing the required amount of capital represented in applications, and it is thought the books will soon be opened.
