DUBAN AWNINGS

FOR WINDOWS, PORCHES AND STORES

DUBAN Awnings are made of a heavy weight cotton duck striped with brilliant oil colors. They are fitted with strong rings along the top fastened to a reinforcing rope in the hem and attached to the building with hooks. Head-rods can be furnished if desired at small extra cost. Duban Awnings come equipped with first grade cotton ropes, pulleys, galvanized round iron jointed frames and furnished complete ready to hang.

The Duban Shade Corporation also offers Spearhead Awnings for terraces and porches. They are especially nice for roofless porches or for outdoor lawn sitting rooms, adjoining the home. The iron frame work of this particular type of Awning is attached to the building and the awning is lashed or tied to the framework. This type awning cannot be raised or lowered, but the canvas part can be removed easily if so desired.

If you are considering the purchase of Awnings we urge you to see the DUBAN line at Baker's first —and we will gladly quote you prices to meet your needs, with obsolutely no obligation on your part to buy.

Vicchiano's Family Stick By Him

That the family of Luigi Vicchiano, 64, Birmingham, Ala., grocery-man, charged with the 32-year-old Belfast murder of Norman Chalker and Bruce Gleason, mean to stick by him in his efforts to support his plea of innocence is shown by a visit from two sons, a son-in-law and an attorney at the county jail late last week.

Philip Vicchiano of Buffalo and Mike Vicchiano of Birmingham, sons and Joe Leonard of Birmingham, a son-in-law, with an attorney, bearing fruit and food, spent a half hour in consultation with the accused who told them he was too well fed at the jail to need more to eat.

As first-degree murder charges must be tried in Supreme Court it is likely the charges against Vicchiano will be pressed at the September 8 term, with Justice Parton Swift scheduled to preside.

A medical examination is requested before admission and no child suffering from a communicable disease will be accepted.

Arthur Temple Attending Boys' State

Arthur Temple, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Temple is representing Andover at the annual Empire Boys' State, sponsored by the New York State American Legion and held this year at Manlius Military School, Manlius, N. Y., this week.

Ralph Temple, accompanied by his daughter Miss Barbara Temple motored to Manlius Saturday taking Arthur and two other county boys, Russel Nelson of Whitesville and Lyle Brown of Fillmore, who are attending this week's session of Boys State to that place.

Allegany county will be represented at next week's session of Boys State by Mitchell Bliss, Wellsville and Robert MacDonell, Bolivar.

Olean Man to Oppose Reed

Nelson M. Fuller, Olean water department superintendent, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for representative in Congress from the 43rd District which embraces Allegany, Cattaraugus and Chautauqua counties.

He will oppose Daniel A. Reed, from Dunkirk in the Republican primaries. The consistent opposition of Congressman Reed and his "No" vote on every major war measure is even getting under the skin of the Republican organization thus the advancing of Mr. Fuller's candidacy.

From Mr. Reed's voting record at Washington it is high time that this district made a change and got out of the Isolationist class.

Mr. Knox was born in Luzern, Pa., Jan. 6, 1874, son of Preston and Elizabeth Ingall Knox. He came to Wellsville when nine years of age and has since resided in that village where for many years he operated a plumbing business.

He is survived by his wife, two stepdaughters, Mrs. Leon White of Bayonne, N. J., and Mrs. Ada J. English, New Brunswick, N. J., two brothers, William Knox, Los Angeles and Earl J. Knox of Wellsville; two sisters, Mrs. John E. Cannon of Andover and Mrs. Fred Pfluger of New York City and two grandchildren.

Services were held at the home in Wellsville Sunday afternoon, the Rev. Guy M. Ovenshire officiating. The body was taken to Bayonne, N. J. Sunday night where services were held Monday afternoon with interment in Moravian cemetery at New Dorp, Staten Island.

School State Aid Money Distributed By County Treas.

A total of $435,523.82 in state aid to common, high and central schools in Allegany county has been received by County Treasurer Frank L. Gere from Albany and disbursed to supervisors for common schools and to school treasurers for other schools. This is the second instalment and final one from the state for 1942. The amounts received by districts are exclusive of reductions for the teacher retirement fund which is annually subtracted from the remittances of the second one-half of state aid received.

Retirement funds in this county, deducted from remittances, amounted to $59,007.73, exclusive of those for Wellsville schools which received a net amount of $41,364.46.

In District 5, W. G. Pope, Andover, superintendent, the distributions were: To common schools in the town of Andover, $192.58; Independence, $2,038; Wellsville, $2,938.16; Willing, $3,389.53; to Andover Central School, $28,004.37; Whitesville High School, $6,234.01.

FOR HEALTH'S SAKE AND THE BUDGET'S!

A lot of lines are going to be busy in town when these prices are read. Housewives have so steer a precarious course between spending too much and not getting quality foods. Good prices and good foods often mean separate items. But Market Basket stores offer BOTH, as our customers know.
