ANDOVER NEWS.

VOL. XI, NO. 21. ANDOVER, ALLEGANY COUNTY, N. Y., JANUARY 12, 1898. ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR.

Noticed This Before?

There's a Peculiarity about These Paragraphs which the Reader Must not Overlook.

You notice in this paper an endorsement like that which follows without the endorser's permission would be fraud, and to publish it without his knowledge a second time would be impossible. Both could be done repeatedly if this publication were printed in Kalamazoo, Mich., for the chances are a thousand to one that few people in the western part of New York ever see a Kalamazoo paper. Now look through the columns of this paper at the statements which appear in the advertisements of medicinal preparations. Notice this peculiarity, every one of them was originally obtained here, there and everywhere except your own corner of this State. Read this one and mark the different impression it makes. Mr. H. W. Berry, Manager of Palmer & Jones Grocery, living on Wilson street, Salamanca, N. Y., says:

"For a long time, but more particularly during the last year I was used up with a trouble in my kidneys. There was a constant aching pain across the loins and up through the whole muscular system of the back to the neck; a numbness and aching pain through the thigh and in the limbs, and often after a days work they would feel so tired I could hardly drag myself along; dull bearing down pain in the groin, irregular and high colored secretions and frequent attacks of dizziness and headaches; and a lack of energy in the mornings in place of feeling refreshed after a night's rest. I was advised to use Doan's Kidney Pills by a neighbor who had used them with good results. I got a box at a drug store and took them. The effect was most gratifying. From my own experience I can highly endorse Doan's Kidney Pills as being everything that is claimed for them."

Doan's Kidney Pills are sold for 50 cents per box by all dealers, or mailed on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

AN OPEN LETTER To MOTHERS.

WE ARE ASSERTING IN THE COURTS OUR RIGHT TO THE EXCLUSIVE USE OF THE WORD "CASTORIA," AND "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," AS OUR TRADE MARK.

I, DR. SAMUEL PITCHER, of Hyannis, Massachusetts, was the originator of "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," the article that has borne and does now bear the fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher on every wrapper. This is the original "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," which has been used in the homes of the Mothers of America for over three years. LOOK CAREFULLY at the wrapper and see that it is the kind you have always bought and has the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher on it. No one has authority from me to use my name except The Centaur Company of which Chas. H. Fletcher is President.

WILLIAMS & LANGWORTHY.

Death of Michael Patten.

Died at the residence of his parents, near the village of Andover, Jan. 7th, 1898, Michael Patten, aged 33 years.

The subject of the notice was born at Portage. He received a liberal education, and in his early manhood taught school in the Cobb district and other places, and a few years ago went to Cleveland, Ohio, where he was engaged in a lucrative employment. He afterwards went to Chicago where he was superintendent of a coal works. He was a kind hearted young man, and as his wealth accumulated was extraordinarily generous to his parents. Some time in October last, though apparently a strong man, he was attacked with typhoid fever, and from the result of a hurt, had hemorrage of the lungs, and was treated at the hospital. On his being released from the hospital he came home and rapidly run down, and finally died as above stated.

His funeral was held Monday at 10 o'clock, at the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, the Funeral High Mass being celebrated by Father Murray. Mr. Murray's remarks were appropriate to the occasion. He eulogized the character of the deceased and urged his hearers to emulate his example. The remains were buried in the Catholic Cemetery.

Firemen's Fair at Alfred.

For several years past Crandall Hooks at Alfred have held a Fair in their commodious hall, and this year is no exception to the accustomed rule. A number years ago the members of the company took it upon themselves to purchase a lot and upon it erect a building for the purpose of housing their fire apparatus consisting of a truck, with hooks and ladders, a chemical engine and a hose cart. The building is a two story structure, containing, besides the apparatus room, a parlor, dining room, kitchen and a lock-up on the first floor, and a spacious audience room on the second floor. The boys have struggled from the time of the incipiency of the building to meet the payments by giving entertainments of various kinds and their annual fairs.

Their fair occurs this year on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Jan. 18th, 19th and 20th. We understand the committees have been hard at work, and their efforts promise abundant success. Every evening an entertainment is given, generally by home talent, but this year one evening is given to minstrelsy.

We are informed that members of Citizens' Hose intend going over to Alfred one night during their fair week, presumably the last evening, Thursday, and the boys there will probably reciprocate.

The Firemen's Fair.

The prospective firemen's fair, as each week goes by, bids more encouraging, and looks for a very bright and pleasant time. Donations from out of town received since our last notice, are: Book case and secretary, Coats Bro., Wellsville; half dozen hats, Bronner & Co.; Art square rug, Herbert Padden; two pair shoes, Humphrey Bros. & Co.; counterpain, W. H. Schoeneau & Co.; lamp, Walbridge & Co., Buffalo; one year's subscription Weekly Reporter, and one year's subscription Daily Reporter, Reporter Co., Wellsville; one case sandwich ham, Hornellsville Beef Co.; Acme Milling Co., Olean, one barrel Northern Light flour; East Palestine Pottery Co., East Palestine, Ohio, dinner set, 100 pieces, valued at $25.

Donations are coming in very nicely from our home people, and will be duly recognized later.

Attention is called to the letters that have been sent to our friends, and urge that they report to Mr. Bundy, or A. B. Richardson, chairman of the soliciting committee, on or before the 20th inst., if possible.

As to the entertainments for the evenings of the fair, they bid very promising. The first night, Feb. 1st, will open with a drama, entitled "Hickory Farm," full of fun, a good plot, and will be rendered by our best talent. It will be, as all our home talent entertainments are, very interesting.

A clipping from the Hornellsville Tribune:

J. B. PHILLIPS.

and to say that each entertainment will be a hummer is putting it light.

The Emerald Hooks and McEwen Hose of Wellsville, the Crandall Hooks of Alfred, and the Cuba Companies have all voted to attend our fair in a body, and Bolivar's Companies promise their attendance on some of the nights.

To the Memory of Mrs. L. Henn.

Sweetly she slumbers,
Once so happy and so bright,
Now quietly sleeping,
So cold and so white.
Oh, can we believe she has left us,
Yet why do we mourn?

'Tis God has bereft us;
Our hearts are lonely,
Now Lucy has gone.
But softly we whisper,
"Thy will be done."

The house seems empty now she has flown,
Carried by angels to a heavenly home;
Our tears are in vain;
'Tis the will of our God
Who speaks to us gently,
Pass under the rod.

A woman's age is nobody's business. In court at Strasburg, Pa., Miss Edith Custard, a witness, when asked her age, replied: "My age has nothing to do with this case, and I refuse to answer." The lawyer appealed to the judge who decided that the woman's age was her secret, if she preferred to make it so, and that her answer, under the circumstances, was entirely appropriate.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

In speaking of a local newspaper the other day, a friend said that he "never knew a local paper so ornery that it didn't save a careful reader more than its subscription price." He argued that in the course of a year his family saved many times the cost of his newspaper by reading the advertisements, often more than the price of a home paper in a single purchase, and that the pleasure and knowledge it afforded him in scanning the news columns was mental profit to be added to the more sordid gain from the business columns.—Ex.
