SOCIAL NOTES

Ninety members and guests attended the semi-annual dinner session of the Allegany County Village Officers Associa- Central School with the Village of Almond as host Wednesday, October 21.

Mayor Francis G. Bartoo of Richburg was elected as president. He succeeds Mayor Paul E. Kilbane of Andover. Charles Ruger was also present from Andover.

At the baptismal service at the Andover Presbyterian Church Sunday morning, Gary Richard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hoagland was baptized.

Mrs. E. J. Allen entertained the members of the Entre Nous Club at a 7:30 bridge dessert at her home on Center St. Thursday evening. Honors were presented Mrs. F. G. Crawford and Mrs. Leo Snyder.

Mrs. Aquinas McCormick of Andover is among the appointed numerators who have been named in Allegany County for the 1964 Census of Agriculture released by Phillip John Dillon of Cuba, crew-leader. It is the enumerator's responsibility to locate every farm within an enumeration district assigned to him, determine if the operator of the farm has answered all questions on a questionnaire that will be mailed to the farmer by the Census Bureau.

The dry conditions of the woods and pasture lands continue. From 75 to 100 acres was burned in a fire in the Town of West Union, near Rexville, and was under control about midnight, Tuesday, about nine hours after it was reported. Rexville firemen and conservation men battled it.

Dates Claimed:

Nov. 11—Annual Presbyterian Turkey Dinner.

Nov. 7: Boy Scout Bake Sale.

Nov. 28—West Greenwood Juvenile Grange Bake Sale.
