Important Views.

There is a Heap of Valuable Information in What This Gentleman Says.

Throughout our entire state, but particularly in the western part of it, Mr J. W. Davis, of Garden street, Olean, N. Y., Lodge Organizer for the Order of Ben Hur, for N. Y. State, is well and favorably known. He could not be induced to lend his name to bolster up the reputation of any article, and it could not be employed in any such connection without his permission or knowledge, for if he did not stumble across the fact himself when reading newspapers that such a report as follows was being circulated about him, some of his many friends would be sure to advise him. The reader can therefore depend upon his statement as being reliable.

Mr. Davis, says: "For the last three years my kidneys were out of order and every time I contracted a slight cold or in changeable weather I would have a renewal of the trouble, characterized by a weakness and aching across the loins; a digressing and annoying difficulty with the kidney secretions; frequent attacks of headaches accompanied by spells of dizziness, and I felt tired and used up nearly all the time. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at a drug store and took them. The results obtained were rapid and lasting. My back got stronger, the aching left my loins, the secretions were regulated and my system generally toned up."

Doan's Kidney Pills are sold for 50 cents a box, by all dealers, or mailed on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for U. S.

Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

State Institute and Farmers' Club.

The State Institute was held at Firemen's Hall, Cuba, Feb. 4th The meeting was called to order at 11 o'clock by Conductor H. E. Cook, of Denmark, N. Y. The attendance at the morning session was comparatively small.

Mr. Cook made a few opening remarks, in which he spoke of the great advantage to each farmer from the good results of every other farmer's work along the line of improved methods and better quality of products.

C. E. Chapman, of Peruville, N. Y., spoke on "How I grow potatoes profitably"

FARMERS' CLUB.

The afternoon meeting being the annual meeting of the Allegany County Farmers' Club, the attendance was large.

The meeting was called to order by the Secretary of the Club, in the absence of the President.

L. D. Stowell, the Vice President, took charge of the meeting.

The Secretary reported that he had received $23.32, had expended $28.44, leaving a balance due the Secretary of $5.12.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Charles F. Moulton of Cuba; Vice President, L. D. Stowell of Black Creek; Secretary and Treasurer, Charles Stillman of Alfred.

A motion was made and carried, favoring the bill providing for biennial sessions of the Legislature.

The question of the advisability of passing the bill, now before the Legislature, providing for electing town officers in connection with the fall elections and doing away with town meetings, was discussed, and, on motion of Mr. Sibley, further action was deferred.

It was voted to hold the next meeting at West Clarksville, March 8th.

A somewhat informal discussion of the advisability of starting cheese making in the spring was had, when the Farmers' Club adjourned, and the State Institute Directors took charge of the meeting.

The question box was taken up, and after answering a few questions, Dr. C. D. Smead of Logan had spoken on the subject of Diseases of Domestic Animals, the Institute adjourned.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him, as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters, and, to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents a bottle at L. A. Burrows' drug store.

Death of Mrs. P. B. Hardy.

The subject of this sketch was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 9, 1863, and died at her home in Tecumseh, Mich., on Thursday, Feb. 10, 1898. She was stricken with paralysis about three weeks ago, and since that time has been speechless. For three days prior to her death she was in a comatose condition. Her case was an enigma to the attending physicians—some of whom were called from Detroit—none of them having seen paralysis in the form manifested.

Mrs. Hardy was well known in Andover, having, as Miss Annie Van Deusen, been for three years a successful and popular teacher in our Union School. As the wife of Dr. P. B. Hardy she made many friends in the Western cities where her husband was building up a wide and lucrative practice. In this community there are many who will deeply sympathize with his great sorrow.

Last Thursday evening Mrs. Roswin Hardy and Principal Edward Hardy left for Tecumseh. Deceased leaves two sons—Harold, four years old, and a babe six weeks old.

Obituary.

Amanda Clarke Livermore was born in Brookfield, Madison Co., N. Y., March 29, 1810, and died in Independence, Feb. 10, 1898. Thus she had lived 87 years, 10 months and 12 days. She was the daughter of Hazard P. and Phoeba Whitford Clarke, the second of a family of ten children, three of whom survive her. Her parents moved into this country when she was eight years old. She was married to William Slocum Livermore Jan. 14, 1830. For over 68 years they have walked life's pathway hand in hand. Seldom indeed, are two lives united in holy wedlock spared to each other for nearly three score years and ten. From blooming youth into strong man and womanhood, out into declining years and lastly down into a ripe old age, have they journeyed together, and now one is taken and the other left to wait in loneliness the summons to come. Having no children of their own, they adopted, or reared without legal adoption, five children, four of whom are living, and to day call her blessed, namely, Mrs. John C. Bassett and Mrs. A. P Wood of Andover, Mrs. George A. Green of Belmont, and James Livermore, with whom the deceased lived.

The funeral services were held at the Seventh day Baptist Church at Independence, the Rev. W. L. Burdick delivering a most solemn and fitting sermon as the last tribute to the immortal dead. The interment was in the Independence cemetery.

Wedding Bells.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Bronner, of Alfred, presented a very pretty appearance Wednesday, Feb. 9th, with its decorations of evergreens, cut flowers and smilax, with the throng of guests who were there to witness the marriage of their daughter, Mina Louise to Leon Iguene Bloss of Independence, with the strains of the wedding march rendered by Edwin Reynolds of Alfred. At 12:30 there appeared the bride attended by Miss Bernice Briggs of this place, next came the groom with Mr. George Clarke of Independence. The bride was charmingly arrayed in a gown of pearl gray, trimmed with white ribbon and laces, and wearing a bouquet of white roses and smilax. Rev. J. L. Gamble, of Alfred, performed the ceremony in a felicitous and impressive manner, after which a very touching prayer in which the future welfare of the bride and groom were earnestly solicited. Hearty congratulations quickly followed, after which a bountiful repast was very prettily spread. Fred and Miss Leola Clarke of this place, and Miss Susie White of Alfred, served the guests. The presents were many and very useful. The bride and groom departed about 3:30 p. m., amid showers of rice, with best wishes of all following. Both parties are well known and highly respected by all. Mr. and Mrs. Bloss will make their future home in Independence.

The well of the Harold Oil Company on Joyce's farm, proves to be a good oil well, and was shot this afternoon.

Members of the Great Originals of Wellsville debated with members of the Columbian Society, Monday night, the report of which we have not received. It is said however, that our boys and girls did their prettiest, and were conceded by the Wellsvillians to be a-No. 1 debaters. Refreshments were served.

The Brooks Locomotive Works of Dunkirk last week shiped 92 car loads of locomotives boxed, to the far east; 20 of the engines go to Japan for use on the imperial Government railways; 14 to the Kiushiu railway, and 4 to Corea for the Seoul Chemulpo railway. The last named 4 will be the first engines ever used in Corea.

There's one man in Wellsville who is sure of a new lawn mower to push next summer. Of course most men don't buy a lawn mower the very first thing when they are thinking of future housekeeping, but Harry Teeple isn't like some men. Besides "Teep" didn't buy this mower. He won it at the Andover firemen's fair. "Lucky Teep," did you say? Well, maybe he won't think so when he gets to shoving it across a lawn next summer.—Reporter.

Daniel P. Smith, an Erie Railroad employee, about 30 years of age, who lived with his sister near the corner of Pine and Charles streets, Hornellsville, early last Saturday morning shot Miss Mary Van Norman, a girl 18 years of age, who is said to be his niece. Smith fired two shots at her, both took effect and she will probably die. Smith then shot himself in the neck, but the wound inflicted is not serious. He said that he was engaged to be married to the girl and jealousy was the cause of the shooting. LATER.—Miss Van Norman died at the hospital Monday morning.
