Weak Lungs

If you have coughed and coughed until the lining membrane of your throat and lungs is inflamed,

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod-liver Oil will soothe, strengthen and probably cure. The cod-liver oil feeds and strengthens the weakened tissues. The glycerine soothes and heals them. The hypophosphites of lime and soda impart tone and vigor. Don't neglect these coughs. One bottle of the Emulsion may do more for you now than ten can do later on. Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion.

TERMS: $1.00 a Year in Advance.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

We commence again this week to send to our delinquent subscribers statements of their accounts with us. With this number three quarters of the year's issues have been received by them, and were it not that we need the money to carry on our business we would not trouble them with the statement. Individually, the amount is small, but taking it in the aggregate the amount due us is large. We trust that each one will see the point, and forward us at his earliest convenience the sum which is our due.

The Philippine Islands, now in the hands of the United States, have an area of 150,000 square miles, and a population of from 8,000,000 to 10,000,000.

Admiral Dewey was so sure of his victory that he stopped in the midst of the fighting in order that the men of his fleet might eat their breakfasts. How's that for cool headedness?

Dewey and Sampson are good naval commanders, worthy successors of a long line of American sea fighters, but after all it is the rank and file of our navy that makes it invincible.

Admiral Dewey's reason why the Spanish fleet did no more damage to his ships in Manila harbor—"I smothered their fire"—is likely to be remembered as long as we have a navy.

Before beginning another war the Spanish should devote some time to acquiring the rudiments of modern gunnery; the Chinese could make a better showing than they have made in this war.

Congress was right in voting thanks to Dewey, and in providing that the brevet promotion cabled him by the President should be made actual. He [illegible] deserving honor upon [illegible] country, and the country wishes [illegible] to share in it to the fullest extent.

The cartoonists sometimes mix up their geography to make a point. For instance, when the American eagle is [illegible] as sitting on a cliff watching over Cuba and the Philippine Islands, all in sight. The distance between the two points is something like 8,000 miles.

Worth Remembering.

The Information Supplied by this Gentleman is too Valuable to Throw Carelessly to One Side.

The reader may never have been in Rochester, N. Y., and probably never will be, but if he had been or if he will be, when walking along State street he could have noticed and might notice at No. 80 the largest carpet warehouse in the city, over the entrance to which is suspended a sign which reads, Howe & Rogers, Wholesale and Retail Carpet Dealers. One of the oldest and most trusted employes, who has been with the firm almost from its infancy, is Mr. John Hathaway. It is not likely that the reader knows him personally and he might never have heard about him unless introduced through the medium of this newspaper, but as he courts inquiry on the statement published below and will cheerfully answer any correspondence, the experiences therein given can be depended upon as being thoroughly reliable. Read it.

"I have been troubled with my back for several years, not all the time but it was off and on. I thought it was from my kidneys for I had not only backache but lameness across the loins, and a weary feeling and loss of energy. There was also at times an annoyance from the kidney secretions and I was afraid it might be Bright's disease. Hearing about Doan's Kidney Pills I thought I would try them and got them at a drug store. I found them just suited to my case. They promptly stopped the gnawing aching in my back and acted like a tonic by invigorating me in every respect. I am quite free from all the annoyances and pain which I had been suffering."

For sale by all dealers, price 50 cents per box. Mailed by Foster Milburn Company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

S. M. Geary, Pierson, Mich., writes: "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is curing more piles here today than all other remedies combined. It cures eczema and all other skin diseases." Benedict & Van Noy.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy

"One Minute Cough Cure is the best preparation I have ever sold or used and I can't say too much in its praise." L. M. Kennon, Merchant, Odell, Ga. Benedict & Van Noy.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy
CURES ALL KIDNEY, STOMACH AND LIVER TROUBLES.

There was a time when the most nauseous medicines were regarded as the best. Hot drops were perhaps the most disagreeable of the old time remedies. Their place has been taken by one of the most pleasant medicines in use, Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is not only much more agreeable to take but more reliable. It always cures and cures quickly. For sale by L. A. Burrows.

THE ACORN SHIRT WAIST.

Oh, we know that Spring is with us, we can feel it in the air,
We can see the springy symptoms floating 'round us everywhere,
We can hear it in the music of the birdlets in the trees,
And we have corroboration in the softness of the breeze.
And the pleasure that it brings us is completely out of sight,
Every day some revelation comes to fill us with delight,
But the very rarest pleasure to this humble writer's taste
Is the blooming of the maidens in the Acorn Shirt Waist.

Now, we meet them in the parlor and we see them on the street,
And they sort of draw attention from a study of the feet,
And they look so cool and easy as they in the breezes swirl
That a fellow keeps regretting that he wasn't born a girl.
A maiden may be pretty or a maiden may be plain,
Her name be Maude or Beryl or just homely Mary Jane,
She is bound to look attractive if she's saucily encased
In the picturesque fullness of an Acorn Shirt Waist.

The operetta, "Dobbs' Farm," as given last Monday evening at the Opera House by the Athenean Lyceum of Alfred University, was extremely pleasing. The May Festival and New England Supper given by the Baptist Society last Wednesday evening, at the Opera House, was a success in every particular.
