AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS.

GREENWOOD.

Ugh, how cold.

Look out for cellars and potato pits.

Friday, seven peddling wagons, with seven teams, seven men and one lady stopped at the Greenwood hotel. We learn they are going to canvass for the sale of steel ranges.

On Thursday there was a fight on the street between Dennis Woodard and Frank McCormick. It was not a fight, however, but it was all owed to go farther than a proper regard for the public interest required.

The party at the hotel Feb. 22d was well attended and a very quiet time is reported. Forty-one tickets were sold.

There were 245 on the theater excursion train Friday night. Among those from Greenwood were Mr. and Mrs. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Slocum, Mr. and Mrs. Goff, Thos. Eagan and wife, Geo. Webster and wife, Allie Pease and wife and Andrew Swan.

Resolution of Respect.

The following resolutions were issued from the headquarters of Wm. C. White Post, G. A. R., Department of New York, Feb. 20th, 1900:

Whereas, the Great and Supreme Ruler of the Universe has, in his infinite wisdom, removed from among us one of our worthy and esteemed fellow-laborers, Rufus L. Alvord; and,

Whereas, the long and intimate relations held with him in the faithful discharge of his duties in this organization, makes it eminently befitting that we record our appreciation of him; therefore,

Resolved, That the wisdom and ability which he has exercised in the aid of our organization by service, contribution and counsel, will be held in grateful remembrance.

Resolved, That the sudden removal of such a life from among our midst leaves a vacancy and a shadow that will be deeply realized by all the members and friends of this organization, and will prove a serious loss to the community and the public.

Resolved, That with deep sympathy with the bereaved widow and relatives of the deceased we express our hope that even so great a loss to us all may be overruled for good by Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Post, and a copy be sent to the bereaved family.

By order of the Post,
MARVIN L. HENDERSON,
Adjutant.
