Republican Convention.

A Republican Convention for the purpose of electing delegates to the State Convention will be held at the City of New York, on Wednesday, October 2, 1873, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

The four tickets now in the field, the Republican, Democratic, Liberal, and Temperance. The Republican party have given the people a good ticket. We do not think that any person or party can find any fault with them. They stand free of any charge of corruption or dishonesty. They are also men fully qualified for the positions which they will be called upon to fill. The Democrats have placed in nomination a ticket which they cannot hope to elect. The head of their ticket, DeWitt C. Hoagland, is a man of no reputation. Under the administration of General Hoagland for several years, which should be enough to make his name a byword of contempt. The Liberal ticket is composed mostly of men of no reputation. There is no question but what if the Republicans will not be elected, it is because of the quality of the ticket. The Temperance ticket is composed mostly of men of no reputation. There is no question but what if the Republicans will not be elected, it is because of the quality of the ticket. The Liberal ticket is composed mostly of men of no reputation. There is no question but what if the Republicans will not be elected, it is because of the quality of the ticket. The Temperance ticket is composed mostly of men of no reputation. There is no question but what if the Republicans will not be elected, it is because of the quality of the ticket.

Senators Morton, Carpenter, Anthony, and Bayard.

Senators Morton, Carpenter, Anthony, and Bayard, the four members of the Committee on Education and the Arts, have been engaged in a long and arduous session, in the Senate, on the subject of the proposed bill for the election of President and Vice President more directly through the Electoral College. They will remain in consultation probably a day or two longer, and expect to prepare a report to be submitted to the committee, or a question of it, as soon as possible. The Senators have been called upon to consider a large number of amendments to the bill, but have not yet reached any definite result.

Connecticut has made an attack upon Sabbath-breakers.

Connecticut has made an attack upon Sabbath-breakers, and punished them according to law. It seems that it has been a long-established custom for a multitude of laids, and not a few grown men, to spend Sundays in wandering through the fields and woods, and along the banks of the rivers, and in the vicinity of New Haven. On a recent Sunday, the police of the city having become enraged at the sight of the Sabbath-breakers, they were arrested and punished according to law. They were fined for each day of their offence, and were also punished for the first time.

Edward S. Stokes was in the Court of Sessions yesterday.

Edward S. Stokes was in the Court of Sessions yesterday. Judge Davis presided. Stokes was charged with the murder of a woman named Mary Smith. He was found guilty and sentenced to the State Prison for life.

The people of Connecticut, at their annual election on Monday, voted upon the amendment making Hartford the only Capital, and gave a majority of about 4,000 in favor of the amendment.

The two cities of New Haven and Hartford have contested every inch of the ground, and a bitter fight has been going on for two years and it will be a good while before New Haven will become reconciled to Hartford.

In Iowa and Mississippi the Democrats have decided to run no ticket this year at all.

In Wisconsin many of them are supporting Washington, the Republican nominee for Governor. In Virginia they are supporting the Democrats and the cause of Conservatism. In Missouri their chief organ has repudiated them and the long between life and death. A non-partisan paper said the other day that "nearly all the Democratic party had ceased to be a power in American politics."
