Gas Consumers, Notice—

We desire to notify our customers that we intend, commencing Oct. 1st, 1900, to change to the Meter System in the sale of gas, and that we shall make no contracts from the above date either by yearly or regular monthly rates.

Gas consumers who are connected to our lines at present, and all others who may use gas in the future, are to conform to the above. Meters will be loaned by us upon the receipt of $5 deposited in advance. This deposit will be refunded at any time the consumer discontinues the use of gas and returns to us the meter in good condition, together with the meter deposit certificate so issued for the same.

The price of gas will be 25 cents per thousand cubic feet, subject to a discount of 10 per cent. if paid for on or before the 10th of the month following the meter reading.

Now, in order to take advantage of the summer use of metered gas, the company wish to state to the customers who have a yearly rate and whose contracts as yet have not expired, that they may avail themselves of the same privilege as our regular monthly customers, and connect by meter at once.

We consider that it is the only fair and equitable way of using gas, for in this way you can connect as many stoves or lights as you desire, regardless of the size of the mixer used, and pay for them only when in use.

By the adoption of the meter system, we look forward in giving you an even better service than in the past.

"Little Colds" neglected—thousands of lives sacrificed every year. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup cures little colds—cures big colds too, down to the very verge of consumption.

Letter to Dimery Hilton.

ANDOVER, N. Y.

Dear Sir: Most painters insist that lead and oil is good for three years; but they also insist that it needs going over again in three years. It is as much as to say it's a good job of paint that lasts three years.

Which is true; and a better that lasts six years. Lead and oil lasts three; Devoe lead and zinc lasts six.

When a paint begins to let in water, then it is time to repaint. It may be one year; it may be ten. Lead and oil lasts three, if well put on; lead and zinc lasts six if ground together and well put on. But painters are better acquainted with lead than with zinc. Zinc is newer.

Devoe lead and zinc is the proper mixture, ground in oil by machinery; same proportions as used by the U. S. Government.

Yours very truly,
F. W. DEVOE & CO.

J. Q. Hood, Justice of the Peace, Crosby, Miss., makes the following statement: "I can certify that One Minute Cough Cure will do all that is claimed for it. My wife could not get her breath and the first dose of it relieved her. It has also benefited my whole family." Sold immediately and cures coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis, asthma and all throat and lung troubles. Benedict & Van Noy, Andover; E. Breeze, Elm Valley.

The World's Record for Fast Time

The Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway holds the world's record for fastest time, accomplishing a little over 510 miles in 470 minutes and 20 seconds, or an average speed of 65.07 miles per hour. It is such records as this which have made the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway synonymous with high speed, utmost comfort and punctual service.

A Sprained Ankle Quickly Cured.

"At one time I suffered from a severe sprain of the ankle," says Geo. E. Cary, editor of the Guide, Washington, Va. "After using several well recommended medicines without success, I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and am pleased to say that relief came as soon as I began its use and a complete cure speedily followed." Sold by Benedict & Van Noy, Andover, and N. E. Coston, Greenwood.

Notice.

Having concluded to dissolve partnership, all persons owing us must call and settle all accounts before July 1, 1900.

"DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the finest pills I ever used."—D. J. Moore, Millbrook, Ala. They quickly cure all liver and bowel troubles. Benedict & Van Noy, Andover; E. Breeze, Elm Valley.

"I had stomach trouble twenty years and gave up hope of being cured till I began to use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It has done me so much good I call it the savior of my life," writes W R. Wilkinson, Albany, Tenn. It digests what you eat. Benedict & Van Noy, Andover; E. Breeze, Elm Valley.

The Boston board of health declassed tuberculosis as contagious and required reports from physicians of cases of the disease. In the past five years deaths from consumption in Boston have been almost double the combined mortality from scarlet fever, diphtheria and typhoid fever.

The city of New York takes care of its blind residents who are also poor. Every year $50 or thereabouts is given to each indigent blind person who applies for assistance, provided the applicant is found to be in need of assistance. This year nearly 700 applications have been made.

"Topsyturvyopia" is the name given by doctors in southern California to the disease from which a little girl suffers. The child is seven years old, and was born with a defect of the optical structure that causes her to see everything reversed, just as ordinary mortals see themselves reflected in mirrors.

A school for beggars in New York pays its pupils one dollar a day and all they collect daily in excess of four dollars. There is a class of instruction that, too many in the cities are joining.

Call at the drug store of Benedict & Van Noy, at Andover, or at N. E. Coston's, Greenwood, and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are an elegant physic. They also improve the appetite, strengthen the digestion and regulate the liver and bowels. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.

W. S. Musser, Millheim, Pa., saved the life of his little girl by giving her One Minute Cough Cure when she was dying from croup. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. It quickly cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, grip, asthma and all throat and lung troubles. Benedict & Van Noy, Andover; E. Breeze, Elm Valley.

Dollars for Minutes.

True it takes some time to go through our store, as it is one of the largest and most interesting Home Furnishing Houses in Western New York. It's dollars for minutes. Money savings on every article are always so apparent that the name of Wooster and low prices for best goods have long since became household words. Low prices reign here the year 'round, but just now they are so amazingly low that it's like finding money to the wide-awake housewife.

You are invited personally to make T. G. Wooster & Bro's Home Furnishing House your headquarters on the 4th of July, and while you are resting a moment, we will have someone ready to usher you thru, and show you our immense establishment and the bargains which we have to offer: For Hornellsville certainly will have a program that everyone who is patriotic to their country cannot afford to miss. Come one, come all. You are welcome not only to Hornellsville, but to the Home Furnishing House of T. G. Wooster & Bro.

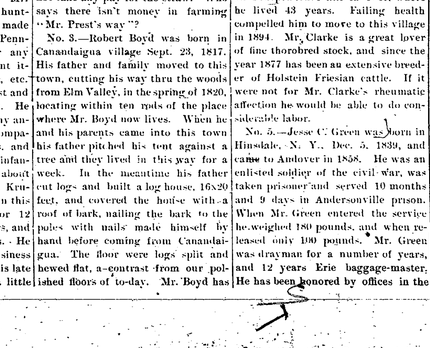
"TEN" OLD RESIDENTS.

Snap Shot of the "Ten Sitters" in the "Old Man's Club"—Short Sketch of Each.

[illegible] was one of the first warm spring days in the year 1900, when the old men who sit around the stoves in the country store moved out into old Sol's first warm rays. As they sat and talking over the "good old days" of the '20s and '30s, an amateur photographer (who was looking for objects) spied this spall party [illegible]



[illegible] enjoying a quiet smoke, whittling a pine stick, telling some "true" [illegible] of their olden times, reading [illegible] from the Boer war, current [illegible] and possibly the subject of [illegible] the new fangled vehicle (bicycle) from using the walks in [illegible] operation was under discussion. [illegible] segate age of the front row of [illegible] sects will amount to 711 years, [illegible] average of 71 years. The [illegible] 85 years of age. Four of the [illegible] ed in the rear of the rebellion. [illegible] seem strange to the reader to [illegible] at this group of old settlers [illegible] this place without any present conditions. All were situ[illegible] the positions seen in the picture found by the photographer. [illegible] ort sketch of each of the ten [illegible] ing or standing in the fore[illegible] may be of interest to our [illegible]

[illegible]—Joseph Krusen was born in [illegible] n of Washington, N. J., Sept. [illegible]. He is the oldest man in our [illegible] but is still a "cupid." When [illegible] rs old he moved to Newfield, [illegible] aca, this state. When seven [illegible] old he moved to Greenwood, [illegible] here fourteen years. He has [illegible] n Andover sixty years. Mr. [illegible] has done considerable hunt[illegible] d up to a few years ago made [illegible] trips to the big woods in Penn[illegible] in search of deer or any [illegible] game which might present it[illegible] He has killed bear, deer, etc. [illegible] rusen has been in the West and [illegible] considerable hunting there. He [illegible] lled 49 wolves and as many an[illegible] s. He was captain of a compa[illegible] artillery for three years and [illegible] got up a company of light infan[illegible] rd was captain of that for about [illegible] same length of time. Mr. Kru[illegible] has been honored by office in this [illegible] he being Supervisor for 12 [illegible] Deputy Sheriff for 9 years, and [illegible] master a number of years. He [illegible] also in the merchantile business [illegible] ndover for 36 years. At this late [illegible] e in his life he is doing a little farming, and is a wonderfully preserved man for his advanced age.

No. 2.—John Prest was born in Ontario county, N. Y., in the year 1827. He moved with his parents to this town when six years old, the family locating on the farm occupied and now owned by Loren Pingrey. In 1853 he moved to the village of Andover, where he has since resided. He has been Supervisor, Justice of the Peace, and was the first President of our corporation. He is a carpenter by trade and has done more building up the village than any other person. Mr. Prest says he never had any encounters with Indians or bears, but has had with mosquitoes, it being necessary, years ago, to build a fire to make a smudge in order to milk his cows. He has done considerable rafting, starting at Canisteo and taking his raft of logs and lumber to the Chesapeake Bay. Mr. Prest (according to Rob Bundy's account of it) also took to farming, some years ago, on Hartsville Hill. To make a long story short, Mr. Bundy bought some straw of Mr. Prest, and went up to see and get it. After they loaded the straw and bound it on firmly, Mr. Prest went to the house for an errand, Mr. Bundy going into the barn. The horses tipped the load into the snow and ran two miles. Rob and Mr. Prest walked the distance in snow waist deep, found the horses and returning, pitched the load on again and started for Andover. The load was tipped over and pitched on again. The same thing happened for the third time before they reached home. They arrived after dark, hungry and wet, and Mr. Prest thought he had worked Mr. Bundy hard enough so he would not take any pay for the straw. Who says there isn't money in farming "Mr. Prest's way"?

No. 3.—Robert Boyd was born in Canandaigua village Sept. 23, 1817. His father and family moved to this town, cutting his way thru the woods from Elm Valley, in the spring of 1820, locating within ten rods of the place where Mr. Boyd now lives. When he and his parents came into this town his father pitched his tent against a tree and they lived in this way for a week. In the meantime his father cut logs and built a log house, 16x20 feet, and covered the house with a roof of bark, nailing the bark to the poles with nails made himself by hand before coming from Canandaigua. The floor were logs split and hewed flat, a contrast from our polished floors of to-day. Mr. Boyd has always been a great lover of hunting, trapping, etc. He has killed many bears, deer and game of all description. He has seen Indians hunting and also has hunted with them in Pennsylvania. Deer were numerous, it being no uncommon thing to hear them browsing the leaves from the trees so as to be easily heard in the house where he lived. He also says that he can remember of his mother calling his older brother and telling him that a small snow had fallen in the night, and wished he would get up and get some venison for breakfast, which he did, and returned at 7 o'clock with a nice deer. Mr. Boyd is wonderfully preserved. He seldom if ever rides from his home to the village, a distance of about three miles by road. He walks off as spry as a boy. Mr. Boyd has voted 61 years and never missed but one election and one town meeting, he being away from home at the time. He says he remembers when our Main street was lined on the east side with woods, and on the west side was a big wheat field. The first grist-mill established on Corwin Hill was conducted by Abner Bullard, father of H. Bullard, on lot now owned by David Corwin. It was merely a hollow stump with a plugged bottom, over which was hung a spring pole with a heavy pestle where the corn was pounded sufficiently fine to make johnnycake with. Mr. Boyd says he has taken to school, for his dinner, johnnycake made from meal obtained in this way.

No. 4.—Jeremiah Clarke was born in Brookfield, Madison Co., N. Y., April 11, 1825, and came with his parents, in June of the same year, to this place. Jeremiah bought a farm on Independence hill in 1845, where he lived 43 years. Failing health compelled him to move to this village in 1894. Mr. Clarke is a great lover of fine thorobred stock, and since the year 1877 has been an extensive breeder of Holstein Friesian cattle. If it were not for Mr. Clarke's rheumatic affection he would be able to do considerable labor.

No. 5.—Jesse C. Green was born in Hinsdale, N. Y., Dec. 5, 1839, and came to Andover in 1858. He was an enlisted soldier of the civil war, was taken prisoner and served 10 months and 9 days in Andersonville prison. When Mr. Green entered the service he weighed 180 pounds, and when released only 100 pounds. Mr. Green was drayman for a number of years, and 12 years Erie baggage-master. He has been honored by offices in the town, being Highway Commissioner three years, postmaster, and one of the Assessors at this time.

No. 6.—Geo. W. Wescott was born in the town of Alfred April 11, 1842. He came to Andover when 14 years old and lived here since. He enlisted in the war of the rebellion in 1862, and was discharged on account of wounds in 1863. Mr. Wescott says he would had any experiences worthy of record, but has some wonderful snake stories to relate; but the writer thinks he has reformed and does not see snakes as large as he did in those days. He is a wagon and iron worker, doing business in this village.

No. 7.—T. L. Henderson was born in Guernsey county, Ohio, in 1842. He is a new resident of Andover, having only moved here since February, 1900. He was a soldier in the civil war. Mr. Henderson was deeply engaged in war news when the picture was taken, so the reader will necessarily have to put the X-ray on his hat to see how he looks.

No. 8.—Henry Bullard, the oldest man born in Andover who still lives here. He was born Feb. 17, 1820. His early days were served upon a farm, and at the trade of stone mason. He worked his farm until eight years ago, when he moved to this village. He is wonderfully preserved for a man of his age. He frequently walks to his farm and back, which is more than three miles each way. He says he can walk ten miles in a day now. He has seen Andover grow from its infancy, and says he has seen wolves and deer thicker than free silver Democrats. He can read common print readily without glasses. He works his own garden, and hires extra ground of a neighbor which he also works.

No. 9.—Frank M. Bassett was born Nov. 28, 1835, in the town of Independence. He graduated from Alfred University in 1858, and from Binghamton Commercial College in 1860. He enlisted in the war of the rebellion in 1862, serving as a musician, and was discharged Aug. 11, 1865. Always farmed for an occupation until 1891, when he retired, and moved to Andover, as he says, to "sit on people's front steps." He is now Clerk of the village of Andover, and makes a very efficient official.

No. 10.—James McGinty was born in Ballycroy, county Mayo, Ireland, May 6, 1834. He came to Canada by sailboat, sailing April 2, 1840, being six weeks and three days on the voyage. The first place he located was in Nunda, this state, in the summer of 1840, and in 1841 he moved to Baker's Bridge, now Alfred Station. In the spring of 1842 he moved back to Canada, thence to Buffalo in 1846. In 1847 he moved to Andover. After living here until 1870 he moved to Middletown, Orange county, and engaged in the merchantile business for two years, when he returned to Andover, where he has since resided. He is an extensive dealer in live stock and produce. He is also engaged in the oil and gas business, being for ten years a member of the Mutual Gas Company. He says he considers himself one of the plumpest, high-toned, thorobred, imported gentlemen in Allegany county, registered at Quebec, Canada; and if he lives says he will vote and shout for Bryan, is down on combinations and trusts, and death on political corruption assessments. The writer thinks that Mr. McGinty is very proud of his form and good looks, but one would think he was a native of the Fatherland rather than the Emerald Isle, judging from his physique.
