The Register is trying to delude its readers to believe that Mr. Litchard is a Simon pure anti-organization man all of a sudden. Bah! Mr. Freeze, you know the people won't take that down without more grease than you are able to give your fourth-term candidate.

The contemptable insinuations made last week by the Friendship Register concerning the candidacy of Supervisor Jesse S. Phillips for Assemblyman are so absolutely false that almost every one in the county will take it more as a joke than for the truth. So far as Mr. Phillips not being thoroly known thru the county is concerned, what difference does it make so long as he is made of the right material? We know he has never done any low-lived rascality or high-handed lying—which is more than can be said of some Allegany county publishers—that would tend to make his memory green in the minds of the people, and we are glad of it. Neither has he been raad out of the party with which he claims allegiance, and gained notoriety thereby.

The fact that the Friendship Register is working for the return, for the fourth time, of Assemblyman Litchard, is a certain indication that he cannot receive the nomination from the hands of his party. It is a singular fact that so sure as the Register takes up the candidacy of a person that person is sure to be snowed under. One of the probable reasons for this is that a person who is qualified and deserves the nomination of the Republican party, can always find good support from the regular Republican press in the county without accepting the advocacy of a paper not long since read out of the party. Candidates for nomination for offices in Allegany county, at the hands of the Republican party, will do well to shoot shy of the Register hereafter. If you cannot keep the parasite off any other way, better buy it off.

The latest news from the Orient is that the ministers from the different nations to the court of China are still alive; and that the Chinese government is doing what it can to stem the tide of fanaticism and rebellion that seems likely to overwhelm the Celestial Empire. The language of the pagan ruler avowing his pacific intentions contrasts strangely with the address of the Christian German Emperor to his soldiers about to embark for the field of operations. Here are his words: "If you close with the enemy remember this: Spare nobody; make no prisoners." Undoubtedly the threatened partition of China by the Christian nations has exasperated them beyond measure, and the lawless element seemed beyond the control of the authorities there, but nowhere has their officials used such intemperate language as that of the German monarch. Emperor William has placed himself on a level with the Boxers.

Art Reception.

An Art Reception and Sale will be given at the home of Mrs. Geo. Alger, Wellsville, on Friday, Aug. 3d, from 3 to 6 in the afternoon, and 7 to 10 in the evening. The sale will consist of water colors painted by Miss Josephine Woodcock of Urbano, Ohio. A most cordial invitation is extended to every one interested in art.

The camera fiend is bad enough, and there is continual protest against him by every person in whom the public takes an interest

New Terror to Public Men.

But the biograph fiend, who is threatening the peace of notables, is much worse. Kinetoscope pictures are about to be put within the reach of everyone. A London concern has established a studio where people may go to have moving pictures taken of themselves just as they now go to be photographed, and a cheap apparatus for the reproduction of the films is sold, which while not so good as those used in the theaters and nickel-in-the-slot devices yet answers the purpose. The manager of the studio says that it is in demand for weddings. The bride and bridegroom, bridesmaids, best man, and all the rest are photographed while the wedding ceremony is being performed. And the happy pair and their friends have copies of the films as souvenirs of the occasion. But this is not the worst. A cheap biograph machine has been invented by which a person may take hundreds of snap shots of anyone whom he chooses and reproduce them. It is but natural for the owner of a few biograph strips to want other films for his machine. But the worry to public people will be great. They will be the sufferers. For instance, instead of Gov. Roosevelt's children being photographed in bathing, the biograph fiend will take snap shots of their movements and reproduce them on the screen as living pictures. The aim of the fiends naturally would be to secure statesmen in the most undignified attitudes possible. It is to be hoped for the sake of their peace of mind that the biographs will not be made cheap enough to be within the reach of everyone.

A Scranton (Pa.) court is asked to grant the claim of one Isaac Sidebottom against the estate of John Shafer, deceased, for "entertaining the old man playing checkers" during a great part of three years.

"Little Colds" neglected—thousands of lives sacrificed every year. Dr Wood's Norway Pine Syrup cures little colds—cures big colds too, down to the very verge of consumption.

Top Notch Luxury.

The finest hotels in the land cannot surpass the Lake Shore Limited for luxury and comfort. No one who has not taken a trip on this palatial train can appreciate the magnificence of the appointments with which the entire train is furnished. It is composed of buffet, smoking and library car, drawing room car, sleeping and observation car and dining car. The entire train is lighted by electricity and a bath room, barber shop, writing room and library are among the unique features of this train. A stenographer and ladies' waiting maid and other attendants are ready to do your slightest bidding, and the journey thruout is made so pleasant that the traveler cannot but feel sorry when the journey is at an end. Life is not complete unless one has taken a journey from Buffalo to Chicago in this palace on wheels.

Letter to A. F. Wood.

ANDOVER, N. Y.

Dear Sir,—Ira Gould, a painter in Colebrook, N. H., bought of our agent there, Wesley Wentworth, 4 gallons of paint, thinned it down with two gallons of oil, and gave his own house one coat.

Every painter in town declared he had painted two coats.

"That's all the far the story goes," as Uncle Remus says. We don't know whether it made a good job or not; but the painter thought it did. We should call it priming. Maybe the house didn't need painting. A priming coat is enough if put on often enough.

But if Ira Gould had set out to do us a favor, he couldn't have done much better. One priming coat of Devoe is enough to make painters say, "He's been painting two coats; and wants us to think he has done it with one, and that half oil! No, thank you."

We don't know Mr. Gould but we know Mr. Wentworth. Guess the story is straight.

Yours very truly,

F. W. DEVOE & CO.

There are no better pills made than DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Always prompt and certain. Benedict & Van Noy, Andover; E. Breese, Elm Valley.

W. H. Crandall as Santa Claus.

The Equitable News, a monthly paper published in the interests of the many agents of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, has the following regarding Will H. Crandall, the well-known District Manager of the Society:

"W. H. Crandall of Alfred, N. Y., has sent us a lot of novelties which he uses for advertising purposes. He seems to have something to suit every one, from water-proof bags for the newsboys to dainty shopping lists for the ladies. There are rulers for the school-boy, calendars and pocket-books for the professional man, policy cases for policy holders, etc., etc. It must be a kind of perpetual Christmas up at Alfred with Crandall as Kris Kringle. No wonder Crandall's business sticks so well."

Premium Lists.

The Premium List of the Hornellsville Farmers' Club Fair is now ready for distribution. Write to the Secretary, H. L. Gifford, for free copy. Remember the dates, Aug. 27–31.

The Kid Had a Nice Time.

A mother sent her small boy into the country, and after a week of anxiety received this letter: "I got here all right, but I forgot to write before. A feller and I went out in a boat and the boat tipped over and a man got me out. I was so full of water I didn't know anything for a good time. The other boy has to be buried after they find him. His mother came and cried all the time. A horse kicked me over and I have got to have some money for fixin' my head. We are going to set an old barn on fire tonight, and should smile if we don't have some bully fun. I shall bring home a tame woodchuck if I can get it in my trunk."

WHAT NEXT?

Great Excursion to Olean and Bradford.

To the regions of Petroleum and Natural Gas, Sunday, Aug. 5th. The Erie Railroad Company will run a cheap sight-seeing excursion to Bradford and Olean. Olean is located in the valley of the Allegany and County Seat of Cattaraugus county. Let every one enjoy this grand trip. Life is too short to miss such opportunities. Special train will leave Andover at 9:46 a. m. Fare, round trip, to Bradford, $1.00; fare, round trip, to Olean, $1.00.

Eye Strain Illness.

'Tis a dangerous matter to do much reading on the average train, and eye strain cannot be avoided as a result of the jolting usually experienced in traveling unless one travels on the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway. The roadbed of this line is so perfect and its cars so delicately balanced that jolting is reduced to a minimum and the passenger may read to his "heart's content" without experiencing any inconvenience. But then, travel on the Lake Shore is perfect in every way.

James Hammond takes the belt for raising early sweet corn in Andover, so far as we have learned. He picked the first mess for dinner last Sunday.

A girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Gallagher at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Dean, Thursday. Mrs. Gallagher came from her Washington home early in the summer.

Of the millions of pension money paid out by the Government the past year, the sum of $5,886,245.64 was distributed from the agency in Buffalo, largely to residents of Western New York.

Those who wish to see Joe William's first photograph of himself and automobile while in operation, taken by an expert artist, will call at the store of H. H. Williams, where it is on exhibition.

New cement walks are to be laid in front of the post-office, P. Cannon & Son's store, on Main street, and the residence of E. J. Atwood on Pleasant avenue. The contract for the work has been closed with a Hornellsville party.

The library is kept open Saturday afternoons for the convenience of those who cannot come in the evening. Those drawing books in the afternoon will be served more quickly, and all who can are urged to draw books in the afternoon.

We are glad to announce that Rev. A. F. Schauffler, D. D., a member of the International Sunday-school Lesson Committee, has been engaged to speak in Wellsville on Thursday evening, Oct. 11th. Our people will surely want to hear him.

It is not an unusual thing to see some one of Andover's enterprising merchants unloading a carload of feed or flour, but to see one, as A. M. Burrows & Son did yesterday, unload a full carload of soap is an unusual occurrence for Andover.

Tip Mourhess has put a new flag walk in front of his store on Main street. He calculates of having something he can change as often as the village board change their mind about the grade of the street. A wise precaution. J. C. Bassett had the contract.

The Erie depot at Almond is to be materially improved and modernized. We hope the officials will keep right on and come this way. Andover needs a new depot very much, and she patronizes the Erie railroad several times as much as either Almond or Alfred.

The expense of making the survey for the Shawmut line amounts to about $500 a mile. The cost of the recent survey from Angelica to State Line was about $16,000. It costs money to find the best grade for a trunk line railroad across a broken country.

The Martines will be seen in their Sensational European Gymnastic Novelty, LaBoundico. This act was never introduced on this side until this year and is worth traveling miles to see. Specially engaged at enormous cost for the Wellsville Fair, August 20–24, 1900.

1900 is the first session in five years that the Cuba Assembly has been compelled to cancel the engagement of an advertised attraction, and consider how grandly they have provided for the necessity, now that it has come. Note the change in program in another column.

Hornellsville United Trade and Labor Council are trying to get up another Labor-day performance for Sept. 3d. It is to be hoped if they undertake the job again this year they will raise enough of the "needful" to take care of the people they invite there in better shape than they did last season.

The Premium List of the Seventeenth Annual Fair of the Hornellsville Farmers' Club, Aug. 27–31, is received. It is a book of 72 pages, from the press of Tuttle & Bunnell, Hornellsville, and contains all the needed information usually found in such publications. It is a very creditable piece of work.

Each year the Trustees of Alfred University expend the interest on $20,000 on cement walks which are laid on the University grounds. This year the contract for the work was awarded to Ezra Devore of Wellsville, who so recently put in our Main street walk. Mr. Devore will commence his work in Alfred at once.

Mr. McLean, County Treasurer of Genesee county, forwarded to Mr. Parmelee, County Treasurer at Canandaigua, for Ontario county, a check for $5,887.89 to pay the fees of jurors who served and who were excused, the sheriff's deputies and court stenographer and all other small bills connected with the Benham murder trial.

We will guarantee one-half of the hose company boys would have to ask some one where the cart was before they started for a fire. This is a very risky fire protection. No one is to be blamed however, except the corporation itself. The boys use the storage for their paraphernalia that the village furnish—at present it is the American Hotel barn.

Green Cornelius was released from jail on Tuesday morning last week in time to take train 6 for his home in Alfred. His wife and brother went on his bail bond for $1,000. He is suffering from a cancer of the stomach, and Sheriff Hodnett expresses the opinion that he will not live three months. He is charged with selling beer at his hotel at Alfred Station.

We clip the following from last week's Democrat: "The Alfred Sun is still clawing the air and yelling 'Litchard! Litchard!' at every yank. Come off, now, and give some young man a show. We will play that Litchard is all right, just for fun, but you know the 'bunch-lights on his political paint frame went out' two years ago. The managers didn't know it or were too cowardly to take advantage of the fact. You can't light them again with a wet match. No use to try."

The sad intelligence came to the many friends of Fred Phinney Friday, of his sudden death. He was at work in the hay field Friday, when he had a sunstroke and died in a few hours. He used to live at Andover, but some years ago bought a farm between Olean and Hinsdale, where he has resided since. The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at his late residence. Andover relatives and friends in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Brundage, Floyd Brundage, G. E. Brown and wife, Frank Updyke, Mrs. E. J. Loughlen, and Rochester Bundy.

The campaign song writer is just now very much abroad in the land, and in a few weeks the country will be fairly flooded with more or less tuneful and stirring rhymes extolling the virtues of the various presidential aspirants and their running mates. Here, as a sample, is a gem in ragtime:

We'll cast our votes for you-oo-oo,
For you are the leaders true-oo-oo;
—— and —— are the pair;
We'll vote for them everywhere,
And we will elect them too oo-oo!

The blank spaces may be filled with the names of the favored candidates. The length of the names cuts no figure, as any old number of feet goes in political ragtime.—Observer.

Some cunning "Alec," with more cussedness in his nature than brains in his head, rang up the central on the Andover line about 12 o'clock Friday night and told Undertaker Smith that Sherman Crandall had suddenly died of heart trouble, hoping to get Smith to drive up there on a Tom fool errand. When asked his name he failed to give it, and when asked where he was he lied outright, and said he was "up here at Independence." Had it not been for the equivocation about his name, the lie about the place, and the fact that Mr. Smith spends no time talking with fools, things might have worked as the rascal intended. Whoever he was he ought to have six months at Belmont in order to learn him a much-needed lesson.
