missioner.

Business and Trade.

Trade never was as good at this season of the year, in this place, as now.

The reason is, that people from all parts are finding out that Andover is the cheapest and best place to trade in Allegany county. This is being fully proved by the increase of foreign trade,

as it is a good market, always paying

the best of prices, and selling goods at a much lower figure than elsewhere.

For the interest of those who are considering to trade we would say, consult the advertising columns of this paper.

Trade Talk.

A scrap of conversation in this wise

was overheard in a New York office a

a few days ago:

"How's business?"

"Dull! Awfully dull!"

"Doing any advertising?"

"Not 'em! 'em! 'em! a month ago!"

"How long since business got dull?"

"Oh, three or four weeks ago."

"That is--about the time you stopped advertising."

(Merchant rummages and canvasses

looks innocent.) (Newspaper Repon-

ter.)

In this village, Saturday, Nov. 21st, at 7 P.M.

Great Thanksgiving dinner again the first

of next week.

We will call the attention of our readers to the arrangement of J. W.

Faber, dealer "Wanted."

Patrick Cannon has moved into his new house on Elm street. He is one of the most elegant residences in the place.

W. H. Burrows, of the firm of Burrows & Young, is in the city purchasing another installation of goods. They mean business.

Good to the City.

J. P. Burton, of the firm of Beaton

& Burrows, is in the city purchasing a

stock of Drugs, Books, Perfumery,

Stationery and also stock Holiday

goods.

Temperance Lecture.

Mr. J. Lorion, the favorite Lecturer

of Green Co. N. Y., will address the citizens of this place Monday evening December 1st, at the Methodist Church, on the subject of Temperance.

The Ladies Publishing Society of

the M. E. Church, will give a New England supper at the residence of

Ms. Peter VanSickle next Tuesday evening Dec. 2d. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

By order of Committee.

Mr. Dwight Young and wife were on a tour of travel coming to this village

Tuesday, when the team became frightened at an umbrella, and ran away. Mrs. Young was thrown to the ground, and one wheel of the wagon

passed over her back, but not breaking it. Mr. Young was somewhat wounded, but no serious injuries.

The Erie Railway Company have made arrangements to exchange business with the New York and Oswego

Midland R. R. at Millstatt. Under

this arrangement passengers can propose tickets at the company's office to all stations on the line between Middstown and Oswego. There will be a great convenience. —Eliza Garetz.

Good Street of Little Valley.

Gives publicity to the following epistles,

which he copied from a stone in an old cemetery in Chervon, while with

Sherman on his famous march to the front.

We have my country--what are they to

thee?

Blue--whether high or low my pedigree?

Orange--for the sun is other?

Yellow--what is the weather?

Green--that thou seek a tomb?

Red--knowest its secret? It hides--no mat- ter whom?
