PRESIDENTS MESSAGE.

To the Senate and House of Representatives.

The year that has passed since the submission of my last message to Congress has been a year of unusual interest and activity in the history of our country.

In the midst of great national crises and of the most important questions of the day, the Government has been able to maintain its position of peace and order, and to conduct its business with efficiency and economy.

The relations of the United States to the world have been of importance, and the Government has been able to maintain its position of peace and order, and to conduct its business with
