Your Husband's Chair

Is supposed to be particularly comfortable; but why should not every chair in the house be the same? We have a line of chairs that are substantial, handsome and comfortable.

Come and look them over, and we venture to say that a mistake cannot be made by looking over our whole line of Furniture, as our purchases have been so carefully made that whatever is bought here cannot help but be satisfactory. Style, quality and finish will please you, as well as the price.

S. J. FOWLER,
Funeral Director and Undertaker. Benton Block.

Don't be Blind To Your Own Interest, in the point of style and in the point of price. Look at this handsome rocker for $3.39, others ask $4.50.

In Rockers we have in actual count 723, arranging in the latest styles and novelties from a misses' rocker for 89 cents to a large Turkish rocker for $23.00.

In Davenports and Lounges we have the greatest variety.

Every day we have proof that people are awakening to the idea of buying their furniture and draperies from the manufacturer, for they get better results and their goods are guaranteed. We make a study of the liberal arts which make home unique, cosy and beautiful, and we are better prepared to arrange your home and give you ideas that are worth your time to investigate. Never before has our Upholstering Factory and Drapery Department been rushed to its highest capacity as at the present time.

Come and see our furnished rooms. They are evidences of the art and skill which we are able to afford you. In furniture, carpets, draperies, and in fact everything for the home. This is our motto: "High grades, superior designs and low prices."

I DID THINK OF GOING TO THE CITY to buy goods, but it will cost a man from $40 to $50 the very best he could do, and the buyer can buy anything in my line just as well and stay at home, thereby saving my customers $40 to $50 which they would be obliged to pay if I went.

If I should tell you that you never got a bargain except at my place, it might be the truth, but altogether more likely to be a lie. I will leave that to you where you get the bargains and where you don't, but be sure and look over my goods and get prices before you buy.

W. C. T. U. Notes.

Prof. E. S. Redmond, Superintendent of Schools for Hornellsville, addressed the State W. C. T. U. Convention on the curfew law. He gave its origin, tracing it down from the middle ages. He said that nothing but good could come from the custom, as the bell was a means of safety then as now, as has been attested in Hornellsville. The report of Mrs. A. M. Hart, State Superintendent of this movement, said this subject had been agitated in seventy-six places the past year, and the law secured in thirteen cities and villages, Jamestown being the largest, making a total of twenty-five in this state. There has been no repeal of the law in any place after securing it.

The Filipinos people, like any other people in the world, form their judgment of another race with whom they come in contact. In the matter of drinking they believe the whole American people to be on a par with the drunken element of our present army of occupation. They don't like us, and have a deep contempt for drunkenness.

ASSEMBLYMAN-ELECT JESSE S. PHILLIPS, OF ANDOVER, N. Y.

Jesse S. Phillips was elected Member of the Assembly by a plurality of over 2600. We are glad to present to our readers the above portrait of Mr. Phillips. He made a thoro canvass of the county, becoming acquainted with its best element, and making a favorable impression, the result being manifested in the large vote he received.

Mrs. Betsey A. Rice.

Mrs. Betsey A. Rice passed from earth to heaven Oct. 28th, 1900. She was born in Burling, Mass., Feb. 7th, 1827, and came with her parents to Andover in 1840, and was married to Mr. Manson Rice in 1841. For nearly sixty years she had been an active member of the Baptist Church and an earnest supporter of every good work. She stood for all that is best in character and influence in the home, the church and in the community. She was a woman of character, a devoted mother, and steadfast friend. She had always had good health until prostrated by failing strength, incident to age, which was borne with unvarying cheerfulness and hopefulness.

The family mourn the loss of a devoted and loving mother, the community of a kind-hearted neighbor, and the church of a good faithful member. A daughter who has lovingly cared for her during these months of affliction will especially miss her presence here. Truly it may be said of her, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." Funeral services were conducted at the home Wednesday, at 10 a. m., by her pastor, Rev. V. L. Eggleton, assisted by Rev. G. M. Janes.
