| The reality No. And Chief the State of the S | | | | | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| THE WATER METER. | Rester's Point where we were now | eye on him for security of payment, and to follow with his other eye the | from Birdie to her mother, in whom | | |
| I'm a wieted water moter. Pharisale water meter, | resying, and where he now told us | night of the balloons in the opposite | lyn Carter. Her husband, Mr. Tred- | | |
| With a face of white ename, hard enamel | - Liver for their nearth or for amuse- | A dozen men hupried to the motore | born; but Col. Jack had known noth- | | |
| Poter, jooking out into the future like a gold. | did not know what else to do; and al- | boats, with which they tried to chase | ing about this, having heard no news | | |
| መጀመር መስከት መመመስ የመለመው ለመስከት የተመጀመሩ ለአንዳ እና ለሚፈር እና ለመመመር የሚያለው እና ለመመመር ለመስከት ለሚፈር እና መንዳር እና ለመመር እና ለመፈር እና ለ የመጀመር እና የመጀመር እና የመጀመር እና የመጀመር እና የመጀመር እና ለመመመር እና የመጀመር እና የመጀመር እና የመጀመር እና የመጀመር እና የመጀመር እና የመጀመር እና የመ | though thous was not much shooting to be had at Rectors, he was con- | istalia kitalia ilika madali kita kita kita kita kita kita kita kit | 结 1500克 克克特克森 1. 1 2.00克克 克克克克克克克克克克克克克克克克克克克克克克克克克克克克克克克克克 | Auntian Rille | |
| alligator plays the mischief with my vitals in its efforts to get through. | legittly seem carrying mis mit, mount | Whenever she should drop into the | l before the season, at Reefer's Point | ************************************** | |
| I meaned the etuning againment as an array training | hotel, or along the lonely beaches, or | water. But it was a hopeless pursuit. | was over, and that was how he came to be the stepfather of "Baby Bal- | | FIRM |
| numbered root or two. | to earl for him up and down and | ping, shouted Mr. Middleby, who was | Ioon," | | |
| SCRUCE. With the simple semant water un- | I manday estationed on nominantities statt fift. | I MOVES UNIOUSIN THE RIPLICATED THAN THE | hatara aur convenention with the col- | | |
| The state of the s | good naturedly, for lugging the gun- | thoso air bags explode or fall of sha | onel that evening on the piazza. The | | |
| describer teke a Proposan tours | with this on all occasions. But no | will be swept so far from land that was | stances to us. Joe Terrill come to him | | Donés of Branch Comme |
| O, I often pause and wonder as I ponder o'er my | lonely man, and the rifle was his prin- | All at once help came from an an | and said: "Colonel, I was very much | 1 . | Route of Travel, The Erie Railway there is the direct and popular thoroughter America |
| | cipal companion. When he was in a romantic mood he would pat the stock or the fine "twist" home of the | LIOTUSUUL CHATHE. 2110 ANA AT LEACT AF | l morbit huit it exciled a little when et | i Tillifed Aftil Westicop due ecobesen | and Suffato, Cleveland, Chicago in the between |
| into aringer, and adobe a water hieter more | I OF THE BILL OF THE PARTY OF THE PURITY | THE PAID WAY IN COL. IN CUSTOM'S INTO ANY | Miss Riplia's life moveelf on common I | at | with rock, insuring the minimum of dus and hard coal engines do way with |
| mBandotta tattu 11 — 110 11 mph | ring, "This rifle, sir, is my bride, and | With the wind on her hearn' nucroning | could get a good chance to do so, pre- | | dere. The coaches are lighted with smoke and a tricity, and the new system of cross or each |
| BABY BALLOON | she never talks except when I want her to." At that remark his friends | to tack into the harbor. Ben Piver at | But as I found you had already saved | | I CONTINUE AND |
| · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · | her to." At that remark his friends would privately laugh more than ever. But they soon discovered, as I shall speedily demonstrate, that his romantic attachment to the oun was a very | That's the queerest game bird that | wind seemed to have been taken clean | The News Office | made in union stations, are direct and |
| "How did she come by such a queer | speedily demonstrate, that his roman- tic attachment to the gun was a very | in the gir with a big yellow thumb | out of my sails. It occurred to me that if I were to attempt saying her again I | TITO IN CILLO | and retes are generally lower than those of |
| peating the question that had been put | tic attachment to the gun was a very lucky thing, which rendered him and certain other persons an unexpected | "It's got shoes and a skirt and about twenty-five heads. I should indee but | might be overdoing matters. So, I | | Tullingu Arryica — ruuman'a angga sa |
| to him: by one of our party. "Well, | contain other measure | Anomal manage remain langer pur | mave spoken to her today, and she | Our facilities are unexcelled for doing | New York, Philadelphia, Buffalo, and to and from Cleveland, Chicago, Cincinnati, M. Louis and Pitteburg. The Buffet cars are models of the gance, possessing all the Tuxuries of the sleening concherged. |
| you may be sure that she wasn't christened so. During the first three | Little Birdie Tredloe, then a bright, | the strange object in the air was some | my waiting around to rescue her, be- | | |
| vears of their eareer it wash it very well i | orown naired child of a, was a great | distance away and so unlike one der l | in a lang while and she has somewhat | poster to the smallest card. | of all kinds which supplied with retrocks the |
| aid eyes on her. But until the end | hoon brongly by her bear and | that it took both men two or three | proval. Will you?" | | service will be the found train, the brief but |
| of that period she was known as Bir- | to recover from the effects of | minutes to comprehend what it was, | Col. Jack gave it. "I'm glad I | IF YOU WANT | THEW YORK TURSONNESS . |
| was her real name. I'll tell you how be | All the old ladies and old contlower | in they are not fully understand | The nera enough to win a good wo- | | 1 1100018, Willolegale and return to the leading |
| she came to be called 'Baby Bal- | about the place, and even some of the | made mad nappened. But Col. Jack | man's love anyway, and if you've | | houses, and steamship piers. To European and coastwise passengers, the Erio offers conveniences which cannot be equaled by any other line Connections are made with the New York, Net Haven and Hartford Railway, and all links. |
| The young person to whom he re- | her and netting her But Cal Inch. | giri was or nowever she had got into | to suit me. "-George Parsons Lathrop | • | Ing from Jersey Ofter Angulary and all tiles less. |
| lark hair, serious eyes, fresh healthy | not appear to have noticed her. Hol | place for a child of her age. And there | A Ting Tittle Diels I'm | anything in this line don't fail to | Steamers for albany, and the round Lines to |
| o graceful and bouyant that you | not spend much of his time on the | He raised his rifle and let fly. But | Upon the testimony of an old negro | | Incoming Steamars training transfer, |
| night easily have expected her to | hotel piazza. Moreover, although fond | the motion of his cathoat and the | 330,000 by the Toppesses transfer | | able to meet them will be role and who are us. |
| preeze should happen to blow across | bering his disappointment in not had | toke a superior The first of him to | for there are record to the laterest | Can Ann Camplas | in this respect, as authorized brie agents, family |
| netel at Reefer's Point, where we sat | the sight of a metty child frequently | mo effect. Ben Piver gave a short dis- | the ferting $2,500, was bequeathed to | | der any and every assistance in their percent |
| | | | | | cheerfully arranged upon application to any |
| evially apt to occur to you when you | him that he had none of his own. Besides, he had been at the hotel only | harbor was full of boats coming out toward him, and that there was a high | wealthy Louisiana planter. The money was to be paid when she married. H | | Tickets.—The Frie has the most complete size |
| s she frequently did of evenings. | Besides, he had been at the hotel only two or three days when the important event connected with Birdie took | crowd on the shore watching the pro- | R. W. Hill, the child's uncle, was made her testamentary trustee. He | · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · | ety of routes and the towest possible greatest vari- |
| riu Tranicr mought that handsomet | place. It is certain that he had not once seen her with her mother, and did not even know her pame | LATOT 1 No. 1 Process of the same of the s | | In A di A sa A | an advantageous form of transport will find |
| riends), who danced with her a great eal, would not have objected to have | did not even know her name. | the breech, "my reputation's gone, | Trom the estate of James Thek Hill 1 | • | exceptional inducements, and in addition to its |
| | one arternoon when a brisk wind | and I leave Reefer's Point to-night." | ms son and heir. The question at | | at reduced rates, entitling the builty of tickets, |
| min, Joe was in love with Miss Tred- | Piver taking his our as usual and | crowd and Ben heard its mournful | had been Hill's hody servert and set | | rounding towns. |
| Baby Balloon." Joe Terrill had | sea cold if he could find no better | air; and almost instantly one of the | tied the knowly point in the affirma- | WALLS NILLE VALL | Colonists.—The Erie offers low rates and su- perior accommodations to prospec- tors and settlers in the West. Trustworthy and |
| lenty of money, but he was not satis- ed with that: he wanted Miss Tred | game. Some of the visitors were bath- | An audible cheer came blowing out | · • | | ity desired, will be furnished upon upplication. |
| oe as well. When he did me the | on the etermbert where stilling | from the people on shore and in the | A valuable Horse, | | care will be taken of passenger agent, and special |
| onor to confide this to me one day, I | were promenading in front of the | Dat inct in a size 1 | 117 D D D D D D D D D D D D D D D D D D | | FINALES MILL PAPER |
| and to him, "Why in the world, then, | hotel; while a group of children at the | But just imagine how Mrs. Tredloe | where what looks like extravagant valuations are sometimes put upon | _ | Lakes and Parks.—The Erie is fortunate in' the location along its line of the most beautiful and romantic lakes and |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied. "I don't feel at | Indian tent, not far away, were buy- | smoke from the catboat, and realized | horseflesh. It is said that W. Bur | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill | parks in America, and popular excursions and |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at | Indian tent, not far away, were buy- ing bead moccasins and birch bark | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She | horseflesh. It is said that W. Bur- dett-Coutts is the possessor of a fa- | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill | parks in America, and popular excursions and |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my | Indian tent, not far away, were buy- ing bead moccasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better-to-let her drown on blow areas because let her drown on blow areas because | horsefiesh. It is said that W. Bur- dett-Coutts is the possessor of a fa- mous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fire- away—that represents in his stock a money value of £250 000. He is so | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, or anything else you want. | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is. I don't amount to enough a | Indian tent, not far away, were buy- ing bead moccasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better-to-let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in | horseflesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, or anything else you want. | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough." If y money came to me by inheritance, that's nothing to my credit. And | Indian tent, not far away, were buy- ing bead moccasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy some- thing for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better-to-let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shoot- | horseflesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, or anything else you want. | parks in America, and popular excursions and picufe to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Eastward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. 6 |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. In y money came to me by inheritance, that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance. | Indian tent, not far away, were buy- ing bead moccasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy some- thing for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better-to-let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried | horseflesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH. | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, or anything else you want. | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Eastward from ANDOVER, N.Y Train No. 6 |
| "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. In y money came to me by inheritance, that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had ally done some great petion or made | Indian tent, not far away, were buy- ing bead moccasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy some- thing for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps to- gether. Before they had reached the | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better-to-let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so | horseflesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, cranything else you want. Try US and Sec. | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Eastward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. 6 |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me o take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. In y money came to me by inheritance, that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had any done some great action or made | Indian tent, not far away, were buy- ing bead moccasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy some- thing for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps to- gether. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she her | horseflesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, cranything else you want. Try US and See. | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Eastward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. 6 |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me o take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough." In y money came to me by inheritance, that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had any done some great action or made name for myself. I might possilly spect to win her. My notion is she cants a hero. Oh, by Joye!—that's a | Indian tent, not far away, were buy- ing bead moccasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy some- thing for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps to- gether. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dozen toy bal | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better-to-let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again | horseflesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, or anything else you want. Try US and See. | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Eastward from ANDOVER, N.Y Train No. 6. 11.18a.m. 200 p.m. 14. 6.33 " Westward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. "95. 7.05 a.m. 3. 8.47 " 29. 141 p.m. 1. 8.24 " |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. In y money came to me by inheritance, that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had any done some great action or made name for myself. I might possibly spect to win her. My notion is she ants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a | Indian tent, not far away, were buy- ing bead moceasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy some- thing for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps to- gether. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dozen toy bal- | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better-to-let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was binzing away again with his wife at alarm. | horseflesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, or anything else you want. Try US and Sec. | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Eastward from ANDOVER, N.Y Train No. 6. 11.18a.m. 200 p.m. 14. 6.33 " Westward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. "95. 7.05 a.m. 3. 8.47 " 29. 141 p.m. 1. 8.24 " |
| "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. If y money came to me by inheritance, that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had any done some great action or made name for myself, I might possilly expect to win her. My notion is she cants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cod idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save er from drowning, then she'd be | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moccasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dezen toy ballons for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better-to-let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balloons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's | horsefiesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Gatarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and custachian tubes. Microscopic research, however has proved this to be a fact and the | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, or anything else you want. Try US and Sec. | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Eastward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. 6 |
| "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. If y money came to me by inheritance, that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had any done some great action or made name for myself, I might possilly expect to win her. My notion is she cants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cool idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save er from drowning, then she'd be are to have me." | Indian tent, not far away, were buy- ing bead moccasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy some- thing for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps to- gether. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dezen toy bal- leons for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, besutiful big apples!" ex- | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balloons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the box | horsefiesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the liming membrane of the nose and custachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh catarrhal deafness. | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, or anything else you want. Try US and Sec. OUR PRICES | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Eastward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. 6. 11.18a.m. 2.00 p.m. 44. 6.33 " Westward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. "95. 7.05 a.m. 8.47 " 29. 141 p.m. 8.24 " Daily, excepting Sundays. Further information may be obtained from C. H. KILHAKDSON, agent at ANDOVER, or from C. H. KILHAKDSON, agent a |
| "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me o take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. If y money came to me by inheritance, that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had any done some great action or made name for myself. I might possibly expect to win her. My notion is she cants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cod idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save er from drowning, then she'd be are to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do are up every day; and when-they do take their appearance it is likely | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moccasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dozen toy balloops for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, beautiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large clastic crimson globes which she scented | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better-to-let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balloons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand | horseflesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the national operations made | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, cranything else you want. Try US and See. OUR PRICES | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Eastward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. 6 |
| "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. If y money came to me by inheritance, that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance at the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had any done some great action or made name for myself. I might possibly expect to win her. My notion is she cants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cool idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save er from drowning, then she'd be are from drowning, and when-they do have their appearance it is likely nough to be just at a moment when the are not prepared to core with them | Indian tent, not far away, were buy- ing bead moceasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy some- thing for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps to- gether. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dozen toy bal- leons for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, besutiful big apples!" ex- claimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large clas- tic crimson globes, which she seemed to mistake for fruit. "Give Birdie | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balloons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. | horseflesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutis is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the liming membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, or anything else you want. Try US and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Eastward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. 6 |
| "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. If y money came to me by inheritance, that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance at the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had any done some great action or made name for myself. I might possilly expect to win her. My notion is she cants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cod idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save er from drowning, then she'd be are to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do arm up every day; and when-they do take their appearance it is likely nough to be just at a moment when the are not prepared to cope with them. | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moceasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dezen toy baltons for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, beautiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large clastic crimson globes, which she scenicd to mistake for fruit. "Give Birdie one?" | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better-to-let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balloons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third | horseflesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutis is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the liming membrane of the nose and custachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, or anything else you want. Try US and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Eastward from ANDOVER, N.Y Train No. 6. 11.18a.m. 200 p.m. 4. 6.33 " Westward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. *95. 7.05 a.m. 8.47 " 29 141 p.m. 8.24 " Daily, excepting sundays. Further information may be obtained from C. H. KICHAKDSON, agent at ANDOVER, of from C. H. KICHAKDSON, agent at ANDOVER, of from G. H. KICHAKDSON, agent at ANDOVER, of from Gen. Pass. Agt. Buffalo N.Y. L. P. FARMER, Gen. Pass. Agt. Buffalo N.Y. |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough." I y money came to me by inheritance, that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had aly done some great action or made name for myself. I might possilly spect to win her. My notion is she ants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cod idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save ar from drowning, then she'd be are to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do an up every day; and when-they do take their appearance it is likely nough to be just at a moment when e are not prepared to cope with them. In not being able to impress these nimals into his service, Terrill perstently took Miss Treellos out coiling. | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moceasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dozen toy balloops for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, besutiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large clastic crimson globes, which she scenicd to mistake for fruit. "Give Birdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balloons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up | horsefiesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Contis is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Dixon & Son, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada—Scientific American | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, cranything else you want. Try US and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Eastward from ANDOVER, N.Y Train No. 6. 11.18a.m. 200 p.m. 4. 6.33 " Westward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. *95. 7.05 a.m. 8.47 " 29 141 p.m. 8.24 " Daily, excepting sundays. Further information may be obtained from C. H. KICHAKDSON, agent at ANDOVER, of from C. H. KICHAKDSON, agent at ANDOVER, of from G. H. KICHAKDSON, agent at ANDOVER, of from Gen. Pass. Agt. Buffalo N.Y. L. P. FARMER, Gen. Pass. Agt. Buffalo N.Y. |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me o take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. I y money came to me by inheritance, of that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance at the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had aly done some great action or made name for myself. I might possibly spect to win her. My notion is she ants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cool idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save are from drowning, then she'd be are to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do are up every day; and when-they do take their appearance it is likely nough to be just at a moment when e are not prepared to cope with them. In the being able to impress these minals into his service, Terrill perstently took Miss Tredloe out sailing, if with a view to some opportune arine disaster. It was positively | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moccasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps to gether. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dozen toy balloops for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, besutiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large clastic crimson globes, which she scenicd to mistake for fruit. "Give Eirdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balloon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted, imagining she was to have the artists. | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better—to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balloons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, seftly, she began to | horsefiesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the liming membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Dixon & Son, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, cranything else you want. Try Us and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Lastward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. 6. 11.18a.in. 200 p.m. 46. 200 p.m. 633 " Westward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. *55. 7.05a.m. 8.47 " 29. 141 p.m. 8.24 " *Dally, excepting Sundays, Further information may be obtained from C. H. Idle HARDSON, agent at ANDOVER, or from SEO. B. SLLERY. Gen'l Northern Pass. Agt. Buffalo N.Y. L.P. FERNER, Gen. Sup't. (Lackawana & Pittebrer) |
| "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my loney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. I y money came to me by inheritance, that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had my done some great action or made name for myself. I might possilly spect to win her. My notion is she ants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cool idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save are from drowning, then she'd be are to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do are up every day; and when-they do ake their appearance it is likely nough to be just at a moment when e are not prepared to cope with them. O, not being able to impress these nimals into his service, Terrill perstently took Miss Tredloe out sailing, if with a view to some opportune marine disaster. It was positively nuising to notice how he dogged her | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moccasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dozen toy baldons for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, besutiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large clastic crimson globes, which she seemed to mistake for fruit. "Give Birdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balloon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted, imagining she was to-have the entire-bunch. | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better—to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man—from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the ballcons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, seftly, she began to descend, precisely as it she were being let downward by a pair of arms moving conting conting and a pair of arms moving conting conting conting and a pair of arms moving conting conting conting and a pair of arms moving conting conting conting and a pair of arms moving conting conting conting and a pair of arms moving conting conting and a pair of arms moving conting conting conting and a pair of arms moving conting and a pair of arms moving conting and a pair of arms of arms moving conting and a pair of arms of arms and a pair of a pair of a pair of arms of a pair of | horseflesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the liming membrane of the nose and custachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Dixon & Son, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully. | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, cranything else you want. Try Us and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Lastward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. 6. 11.18a.in. 200 p.m. 46. 200 p.m. 633 " Westward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. *55. 7.05a.m. 8.47 " 29. 141 p.m. 8.24 " *Dally, excepting Sundays, Further information may be obtained from C. H. Idle HARDSON, agent at ANDOVER, or from SEO. B. SLLERY. Gen'l Northern Pass. Agt. Buffalo N.Y. L. P. FERNER, Gen. Sup't. (Lackawana & Pittebrer) |
| "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. I woney came to me by inheritance, that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had my done some great action or made name for myself. I might possibly spect to win her. My notion is she ants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cod idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save are from drowning, then she'd be are to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do are up every day; and when they do ake their appearance it is likely nough to be just at a moment when e are not prepared to cope with them. In not being able to impress these nimals into his service, Terrill perstently took Miss Tredloe out sailing, if with a view to some opportune earine disaster. It was positively nusing to notice how he dogged her tot the design of destroying it, but of | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moccasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dozen toy ballong for sale, all fastened by long strilgs to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, besutiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large clastic crimson globes, which she scemed to mistake for fruit. "Give Birdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balloon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted, imagining she was to-have the entirebunch. "All—all for me!" she cried, and clapping her hands, she stretched. | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better—to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was biazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balloons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, seftly, she began to descend, precisely as if she were being let downward by a pair of arms moving gently, and in a few minutes Col. Jack had the satisfaction of sceing her sink unicity, and in a few minutes Col. | horseflesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the liming membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Drxon & Son, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully. Send your job printing to the News office. "The best work—low prices." | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, or anything else you want. Try Us and Sec. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Eastward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. 6. 11.16a.m. 200 p.m. 6.33 " Westward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. *95. 7.05 a.m. 8.47 " 29. 141 p.m. 8.24 " *Daily, excepting sundays. Further information may be obtained from C. H. Mr. HAKDSON, agent at ANDOVER, or from EBO. B. ALLERY. Gen'l Northern Pass. Agt. Buffalo N.Y. L. P. FARMER. Gen. Pass: Agt. Gen. Sup't. |
| "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. I woney came to me by inheritance, that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had ally done some great action or made name for myself. I might possibly spect to win her. My notion is she ants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cod idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save are from drowning, then she'd be are to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do are up every day; and when they do take their appearance it is likely nough to be just at a moment when e are not prepared to cope with them. I contain the service, Terrill perstently took Miss Tredloc out sailing, if with a view to some opportune that to design on her life—to the design of destroying it, but of reserving it, so that she might share with him. | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moceasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dozen toy balloops for sale, all fastened by long strikes to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, besutiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large clastic crimson globes, which she seemed to mistake for fruit. "Give Eirdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balloon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted, imagining she was to-have the entirebunch. "All—all for me!" she cried, and clapping her hands, she stretclied them out toward the coveted treasure of the dancing air globes. | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better—to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balloons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, seftly, she began to descend, precisely as if she were being let downward by a pair of arms moving gently, and in a few minutes Col. Jack had the satisfaction of sceing her sink quietly and comfortably down | horseflesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the liming membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Dixon & Son, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully. Send your job printing to the News office. "The best work—low prices." | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, cranything else you want. Try Us and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at Any Other Responsible Office | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Eastward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. 6. 11.18a.in. 200 p. m. 14 6.33 " Westward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. *95. 7.05 a.m. 8.47 " 29. 1.41 p.m. 8.24 " Daily, excepting sundays. Further information may be obtained from C. H. Idl. HARDSON, agent at ANDOVER, S. from EBO. B. ALLERY. Gen. Pass. Agt. Buffalo N.Y. L. P. PARNER. Gen. Pass. Agt. Condensed Pime Table. |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me of take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. I y money came to me by inheritance, of that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance of the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had any done some great action or made name for myself. I might possibly spect to win her. My notion is she ants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cool idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save er from drowning, then she'd be are to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do arm up every day; and when-they do take their appearance it is likely nough to be just at a moment when he are not prepared to cope with them. On not being able to impress these minals into his service, Terrill perstently took Miss Tredloe out sailing, if with a view to some opportune that he had not known the costeps with a design on her life—to the design of destroying it, but of reserving it, so that she might share with him. But to return to Col. Welsted. His eclaration that he had not known the | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moceasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dezen toy balloops for sale, all fastened by long strikes to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, besutiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large clastic crimson globes, which she seemed to mistake for fruit. "Give Eirdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balloon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted, imagining she was to—have the entirebunch. "All—all for me!" she cried, and clapping her hands, she stretclied them out toward the coveted treasure of the dancing air globes. This so amused the kind hearted | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the ballcons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, seftly, she began to descend, precisely as if she were being let downward by a pair of arms moving gently, and in a few minutes Col. Jack had the satisfaction of sceing her sink quietly and comfortably down on the sand heap, with the remaining balloons still inutering around her like so many huge bubbles of gor. | horseflesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. DIXON & Son, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully. Send your job printing to the Newsoffice. "The best work—low prices." | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, cranything else you want. Try Us and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at Any Other Responsible Office | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Eastward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. 6. 11.18a.in. 200 p. m. 14 6.33 " Westward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. *95. 7.05 a.m. 8.47 " 29. 1.41 p.m. 8.24 " Daily, excepting sundays. Further information may be obtained from C. H. Idl. HARDSON, agent at ANDOVER, S. from EBO. B. ALLERY. Gen. Pass. Agt. Buffalo N.Y. L. P. PARNER. Gen. Pass. Agt. Condensed Pime Table. |
| "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my loney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. I woney came to me by inheritance, that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had any done some great action or made name for myself. I might possibly spect to win her. My notion is she ants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cool idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save are from drowning, then she'd be use to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do any every day; and when they do take their appearance it is likely nough to be just at a moment when e are not prepared to cope with them. In not being able to impress these minals into his service, Terrill persently took Miss Tredice out sailing, if with a view to some opportune that he with a design on her life—to the design of destroying it, but of reserving it, so that she might share with him. But to return to Col. Welsted. His colaration that he had not known the bung lady for the first three years of the existence seemed rather strange. | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moceasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dozen toy baldons for sale, all fastened by long strikes to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, besutiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large clastic crimson globes, which she seemed to mistake for fruit. "Give Eirdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balloon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted, imagining she was to-have the entirebunch. "All—all for me!" she cried, and clapping her hands, she stretched them out toward the coveted treasure of the dancing air globes. This so amused the kind hearted doctor that he resolved to humor her, for a moment at any rate. So gather- | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better—to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man—from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the ballcons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, seftly, she began to descend, precisely as if she were being let downward by a pair of arms moving gently, and in a few minutes Col. Jack had the catisfaction of seing her sink quietly and comfortably down on the sand heap, with the remaining balloons still futtering around her like so many huge bubbles of gorgeous color. His boat was the first to reach the | horseflesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutis is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and custachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. DIXON & SON, SM West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully. Send your job printing to the News office. "The best work—low prices." | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, or anything else you want. Try Us and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at Any Other Responsible Office CCCANATION. | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special induces ments are offered, to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Eastward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. 6. 11.16a.in. 200 p. m. 14 6.33 " Westward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. 95 7.05 a.m. 8.47 " 29 141 p.m. 8.24 " Daily, excepting Sundays. Further information may be obtained from C. ii. idle HARDSON, agent at ANDOVER, or from EBO. B. ALLEY. Gen'l Northern Pass, agt., Buffalo N.Y. L. P. PARNER. Gen, Pass, agt. W.J. HURPBY, Gen sup't. CONDENSED PIME TABLE. IN ELF FEOT SEPTEMBER 28 1887 STANDARD GAUGE DIVISION. WESTWARD STATIONS EASTWARD P. m., p. m., a.m., p. m. 8 221 OLEAN. 4 15 |
| "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. I woney came to me by inheritance, that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had my done some great action or made name for myself. I might possibly spect to win her. My notion is she ants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cool idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save er from drowning, then she'd be are to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do are up every day; and when-they do take their appearance it is likely nough to be just at a moment when e are not prepared to cope with them. On to being able to impress these nimals into his service, Terrill perstently took Miss Tredloe out sailing, if with a view to some opportune earine disaster. It was positively nusing to notice how he dogged her totsteps with a design on her life—out the design of destroying it, but of reserving it, so that she might share with him. But to return to Col. Welsted. His eclaration that he had not known the bung lady for the first three years of the existence seemed rather strange, madering that she looked upon him | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moceasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dozen toy ballons for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, besutiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large clastic crimson globes, which she seemed to mistake for fruit. "Give Birdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balloon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted imagning she was to—have the entirebunch. "All—all for me!" she cried, and clapping her hands, she stretched them out toward the coveted treasure of the dancing air globes. This co-amused the kind hearted doctor that he resolved to humor her, for a moment at any rate. So gathering the long strings together, he tied them around Birdies waist then let | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balleons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, softly, she began to descend, precisely as if she were being let downward by a pair of arms moving gently, and in a few minutes Col. Jack had the catisfaction of sceing her sink quietly and comfortably down on the sand heap, with the remaining balloons still futtering around her like so many huge bubbles of gorgeous color. His boat was the first to reach the point of sand. Ben Piver leaped out that the child and towning the point of sand. | horseflesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutis is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a monoy value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and custachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. DIXON & SON, 394 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully. Send your job printing to the News office. "The best work—low prices." | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, or anything else you want. Try Us and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at Any Other Responsible Office Colamation. Manning, Gen. McClellan, and many others. | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special induces ments are offered, to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Eastward from Andover, N.Y. Train No. 6. 11.16a.m. 2.00 p.m. 14. 6.33 " Westward from Andover, N.Y. Train No. 95. 7.06a.m. 8.47 " 29. 1.41 p.m. 8.24 " Daily, excepting sundays. Further information may be obtained from C. H. Idl. HAKIDSON, agent at ANDOVER, or from EBO. B. AZLB.Y. Gen'l Northern Pass, Agt., Buffalo N.Y. L. P. FERMER, Gen. Sup't. CONDENSED FIME TABLE. IN EFFECT SEPTEMIBER 28 1887 STANDARD GAUGE DIVISION. WESTWARD STATIONS EASTWARD p. m. p. m. a. m. ar. iv p. m. a. m. p. m. 7 45 u. Da. 4 52 u. 3 5 5 1 5 4 16 5 16 5 4 16 5 16 5 4 16 5 16 5 |
| "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. I y money came to me by inheritance, or that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had only done some great action or made name for myself. I might possilly expect to win her. My notion is she ants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cod idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save are from drowning, then she'd be are to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do are up every day; and when they do take their appearance it is likely nough to be just at a moment when e are not prepared to cope with them. In not being able to impress these nimals into his service, Terrill perstently took Miss Tredloe cut sailing, if with a view to some opportune arrine disaster. It was positively musing to notice how he dogged her notsteps with a design on her life—of the design of destroying it, but of reserving it, so that she might share with him. But to esturn to Col. Welsted. His colaration that he had not known the bung lady for the first three years of a father, and that we all considered in that light, notwithstanding the | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moceasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dozen toy balloops for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, beautiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large clastic crimson globes, which she scenced to mistake for fruit. "Give Birdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balloon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted, imagining she was to-have the entirebunch. "All—all for me!" she cried, and clapping her hands, she stretched them out toward the coveted treasure of the dancing air globes. This so amused the kind hearted doctor that he resolved to humor her, for a moment at any rate. So gathering the long strings together, he tied them around Birdie's waist, then let go, and the balloons all floated up around and above her head and shoul. | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better—to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man—from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was bizzing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balloons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbon's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, scfily, she began to descend, precisely as if she were being let downward by a pair of arms moving gently, and in a few minutes Col. Jack had the satisfaction of sceing her sink quietly and comfortably down on the sand heap, with the remaining balloons still futtering around her like so many huge bubbles of gorgeous color. His boat was the first to reach the point of sand. Ben Piver leaped out, ran to the child, and turning, waved this hat as he shouted to the assembled thest "Courtlement to the child, and turning, waved the states of the court of the seembled thest." | horseflesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a monoy value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Gatarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and custachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Dixon & Son, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully. Send your job printing to the News office. "The best work—low prices." | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, or anything else you want. Try Us and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at Any Other Responsible Office Colamation. Manning, Gen. McClellan, and many others. | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special induces ments are offered, to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Lastward from Andover, N. Y. Train No. 6. 11.16a.m. 496. 200 p.m. 14 6.33 " Westward from Andover, N. Y. Train No. *95. 7.05 a.m. 8.47 " 29 141 p.m. 8.24 " Daily, excepting sundays. Further information may be obtained from C. H. Idl. HAKISON, agent at Andover, of from EBO. B. ALLEY. Gen'l Northern Pass, agt., Buffalo N.Y. L. P. PARMER. Gen. Pass. Agt. Westward From Sup't. CONDENSED PIME TABLE. IN EFFECT SEPTEMIBER 28 1887 STANDARD STATONS EASTWARD p.m. p.m. a.m. ar IV p. m. a.m. p.m. 8 22 0LEAN. 4 15 9 m. 7 47 0LEAN. 4 15 13 15 7 15 ell ast Junctions 5 20 3 3 5 2 48 8 10 6 48 A gelica. 5 41 7 40 405 p.m. 7 34 6 29 Iri4 all 0.01 8 25 .m. 6 24 9 30 6 24 9 30 10 1 1 1 1 2 1 2 1 2 1 2 1 2 1 2 1 2 1 2 |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me or take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short if it is, I don't amount to enough. If y money came to me by inheritance, or that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance at the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had any done some great action or made name for myself. I might possilly spect to win her. My notion is she ants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cool idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save are from drowning, then she'd be are to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do turn up every day; and when-they do take their appearance it is likely nough to be just at a moment when are not prepared to cope with them. On not being able to impress these minals into his service, Terrill persently took Miss Tredloe out sailing, as if with a view to some oppertune tarine disaster. It was positively musing to notice how he dogged her totsteps with a design on her life—of the design of destroying it, but of reserving it, so that she might share with him. But to return to Col. Welsted. His colaration that he had not known the tung lady for the first three years of the existence seemed rather strange, and that we all considered this however in the course with him that light, notwithstanding the firence in their names. He existence in their names. He existence this however in the course. | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moceasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dozen toy ballons for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, besutiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large clastic crimson globes, which she scened to mistake for fruit. "Give Eirdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balloon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted, imagining she was to-have the entirebunch. "All—all for me!" she cried, and clapping her hands, she streiched them out toward the coveted treasure of the dancing air globes. This so amused the kind hearted doctor that he resolved to humor her, for a moment at any rate. So gathering the long strings together, he tied them around Birdie's waist, then let go, and the balloons all floated up around and above her head and shoulders, making a gay spectacle of her. | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better-to-let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was bizzing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balleons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, scfily, she began to descend, precisely as if she were being let downward by a pair of arms moving cently, and in a few minutes Col. Jack had the satisfaction of steing her sink quietly and comfortably down on the sand heap, with the remaining balloons still inuttering around her like so many huge bubbles of gorgeous color. His boat was the first to reach the point of sand. Ben Piver leaped out, ran to the child, and turning, waved his hat as he shouted to the assembled fleet, "Gentlemen, she's alive and kicking!" whereat' another cheer arose | horseflesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Gatarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and custachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Dixon & Son, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully. Send your job printing to the News office. "The best work—low prices." | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, or anything else you want. Try Us and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at Any Other Responsible Office Colamation. Manning, Gen. McClellan, and many others. | parks in America, and popular containts and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered, to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Eastward from Andover, N. Y. Train No. 6. 11.16a.m. 96. 200 p.m. 14. 6.33 " Westward from Andover, N. Y. Train No. 95. 7.05 a.m. 8.47 " 29. 141 p.m. 8.24 " Daily, excepting sundays. Further information may be obtained from C. H. Idle Hardson, agent at Andover, or from EBO. B. ALLEY. Gen'l northern Pass, agt. Buffalo N.Y. L. P. PARNER. Gen. Pass: Agt. Westward Staffons Pass: Agt. On D. L. Aggelica Staffons Pass: Agt. Westward Staffons Pass: Agt. Westward Staffons Pass: Agt. On D. L. Aggelica Staffons Pass: Agg. Westward Staffons Pass: Agg. Westward Staffons Pass: Agg. Westward Staffons Pass: Agg. On D. L. Aggelica Staffons Pass: Agg |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me of take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short if it is, I don't amount to enough. If y money came to me by inheritance, of that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance at the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had any done some great action or made name for myself. I might possibly spect to win her. My notion is she ants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cool idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save are from drowning, then she'd be the to have me." Infuriated bulls and med dogs do turn up every day; and when they do take their appearance it is likely nough to be just at a moment when e are not prepared to cope with them. It is not being able to impress these minals into his service, Terrill persently took Miss Tredloe cut sailing, as if with a view to some opportune to the design of destroying it, but of reserving it, so that she might share with him. But to return to Col. Welsted. His beclaration that he had not known the bring lady for the first three years of the resistence seemed rather strange, madering that she looked upon him is a father, and that we all considered in that light, notwithstanding the fibernee in their names. He eximed this, however, in the course the story which he proceeded to | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moceasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dezen toy balloons for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, besutiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large elastic crimson globes, which she scenied to mistake for fruit. "Give Birdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balloon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted, imagning she was to-have the entirebunch. "All—all for me!" she cried, and clapping her hands, she stretched them out toward the coveted treasure of the dancing air globes. This so amused the kind hearted doctor that he resolved to humor her, for a moment at any rate. So gathering the long strings together, he tied them around Birdie's waist, then let go, and the balloons all floated up around and above her head and shoulders, making a gay spectacle of her. The doctor and the Italian both stood by smiling at her existention. | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better-to-let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from sheoting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was biazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balloons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, softly, she began to descend, precisely as if she were being let downward by a pair of arms moving cently, and in a few minutes Col. Jack had the catisfaction of sceing her sink quietly and comfortably down on the sand heap, with the remaining balloons still inuttering around her like so many huge bubbles of gorgeous color. His boat was the first to: reach the point of sand. Ben Piver leaped out, ran to the child, and turning, waved his hat as he shouted to the assembled fileet, "Gentlemen, she's alive and kicking!" whereat another cheer arose, long and loud. | horseflesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the liming membrane of the nose and custachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Drxon & Son, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully. Send your job printing to the News office. "The best work—low prices." | In Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, Cranything else you want. Try Us and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at Any Other Responsible Office rocalian, Manning, Gen. McClellan, and many others. Are therefore, I do by virtue of the knowledge possessed by mie, proclaim and recommend Hibbard's Rhenmatic Syrup to be a remedy | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special induces ments are offered, to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Eastward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. 6. 11.18a.m. 200 p.m. 14 6.33 " Westward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. 55. 7.55a.m. 8.47 " 29. 1.41 p.m. 8.24 " Daily, excepting sundays. Further information may be obtained from C.H. Idl. HARDSON, agent at ANDOVER, or from C.H. Idl. HARDSON, agent at ANDOVER |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at all sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my energine she would want me just for my energine she would want me just for my energine she would want to enough the young came to me by inheritance, that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance at the world except just to be born and to inherit this wealth. Now if I had ally done some great action or made anname for myself. I might possilly spect to win her. My notion is she ants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cod idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save are from drowning, then she'd be use to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do any up every day; and when-they do take their appearance it is likely nough to be just at a moment when a eare not prepared to cope with them. In one being able to impress these nimals into his service, Terrill persently took Miss Tredloc out sailing, if with a view to some opportune arine disaster. It was positively nusing to notice how he dogged her notsteps with a design on her life—of the design of destroying it, but of reserving it, so that she might share with him. But to return to Col. Welsted. His colaration that he had not known the bung lady for the first three years of the existence seemed rather strange, unsidering that she looked upon him a father, and that we all considered in in that light, notwithstanding the flerence in their names. He existence the trange in the course the story which he proceeded to the story which he proceeded t | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moccasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dezen toy ballons for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, besutiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large clastic crimson globes, which she scened to mistake for fruit. "Give Birdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balleon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted, imagining she was to-have the entirebunch. "All—all for me!" she cried, and clapping her hands, she stretched them out toward the coveted treasure of the dancing air globes. This so amused the kind hearted doctor that he resolved to humor her, for a moment at any rate. So gathering the long strings together, he tied them around Birdie's waist, then let go, and the balloons all floated up around and above her head and shoulders, making a gay spectacle of her. The doctor and the Italian both stood by, smiling at her satisfaction, when suddenly to their amazement, a strong gust of wind caused all the belloons to | smoke from the cátboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from sheoting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balloons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, seftly, she began to descend, precisely as if she were being let downward by a pair of arms moving cently, and in a few minutes Col. Jack had the entisfaction of steing her sink quietly and comfortably down on the sand heap, with the remaining balloons still futtering around her like so many huge bubbles of gorgeous color. His boat was the first to reach the point of sand. Ben Piver leaped out, ran to the child, and turning, waved his hat as he shouted to the assembled diect, "Gentlemen, she's alive and kicking!" whereat another cheer arose, long and loud. Col. Jack all, but wept over the child as he caught her up and kissed her. But Eirdie, on landing amid the | horsefiesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutis is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the liming membrane of the nose and custachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Dixon & Son, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully. Send your job printing to the News office. "The best work—low prices." And whereas, The nation has willing a short time been willing to the same a specific and the short time been willing to the same a short time sho | in Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, or anything else you want. Try US and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at Any Other Responsible Office Cocamain, Gen. McClellan, and many others. And the knowledge possessed by me, proclaim and recommend Hibbard's Rhep- | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered, to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Eastward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. 6. 11.16a.m. 96. 200 p.m. 14. 6.33 " Westward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Train No. "95. 7.25a.m. 8.47 " 29. 1.41 p.m. 8.24 " Daily, excepting sundays. Further information may be obtained from C.H. KI. HAKDSON, agent at ANDOVER, of from ERO. B. SLEEN. Gen! Northern Pass, agt. Buffalo N.Y. L. P. FERNER. Gen. Pass. Agt. Westward Warfions Eastward F. STANDARD GAUGE DIVISION. Westward from ANDOVER, N.Y. Gen. Supt. The form of the form of the form of the form of the fo |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at all sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my energine she would want me just for my energine she would want me just for my gine she would want to enough the short of it is, I don't amount to enough the ymoney came to me by inheritance, that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance at the world except just to be born and and and do inherit this wealth. Now if I had any done some great action or made anter for myself. I might possibly spect to win her. My notion is she ants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cod idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save are from drowning, then she'd be ure to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do are up every day; and when-they do take their appearance it is likely nough to be just at a moment when a eare not prepared to cope with them. In the process these minals into his service, Terrill persently took Miss Tredloe out sailing, if with a view to some oppertune arine disaster. It was positively musing to notice how he dogged her otsteps with a design on her life—of the design of destroying it, but of reserving it, so that she might share with him. But to return to Col. Welsted. His course with a she looked upon him a father, and that we all considered in in that light, notwithstanding the flerence in their names. He examed this, however, in the course the story which he proceeded to the story which he pro | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moccasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dezen toy ballongs for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, besutiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large clastic crimson globes, which she scened to mistake for fruit. "Give Birdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balloon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted, imagining she was to-have the entirebunch. "All—all for me!" she cried, and clapping her hands, she stretched them out toward the coveted treasure of the dancing air globes. This co-amused the kind hearted doctor that he resolved to humor her, for a moment at any rate. So gathering the long strings together, he tied them around Birdie's waist, then let go, and the balloons all floated up around and-above her head and shoulders, making a gay spectacle of her. The doctor and the Italian both stood by, smiling at her satisfaction, when suddenly to their amazement, a strong gust of wind caused all the belloons to show to the dance of the dance of the later of | smoke from the cátboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was biazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balloons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished eff a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, softly, she began to descend, precisely as if she were being let downward by a pair of arms moving gently, and in a few minutes Col. Jack had the satisfaction of steing her sink quietly and comfortably down on the sand heap, with the remaining balloons still funtering around her like so many huge bubbles of gorgeous color. His boat was the first to reach the point of sand. Ben Piver leaped out, ran to the child, and turning, waved his hat as he shouted to the assembled filect, "Gentlemen, she's alive and kicking!" whereat' another cheer arose, long and loud. Col. Jack all but wept over the child as he caught her up and kissed her. But Birdie, on landing amid the should had calmly and unconcernedly bear and hard and any and unconcernedly and unconcernedly and any any and any | horsefiesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Gatarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and custachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Dixon & Son, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully. Send your job printing to the News office. "The best work—low prices." CSIGITS | In Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, cranything else you want. Try Us and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at Any Other Responsible Office rocalization. Manning, Gen. McClellan, and many others. Now therefore, I do by virtue of the knowledge possessed by me, proclaim and recommend Hibbard's Rhenmatic Syrup to be a remedy of great merit, both for Rheumatism and all Blood Discasses, And further, That this med- | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered, to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Eastward from ANDOVER, N. Y. Train No. 6. 11.16a. in. 966. 200 p. in. 14 6.33 " Westward from ANDOVER, N. Y. Train No. 95. 7.05a. in. 141 p. in. 8.24 " Daily, excepting sundays. Further information may be obtained from c. ii. id. ii. ii. ii. ii. ii. ii. ii. ii |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at all sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough y money came to me by inheritance, that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had ally done some great action or made name for myself. I might possilly spect to win her. My notion is she ants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cool idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save ar from drowning, then she'd be use to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do are up every day; and when-they do take their appearance it is likely nough to be just at a moment when e are not prepared to cope with them, ont being able to impress these mals into his service, Terrill persently took Miss Tredloe out sailing, if with a view to some opportune arine disaster. It was positively nusing to notice how he dogged her totsteps with a design on her life—totsteps with a design on her life—tot the design of destroying it, but of reserving it, so that she might share with him. But to return to Col. Welsted. His colaration that he had not known the bung lady for the first three years of a rexistence seemed rather strange, maidering that she looked upon him a father, and that we all considered in in that light, notwithstanding the firence in their names. He example the story which he proceeded to the story | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moceasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dozen toy ballong for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, besutiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large clastic crimson globes, which she scenied to mistake for fruit. "Give Birdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balloon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted imagining she was to-have the entirebunch. "All—all for me!" she cried, and clapping her hands, she stretched them out toward the coveted treasure of the dencing air globes. This so amused the kind hearted doctor that he resolved to humor her, for a moment at any rate. So gathering the long strings together, he tied them around Birdie's waist, then let go, and the balloons all floated up around and above her head and shoulders, making a gay spectacle of her. The doctor and the Italian both stood by, smiling at her satisfaction, when suddenly to their amazement, a strong gust of wind caused all the balloons to sway to one side, sweeping Dirdie off her feet and gracefully up into the air. It happened so unexpectedly that | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balloons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, softly, she began to descend, precisely as if she were being let downward by a pair of arms moving gently, and in a few minutes Col. Jack had the catisfaction of sceing her sink quietly and comfortably down on the sand heap, with the remaining balloons still futtering around her like so many huge bubbles of gorgeous color. His boat was the first to reach the point of sand. Een Piver leaped out, ran to the child, and turning, waved his hat as he shouted to the assembled fleet, "Gentlemen, she's alive and kicking!" whereat another cheer arose, long and loud. Col. Jack all but wept over the child as he caught her up and kissed her. But Birdie, on landing amid the sand, had calmly and unconcernedly begun playing with hit. Her hands were full of little shells. "Deso for mamma ballo remarked absorbally and unconcernedly begun playing with hit. Her heads was mamma ballo remarked absorbally." | horsefiesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Gatarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the liming membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Dixon & Son, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully. Send your job printing to the Newsoffice. "The best work—low prices." And whereas, The nation has within a short time been called upon to mourn the sacems to be greatly on the increase. And whereas, The nation has within a short time been called upon to mourn the sudden loss of many of our public men, such as Vice-Preselent Hendricks, Gen. John | In Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, cranything else you want. Try Us and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at Any Other Responsible Office rocaliation. Manning, Gen. McClellan, and many others. Now therefore, I do by virtue of the knowledge possessed by me, proclaim and recommend Hibbard's Rhenmatic Syrup to be a remedy of great ment, both for Rheumaism and all Blood Discass, And further, That this medicine be adopted as a national remedy by all. | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Eastward from Andover, n.y Train No. 6. 11.16a in 200 p. in 14 6.33 " Westward from Andover, n.y Train No. 95. 200 p. in 14 6.33 " Westward from Andover, n.y Train No. 95. 14 p. in 14 p. in 29 in 14 p. in 20 i |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at all sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my oney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. I y money came to me by inheritance, or that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance at the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had ally done some great action or made name for myself, I might possilly spect to win her. My notion is she ants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cod idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save ar from drowning, then she'd be are to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do are up every day; and when-they do take their appearance it is likely nough to be just at a moment when e are not prepared to cope with them. In not being able to impress these nimals into his service, Terrill persently took Miss Tredloc cut sailing, if with a view to some oppertune arme disaster. It was positively nuising to notice how he dogged her otsteps with a design on her life—of the design of destroying it, but of esserving it, so that she might share with him. But to return to Col. Welsted. His colaration that he had not known the bung lady for the first three years of the existence seemed rather strange, maidering that she looked upon him a father, and that we all considered me in that light, notwithstanding the fierence in their names. He eximate. That story is the one I aming to tell here. Col. Jack Welsted was a tall, sinewy and the great mustache that drooped and the dover the corners of his mouth the apennant hanging idly from the strength. | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moceasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dezen toy ballons for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, besutiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large elestic crimson globes, which she seemed to mistake for fruit. "Give Birdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balloon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted, imagining she was to-have the entirebunch. "All—all for me!" she cried, and clapping her hands, she stretched them out toward the coveted treasure of the dencing air globes. This so amused the kind hearted doctor that he resolved to humor her, for a moment at any rate. So gathering the long strings together, he tied them around Birdie's waist, then let go, and the balloons all floated up around and above her head and shoulders, making a gay spectacle of her. The doctor and the Italian both stood by, smiling at her satisfaction, when suddenly to their amazement, a strong gust of wind caused all the balloons to sway to one side, sweeping Eirdie off her feet, and gracefully up into the air. It happened so unexpectedly that, before they could do anything to pre- | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better—to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man—from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balloons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, seftly, she began to descend, precisely as if she were being let downward by a pair of arms moving gently, and in a few minutes Col. Jack had the catisfaction of sceing her sink quietly and confortably down on the sand heap, with the remaining balloons still futtering around her like so many huge bubbles of gorgeous color. His boat was the first to reach the point of sand. Een Piver leaped out ran to the child, and turning, waved his hat as he shouted to the assembled fleet, "Gentlemen, she's alive and kicking!" whereat another cheer arose, long and loud. Col. Jack all but wept over the child as he caught her up and kissed her. Dut Birdie, on landing amid the sand, had calmly and unconcernedly begun playing with it. Her hands were full of hittle shells, "Deso for mamma," she remarked, cheerfully. He hurried bor into bis land. | horsefiesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a monoy value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the liming membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. DIXON & SON, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully. Send your job priuting to the Newsoffice. "The best work—low prices." PECIAL. Whereas, From day to day vast—numbers—are being stricken down with the fell disease Rheumatism, which seems to be greatly on the increase. And volureas, The nation has within a short time been called upon to mourn the soulden loss of many of our public men, such as Vice-Prespicted in the called upon to mourn the such as Vice-Prespicted in the called upon to mourn the such as Vice-Prespicted in the called upon to mourn the such as Vice-Prespicted in the called upon to mourn the such as Vice-Prespicted upon to mourn the such as Vice-Prespicted in the called upon to mourn the such as Vice-Prespicted in the called upon to mourn the such as Vice-Prespicted in the public men, such as Vice-Prespicted in the called upon to mourn the such as Vice-Prespicted in the prespicted in the public men, such as Vice-Prespicted in the public men, such as Vice-Prespicted in the public men, such | In Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, cranything else you want. Try Us and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at Any Other Responsible Office Cocanation. Manning, Gen. McClellan, and many others. Aou therefore, I do by virtue of the knowledge possessed by me, proclaim and recommend Hibbard's Rhenmatic Syrup to be a remedy of great merit, both for Rheumatism and all Blood Discases, And further, That this medicine be adopted as a national remedy by all. Signed by the President. | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Lastward from Andover, N. Y. Train No. 6. 11.18a. in. 466. 200 p. in. 14 6.33 47 Westward from Andover, N. Y. Train No. *95 |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at all sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. I ymoney came to me by inheritance, y that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance at the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had any done some great action or made name for myself, I might possilly spect to win her. My notion is she ants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cool idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save ar from drowning, then she'd be ure to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do arn up every day; and when they do take their appearance it is likely nough to be just at a moment when e are not prepared to cope with them. In not being able to impress these nimals into his service, Terrill persently took Miss Tredloc out sailing, if with a view to some opportune armo disaster. It was positively nusing to notice how he dogged her outsteps with a design on her life—outsteps with a lead not known the oung lady for the first three years of the existence seemed rather strange, madering that she looked upon him a father, and that we all considered in in that light, notwithstanding the firence in their names. He existence seemed rather strange, madering that she looked upon laim a father, and that we all considered in that light, notwithstanding the firence in their names. He existence story which he proceeded to the existence of his mouth as a pennant hanging idly from the area on the contract rifle shot. He could have a pennant hanging idly from the area of the contract rifle shot. He could have a pennant hanging idly from the area of the contract rifle shot. He could have a pennan | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moceasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dozen toy ballons, for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, beautiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large elastic crimson globes, which she scenied to mistake for fruit. "Give Eirdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balloon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted, imagining she was to-have the entirebunch. "All—all for me!" she cried, and clapping her hands, she stretclied them out toward the coveted treasure of the dencing air globes. This so amused the kind hearted doctor that he resolved to humor her, for a moment at any rate. So gathering the long strings together, he tied them around Birdie's waist, then let go, and the balloons all floated up around and above her head and shoulders, making a gay spectacle of her. The doctor and the Italian both stood by, smiling at her satisfaction, when suddenly to their amazement, a strong gust of wind caused all the balloons to sway to one side, sweeping Dirdie off her feet and gracefully up into the air. It happened so unexpectedly that, before they could do anything to prevent, the light little creature was borae away by the cluster of fantastic | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balleons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, seftly, she began to descend, precisely as if she were being let downward by a pair of arms moving gently, and in a few minutes Col. Jack had the catisfaction of sceing her sink quietly and comfortably down on the sand heap, with the remaining balloons still futtering around her like so many huge bubbles of gorgeous color. His boat was the first to reach the point of sand. Ben Piver leaped out, ran to the child, and turning, waved his hat as he shouted to the assembled filect, "Gentlemen, she's alive and kicking!" whereat another cheer arose, long and loud. Col. Jack all but wept over the child as he caught her up and kissed her. But Birdie, on landing amid the sand, had calmly and unconcernedly begun playing with it. Her hands were fuil of fittle shells. "Deso for mamma, where the remarked, cheerfully. He hurried her into his boat, and sailed back to the wherf, accompanied by the rest of the ficet. There was a state of the ficet in the fi | horsefiesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the liming membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that'a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. DINON & SON, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully. Send your job priuting to the Newsoffice. "The best work—low prices." PECIAL. Whereas, From day to day vast numbers are being stricken down with the fell disease Rheumatism, which seems to be greatly on the increase. And whereas, The nation has within a short time been called upon to mourn the sudden loss of many of our public men, such as Vice-Prestlent Hendricks, Gen. John A. Logan, See'y Daniel P. | In Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, cranything else you want. Try Us and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at Any Other Responsible Office CCCANATION. Manning, Gen. McClellan, and many others. Aout therefore, I do by virtue of the knowledge possessed by rile, proclaim and recommend Hibbard's Rhenmatic Syrup to be a remedy of great merit, both for Rheumatism and all Blood Diseases, And further, That this medicine be adopted as a national remedy by all. Signed by the President. INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM. | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered, to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Lastward from Andover, N. Y. Train No. 6. 11.18a. in 96. 200 p. in 14. 6.33 " Westward from Andover, N. Y. Train No. "95. 7.05a. in 8.41 " 29. 141 p. in 8.24 " "Daily, excepting sundays. Further information may be obtained from C. H. Idl. HAKDSON, agent at ANDOVER, N. Y. Gen? Northern Pass. agt. Buffalo N.Y. L. P. FIR. HER. Gen. Pass. Agt. Westward Staffons Eastward Gen. Pass. Agt. Westward Staffons Eastward From D. in a in p. in p. in a. in ar in p. in p. in a. in p. in p. in a. in p. in p. in p. in a. in p. in |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at all sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. I ymoney came to me by inheritance, y that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance at the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had any done some great action or made name for myself, I might possilly spect to win her. My notion is she ants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cool idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save ar from drowning, then she'd be ure to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do arn up every day; and when they do take their appearance it is likely nough to be just at a moment when e are not prepared to cope with them. In not being able to impress these nimals into his service, Terrill persently took Miss Tredloc out sailing, if with a view to some opportune armo disaster. It was positively nusing to notice how he dogged her outsteps with a design on her life—outsteps with a lead not known the oung lady for the first three years of the existence seemed rather strange, madering that she looked upon him a father, and that we all considered in in that light, notwithstanding the firence in their names. He existence seemed rather strange, madering that she looked upon laim a father, and that we all considered in that light, notwithstanding the firence in their names. He existence story which he proceeded to the existence of his mouth as a pennant hanging idly from the area on the contract rifle shot. He could have a pennant hanging idly from the area of the contract rifle shot. He could have a pennant hanging idly from the area of the contract rifle shot. He could have a pennan | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moceasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dozen toy ballons, for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, beautiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large elastic crimson globes, which she scenied to mistake for fruit. "Give Eirdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balloon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted, imagining she was to-have the entirebunch. "All—all for me!" she cried, and clapping her hands, she stretclied them out toward the coveted treasure of the dencing air globes. This so amused the kind hearted doctor that he resolved to humor her, for a moment at any rate. So gathering the long strings together, he tied them around Birdie's waist, then let go, and the balloons all floated up around and above her head and shoulders, making a gay spectacle of her. The doctor and the Italian both stood by, smiling at her satisfaction, when suddenly to their amazement, a strong gust of wind caused all the balloons to sway to one side, sweeping Dirdie off her feet and gracefully up into the air. It happened so unexpectedly that, before they could do anything to prevent, the light little creature was borae away by the cluster of fantastic | smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balleons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, seftly, she began to descend, precisely as if she were being let downward by a pair of arms moving gently, and in a few minutes Col. Jack had the catisfaction of sceing her sink quietly and comfortably down on the sand heap, with the remaining balloons still futtering around her like so many huge bubbles of gorgeous color. His boat was the first to reach the point of sand. Ben Piver leaped out, ran to the child, and turning, waved his hat as he shouted to the assembled filect, "Gentlemen, she's alive and kicking!" whereat another cheer arose, long and loud. Col. Jack all but wept over the child as he caught her up and kissed her. But Birdie, on landing amid the sand, had calmly and unconcernedly begun playing with it. Her hands were fuil of fittle shells. "Deso for mamma, where the remarked, cheerfully. He hurried her into his boat, and sailed back to the wherf, accompanied by the rest of the ficet. There was a state of the ficet in the fi | horsefiesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the liming membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that'a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. DINON & SON, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully. Send your job priuting to the Newsoffice. "The best work—low prices." PECIAL. Whereas, From day to day vast numbers are being stricken down with the fell disease Rheumatism, which seems to be greatly on the increase. And whereas, The nation has within a short time been called upon to mourn the sudden loss of many of our public men, such as Vice-Prestlent Hendricks, Gen. John A. Logan, See'y Daniel P. | In Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, cranything else you want. Try Us and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at Any Other Responsible Office CCCANATION. Manning, Gen. McClellan, and many others. Aout therefore, I do by virtue of the knowledge possessed by rile, proclaim and recommend Hibbard's Rhenmatic Syrup to be a remedy of great merit, both for Rheumatism and all Blood Diseases, And further, That this medicine be adopted as a national remedy by all. Signed by the President. INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM. | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered, to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Lastward from Andover, N. Y. Train No. 6. 11.18a. in 96. 200 p. in 14. 6.33 " Westward from Andover, N. Y. Train No. "95. 7.05a. in 8.41 " 29. 141 p. in 8.24 " "Daily, excepting sundays. Further information may be obtained from C. H. Idl. HAKDSON, agent at ANDOVER, N. Y. Gen? Northern Pass. agt. Buffalo N.Y. L. P. FIR. HER. Gen. Pass. Agt. Westward Staffons Eastward Gen. Pass. Agt. Westward Staffons Eastward From D. in a in p. in p. in a. in ar in p. in p. in a. in p. in p. in a. in p. in p. in p. in a. in p. in |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at all sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. It is, I don't amount to enough y money came to me by inheritance, or that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance the world except just to be born and inherit this wealth. Now if I had any done some great action or made name for myself, I might possilly spect to win her. My notion is she ants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cod idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or, an angry bull, or save ear from drowning, then she'd be the to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do any up every day; and when they do take their appearance it is likely nough to be just at a moment when e are not prepared to cope with them, on not being able to impress these nimals into his service, Terrill persently took Miss Tredloc out sailing, if with a view to some opportune arine disaster. It was positively nusing to notice how he dogged her otsteps with a design on her life—of the design of destroying it, but of reserving it, so that she might share with him. But to esturn to Col. Welsted. His belaration that he had not known the number of the first three years of er existence seemed rather strange, unsidering that she looked upon him a father, and that we all considered in in that light, notwithstanding the fierence in their names. He existence for the first three years of the story which he proceeded to make they have a stall, sinewy and the general hand and could hit all sorts of marks. That story is the one I am and could hit all sorts of marks. But his certainty of aim and could hit all sorts of marks. But his certainty of aim and could hit all sorts of marks. But his certainty of aim and could hit all sorts of marks. | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moceasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dozen toy ballongs for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, besutiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large clastic crimson globes, which she scented to mistake for fruit. "Give Birdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balloon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted imagining she was to-have the entirebunch. "All—all for me!" she cried, and clapping her hands, she stretched them out toward the coveted treasure of the dancing air globes. This so amused the kind hearted doctor that he resolved to humer her, for a moment at any rate. So gathering the long strings together, he tied them around Birdie's waist, then let go, and the balloons all floated up around and above her head and shoulders, making a gay spectacle of her. The doctor and the Italian both stood by, smiling at her satisfaction, when suddenly to their amazement, a strong gust of wind caused all the belloons to sway to one side, sweeping Eirdie off her feet, and gracefully up into the air. It happened so unexpectedly that, before they could do anything to prevent, the light little creature was borne away by the cluster of fantastic looking crimson balls, up and off over the water. And as the wind was off shore, it seemed inevisable that she | ient when she saw that puif of gun smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better—to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood end her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she, became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balloons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, sefily, she began to descend, precisely as if she were being let downward by a pair of arms moving cently, and in a few minutes Col. Jack had the satisfaction of steing her sink quietly and comfortably down on the sand heap, with the remaining balloons still futtering around her like so many huge bubbles of gorgeous color. His boat was the first to reach the point of sand. Ben Piver leaped out, ran to the child, and turning, waved his hat as he shouted to the assembled fleet, "Gentlemen, she's alive and kicking!" whereat another cheer arose, long and loud. Col. Jack all but wept over the child as he caught her up and kissed her. But Birdie, on landing amid the sand, had calmly and unconcernedly begun playing with it. Her hands were full of little shells. "Desc for mamma, sehe remarked, cheerfully." He hurried her into his boat, and sailed back to the wharf, accompanied by the rest of the fiect. There was a tremendous press of then and woner on the wharf. Mr. Middlelw, who revived Rierich were the desired Rierich we have the rema | horseffesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Beafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and custachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Dixon & Son, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully. Send your job printing to the News office. "The best work—low prices." I CSIGIAL Wiereas, The nation has within a short time been called upon to mourn the sudden loss of many of our public men, such as Vice-Presulent Hendricks, Gen. John A. Logan, Sec'y Daniel P. Was cut in the wrist by a broken battle from a within a short time been called upon to mourn the sudden loss of many of our public men, such as Vice-Presulent Hendricks, Gen. John A. Logan, Sec'y Daniel P. Was cut in the wrist by a broken battle from a within a short time been called a doctor, which is a start of the property of the called a doctor, which is a start of the patient of the fact of the patient of the fact of the patient of the fact of the patient of | In Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, or anything else you want. Try Us and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at Any Other Responsible Office rocalization. Manning, Gen. McClellan, and many others. Now therefore, I do by virtue of the knowledge possessed by me, proclaim and recommend Hibbard's Rhenmatic Syrup to be a reinedy of great merit, both for Rheumatism and all Blood Diseases, And further, That this medicine be adopted as a national remedy by all. Signed by the President. INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM. My daughter Maudy had inflammatory rheumatism, and group the sheet bear of the sheet | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered, to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Lastward from Andover, N. Y. Train No. 6 |
| "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short if it is, I don't amount to enough. If y money came to me by inheritance, or that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance of the world except just to be born and the world except just to be born and to inherit this wealth. Now if I had ally done some great action or made name for myself. I might possibly expect to win her. My notion is she cants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—thet's a cod idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save ear from drowning, then she'd be the to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do and the their appearance it is likely mough to be just at a moment when we are not prepared to cope with them, o, not being able to impress these minals into his service, Terrill persently took Miss Tredloe out sailing, if with a view to some opportune the design of destroying it, but of reserving it, so that she might share with him. But to return to Col. Welsted. His eclaration that he had not known the oung lady for the first three years of er existence seemed rather strange, onsidering that she looked upon him as father, and that we all considered in in that light, notwithstanding the ifference in their names. He existence his, however, in the course the story which he proceeded to make this, however, in the course the story which he proceeded to make over the corners of his mouth the appearant hanging idly from the fiference in their names. He existence with gaunt cheeks, and had a mined over the corners of his mouth the appearant hanging idly from the fiference in their names. He cannot down almost anything on the land of the fiference of the corners of his mouth the appearant hanging idly from the fiference of the corners of his mouth that almost anything on the land of the fiference of the corners of his mouth the appearant hanging idly from the fiference of the corners of his m | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moceasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dozen toy ballongs for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, besutiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large clastic crimson globes, which she scented to mistake for fruit. "Give Birdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balloon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted imagining she was to-have the entirebunch. "All—all for me!" she cried, and clapping her hands, she stretched them out toward the coveted treasure of the dancing air globes. This so amused the kind hearted doctor that he resolved to humer her, for a moment at any rate. So gathering the long strings together, he tied them around Birdie's waist, then let go, and the balloons all floated up around and above her head and shoulders, making a gay spectacle of her. The doctor and the Italian both stood by, smiling at her satisfaction, when suddenly to their amazement, a strong gust of wind caused all the belloons to sway to one side, sweeping Eirdie off her feet, and gracefully up into the air. It happened so unexpectedly that, before they could do anything to prevent, the light little creature was borne away by the cluster of fantastic looking crimson balls, up and off over the water. And as the wind was off shore, it seemed inevisable that she | ient when she saw that puif of gun smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better—to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood end her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she, became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balloons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, sefily, she began to descend, precisely as if she were being let downward by a pair of arms moving cently, and in a few minutes Col. Jack had the satisfaction of steing her sink quietly and comfortably down on the sand heap, with the remaining balloons still futtering around her like so many huge bubbles of gorgeous color. His boat was the first to reach the point of sand. Ben Piver leaped out, ran to the child, and turning, waved his hat as he shouted to the assembled fleet, "Gentlemen, she's alive and kicking!" whereat another cheer arose, long and loud. Col. Jack all but wept over the child as he caught her up and kissed her. But Birdie, on landing amid the sand, had calmly and unconcernedly begun playing with it. Her hands were full of little shells. "Desc for mamma, sehe remarked, cheerfully." He hurried her into his boat, and sailed back to the wharf, accompanied by the rest of the fiect. There was a tremendous press of then and woner on the wharf. Mr. Middlelw, who revived Rierich were the desired Rierich we have the rema | horseffesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Beafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and custachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Dixon & Son, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully. Send your job printing to the News office. "The best work—low prices." I CSIGIAL Wiereas, The nation has within a short time been called upon to mourn the sudden loss of many of our public men, such as Vice-Presulent Hendricks, Gen. John A. Logan, Sec'y Daniel P. Was cut in the wrist by a broken battle from a within a short time been called upon to mourn the sudden loss of many of our public men, such as Vice-Presulent Hendricks, Gen. John A. Logan, Sec'y Daniel P. Was cut in the wrist by a broken battle from a within a short time been called a doctor, which is a start of the property of the called a doctor, which is a start of the patient of the fact of the patient of the fact of the patient of the fact of the patient of | In Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, or anything else you want. Try Us and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at Any Other Responsible Office rocalization. Manning, Gen. McClellan, and many others. Now therefore, I do by virtue of the knowledge possessed by me, proclaim and recommend Hibbard's Rhenmatic Syrup to be a reinedy of great merit, both for Rheumatism and all Blood Diseases, And further, That this medicine be adopted as a national remedy by all. Signed by the President. INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM. My daughter Maudy had inflammatory rheumatism, and group the sheet bear of the sheet | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered, to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Lastward from Andover, N. Y. Train No. 6 |
| "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at ll sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short if it is, I don't amount to enough. If y money came to me by inheritance, or that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance of the world except just to be born and the world except just to be born and to inherit this wealth. Now if I had ally done some great action or made name for myself. I might possibly expect to win her. My notion is she cants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—thet's a cod idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save ear from drowning, then she'd be the to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do and the their appearance it is likely mough to be just at a moment when we are not prepared to cope with them, o, not being able to impress these minals into his service, Terrill persently took Miss Tredloe out sailing, if with a view to some opportune the design of destroying it, but of reserving it, so that she might share with him. But to return to Col. Welsted. His eclaration that he had not known the oung lady for the first three years of er existence seemed rather strange, onsidering that she looked upon him as father, and that we all considered in in that light, notwithstanding the ifference in their names. He existence his, however, in the course the story which he proceeded to make this, however, in the course the story which he proceeded to make over the corners of his mouth the appearant hanging idly from the fiference in their names. He existence with gaunt cheeks, and had a mined over the corners of his mouth the appearant hanging idly from the fiference in their names. He cannot down almost anything on the land of the fiference of the corners of his mouth the appearant hanging idly from the fiference of the corners of his mouth that almost anything on the land of the fiference of the corners of his mouth the appearant hanging idly from the fiference of the corners of his m | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moceasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dozen toy ballongs for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, besutiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large clastic crimson globes, which she scented to mistake for fruit. "Give Birdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balloon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted imagining she was to-have the entirebunch. "All—all for me!" she cried, and clapping her hands, she stretched them out toward the coveted treasure of the dancing air globes. This so amused the kind hearted doctor that he resolved to humer her, for a moment at any rate. So gathering the long strings together, he tied them around Birdie's waist, then let go, and the balloons all floated up around and above her head and shoulders, making a gay spectacle of her. The doctor and the Italian both stood by, smiling at her satisfaction, when suddenly to their amazement, a strong gust of wind caused all the belloons to sway to one side, sweeping Eirdie off her feet, and gracefully up into the air. It happened so unexpectedly that, before they could do anything to prevent, the light little creature was borne away by the cluster of fantastic looking crimson balls, up and off over the water. And as the wind was off shore, it seemed inevisable that she | ient when she saw that puif of gun smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better—to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood end her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she, became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balloons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, sefily, she began to descend, precisely as if she were being let downward by a pair of arms moving cently, and in a few minutes Col. Jack had the satisfaction of steing her sink quietly and comfortably down on the sand heap, with the remaining balloons still futtering around her like so many huge bubbles of gorgeous color. His boat was the first to reach the point of sand. Ben Piver leaped out, ran to the child, and turning, waved his hat as he shouted to the assembled fleet, "Gentlemen, she's alive and kicking!" whereat another cheer arose, long and loud. Col. Jack all but wept over the child as he caught her up and kissed her. But Birdie, on landing amid the sand, had calmly and unconcernedly begun playing with it. Her hands were full of little shells. "Desc for mamma, sehe remarked, cheerfully." He hurried her into his boat, and sailed back to the wharf, accompanied by the rest of the fiect. There was a tremendous press of then and woner on the wharf. Mr. Middlelw, who revived Rierich were the desired Rierich we have the rema | horseffesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Beafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and custachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Dixon & Son, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully. Send your job printing to the News office. "The best work—low prices." I CSIGIAL Wiereas, The nation has within a short time been called upon to mourn the sudden loss of many of our public men, such as Vice-Presulent Hendricks, Gen. John A. Logan, Sec'y Daniel P. Was cut in the wrist by a broken battle from a within a short time been called upon to mourn the sudden loss of many of our public men, such as Vice-Presulent Hendricks, Gen. John A. Logan, Sec'y Daniel P. Was cut in the wrist by a broken battle from a within a short time been called a doctor, which is a start of the property of the called a doctor, which is a start of the patient of the fact of the patient of the fact of the patient of the fact of the patient of | In Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, or anything else you want. Try Us and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at Any Other Responsible Office rocalization. Manning, Gen. McClellan, and many others. Now therefore, I do by virtue of the knowledge possessed by me, proclaim and recommend Hibbard's Rhenmatic Syrup to be a reinedy of great merit, both for Rheumatism and all Blood Diseases, And further, That this medicine be adopted as a national remedy by all. Signed by the President. INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM. My daughter Maudy had inflammatory rheumatism, and group the sheet bear of the sheet | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered, to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Lastward from Andover, N. Y. Train No. 6 |
| "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at all sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. It is, I don't amount to enough the ymoney came to me by inheritance, or that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance of the world except just to be born and to inherit this wealth. Now if I had ally done some great action or made mame for myself. I might possibly expect to win her. My notion is she cants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—thet's a cod idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save er from drowning, then she'd be are to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do and the their appearance it is likely mough to be just at a moment when we are not prepared to cope with them, or not being able to impress these minals into his service, Terrill persently took Miss Tredloe out sailing, if with a view to some opportune parine disaster. It was positively musing to notice how he dogged her totsteps with a design on her life—of the design of destroying it, but of reserving it, so that she might share with him. But to return to Col. Welsted. His eclaration that he had not known the tours lady for the first three years of er existence seemed rather strange, onsidering that she looked upon him as father, and that we all considered im in that light, notwithstanding the ifference in their names. He existence this, however, in the course the story which he proceeded to make they have almost anything on the land of the first three years of the story which he proceeded to make they have almost anything on the land of the first three years of the story which he proceeded to have a pennant hanging idly from the land of the first three years of the story which he proceeded to have a crack rifle shot. He could have down almost anything on the land of the first has ca | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moceasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dozen toy ballongs for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, besutiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large clastic crimson globes, which she scented to mistake for fruit. "Give Birdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balloon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted imagining she was to-have the entirebunch. "All—all for me!" she cried, and clapping her hands, she stretched them out toward the coveted treasure of the dancing air globes. This so amused the kind hearted doctor that he resolved to humer her, for a moment at any rate. So gathering the long strings together, he tied them around Birdie's waist, then let go, and the balloons all floated up around and above her head and shoulders, making a gay spectacle of her. The doctor and the Italian both stood by, smiling at her satisfaction, when suddenly to their amazement, a strong gust of wind caused all the belloons to sway to one side, sweeping Eirdie off her feet, and gracefully up into the air. It happened so unexpectedly that, before they could do anything to prevent, the light little creature was borne away by the cluster of fantastic looking crimson balls, up and off over the water. And as the wind was off shore, it seemed inevisable that she | ient when she saw that puif of gun smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better—to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood end her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she, became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balloons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, sefily, she began to descend, precisely as if she were being let downward by a pair of arms moving cently, and in a few minutes Col. Jack had the satisfaction of steing her sink quietly and comfortably down on the sand heap, with the remaining balloons still futtering around her like so many huge bubbles of gorgeous color. His boat was the first to reach the point of sand. Ben Piver leaped out, ran to the child, and turning, waved his hat as he shouted to the assembled fleet, "Gentlemen, she's alive and kicking!" whereat another cheer arose, long and loud. Col. Jack all but wept over the child as he caught her up and kissed her. But Birdie, on landing amid the sand, had calmly and unconcernedly begun playing with it. Her hands were full of little shells. "Desc for mamma, sehe remarked, cheerfully." He hurried her into his boat, and sailed back to the wharf, accompanied by the rest of the fiect. There was a tremendous press of then and woner on the wharf. Mr. Middlelw, who revived Rierich were the desired Rierich we have the rema | horseffesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Beafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and custachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Dixon & Son, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully. Send your job printing to the News office. "The best work—low prices." I CSIGIAL Wiereas, The nation has within a short time been called upon to mourn the sudden loss of many of our public men, such as Vice-Presulent Hendricks, Gen. John A. Logan, Sec'y Daniel P. Was cut in the wrist by a broken battle from a within a short time been called upon to mourn the sudden loss of many of our public men, such as Vice-Presulent Hendricks, Gen. John A. Logan, Sec'y Daniel P. Was cut in the wrist by a broken battle from a within a short time been called a doctor, which is a start of the property of the called a doctor, which is a start of the patient of the fact of the patient of the fact of the patient of the fact of the patient of | In Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, or anything else you want. Try Us and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at Any Other Responsible Office rocalization. Manning, Gen. McClellan, and many others. Now therefore, I do by virtue of the knowledge possessed by me, proclaim and recommend Hibbard's Rhenmatic Syrup to be a reinedy of great merit, both for Rheumatism and all Blood Diseases, And further, That this medicine be adopted as a national remedy by all. Signed by the President. INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM. My daughter Maudy had inflammatory rheumatism, and group the sheet bear of the sheet | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered, to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Lastward from Andover, N. Y. Train No. 6 |
| "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at all sure that she cares enough for me take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short it is, I don't amount to enough. It is, I don't amount to enough the ymoney came to me by inheritance, or that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance of the world except just to be born and to inherit this wealth. Now if I had ally done some great action or made mame for myself. I might possibly expect to win her. My notion is she cants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—thet's a cod idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save er from drowning, then she'd be are to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do and the their appearance it is likely mough to be just at a moment when we are not prepared to cope with them, or not being able to impress these minals into his service, Terrill persently took Miss Tredloe out sailing, if with a view to some opportune parine disaster. It was positively musing to notice how he dogged her totsteps with a design on her life—of the design of destroying it, but of reserving it, so that she might share with him. But to return to Col. Welsted. His eclaration that he had not known the tours lady for the first three years of er existence seemed rather strange, onsidering that she looked upon him as father, and that we all considered im in that light, notwithstanding the ifference in their names. He existence this, however, in the course the story which he proceeded to make they have almost anything on the land of the first three years of the story which he proceeded to make they have almost anything on the land of the first three years of the story which he proceeded to have a pennant hanging idly from the land of the first three years of the story which he proceeded to have a crack rifle shot. He could have down almost anything on the land of the first has ca | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moceasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dozen toy ballongs for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, besutiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large clastic crimson globes, which she scented to mistake for fruit. "Give Birdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balloon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted imagining she was to-have the entirebunch. "All—all for me!" she cried, and clapping her hands, she stretched them out toward the coveted treasure of the dancing air globes. This so amused the kind hearted doctor that he resolved to humer her, for a moment at any rate. So gathering the long strings together, he tied them around Birdie's waist, then let go, and the balloons all floated up around and above her head and shoulders, making a gay spectacle of her. The doctor and the Italian both stood by, smiling at her satisfaction, when suddenly to their amazement, a strong gust of wind caused all the belloons to sway to one side, sweeping Eirdie off her feet, and gracefully up into the air. It happened so unexpectedly that, before they could do anything to prevent, the light little creature was borne away by the cluster of fantastic looking crimson balls, up and off over the water. And as the wind was off shore, it seemed inevisable that she | ient when she saw that puif of gun smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better—to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man from shooting?" Dr. Haygood end her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she, became unconscious, because the gallant colonel was blazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balloons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, sefily, she began to descend, precisely as if she were being let downward by a pair of arms moving cently, and in a few minutes Col. Jack had the satisfaction of steing her sink quietly and comfortably down on the sand heap, with the remaining balloons still futtering around her like so many huge bubbles of gorgeous color. His boat was the first to reach the point of sand. Ben Piver leaped out, ran to the child, and turning, waved his hat as he shouted to the assembled fleet, "Gentlemen, she's alive and kicking!" whereat another cheer arose, long and loud. Col. Jack all but wept over the child as he caught her up and kissed her. But Birdie, on landing amid the sand, had calmly and unconcernedly begun playing with it. Her hands were full of little shells. "Desc for mamma, sehe remarked, cheerfully." He hurried her into his boat, and sailed back to the wharf, accompanied by the rest of the fiect. There was a tremendous press of then and woner on the wharf. Mr. Middlelw, who revived Rierich were the desired Rierich we have the rema | horseffesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackney stallion—Triffit's Fireaway—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Catarrhal Beafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and custachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Dixon & Son, 304 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully. Send your job printing to the News office. "The best work—low prices." I CSIGIAL Wiereas, The nation has within a short time been called upon to mourn the sudden loss of many of our public men, such as Vice-Presulent Hendricks, Gen. John A. Logan, Sec'y Daniel P. Was cut in the wrist by a broken battle from a within a short time been called upon to mourn the sudden loss of many of our public men, such as Vice-Presulent Hendricks, Gen. John A. Logan, Sec'y Daniel P. Was cut in the wrist by a broken battle from a within a short time been called a doctor, which is a start of the property of the called a doctor, which is a start of the patient of the fact of the patient of the fact of the patient of the fact of the patient of | In Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, or anything else you want. Try Us and See. OUR PRICES will be found as low as at Any Other Responsible Office rocalization. Manning, Gen. McClellan, and many others. Now therefore, I do by virtue of the knowledge possessed by me, proclaim and recommend Hibbard's Rhenmatic Syrup to be a reinedy of great merit, both for Rheumatism and all Blood Diseases, And further, That this medicine be adopted as a national remedy by all. Signed by the President. INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM. My daughter Maudy had inflammatory rheumatism, and group the sheet bear of the sheet | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered, to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Lastward from Andover, N. Y. Train No. 6 |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at all sure that she cares enough for me of take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short if it is, I don't amount to enough. I ymoney came to me by inheritance, or that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance of the world except just to be born and the world except just to be born and to inherit this wealth. Now if I had any done some great action or made name for myself. I might possibly expect to win her. My notion is she cants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cod idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save er from drowning, then she'd be ure to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do arn up every day; and when-they do nough to be just at a moment when er are not prepared to cope with them. o, not being able to impress these nimals into his service, Terrill persently took Miss Tredloc out sailing, is if with a view to some opportune narine disaster. It was positively musing to notice how he dogged her totsteps with a design on her life—of the design of destroying it, but of reserving it, so that she might share with him. But to esturn to Col. Welsted. His eclaration that he had not known the oung lady for the first three years of er existence seemed rather strange, on a father, and that we all considered im in that light, notwithstanding the fiference in their names. He extended this, however, in the course the story which he proceeded to make the story which he proceeded to have a pennant hanging idly from the fiference in their names. He extended the said of the story is the one I am and could hit all sorts of marking to tell here. Col. Jack Welsted was a tall, sinewy any with gaunt cheeks, and had any not away so good. The too meany where near touching the fifter and they would be a pennant hanging idly from the first many, not away so good. The color any where near touching the first many with a work of on his work of on his wor | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moccasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old sgentleman and his little companion descended the steps to gether. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dezen toy ballongs for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, beautiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling cyes fixed on the large clastic crimson globes, which she scented to mistake for fruit. "Give Birdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balloon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted, imagining she was to have the entirebunch. "All—all for me!" she cried, and clapping her hands, she stretched them out toward the coveted treasure of the dancing air globes. This so amused the kind hearted doctor that he resolved to humor her, for a moment at any rate. So gathering the long strings together, he tied them around Birdie's waist, then let go, and the balloons all floated up around and above her head and shoulders, making a gay spectacle of her. The dector and the Italian both stood by, smiling at her satisfaction, when swidenly to their amazement, a strong gust of wind caused all the balloons to sway to one side, sweeping Eindie off her feet and gracefully up into the air. It happened so unexpectedly that, before they could do anything to prevent, the light little creature was borae away by the cluster of fantastic looking crimson balls, up and off over the water. And as the wind was off shore, it seemed inevitable that she would? The inlet straight out to sea. "Great heavens!" shouted the doctor in helpless horior. The | iert When she saw that puff of gun smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better—to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man—from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel, was biazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balloons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, sofily, she began to descend, precisely as if she were being let downward by a pair of arms moving gently, and in a few minutes Col. Jack shad the satisfaction of seing her sink quietly and comfortably down on the sand heap, with the remaining balloons still funttering around her like so many huge bubbles of gorgeous color. His bout was the first to reach the point of sand. Ben Piver leaped out, ran to the child, and turning, waved his hat as he shouted to the assembled flect, "Gentlemen, she's alive and kicking!" whereat: another cheer arose, long and loud. Col. Jack all, but wept over the child as he caught her up and kissed her. But Birdie, on landing amid the sand, laid calarly and unconcernedly begun playing with it. Her hands were full of little shells. "Dese for mamma, "she remarked, cheerfully. He hurried her into his boat, and sailed back to the wharf, accompanied by the rest of the fleet. There was a tremendous prees of men and women on the wharf. Mr. Middlely, who reverse a shear of the crowd, he missed his way, and s | horsefiesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackiney stallion—Triffit's Fire away—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Gatarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the liming membrane of the nose and custachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. DIXON & SON, 504 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully. Send your job priuting to the News office. "The best work—low prices." INSURER A T. S. Whereas, The nation has within a short time been called upon to mourn the sudden loss of many of our public men, such as Vice-Prestlent Hendricks, Gen. John A. Logan, See'y Daniel P. I was cut in the wrist by a broken bottle from a stricken down with the fell disease Rheumatism, which seems to be greatly on the increase. And whereas, The nation has within a short time been called upon to mourn the sudden loss of many of our public men, such as Vice-Prestlent Hendricks, Gen. John A. Logan, See'y Daniel P. I was cut in the wrist by a broken bottle from the public men, such as Vice-Prestlent Hendricks, Gen. John A. Logan, See'y Daniel P. I was cut in the wrist by a broken bottle from the public was a fire of the public was a fir | In Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, cranything else you want. Try Us and See. OUR PRICES Will be found as low as at Any Other Responsible Office roc analything Gen. McClellan, and many others. And many others, I do by virtue of the knowledge possessed by me, proclaim and revenuend Hibbard's Rhenmatic Syrup to be a remedy of great merit, both for Rheumatism and all Blood Diseases, And further, That this medicine be adopted as a national remedy by all. Signed by the President. INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM. My daughter Maugh had dinflam shate y theumatism, and remedy by all. Signed by the President. INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM. My daughter Maugh had instend in the Thematic poison from her blood, and shut is now able to a round the house. We consider Hibbard's themamatic Syrup and Plasters revented the Thematic poison from her blood, and shut is now able to a round the house. We consider Hibbard's themamatic Syrup and Plasters revented and arm, sufference where the statement of the procession of the processi | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnet to these charining resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Lastward from Andover, N.Y. Train No. 6. 11.18a. in 96. 200 p. in 14. 633 " Westward from Andover, N.Y. Train No. 95. 7.08a. in 141 p. in 15. 141 p. in 16. 824 " " 29. 141 p. in 17. 824 " "Daily, excepting sundays. Further information may be obtained from C. H. Idl. HAKISSON, agent at Andoveri, or from FBO. B. JZLE.. Gen! Northern Pass. agt. Buffalo N.Y. L.P. FARWER, Gen. Pass. 181 Westward from Andoveri, or from FBO. B. JZLE.. Gen! Northern Pass. agt. Buffalo N.Y. L.P. FARWER, Gen. Pass. 181 Westward by the first table. IN Elfect September, 15 p. in and p. in 182 18 p. in p. in a in ar 18 p. in 183 18 p. in 18 d. 28 p. in 18 in 18 p. in 24 p. in 18 p. i |
| on't you ask her to marry you?" "Well," he replied, "I don't feel at all sure that she cares enough for me of take me just for myself. I don't imgine she would want me just for my noney either. The long and the short if it is, I don't amount to enough. I ymoney came to me by inheritance, or that's nothing to my credit. And haven't done anything of importance of the world except just to be born and the world except just to be born and to inherit this wealth. Now if I had any done some great action or made name for myself. I might possibly expect to win her. My notion is she cants a hero. Oh, by Jove!—that's a cod idea. If I could rescue her from mad dog or an angry bull, or save er from drowning, then she'd be ure to have me." Infuriated bulls and mad dogs do arn up every day; and when-they do nough to be just at a moment when er are not prepared to cope with them. o, not being able to impress these nimals into his service, Terrill persently took Miss Tredloc out sailing, is if with a view to some opportune narine disaster. It was positively musing to notice how he dogged her totsteps with a design on her life—of the design of destroying it, but of reserving it, so that she might share with him. But to esturn to Col. Welsted. His eclaration that he had not known the oung lady for the first three years of er existence seemed rather strange, on a father, and that we all considered im in that light, notwithstanding the fiference in their names. He extended this, however, in the course the story which he proceeded to make the story which he proceeded to have a pennant hanging idly from the fiference in their names. He extended the said of the story is the one I am and could hit all sorts of marking to tell here. Col. Jack Welsted was a tall, sinewy any with gaunt cheeks, and had any not away so good. The too meany where near touching the fifter and they would be a pennant hanging idly from the first many, not away so good. The color any where near touching the first many with a work of on his work of on his wor | Indian tent, not far away, were buying bead moceasins and birch bark baskets. The veranda was crowded, and Mrs. Tredloe was sitting there with little Birdie, when benevolent old Dr. Haygood happened along, and asked the widow if he might take the child down to the tent to buy something for her. Mrs. Tredloe consented, and the old gentleman and his little companion descended the steps together. Before they had reached the tent, and as they were walking along the high ground close above the water, they met an Italian peddler who had a couple of dozen toy ballongs for sale, all fastened by long strings to a stick, and bobbing merrily in the air above his head. "Oh, besutiful big apples!" exclaimed Birdie, rapturously, her sparkling eyes fixed on the large clastic erimson globes, which she scened to mistake for fruit. "Give Birdie one?" Dr. Haygood began to bargain with the Italian, and took the stick from him to select a balloon from the bunch. His small friend was delighted, imagining she was to-have the entirebunch. "All—all for me!" she cried, and clapping her hands, she stretched them out toward the coveted treasure of the dancing air globes. This so amused the kind hearted doctor that he resolved to humer her, for a moment at any rate. So gathering the long strings together, he tied them around Birdie's waist, then let go, and the balloons all floated up around and above her head and shoulders, making a gay spectacle of her. The doctor and the Italian both stood by, smiling at her satisfaction, when suddenly to their amazement, a strong gust of wind caused all the belloons to sway to one side, sweeping Eirdie off her feet, and gracefully up into the air. It happened so unexpectedly that, before they could do anything to prevent, the light little creature was borne away by the cluster of fantastic looking crimson balls, up and off over the water. And as the wind was off shore, it seemed invitable that the che | iert When she saw that puff of gun smoke from the catboat, and realized that some one was firing at Birdie! She had barely recovered from her fainting fit when this happened. "Better—to let her drown or blow away beyond recovery than do that," she gasped in anguish. "Why, it is murder! Can't any one stop that man—from shooting?" Dr. Haygood and her friends tried to explain the matter to her, but she fainted again before they could do so, and it was lucky for her that she became unconscious, because the gallant colonel, was biazing away again with his rifle at closer range. Another of the balloons was punctured, and seemed to vanish. Col. Jack's catboat all the time drew nearer to a spot on the water just below the hovering baby, who now hung suspended, fortunately very close to a long sand spit that jutted out into the inlet just beyond the harbor's mouth. One more shot finished off a third balloon, an there were not enough left in the bunch now to hold Birdie up. Slowly, steadily, sofily, she began to descend, precisely as if she were being let downward by a pair of arms moving gently, and in a few minutes Col. Jack shad the satisfaction of seing her sink quietly and comfortably down on the sand heap, with the remaining balloons still funttering around her like so many huge bubbles of gorgeous color. His bout was the first to reach the point of sand. Ben Piver leaped out, ran to the child, and turning, waved his hat as he shouted to the assembled flect, "Gentlemen, she's alive and kicking!" whereat: another cheer arose, long and loud. Col. Jack all, but wept over the child as he caught her up and kissed her. But Birdie, on landing amid the sand, laid calarly and unconcernedly begun playing with it. Her hands were full of little shells. "Dese for mamma, "she remarked, cheerfully. He hurried her into his boat, and sailed back to the wharf, accompanied by the rest of the fleet. There was a tremendous prees of men and women on the wharf. Mr. Middlely, who reverse a shear of the crowd, he missed his way, and s | horsefiesh. It is said that W. Burdett-Coutts is the possessor of a famous hackiney stallion—Triffit's Fire away—that represents in his stock a money value of £250,000. He is 30 years old, and his get sell readily at 300 to 400 guineas a pair in London.—San Francisco Chronicle. CATARRH, Gatarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT. Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the liming membrane of the nose and custachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N. B.—For catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphiet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. DIXON & SON, 504 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American. Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully. Send your job priuting to the News office. "The best work—low prices." INSURER A T. S. Whereas, The nation has within a short time been called upon to mourn the sudden loss of many of our public men, such as Vice-Prestlent Hendricks, Gen. John A. Logan, See'y Daniel P. I was cut in the wrist by a broken bottle from a stricken down with the fell disease Rheumatism, which seems to be greatly on the increase. And whereas, The nation has within a short time been called upon to mourn the sudden loss of many of our public men, such as Vice-Prestlent Hendricks, Gen. John A. Logan, See'y Daniel P. I was cut in the wrist by a broken bottle from the public men, such as Vice-Prestlent Hendricks, Gen. John A. Logan, See'y Daniel P. I was cut in the wrist by a broken bottle from the public was a fire of the public was a fir | In Posters, Dodgers, Circulars, Bill Heads, Statements, Letter Heads, cranything else you want. Try Us and See. OUR PRICES Will be found as low as at Any Other Responsible Office roc analything Gen. McClellan, and many others. And many others, I do by virtue of the knowledge possessed by me, proclaim and revenuend Hibbard's Rhenmatic Syrup to be a remedy of great merit, both for Rheumatism and all Blood Diseases, And further, That this medicine be adopted as a national remedy by all. Signed by the President. INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM. My daughter Maugh had dinflam shate y theumatism, and remedy by all. Signed by the President. INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM. My daughter Maugh had instend in the Thematic poison from her blood, and shut is now able to a round the house. We consider Hibbard's themamatic Syrup and Plasters revented the Thematic poison from her blood, and shut is now able to a round the house. We consider Hibbard's themamatic Syrup and Plasters revented and arm, sufference where the statement of the procession of the processi | parks in America, and popular excursions and picnet to these charining resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special inducements are offered to societies, churches and sunday schools. TIME TABLE. Lastward from Andover, N.Y. Train No. 6. 11.18a. in 96. 200 p. in 14. 633 " Westward from Andover, N.Y. Train No. 95. 7.08a. in 141 p. in 15. 141 p. in 16. 824 " " 29. 141 p. in 17. 824 " "Daily, excepting sundays. Further information may be obtained from C. H. Idl. HAKISSON, agent at Andoveri, or from FBO. B. JZLE.. Gen! Northern Pass. agt. Buffalo N.Y. L.P. FARWER, Gen. Pass. 181 Westward from Andoveri, or from FBO. B. JZLE.. Gen! Northern Pass. agt. Buffalo N.Y. L.P. FARWER, Gen. Pass. 181 Westward by the first table. IN Elfect September, 15 p. in and p. in 182 18 p. in p. in a in ar 18 p. in 183 18 p. in 18 d. 28 p. in 18 in 18 p. in 24 p. in 18 p. i |

ANDOVER, ALLEGANY COUNTY, N. Y., FEB. 13, 1889.

A NOVEL SIGNAL ROCKET.

many lines of steamships have landed)

Gamblers' Homage to Joss.

L. C. VAN FLEET, Loan and Real Estate Agency.
ANDOVER, N. Y.

THE ANDOVER NEWS. N. P. BRAINARD, M. D.,

Peticing Physician & Surgeon. Office at Store on Main Street. E. M. STILLMAN, M. D., PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON,

ILLIARDS AND POOL, of trade has authorized its surveyors —Worcester Herald. to pass these rockets distress signals in Fresh Roasted Deanuts lieu of both guns and rockets, so that Lunch at All Hours.

CIGARS. RECIGAR Agency for

Dealer in

ANDOVER, N. Y.

at very low prices.

Theatre Geers Will Say Amen. The Boston Herald makes a suggest electrical science, and not a moment , lob Printing done on short notice London. The distinguishing features tion which ought to be adopted. It too soon, for this has long been seen pelling charge. Above this is a charge whole audience to rise and relieve it profession, an undivided attention.

reached the maximum height, which is 600 feet.

The stars are thrown out, giving a 'reached illumination, and the tonite other hand, it would relieve from sus-

The Sultan Leads a Jolly Life. their guns and use these signals in | enthusiastic chess amateurs in Europe. also introducing them with red stars, which is the distinctive signal to summon a lifeboat crew. A further advantage in this form of rocket is that the ministers of the time he is the ministers often find the ministers often find the course of their labors, which, were they read in the natural laws, those that have been formulated, they could perhaps appreciate and return the course of their labors, which were they read in the natural laws, those that have been formulated, they could perhaps appreciate and return the course of their labors, which were they read in the natural laws, those that have been formulated, they could perhaps appreciate and return the course of their labors, which were they read in the natural laws, those that have been formulated, they could perhaps appreciate and return the course of their labors, which were they read in the natural laws, those that have been formulated, they could perhaps appreciate and return the course of their labors, which were they read in the natural laws, those that have been formulated, they could perhaps appreciate and return the course of their labors, which were they read in the natural laws, those that have been formulated, they could perhaps appreciate and return the course of their labors, which were they read in the natural laws, those that have been formulated, they could perhaps appreciate and return the course of their labors, which were they read in the natural laws, those that have been formulated, they could perhaps appreciate and return the course of their labors, which were they read in the natural laws, those that have been formulated, they could perhaps appreciate and return the course of the course a combination of colors and number imperial presence, for the reason that of stars can be so arranged as to form a code on the principle of the and their statecraft have to wait until Morse alphabet, a feature which may the sultan has checkmated his odver.

A workshop, laboratory and lecture quently, through neglect, some will level.

A workshop, laboratory and lecture quently, through neglect, some will level.

Add a little boiling water to the colors and number imperial presence, for the reason that | P' side of it.—Scientific American.

gamblers were paying homage to their joss to secure luck in the games. Thought He Was Advertising. Small paper bonfires were started at intervals all up and down both sides I was sailing on Lake Ontario, years cago, who has a large circle of acof Second street, each of which was . of joss sticks and several red and white and there was an automatic device for attention. "What's the matter-bad salver of edibles was brought out and placed beside each fire for the supply of the gastronomic wants of the god. The salvers contained dishes of nuts, plates of prepared meats, bowls of the gastronomic wants of prepared meats, bowls of the god. The salvers contained dishes of nuts, plates of prepared meats, bowls of the god. The salvers contained dishes of nuts, plates of prepared meats, bowls of the god. The salvers contained dishes of nuts, plates of prepared meats, bowls of the god. The salvers contained dishes of nuts, plates of prepared meats, bowls of the god. The salvers contained dishes of nuts, plates of prepared meats, bowls of the god. The salvers contained dishes of nuts, plates of prepared meats, bowls of the god. The salvers contained dishes of nuts, plates of prepared meats, bowls of the god. The salvers contained dishes of nuts, plates of prepared meats, bowls of the god. The salvers contained dishes of nuts, plates of prepared meats, bowls of the god. The salvers contained dishes of nuts, plates of prepared meats, bowls of the god. The salvers contained dishes of nuts, plates of prepared meats, bowls of the god. The salvers contained dishes of nuts, plates the man. In the salvers contained dishes of nuts, plates of prepared meats, bowls of the god. The salvers contained dishes of nuts, plates the man was a bad tooth. The wast the engine was the engine was a bad tooth. The wast the man was a bad tooth. The wast the man was a bad tooth. The wast the mean was a bad tooth. The wast the mean wast the engine wast the engine wast the engine wast the engine wast the mean wast the engine wast the engine wast the mean wast the engine wast the engine wast the mean wast the engine wast the engine wast the mean wast the engine wast the engine wast the engine wast the mean wast the engine wast the mean wast the engine wast the engine getting dried. Thought he dropped his mouth and he threw away the step, the lively action and the powers is the demand for it.

over to advertise the shoemaker's debottle in great disgust. "Saltpeter of endurance that make up the fast father set out to spread the news a sunbeam, which as it entered the abroad. He stopped first at the house from fell upon the cage of a canary of his nearest neighbor whom he hailed hanging before the window.

AGRICULTURAL NOTES. IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION. Transplanting Trees--Farm Tools--The Walking Horse--Notes.

decided to have a special course ir TRANSPLENTING LARGE TREES. London. The distinguishing features | tion which ought to be adopted. It | too soon, for this nas long been seen of this invention are that no stick is throws out a hint to theatre managers to be a department by itself, and, safely during the winter in this way | finer will be the particles of earth, required and there is no back fire. The that they adopt a regulation, and an rocket takes the form of a metal cylin- nounce on their programmes, which ural philosophy, requiring, at least from the standard and the more available the plant food. der, in the base of which is the pro- shall make it theatre etiquette for the from those who would adopt it as a from the stem and under the roots. Quite a number of insects will also of tonite, and above this again a star composition. The rocket is placed in phosphor bronze socket, which may be constraint of continuous because of this it is to be made a post-graduate course of one two or phosphor bronze socket, which may be constraint of continuous because of this it is to be made a post-graduate course of one two or the ground is frozen. Protect the ground to become warm early. firing tube is placed in the center of is added the fatigue of sitting for two school of mines and outsiders with straw to keep the earth from freezin a theatre chair, elemental experience to continue their ing. Prepare the place for the tree, of sap by preventing the ground from lanyard is hooked. The propelling which may not be more than comfort studies. The proposed course will conclude the soil taken out from warming too early. As the frost may charge is fired by simply pulling the able at the outset, but which grows sist in practical work, construction of charge is fired by simply pulling the able at the outset, but which grows sist in practical work, construction of charge is fired by simply pulling the able at the outset, but which grows sist in practical work, construction of charge is fired by simply pulling the able at the outset, but which grows sist in practical work, construction of charge is fired by simply pulling the able at the outset, but which grows sist in practical work, construction of charge is fired by simply pulling the able at the outset, but which grows sist in practical work, construction of charge is fired by simply pulling the able at the outset, but which grows sist in practical work, construction of charge is fired by simply pulling the charge is fi lanyard, and the signal is propelled harder and harder as the play pro- lamps, dynamos, primary and second- freezing, so that it can be returned catch the trees and vines after they is exploded is at the same time ignited A certain portion of the audience, vestigation of the phenomena of electron of the phenomena of electron delectron of the same time ignited and this home until the material them aterial the material them aterial the material does not sorely regret his lack of theo firm hold on the new ground. retical knowledge. Few such men TAKING CARE OF FARM TOOLS. Too much care cannot be taken in or during the course of their labors, preventing loss from exposure of the through the winter, but quite fre-during the winter, rasp them off to a ment of Columbia college, ought to be fall before they are put away in a dry hog-swill in cold weather so as take prove or great importance in naval manufacture and for torpedo boat operations. The full sized rockets are seven inches long and two inches in diaminations and two inches in diaminations. The full sized rockets are seven inches long and two inches in diaminations and two inches in diaminations. The full sized rockets are seven inches long and two inches in diaminations and the next move. Abdul Hamid has his own court chess sufficient to turn out men capable of original investigation; men at least capable of taking a responsible position in the meritage, or decided on the next move. Sufficient to turn out men capable of place, and then in a foul and rusty the chill off.

THE WALKING HORSE.

Many breeds of swine degenerate tion in the meritage, or decided on the next move. Sufficient to turn out men capable of place, and then in a foul and rusty the chill off.

Many breeds of swine degenerate tion in the meritage, or decided on the next move. Abdul Hamid has his own court chess original investigation; men at least capable of taking a responsible position. Every tool or implement. tion in the practical work in the mer-should be thoroughly cleaned as soon because the sows are used for breed-work or superintend work from their as it is out of use, and before it is ing purposes before they are a year instruction which lowing is a good receipt for a mixture | nost nearly resembles what its recip- for coating the metal portion of farm ients are looked to to accomplish out implements: To two quarts of kero- gerous as among men. Keep the sene add one gill of linseed oil and teams busy, if possible, when the

For feeding milch cows corn meal ill to which poor flesh is heir? And, vent rust by excluding the moisture if suffering from one of these myriad which causes it. To the wood apply is good, as every dairyman knows, but when mixed in suitable proportions with wheat bran its effect i much better than when it is fed with kind of prepared paper, which is sup- I forget his name now, though I have behind it. He met his friends one by posed to possess a peculiar quality of often seen him in Buffalo since then. one in his walks about town. His under the contract of the detriment of the crop Before each fire a bundle The boat was lowered by a windlass, shapely face at once attracted their ter price than the one equally as worms to the detriment of the crop wax candles were lighted. A large releasing it the moment it touched salver of edibles was brought out and releasing it the moment it touched tooth?" was the first query. He would good in other respects but a slow or grass sward, there is no better tooth?" was the first query. He would good in other respects but a slow or grass sward, there is no better plates of prepared meats, bowls of just three minutes the man was cooked rice, apples, and several empty picked up, in twelve minutes the crew confidence in his friend and bought a cups. One of the attendants poured of the boat were back on deck and the small vial of oil of cloves. tea from a pot into each of the cups, vessel was on its way again. Quickest After he had anointed the swollen untrained." This disposes of the animals will always command a ready and then lifted each plate and dish work I ever saw or heard of. But our jaw with the powerful oil for an hour idea that a fast walker must be a long sale, and the better the individual captain was in a rage. He kicked the or so he thought he was carrying a legged animal. It is the sprightly and choicer the breeding the greater to the breeding the greater to the greater to the greater to the greater to the legged animal. It is the sprightly and choicer the breeding the greater to the gre

> FEBRUARY NOTES. The corn plant is a gross feeder, clear larger profits, even if the wool ? and the land cannot be made too from such sheep is burned, than from can show him the outline of the poul- Sow the lawn grass seed early, so well meaning friends, and one side of to become well rooted before sum- a shorter space of time, can be proance until Aim to produce something of betwill ter quality than can be found in the pourty equals that of any other class Carket Quantity of produce does of live stock. It gives an opposite. ed the One day Ray and Ernest were play not always insure profit. While the inty to those of limited means, and ing together, and as they occasionally market may be well supplied with quarreled, their mother said: "If you are the products of the farm there is portion to the capital invested."

Some Foolish People

well for a time, but will fail at a crit-Early plowing exposes the soil to the action of the rain, frost and sun, Large trees may be removed quite and the earlier the work is done the so as to make it easy to get a large be exposed to the surface, while the brilliant illumination, and the tonite charge then explosion is equal to the firing of a six pound gun; but being high, is heard at a great distance; indeed in the acts is too conspicuous, they can one instance a disabled vessel brought only find relief in going out between the theory of their work, and though tying it with straw ropes. The tree so much to lack of vitality in the seed another to her assistance from a distance the acts, horribly conscious that all it is an invaluable capital to commence is drawn to the place intended for it, as to the unfavorable condition of tance of twelve miles. These rockets their acquaintances are wondering are so portable and easy to fire—no what they will drink. The opportant found infallible in the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of the ground. It is always a matter or the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land. It is always a matter or land to the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the making of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the making of a land set up of a land set up on a well-prepared bed of land infallible in the match or port fire being required— tunity which such a regulation would first rate workman, while in some soft earth; the remainder of the earth chance germination when seed is ANDOVER, N. Y. that they are very suitable for boats, afford, of moving about and seeing shops they prefer a slight acquaint is carefully pushed under the roots broadcasted and left to be covered d had they been in use in tract from the attendance at the thea- is intelligent and industrious, to a deal and settled in among them with plen- by the washing of the rain, and the have tre. There are several points in it of theory where the latter is allied ty of water, and the hole is filled harder and firmer the seed bed the with over confidence. On the other firmly. The tree should be support- greater the difficulty in securing a hand, it is hard to find a shop bred man, let him be ever so skillful, who ed with ropes until the roots have a crop from the seed. Pulverize the soil, harrow it down as fine as possible and then brush the seed in.

Mulching prevents the early flow

LIVE STOCK NOTES. The horse remembers all that the Idleness among horses is as dan-

Did you ever run across a man who not have his own remedy for every.

| We | Everybody Has a Remedy. | an ounce of powdered rosin; apply rest in winter is as bad as too little. | with a paint brush. This will precoarse provender alone.

A western breeder states that if. farmers will devote their attention to the mutton breeds of sheep they can sheep that are kept principally for as to give the young grass a chance More meat and better meat, and in duced from poultry than from any the reach of medicine. They often