ALLEGANY COUNTY.

The Epitome of the Week's News Gathered with Pencil and Scissors, and Arranged for Busy Readers.

Dr. Cornell, late of Whitesville, has located in Kansas City, Mo.

Allegany county hotel proprietors met in Cuba Saturday.

Miss Nellie Macklin of Rushford fell on the ice while skating and broke her right ankle.

It is expected now by the Shawmut line officials that trains will be running from Bolivar to Angelica by July 1st.

Albert S. Stillman of Alfred was one of the judges at the recent poultry show in Madison Square Garden, New York.

James J. Russell, an aged resident of Scio, died at the hotel in that place of pneumonia. The funeral services were held Thursday.

Andrew K. Fletcher, former proprietor of the Charles Hotel at Angelica, died at his home in Elmira and was buried Wednesday last.

Miss Mabel B. Franklin was married at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sara M. Franklin, at Angelica, today, to Charles A. Gibson of Grove.

The Democrat says that the conservative business men of Wellsville estimate that $75,000 was expended in that city for holiday purposes.

John Dean of West Almond, who was conductor on a street car in Buffalo, has secured a more lucrative position as inspector at Schenectady.

A public pay-off and entertainment of the National Protective Legion Nos. 196, of Allentown, will be held in that village Monday evening, Feb. 2d.

Prof. W. D. Ault of Belfast has resigned his position as principal of the High School at Amenia, owing to ill health, and will make Belfast his home for the present.

Friendship business men are making an effort to have the Buffalo & Susquehanna railroad pass thru that village. A committee has been organized to confer with the railroad officials.

The Allegany County W. C. T. U. will hold an Institute at Bolivar Jan. 27th and 28th. State President, Mrs. Boole of New York, and Mrs. Graham, a leading worker, are to be in attendance at the Institute.

Blaze: D. J. McMillan of Black Creek has been granted an increase of pension from $17 to $72, with six months back pay. Mr. McMillan was a faithful soldier and as he is now an invalid certainly deserves Uncle Sam's assistance.

The school house at Inavale was burned to the ground last week Sunday. The janitor started a fire about 8 o'clock in the morning, and it is presumed the fire caught from the chimney. There was no insurance on the building.

[illegible] in of Canada and [illegible] with the next year [illegible] raised $100, [illegible] Band of [illegible] Band of the [illegible] the Methodist church.

[illegible] Pike [illegible] of the village [illegible] Tuesday [illegible] Mr. Fuller [illegible] Tuesday [illegible] Mr. Fuller [illegible] Tuesday [illegible] Mr. Fuller