Came as before Flip, flip, flip, flip, Was this a lesson of life to be

THE THOSE OF NEWSERN. the parate of decid. Strange from this Spening a place for a young love's neet, They chose a compour as suited best; Hoppety, hippety, trippety, trip, In the mouth of the implement made to k They boilt their brooding nest with skill, Before the bettle of Newbern. But so it happed ere the work was done. And the bird beats made in the mouth of the gun were at home was an arrenal of guns- | spring for water. .-- With flutter and skip, And a trip, trip, trip, A hipporty, hopporty, flipporty, flip, Ward flows with the screech of the first wild she e had the woods where 'twas safe to dwell, During the battle of Newbern. And on that day, so the soldiers say. After the blue had succeeded the gray, The birds once more Rack to the haunts of those men of war; After the smoke and the carnage and death, Almost in the cannon's flery breath, They gathered once more moss, feathers, And went to work their nest to repair, With their hoppety hip, hand of buffaloes still ex- safety. In the new dismounted cannon they'd trip. sta nivotected by United States soldiers. Once more she harred all entrances teneath the mild soring sun in the south Rebuilded their nest in the cannon's mouth After the battle of Newbern. The blue of gray, Who came that day To wrangle and clay in their own rude way; They only sought for the ways of peace. Then built in the gun they had used befor And showed contempt for the ways of war. With their hippety hip And this is the legend the soldiers tell After the battle of Newbern. himself with the building of stables. Was this an auspice of what would come After the hush of the rifle and drum, Flour, coffee, sugar and other nec-With a hip, hip, hip, And a brotherly grip, essaries were got at Prairie du Chien faught to men by the small chickadee, After the battle of Newbern? -Harry J. Shellman in Harper's Weekly. atthe Pinnicon cabin to beg for "tobac" and "sug," which, as the sup-As early as 1834 a few hardy piothe western banks of the upper Missis- their hunts afforded. These were of stolen back to lie in ambush for the tachian tubes. Microscopic r sippi, and to move their families into ten stirring or amusing, and their re- unsuspecting boatmen. She had not ever, has proved the hem. One of these bold men was cital served to make the evening pass been seen on her excursion to the result is that a s William Gleason, who, with a voke of | pleasantly | before the crackling back | spring because the Indians were intencontaining household ef- logs of the fire place. - Thus time passed until "planting year mentioned, and settled at the the first of June Briggs and Ellery, with the bateau well loaded with the mouth of the Little Pinnicon (little He was attracted thither by the tales | Chien

They had been gone twelve days, ly to attract their attention. Even if read the above carefully. They | somewhat anxiously looked for by the | well fancy her to be merely greeting | S98 Sewing-Machine | Well fancy her to be merely greeting | Gleasons, who were out of flour and their return can take care o' myself a few hours." He snatched down his rifle from its trappers and hunters, wished to have pegs and hurried out. He had been gone not much more

A fine crop was raised that year, sharp watch in all directions. variety to their table that this little | dent to arouse her fears afresh. At | interest. They now came forward and | band of pioneers felt themselves to be noon she made preparations for dinner. each in his rough way—for they, too, expecting Bill soon to return. Then were frontiersmen — uttered game—the house when the men she took a pail and started for the sions of grateful admiration, had such abundance as three good | She reached the top of the gully had performed. ld secure. Even Mrs. Gleason was | and was about to descend to the spring | story was reneated to him. he said. provided with a gun, a short, flint when she saw something near the simply, but with wet eves: Briggs and Ellery were often away stant alarm. Its was a singe feather leave yo alone again so long's thar's Line IVEW hunting excur dyed red, projecting above the ridge danger from Injuns." September they rode away of a clay bank that marked a turn of . That night John Ellery set out for only a three days' journey from the hurried back to the cabin, expecting doubt knew of their presence and misevery moment to hear the Indian vell sion, for the settlers at Little Pinnicon ional park in Wyoming, where a her then and she reached the cabin in Briggs and Ellery were men with fastant danger, for the country all about last. She understood now, she thought, claims a of bands of Winnebagoes, Potawat- away so unconcernedly. They had "Little Pinnicon settlement."—Frank omies and Musquakies, and occasion- intended the action for a blind. After W. Calkins in Youth's Companion. ally Sioux. These last were far more | riding out of sight they had dismount o be dreaded than the others, as Black ed, and having slunk back under shel Hawk's war had given the lesser and | ter of the river bank had entered t wife, and a general storage room for ambush of the savages. there came into view, not a mile distant, the well known sail of the bateau by Briggs and Ellery, who made the but almost instantly the true situation LESTER Boots and Shoes will please you. We Can Suit You tors and settlers in the West. Trustwertly in distincerented information in record to any low. flashed upon her and she realized the Early in autumn straggling bands nurpose of the ambush. A deadly fear Indian hunters sometimes stopped | for her trapper friends seized upon the

She saw it all now. The Indians Winter came and passed without indent to the settlers, save such as ir hunts afforded. These were oftime" came and went, and still the lit- was coming slowly on with a ligh

"spring catch," set out for Prairie du | It would be certain death to her to a mile up creek, an' I'm goin' after | the creek. It connected with a small | I'm goin' after | the creek.

strangers leaning on their guns and with not a little wonder at the feat she

Not a Bad Precedent. An English court has rendered a decision which would not be a bad precesteam to be blown off suddenly, thereand recovered full damages. The judge

LESTER Binghamton Boots and Shoes fit.

CATARRH, Catarrhal Deafness and Hay Fever. A NEW HOME TREATMENT.

Auction

before ordering.

The Erie offers low rates and my

Westward from ANDOVER.

". H. RICHARDSON, agent at ANDOVER, or Inc.

W. J. AUSPAY,

GRO. B. ALLEX,

T. C. PLATT, Receiver.

· WEST BOUND.

L. P. PARMES.

Lakes and Parks.—The Erie is fortunated to the location along line of the most beautiful and romantic lakes as

Agency for Tansill's

Dealer in

Gen'l Northern Pass, agt., Britale M.

ANDOVER, ALLEGANY COUNTY, N. Y., APRIL 10, 1889.

Mark Twain's Story.

4- Musical Fish, '

THE ANDOVER NEWS,

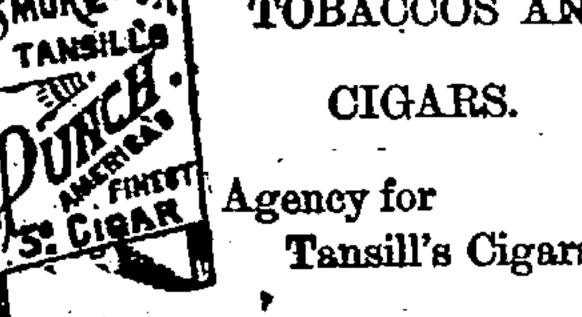

and Counselor at Law.

N. P. BRAINARD, M. I racticing Physician & Surgeon. Office at Store on Main Street,

, C. VAR TUEEL,

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

Practicing Physician and Surgeon.

LIME and BONE PHOSPHATE. ANDOVER, N. Y.

The Czar's Favorite Ring.

seen, the ring having really been made

Sanitary Regulation

A few years ago the Band of Work-

Section 1. Whatever is dangerous t been altered by trifles over and over story. He consented and a large audi-Job Printing done on short notice Philadelphia youth to have his destiny ed the platform he insisted that the ing, or part or cellar therrof, is over as food therein. Any violations of any Board of Health therefor; and the family the musical perceptions of gas be turned down low. Up on the crowded or not provided with adequate of the provisions of this ordinance shall ily of the deceased shall in all such the a gold fish. There is a family in this stage stood. Mr. Clemens, with a means of ingress or egress, or is not sufat there is not a sufficiency of other full in his face, while all the rest was ficiently supported, ventillated, sewer- $5.00 and by the selzure and destruction possible, and take all precentions possible. bric-a-brac) of whose Spruce street darkness. He presented a weird spected, drained, lighted or cleaned; and of such unsound, unwholesome, or im- ble to prevent the expenses of others. g room are a large gold fish tacle, with his hair standing up all whatever renders soil air water or food mature food substances. and a grand piano. Every member over his head. In a deep, sepulchral impure or unwholesome, are declared to of the family is a well known amateur voice he began and said he would tell impure or unwholesome, are declared to someone of the Road of Wester shall this authors. ichthyolo- the tale of "The Golden Arm." This be nulsances and to be illegal; and consent of the Board of Health, shall this ordinance shall be pursued in the consent of the Board of Health, shall this ordinance shall be pursued in the consent of the Board of Health, shall this ordinance shall be pursued in the consent of the Board of Health, shall this ordinance shall be pursued in the consent of the Board of Health, shall this ordinance shall be pursued in the consent of the Board of Health, shall this ordinance shall be pursued in the consent of the Board of Health, shall this ordinance shall be pursued in the consent of the Board of Health, shall this ordinance shall be pursued in the consent of the Board of Health, shall this ordinance shall be pursued in the consent of the Board of Health, shall this ordinance shall be pursued in the consent of the Board of Health, shall this ordinance shall be pursued in the consent of the Board of Health, shall this ordinance shall be pursued in the consent of the Board of Health, shall this ordinance shall be pursued in the consent of the Board of the as well, and their boast of the tale tells how a young girl had an ar every person having aided in creating build or use any slaughter-house within fine of not less than $5.00. for some time past a matter of mingled | was buried, and her father finally | support continue or retain any of them jest and wonder to their friends. One | thought he would exhume her body | shall be deemed guilty of a violation c > play chamber music he set out on his mission. [All this for the expense of the abatement which is their invariable diversion while Mark's voice kept growing deep remedy required. er and more sepulchral.] The father 2. No privy-pit, cess-pool or resercerts, the largest of the gold fish has dug up the body, obtained possession of voir into which any privy, water-closet, other person owning, leasing or occupy- within five hundred feet of any resiswum slowly to the side of the glass, the coveted arm, and started back stable, sink or other receptacle of refuse ing any place, room or building where dence, nor disposed of otherwise than The wind was howling, the road was or sewage is drained shall be constructas long as the music continued. He dark and gloomy, and the guilty pa- ed or maintained in any situation or or are killed or dressed, and every per- shall direct. Any violations of any of

has been seen to do this over and over rent nervous and very much frighten in any manner whereby, through son being the owner, lessee or occupant the provisions of this ordinance shall again, and the story which is now be- ed. Suddenly, above the mournful leakage or overflow of its contents, it of any room or stable wherein any ani- be punished by a fine of not less than prove that there was method in his dismal wail, saying: "Where's my may cause pollution of the soil near or make are kept, or of any market, public $10. golden arm?. Where's my golden about habitations, or any well, spring or or private, shall cause such place, room, About the middle of the winter the arm?" and glancing over his shoulder other source of water used for drinking building, stable or market, and their in every marriage and of the parents or said eldest son, a devoted violinist, fell | the terrified father saw the ghost of or culinary purposes; nor shall the over- | yards and appurtenances, to be there custodian of every child born, to make ANDOVER, N. Y. approve, especially as the lady was home, and all the while came the wail cle be permitted to discharge into any oughly cleansed and purified, and all sure that the prescribed report of such cle be permitted to discharge into any offal, blood, fat, garbage, refuse and unmarriage or birth is presented to the to all appearances in love. In this his his daughter, her good arm gesticulation flow from any such reservoir or receptation of such that the prescribed report of such young, charming and very well off. of the child, saying: "Where's my public place or in anywise whereby dan. wholesome and offensive matter to be Board of Health or, its registering offi-" Upstairs he went this ger to health may be caused. And removed therefrom at least once in cer within thirty days, under a penalty

she could sing. This was her weak dressed and finially crept into bed. shall be cleaned and the contents therepoint, and it may be said at once, as lout on the stairs, nearer, ever nearer, long as no names are being mentioned. Out on the stairs, nearer, ever nearer, of removed at such times and under referred to, and shall also at all times of the first thirty days, an additional that her voice, method and songs were tened to the patter of advancing foot- such precautions as the Board of Health keep all wood-work, saye floors and penalty of 50c shall be incurred. all atrocious. But her lover was blind- steps. Suddenly the door was opened may prescribe. Violations of any of counters, in any building, place or 15. Every undertaker or other pered and the family peace was threat- and the ghostly figure of his daughter the provisions of this ordinance shall be advanced to his bedside, crying, punished by a fine of $2.00 for each "Where's my golden arm?" The facovered up his head in the due notice to abate it from an authortake official recognition of the affair blankets, and the spook placed her ized officer. by inviting her to tea. To tea she was hand on the coverlets and cried, 3. All house-sewers or drains for the earth beneath. Any violation of any or member of the Board of Health, and invited, and she brought her music. "Where's my golden arm?" Just at conveyance of deleterious or offensive and to the drawing room this moment. Mark gave a jump, matters shall be water-tight, and the the eldest sister spread out his arms wildly, and in a matters shall be water-tight, and the sister spread out his arms wildly, and in a matters snan be water-tight, and the voice that could have been heard in plans and methods of their construction day's continuance or repetition of the and he shall not remove any dead body violin and jingo." At a meeting of the Band of Board of Health. In streets or avenues 'cello; then the visitor was asked to sing. All this while the gold fish had it was unanimously voted not to ask others the Roard of Health may or it was unanimously voted not to ask structed, the Board of Health may or- tious disease may occur shall report the than $5.00. der house-connections to be made there-

4. No house-refuse, offal, garbage, men dislike to hear wo- dead animals, decaying vegetable mat- the nature of such disease; and, until burying ground or other place for the Mamma!" rang out shrill and false a men talk politics, and do not regard it cry was heard from the youngest as the part of politeness to discuss polition, shall be thrown upon any street, leave to the Health Officer, shall not shall so conduct his business and so care tical questions with them. The story road or public place, and no putrid or permit any clothing or other article for any such place above named, as to turned instinctively to the aquarium. great beauty, who, at a recent recept decaying animal or vegetable matter which may have been exposed to infect avoid detriment, or danger to public joining out-building for more than shall any occupant change his residence than five for each day's continuance a absence of mind vexed the ternotice to abate by an authorize nor made land constructed, with any nor more than $5.00 for each cartload, or part thereof, of such materials depos-safety of all operatives employed there-old, or of any lamb which was at the less than $10.

the limits of this town, and the keeping the contention of their brother that | cry still ringing in his ears. He un- | every such pit, reservoir or receptacle | every twenty-four hours after the use of 50c for failure to do so; and 1 or whitewashed; and the floors of such properly filled-out certificate o liquids or washings from settling in the State Board of Health, and shall b

Every householder or head of fam- have been procured. ly in a house wherein any case of infec. any of the provisions of this ordinance the time of his or her first knowledge of .

elsewhere without the consent of the ease as hereinbefore enumerated shall of, make a written report specifying the than $5.00. ame and residence of the patient, the 17. Before the holding of any inquest nature of the disease, and any other within facts relating thereto which he may the Board of Health or the Health under a penalty of not less than $2.50 and affix the date and sign his name is reported to have been the cause. thereto, and he shall hand such report to the householder or head of family as the proposed inquest is to be held: and aforesaid, who shall thereupon become if known, what physician attended the responsible for its transmission to the deceased person within forty-eight date of its death less than eight weeks '18. There shall not be a party of any pig which was at the church funeral of any person. date of its death less than five weeks died of Asiatic cholera, small part old shall be brought within the limits phus fever, dyptheria, scarlet form of this town, nor offered or held for sale measies, without the permit et

13. No animal affected with an inand slaughtering of all cattle, sheep and | fectious or contagious disease shall be ... of all meat, fish, birds, or other animal this town, except by the permission food, shall be in the manner best adapt- the Board of Health; and the bodies o ed to secure and continue their whole- animals dead of such disease or kille someness as food; and every butcher or on account thereof, shall not be buried in any cattle, sheep or swine have been [as the said Board or its Health Officer.

"|constructed as to prevent blood or foul ance with the form prescribed by the | Health Officer within twelve hours from | ton, or undertaker, or cemetery keeper. e within the limits of this town, or has