their claim, they left their cooking near his own wagon and sat down on a roughl, tensils and other belongings inside stump to think. the cabin, and closed the door and The night was not dark; the moon They swam over two yoke a brown study, the figure of a personnearly all day to cross, and it was late | ward him. As he approached the dog | terms. in the evening when they reached ran out and began leaping upon him. of the valley timber, and they had 14 or 15. that they halted and lowered their out—there was no light that could be to "Oh, I'll show ye," said the boy, after them guns. forward and drove the animal away with his whip, giving it a cut which | "It's bout forty rod, though, the way ye'll hev ter drive t' git down ter the | crack o' doom, 'a wagon as he approached. As he came camp by water"—which was true got. plenty ter cat-in my pockets been ripped from the door, and that a light was shining through a turned his wagon about and dreve thar!" he called, standing very nearly over the way stood in the open space.

Could not be seen, and the man, who who be yet she inquired, gruffly. had probably come out to see what the owners of this was going on upon hearing the wagon war," said Jared, "an' we'd like ter mattle turned again, and entered the goods and the men sullenly

"Say, Jerd, have they Hirt ye?"

All this had happened so quickly tion, stopped his oxen and while un the new comers of their neighborhood that when Jake, who had heard the scuffle, had tied the steers and come cautiously up to the door, gun in hand.

tying a long, slender lead rope from the head goods neighbors among them.—Frank of the team kept the boy near his side.

Welles Calkins in Youth's Companion. the found himself confronted by the When he had secured the rope.

v removing a board from the nearest, trip threw him to the ground. The fashioned toed lays over them all. "Drop that gun!" came from within "Drop that gun!" came from within fear and anger, but Jake quieted him make any pretensions to being a with a stern command, and then hold weather prophet, but he gets there ing him fast, told him just what had just the same. He can't boast any happened at the cabin, and also gave brilliant plumage, and doesn't fly a him a truthful account of his own high as his feathered rivals, but when and his brother's labor in making the it comes down to good solid horse sense still barking. Then he called to his claim, which had been jumped re he takes the cake. When he tunes his Our facilities are unexcelled for doin "An' now, youngster, I'm goin' ter | round of melody you can bet your any kind of Printing, from the largest terms, an the more ye cut up the wuss lowly child of melody knows a good poster to the smallest card. d tie ye up, an' bring yer ole dad ter winter clothes he won't get left. thing when he sees it, and never be-Jake picked up a club and threw it it'll be for ve." his | gins operations till spring has been on | called to the men to know what they story and saw both the point and the hand a couple of weeks.—Jackson lived in the region be | that they had taken up a man for as | that "Dad 'n Bob 'll git ev'n with ye My little 2 year old has added some 1 Jake tied his prisoner, securely, un thing new to the story of Joseph and Jake told them they had no business hitched his oxen and turned them his brethren. I to

Their father had moved up inside the cabin, which belonged to loose, with the yokes on, to graze, and version of the story, and he seemed: there from Galena some time before himself and his brother; that this then getting some quilts out of the much interested in Joseph's coat of the Black Hawk troubles and, though claim had been made and held for two wagon, made a bed under it, picked many colors. When I had finished h they were but lads of 16 and 17, they years, and that they were liable to up the captive and laid him upon it. said: "Papa, tell me about his pants." had taken part in the defense of Mound prosecution for assault on his brother. He then ate a cold bite of bread and —The Home Maker. The elder man answered back that he meat, and taking his rifle went slowly and his son had found an old trapper back to the cabin. As they grew up and Jake came of living in the cabin, that they had When he arrived there he again, age, they became ambitious to have bought his right to it, and laid claim seated himself upon a stump and gave land of their own. They had helped to the land, and, what was more, they his mind to thought. He had gained vate 100 acres of land on their father's | was also stated that a colony of settlers | change prisoners and get his brother | "patent" in Mound Creek valley, and from Illinios had come in some three free, which had been his object in so now it was high time to begin for weeks before, having crossed the river roughly treating the boy, but could Catarrial Deafness and Hay Fever. at "The Portage," and squatted along he do anything more? Up to this period the broad Wiscon- on that side; that a general meeting He determined to try. Accordingly sin, unfordable except in the driest had already been held, and the usual he got up and stole softly behind a tide of northern and western settle speaker inside the cabin had been fore—the dog seemed to have exhaustment in their district. There was chosen constable until a regular elected its animosity or else it had followed Jake now shouted loudly at the The young fellow was astounded

-upon one of which they had subsell had greatly the advantage over him. light shone through a crack, and an quently erected a snug log cabin, He and Jared could really prove noth- ugly voice—the old man's again—reling; not a settler on the other side plied: "Wall, what ye yawpin' about L They spent the greater part of two them here or knew of the location of Jake briefly related the story of the Canada.—Scientific American. whom they knew had ever visited now?" ting rails during the short days, and only callers had been two or three every few seconds by ejaculations of read the above carefully. in the spring, summer and autumn, stray trappers and an occasional Win- wrath and chagrin from his auditors, while working on their father's place, nebago Indian who had at various or at least from two of them. Jared times spent a night with them. they watched jealously for any move- times spent a night with them.

ment toward a settlement on the lt was one of those trappers, a ras- give a shout and a hearty laugh of them, we will send free to one river, on Sac Prairie, one of the most neighborhood to stand by them in pos- cautiously, and Jake heard somebody -evidently a woman-crying pite-

"Hullo, mister! w'at ye doin' out im ev'ry gun ye've got an' let

Joseph's Pants.

CATARRH,

A NEW HOME TREATMENT.

IT NEVER FAILS,

WE SUBMIT OUR FORMULA for your kind conmerit as a family remedy. The combination makes it the greatest IN THE WORLD

Its value cannot be overtetimeted as used herein.

and as a tonic for the stomach it has no rival, as BARBARE is powerful in its action, working wition. Black Contact, as used in this syrup, is a powerad sel and useful remedy, acting primarily on the nervons system, kidneys and uterine organs.

The selection of the invariably used for habitual constimervons system, kidneys and uterine organs.

The selection of the invariably used for habitual constimervons system, kidneys and uterine organs. SIMILER ROOT. In all diseases of women it D Syphilis, Kidney, Liver and all Skin Diseases. AMARAGE is tonic, diuretic, alterative and lax-

AND PLASTERS.

IN ADDITION to the ABOVE, which are everywhere recognized by the MEDICAL ACULTY as being the best known Blood Tonics, our medicine contains RARE DRUGS, rendering Jun caused procure it at your draggest, some curest to my Proce $1.00; 6 besides $6.00. Photograph

TESTIMONIALS WORTHY OF CONFIDENCE

The whole party then drove Print M. E. Charch, Fremont, Mich.

IF YOU WANT

TIME TABLE. Westward from ANDOVER, N. Y.

> GEO. E. ALLEN. Gen'l Northern Pass. agt., Bullalo N.F.

The Erie offers low rates and and

L. P. PARNIS, W. J. HUSPEY,

B.E.&C.R.R.

WEST BOUND. " Allentown ... 9.03 a. m... 235

25 cents for three mos

F. M. BAKER Ag't Receiver. A fine line of .

at very low proces.

A ALLEGANY COUNTY, N. Y., MAY 1, 1889.

TECHNICAL SCHOOLS

in Europe,

it. One of its members said:

In considering the foundation c

the national government.

to do for textiles all that circumstances.

Water expands with both heat and

It is the fact that water expands

ace at Store on Main Street, ANDOVER, N.

EVERY DAY

Tansill's Cigars.

M. H. HARMAN.

Dealer in

NDOVER, N. Y.

A nice fresh line of

of this great stronghold of industrial freedom and progress."—New York west line of Cigars, Tobacco ana MS and amokers' materials A full line of > a freezing, which enables frost to act at 85 cents, 50 cents rocks, and on freezing expands with cisco Chronicle. force as to break off fragments.

York Telegram.

Everybody who visits the Great Pacific with any amount o I frequen aught. The Silk association of New large, he has one now of a modified York has long advocated the school character. Patsays when he was down strengthers, no caucuses, no politics. an epic at 11, indorses such a system, ter. This is especially tree when she and expended much money to secure on a street car line that had in a great the necessary evila but it is not re. When still a child in age she as she instinct or turn toward any species. would derive from a trade school of I was known, all through the Crescent all outside influences for these indus- | minute or two the start for some i the mule was brought up "While the United States is second which any town in Europe is proud to and drew the strange car all day. possess. In textile industries, particu- The next morning, though, the same larly, the number of technical schools trouble ensued, and he had to be show has been largely increased in Europe. that his own car was not ready. with the result that the improvement | Stonewall showed the greatest i in the process of manufacture has gence. Pat says, was stopping appa been steady, and there is now hardly lently without reason while on a any kind of textile manufacturing in He did this one day when an extra Europe that does not possess an edu-l conductor, was in charge. The con-

well as to their older brothers, who I not rung his bell punch. At this the factory, but who wish to perfect them- | Jackson shook his head as much as to scientific reasons why certain kinds of off on a trip without a word from the work should be done in a certain way. | driver.—Chicago Herald. Poetry to Be Sung.

technical schools in America the experience of other nations can be used to advantage, and much experiment. ing will thus be dispensed with. In Ladaptation to music, its limpidity a Symonds, in The Fortnightl technical education adopted in the dif- view, "is meant to be sung, and can ferent European countries be made the sung, because the poet's soul was subject of careful study and compara- singing when he made it."

| Subject of careful study and compara- singing when he made it." | Place it is made the gloomiest of festal groaned when a beautiful little Corot.

Shelley's lyrics were ill adapted t

"Lean sing Milton's number of lower schools in all cities of any importance, in which the printaught: these schools to act as feeders said Jenny Lind, "and can sing Dryversity. Private effort could hardly- Wordsworth, Keats: no. and not much

The lyrics of the present time, so tries: but the scope is so vast as to be Mr. Symonds sums up the facts, are States from Germany in 1842, headed a tentative kidder offered a raise of $1 hardly attainable without the aid of not so singable as the Elizabethan ly-by Christian Metz, an inspired "in- on a Corot, and a good one, the auction- nett pesses most of her time within rics because they are far more complex If we consider textile industries by in their verbal structure, in their N departments to be considered—the me-Modifying the Prescription. thing of the other two, and it is therearen't a very big patient you have got lages cannot be imagined. fore necessary that all three directions

"Thus a single school may be made to completeness the grand fabric of technical education, but by co-opera-

Pari-lan Caberat.

read salooms in the colony and every man. upon, yet the lot of the newly mar- with it

many remarkably pretty girls in Ama | if I had not read half as much; should | rush of "hustlers" going their own loosely fitting dress is hidden. The bred in captivity, and although so work, plunged right in, borrowed villagers manufacture all the flannels | many thousands are kept as pets, all | plenty of money, set up in first class and calicoes worn, and each has a or nearly all must have been trapped style, and remained consistent with ..wide-reputation. A black can of some | This year I thought my birds were go- | that idea even through a fire which thin material is worn rather far back | ing to make a record for themselves. | burned up every stick of furniture beon the head, being gathered into a lit- but the usual failure ensued. The hen fore it was paid for. Today she counts le bag at the back, narrow black rib- | laid five eggs, but refused to sit. Then | a snug little fortune of several figures, stockings and broad slippers or coarse | nearly killed his neglectful mate. | see the house from one end of the year shoes are worn, wooden shoes being They are now separate, but whenever to the other, while "at Mrs. Boardreserved for field work. Neither age he is let out of his cage he flies to that man's "establishes on sight the nonor condition in life brings any of the hen and tries to resume hostilit mad's reputation for style, respectaand they see each other at intervals. whenever the opportunity arises.—St. and even then at a distance. The as- Louis Globe-Democrat. 'sociation of the sexes is forbidden.

Sunday afternoon the boys and girls are permitted to walk in the fields. disposite directions, though sometimes sire to marry a maiden he is put on himself in his armchair, florid and on possibilities. probation for a year or more. Once a handsome, and with his fine flexible week he is allowed to see the object of voice commences to do business, you his affection, and no encouragement is given his suit by any one. He is

' never allowed to see her alone, how-There are no wedding clothes and no wedding guests. Two or three hear Corot's ghost, don't you?" elders meet at the home of the bride's "It would be useless at this stage to to music. She made him read aloud parents and read hymns and lead in and fallen asleep in a remote chair, prayers. The chapter in Paul's epistle fell over on the floor just as a strong the value of her judgment.

establishment of Night," Then she pointed out that to the Ephesians, wherein the apostle, Michel went at $95. 'The price made | 1" n technical school. verse is full of complicated thoughts, with unflinching severity, describes read, with somber comments. After the lecture there is a dead cold supper, walking in a sunlit garden, was put and every one is made to feel as misried, however, there is no hope for the flute are tabooed and there are no day out of the seven, and give it a Europe, where brass band contests to disturb the serenity of their even existence. A small colony came to the United |, strument," and settled near Buffalo, eer made it $2.50. The bidder pro the city of culture, is another illus-

be of value to the students in their and too contemplative suggestions.— was necessary to secure more land, half to preserve your self respect." Av and the present peaceful valley was When the sale ended the auctioneer hereafter known. Seven the first thing a doctor finds out when sprang up and are known as Amana, them off with the valedictory. "God > was a little sick the other rather, inspirationists, but they do not been a short time at "Stop drinking whisky!" said the the last degree and the children are twenty-two years ago, and Barbara Heyneman, who was also an 'instrufine ment," led the people for fifteen years than whisky I could stop. You see", pure and virtuous as Barbara was, weight in the stuffing of his own saddle. though she finally regained her stand-"Then stop butter and go on with named George Landmann, and marry Frampton to his satellite, 'my fortune MEDICINES I to properfully as a disintegrating agent, the whisky. Good day!"—San Franchim she would and did, though she is made, and so is yours; if our horse of an idea of mices I well Water enters the cracks and porce of mices Chronisla.

riever really and beartily

THE ANDOVER NEWS,

[ished every Wednesday at one dellar]

[ished every Wednesday at one dellar] principles of the textile industry are climb trees. Finding this yarn too kee and St. Paul road. There are no sed multum (not many things; but winner; but when it is so, it does innuch)." Mrs. Browning, who wrote deed look as though the less she crawl-When still a child in age she as she instinct or turn toward any speciety sct. Unildren must be had and any | Plato and the dramatists, and ate and I Licosement of morals is sternly frowned I drank Greek, and made my head ache 1 of conditions contributing in that it

one. The religious standing of young and continued that system of reading the struggle with the cars is a willing

"getting there," and the worst of it is.

Boardman, of Chicago, who, thrown upon the world, with a turn for enter-dresses on, each dragging below the other, the waist fastened up with pins:

but she would not have it so, and she did not. Mrs. Harriet Hubbard Ayer should be wiser. I am persuaded.

bons tying it under the chin. Knit | the male bird became ferocious and | lives in luxury, travels, need never ties. Yet a canary bird can knock | bility and wealth. She might today

> An Old Time Auctioneer John II. Draper is, by the way, one of the very few successors we have to the witty auctioneers of the generation may be sure that the fun will soon be son for ballast, and He has a word for every one, lady's taste for wings. But she rented and a repartee for every occasion. A a small window in a first class quarwas knocked down for $125. "There," said the auctioneer solemnly, him faint," was the auctioneer's com- ing at one tub with one pair of hands, ment. When a brilliant Vibert, a car and today would not own a wringer. dinal, all in red under a red umbrella, Instead she sneut her last cent goin up, and one of the audience went up la to examine it on the easel, the auctionthat way-yourself." A Monticelli he These communists are rich, yet described as a good "all the week pic- owns one of the finest homes a new title. Any one who knows Mon- daughter is at school, is young, will appreciate the description. When 1. Y., the name of Ebenezer being tested that he had only made the fig. tration. The incidents in her strange

we find that in regard to thoughts, images and emotions. Their given to the colony, As the colony ure $1. "All right," said the auction- life somewhat resemble those of the tuition that can be given which would words carry too many, too various, prospered beyond all expectation it eer, "I'm lending you a dollar and a beautiful personification of pluck, Mrs. selected. The old name was left be gravely thanked his audience, forgave middle one, and the unquestioned suchind and Amana was chosen as the them for their coldness on the ground cess which is her present crown.—New he title by which the colony should be that he did not blame them for being | York Star. A "Swift" Barber. There's a black haired, boy faced barber in the Astor house who be lieves he can work faster than any Diamond Cut Diamond Christian Metz, their leader, died duce the baronet's groom to have a now," said the little barber. "Only tanco of the match, and thus to make holy enough to succeed them and there accept it, but to be sure to deceive the down in his chair the man but on h the same thing; and in the trial Mer-Islaved and lin, Sir William's horse, beat his op day and tripimed his limit all in some She fell in love with a comely youth ponent about a length. 'Now,' said and a half minutes. New York Ban.