Orders have been received from the Assistant Superintendent of Public Works at Albany that no more cottages shall be built on state land at Lake Cuba, and Cuba people are quite indignant, as many had intended to erect cottages there this summer. Timber Must Not be Cut from Mortgaged Property.

Bolivar Breeze

Justice White of Buffalo handed down a decision the other day that will be of interest to many residents of Allegany county. An action was brought to prevent the cutting of timber from a farm on which there was a mortgage, the claim being made that the cutting of the timber impaired the mortgage. Justice White held that timber is real estate, and that it cannot be removed from mortgaged property without the consent of the holder of the mortgage.

What's in a Name?

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. C. E. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago, discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific on piles. For bind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases, DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. O. E. Vars & Son, Druggists.

Proverbs

"When the butter won't come put a penny in the churn," is an old time dairy proverb. It often seems to work though no one has ever told why.

When mothers are worried because the children do not gain strength and flesh we say give them Scott's Emulsion.

It is like the penny in the milk because it works and because there is something astonishing about it.

Scott's Emulsion is simply milk of pure cod liver oil with some hypophosphites specially prepared for delicate stomachs.

Children take to it naturally because they like the taste and the remedy takes just as naturally to the children because it is so perfectly adapted to their wants.

To all who work and pale and thin we say Scott's Emulsion is food and medicine combined in the most palatable form.

We will send you a sample free if you mention this paper and send 2c. stamp to pay postage. Be sure and get the genuine. Scott & Bowne, N. Y. All druggists sell it.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, urine, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or frequent calls in the night, and the unfortunate necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and the trouble yields to the healing, curative properties of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

WRITS OF INJUNCTION.

Against Wabash Railroad Men's Committees.

TO PREVENT ORDER FOR STRIKE.

Temporarily Prevented Culmination of a Strike—Persons Against Whom Injunction Is Issued May Apply in Court to Have It Dissolved—Conference on New Phase of Situation.

St. Louis, March 4.—United States Marshal Morrissey has served writs of temporary injunction on the members of the committees representing the trainmen's and firemen's organizations which have a controversy with the Wabash railroad. The injunction was issued by Judge Elmer B. Adams, in the United States circuit court at the instance of the Wabash Railroad company.

In restraining the committees representing the trainmen and firemen's organizations from advising, persuading or coercing employes of the Wabash railway to strike or quit the service of the company, Chiefs Shanahan and Lee of these organizations have called a conference on the new phase of the situation.

Several of the labor leaders named in the injunction have not been served with copies of the writs and it is said that these men will avoid the United States marshals in order to be at liberty to order the strike, if necessary, without violating the federal court's order.

Grand Chief Arthur of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, in an interview says that the engineers will lend their moral support in case of a strike of the trainmen and firemen.

President Ramsey in the afternoon requested a little more time and the two committees granted him until 5 o'clock to make final reply. Before the allotted time had expired Mr. Ramsey had secured a restraining order from the court and it had been served on all the officials of all the orders and members of the grievance committees. The injunction is a most sweeping instrument and effectually blocked any strike proceedings. In part it reads:

"We, therefore, do strictly command you, until the further order of the court, absolutely to desist and refrain from in any way or manner ordering, coercing, persuading, inducing or otherwise causing, directly or indirectly, the employes of the said Wabash Railway company to strike or quit the service of said company."

The injunction is temporary and the writs are not made returnable. The persons against whom the injunction is issued may appear in court any time and present a plea to have the injunction dissolved, or if no one asks that it be dissolved it may be made permanent.

Meantime the grievance committees had prepared and submitted to President Ramsey a letter setting forth the increase and concessions they desired. It was soon after the delivery of this letter to President Ramsey that the injunction was served.

President Ramsey of the Wabash railroad at 5 o'clock yesterday handed to the committees representing the trainmen and firemen his reply to their demands in which he practically refuses to grant them. The union leaders would not say what their next move would be. President Ramsey said that in spite of the statement of the dissatisfied employes he does not believe they will strike.

British Food In War Time.

London, March 4.—In his presidential address at the 43d annual meeting of the Association of British Chambers of Commerce, held in London, Lord Avebury was inclined to be congratulatory over the formation of the International Mercantile Marine company, especially in connection with the British food supply in war time. He pointed out that the United States would never permit the ships of the American company to be interfered with on the high seas.

OPINION OF PROFESSOR WAGNER.

Speaking of the Monroe Doctrine Says It Is Not Binding as International Law and It Is the Duty of Europe to Oppose It—Lack of Unity.

Berlin, March 4.—"The Monroe doctrine is an empty pretension behind which is neither energetic willpower nor actual power." Thus Professor Adolf Wagner, the celebrated political economist of Berlin university, begins his reply to two questions submitted by a correspondent—whether the Monroe doctrine was in a moral sense as binding as international law, and what action seems dictated first in the interests of the German people and then in the interest of the European nations?

"Scarcely could such a doctrine be forced upon a conquered people after extraordinary victories," continues the professor. "No people and no great ruler ever proclaimed such a doctrine. Neither England nor Russia, nor Napoleon at the height of his power, ever made a similar pretension. But not even the United States predominant interests are behind this unheard of assumption. South America is neither geographically nor historically so allied with North America and the United States as to justify such a pretension, even from a North American standpoint."

Answering the second question Professor Wagner says:

"It is only the divisions of European politics and lack of insight into and recognition of the solidarity of the interests of middle, western and southern Europe, which hitherto have been and will remain the chief seats of human civilization, that explains why Europe, why Germany even, takes this empty pretension into consideration, for every European country's practical political course will naturally depend solely upon its interests and accordingly upon considerations of strength. Therefore any binding engagement in advance regarding this pretentious doctrine of union appears to bis a wrong policy.

"From the standpoint, too, of the wider Germanic races a simple recognition of the Monroe doctrine would be a false step. No objective member of the Germanic race can wish to see the world exclusively German, but if we once concede the United States predominance in South America, according to the Monroe pretensions, would German interests be promoted thereby? Would not we Germans be completely pressed to the wall by the English element on both sides of the sea?"

DEATH OF LAWRENCE ALLISON.

Canisteo Loses Another Prominent Citizen.

Lawrence Allison died at the home of his brother, Richard Allison on Main Street, Canisteo, after an illness lasting only a fortnight. His business career in Canisteo has covered more than half a century. His name was known in many States and always of good repute. Mr. Allison was born in the township of Hartsville and came to Canisteo in 1850 and engaged in the vocation of a carpenter which he continued for a time, after which he became a partner with his brother Mortimer Allison, in the tanning and mill business, and at the premises where the Flohrs now conduct a tanning business. In 1870 the firm of L. Allison & Co. was organized for the manufacture of shoes and boots. This business was conducted and constantly increased for many years. Of the last few years Mr. Allison has been in the flour and feed business on Depot St., in this place under the firm of Woodbury & Allison. Mr. Allison was 75 years old. He was never married. He leaves two brothers, Richard and Isaac Allison, both of whom reside here.

INSTANTLY KILLED.

Neck Broken by Falling Tree.

George Sprague of Corning was instantly killed Wednesday while cutting a tree down from a smaller one into which it had lodged. He cut the sapling so that the other would fall with it. As he finished he ran back twenty-five feet, so as to get out of harm's way. It happened, however, that the tree had a crooked shape butt, and when it struck the ground it bounded and struck Sprague, killing him instantly. The force of the blow broke his neck.

WATER WORKS DISCUSSED.

Mass Meeting Held Monday Evening How's This.

On Monday there was a meeting of several of our citizens and business men to consider the question of a water supply for this place. Charles L. Tubbs of Hornellsville was present at the meeting and gave us the benefit of his large experience in constructing work of this kind, and the present outlook is encouraging for a gravity system for this village in the near future. Certainly the need is great for Greenwood has suffered sufficiently by fires in the last five years to construct a complete system, and is now paying an exhorbitant rate of insurance because of our lack of fighting the devouring element.

Baptismal Service at M. E. Church.

On Sunday six persons received the rite of baptism in the M. E. church at Greenwood. Several others were received on probation. Among those baptized were Miller and Lynn Travis, Lucile Woodward and Harry Taylor. Rev. Adams conducted the solemn services.

"I owe my whole life to Burdock Blood Bitters. Scrofulous sores covered my body. I seemed beyond cure. B. B. B. has made me a perfectly well woman." Mrs. Chas. Horton, Berville, Mich.

The proposition of congress to dispose of 3,156 quarter sections of land in the next Oklahoma "opening" by auction will be found more compatible with public morals than the lottery plan and less exhausting than the free for all scramble.

Again there are symptoms of an outbreak of controversy between the church and the stage. It is hoped, however, that it may be isolated and brought under control before it becomes epidemic.

BRILLIANT CEREMONY.

Grandeur and Impressiveness of the Pope's Jubilee.

GREAT DISPLAY OF ENTHUSIASM

Pope Bore the Long Services In St Peter's Without Fatigue — Magnificent Illumination of the Sacred City at Night — Stretch of Seven Miles Brilliant With Light.

Rome, March 4.—The 25th anniversary of the coronation of Pope Leo was celebrated with all the grandeur and impressiveness associated with the high ceremonies of the Catholic church and amid a display of enthusiasm and emotion on the part of the vast assemblage gathered within the walls of St. Peter's such as vied with the greatest of previous demonstrations of reverence and affection for the aged pontiff.

At night all the sacred edifices in Rome, monasteries, convents, seminaries and also many private houses were illuminated in commemoration of the event. The Trastevere quarter and the Leonine City especially presenting a blaze of light, while the general effect was heightened by the burning of bengal fires throughout the city.

Pope Leo, who supported admirably the fatigue and excitement of the ceremony, after having retired, rose again from his couch and going to the window of his bedroom gazed for a while upon the scene of illumination.

The view from the Vatican, embracing a stretch of seven miles brilliant with light, was a marvelous one and his holiness exclaimed as he withdrew from the window, "This will indeed be a pleasant thing to dream of."

The ceremony at St. Peter's cathedral lasted two hours and a quarter, and although it was noticeable that Pope Leo felt the effects of his recent cold, all were surprised to see how well he seemed. His voice was strong, his gestures vigorous, and the frantic cheering which greeted his arrival and departure gave him visible pleasure and brought a faint tinge of color to his face.

After the tiring ceremony of the morning, Dr. Lapponi carefully examined the condition of the pope and although he found him none the worse for the fatigue he had undergone, yet he ordered him to rest during the whole afternoon. But at eight after the doctor's last visit his holiness insisted upon getting up to view the illuminations.

A Printer Greatly Surprised.

"I never was so much surprised in my life, as I was with the results of using Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says Henry T. Crook, pressman of the Asheville (N. C.) Gazette. "I contracted a severe case of Rheumatism early last winter by getting my feet wet. I tried several things for it without benefit. One day while looking over the Gazette I noticed that Pain Balm was positively guaranteed to cure Rheumatism, so I bought a bottle of it and before using two thirds of it my rheumatism had taken its flight and I have not had a rheumatic pain since." For sale by O. E. Vars & Son, Andover, and N. E. Coston, Greenwood.

Doan's Kidney Pills

Relieve the aches of a bad back promptly—cure all Kidney and Bladder troubles.

Mr. Howard D. Jutton, of 1313 Grape street, Plumbith at Collins' shop, Oswego street, Syracuse, N. Y., says: "I became lame and sore across the loins so that I could scarcely get around. Mr. N. H. Cowles, my employer, advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, but I paid no attention. I kept growing worse, and, as tinning roof after roof is very hard on a man's back, I got so bad that I resorted to remedies. Those I tried did me no good, so I went to Mr. Cowles and asked him what he advised me to get. I had forgotten the name. He said: 'Doan's Kidney Pills will fix you up all right, for they cured me; but you must give them a good, fair show, and take two or three boxes if it is necessary.' Well, I got them, and I felt better by the time I had used half of the first box. Three boxes cured me, and I have not been troubled since."
