INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON FOR FEB. 10

Repentance and Faith

Luke 15:11-24; Acts 2:32-39

Rev. Samuel D. Price, D.D.

Thus far during the quarter of lessons we have considered the Trinity, Scriptures and Sin. Now we give attention to human experiences and observe how the Scriptures reveal the ways by means of which the needs of man are met in the provisions of God. How shall man act when conscious of the deadly work of sin? The answer is in the present title "Repentence and Faith."

Passages for very careful study are again indicated: Isaiah 1:10-20; Ezekiel 18:20-23, 27-32; Mark 2:1-12; Luke 3:1-14; 15:11-24; Acts 2:32-39; Hebrews 11:1-10. Further back in the Old Testament than Isaiah are almost countless references to sin and its consequences. Also from the first were similar encouragements like the message from Jehovah thru the prophet Isaiah: "Tho your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow." Ezekiel shows the need of some radical action on the part of man when he declares "The soul that sinneth, it shall die." John the Baptist, an Old Testament prophet, tho recorded in the New Testament, calls upon all classes in society to change their lives.

An incident of repentance, that is typical of the exercise of divine love, is given under the guise of a parable as we have the fascinating story of the Two Sons. The younger was away from home in spirit even while he was there in flesh. He was eager to get where he would be without these safeguarding, restraining influences that can mean so much to every child. He asked for his share of the money and went away to spend it in the wrong things he had been thinking about. Soon he was hopelessly stranded and had no asset but misery from his experience.

Then he thought things thru and made the worthy resolve to seek a servant's place with his father. He changed his whole view on life. He was not merely sorry because he was stranded but was heart-sick because of his wrong doing and resolved that such sins would never again have any place in his life. Further, he would go back home and tell his father that he, a son, and not only sinned against him but also against the love of God. There would be no excuse—just a humble and sincere confession. Read that parable in Luke again and note the gracious reception by the father. This act is just a type of divine love and forgiveness.

"Faith" is presented in the Golden Text. "Repent ye, and believe in the gospel." The promise of pardon is offered to the repentant sinner. We believe in the Divine offer, accept it and full forgiveness is granted thru the sacrifice of the lamb of God. This was part of the content of the preaching on the Day of Pentecost as set forth in the Scripture from Acts.

There are many reasons for the ease of steering the new Ford

THE new Ford is exceptionally easy to steer because of the well-proportioned weight of the car, the steel-spoke wheels, the co-ordinated design of springs and shock absorbers, the size and design of the steering wheel, and the simple mechanical construction of the steering gear.

The Ford steering gear is of the worm and sector type used on high-priced cars and is three-quarter irreversible.

In simple, non-technical language, this means that the car responds easily and quickly to the steering wheel, yet there is no danger of the wheel being jerked from the hands of the driver by ruts or bumps in the road. A light touch guides the car, yet you always have that necessary feel-of-the-road so essential to good driving.

Strength of materials and careful workmanship give unusual stability to the Ford steering gear and housing.

The steering worm, for instance, is splined to the steering worm shaft and is stronger, of course, than if a single key were used to hold the shaft and worm together. The steering worm sector is forged and machined in the same piece with its shaft.

The housing of the steering gear mechanism is made of three steel forgings, electrically welded together. This housing is then electrically welded to the steering column. Such a one-piece steel unit is naturally much sturdier than if several parts were used and bolted or riveted together.

Throughout, the new Ford steering mechanism is so simple in design and so carefully made that it requires practically no attention.

The only thing for you to do is to have the front steering spindles, spindle connecting rods, and drag link lubricated every 500 miles and the steering gear lubricated every 2000 miles.

For this work, you will find it best to consult the Ford dealer. He has been specially trained and equipped to help you get the greatest possible use from your car over the longest period of time at a minimum of trouble and expense.

STILL THERE

Practical Joking Cashier: "Have you heard the latest story about the clerk in the Chinaware department who poured a pitcher of water into the big boss's derby?"

Bookkeeper, eagerly: "No, I haven't."

Cashier, chuckling: "Neither have I. It hasn't leaked out yet."

If you intend to use more buckets to gather your maple sugar crop this season it will be wise to place the order now.

Usually when the weather comes right for a good run of sap, so many rush around looking for buckets that stocks are soon exhausted and the crop cut short by not having these necessary containers.

Be prepared also as to spouts, gathering and storage tanks, tapping bits and syrup testers.

Candlemas day is behind us and the natural sugar season just ahead.

We have unloaded our season's supply of timothy and clover seed. The quality is the highest produced and is all certified domestic grown Northern seed.

Don't buy seed that you know nothing about. You not only throw away good money, but you will almost surely loose your crop.

The origin and vitality of field seeds, particularly the clovers, is very important. You cannot afford to take chances. A dollar less in price means nothing if you have only a spindling crop to show for it.

A strong, vigorous, disinfectant and germ killer is an important factor in keeping stables sweet and stock healthy.

Creonoid is approved by the U. S. Bureau of Animal Husbandry, and we have a bulk supply to meet your needs in any quantity you desire.

Bring your own container—60c a quart.

Chair seats, brown and black, round and square, to fit nearly all shapes of bottoms—10c each. Brass nails to put them on with—count them out yourselves—5c per 100.
