boost marryta -yeu)d rether like the state of the pour lane, but I bein't mother' to mer.

the next year her "Guide to Housekeeping"—write ed Harry. Shell y her charges sum and sealer second of a come to 't' interrogated Joanna. Two mayer maps and guarded them, and if you're The and take them all and welcome-I've nothin'

Tan don't rikollect your age! No: stric very sel-As most as I can fix it, dear, you're nigh on forty. lake. And K you'd take a notion to marry a well heeled Bothin' to myling danginer, nothin' at all to say. -M. J. Donnelly in Chicago Tribune.

-- A SU to my.

FAMILY FORTUNES.

What does it mean? Where is Har-

Miss Tabitha, his more than middle reed sister, with her flaxen front very much on one side, stood staring helplessly at him from the doorway.

'Just what I'd like to know myself," said she. "I've hollered upstairs and downstairs, and out of the garret window into the bargain, and not a trace of her can I find."

"Two to one, she's gone berrying again," commented the squire, "in the

"Against my expressed orders!" croaked Miss Tabitha. "I wonder what's to become of her complexion?" The squire rumpled his hair—what there was left of it—with both hands. "Tabitha," said he, "is it right, or fitting, that our niece, the descendant of the Seybury Seldens, should fall so low as to pick berries for the market, at four cents a quart, to find spending money for us? It's true that we are very poor.'

'As poor as Job's turkey," said Miss Tabby, with an unconscious orientalism of simile.

"Poor-and proud also," spoke the squire. "And so, on the whole," I'm glad I did it."

"Did what?" questioned his sister. "Even without consulting you." "Goodness me!" cried Tabitha,

"what is the man talking about?" "I have let Grisly Grange," said the squire, "to an artist for the three sum--mer months, at $30 a month,"

Miss Tabitha uttered a shriek.

"Let Grisly Grange!" she repeated. "Bernard, what have you done? have rented Grisly Grange, for term of years, to Mrs. Theophilus Thatcher, for an 'Old Ladies Home.' The papers came, all signed and sealed in the last mail, and I was just going to tell you. You see, there it was, doing nobody any good, all falling ruin, for neither you nor I can stand the lake air, and" "Woman," cried the squire, "you are

"And you, as usual, are rash and inconsiderate," sobbed Tabitha. "Why couldn't you have told me?" The squire strode angrily to and fro.

"Why couldn't you have told me?" he counter questioned.

Miss Tabby bounced hysterically out of the room to find Harriet, her

The squire again rang his bell for Harriet.

In this quaint household, Harry was the one who smoothed the angles and made the crooked places straight. Before the sunshine of her clear eves dull purple when at last the two wothe squire's stormy moods calmed down, and Miss Tabitha's tribulations grew small by degrees and beautifully

In a minute, however, the old lady returned, pale as ashes. "Bernard!" she stammered, "She-

she has—eloped!"

"What!" thundered the squire. Miss Tabitha held up the folded piece of paper.

I found it pinned to her cushion, said she. "What can it mean but an elopement?"

'Open it, why don't you?" said the squire, "and see."

"DEAREST AUST AND UNCLE," read the mis-Mve as intepreted through Miss Tabitha's spectaels giames, "don't be frightened and do please forgive me. But I can't endure seeing you so poor.

and I am determined to redeem the family for-Remos by a scheme that must succeed. "Your ever devoted two-elderly folks looked help-at each other.

Tabby:

Once more at each place that was not an island.

in, the leaster manage it again."

A blue eyed, freeh cheeked girl of me I le, and looked the very last person in | na, Joanna! where are you!" world to take life's dilemme so riet had surreptitionally engaged as we gwine much furder?" said Joanna Haight

"Oh, thirty miles at least," answer-"Shell ye know the place when ye

"Of course I shall"

"Never seen it, her you!" 'No, but Uncle Selden has described It to me many a time. A big, gray stone house, with odd battlements, grounds terraced down to the

'It's got a queer name, hasn't it?" "Oh, yes! but that don't signify." In no rooms." eagerly eried Harriet. 'Originally, you see, it was 'Griswold Grange'-Uncle Selden's grandmother was a this morning. And last night it was Griswold—and when the old place be- Golden Gate." came deserted and fell to ruins, the neighbors called it Grisly Grange, "who do you take us fort" just for a joke. But it's a very hig "I don't understand this at all," modate twenty or thirty summer said Squire Selden. 'Tve rung my boarders. I've ordered a car load of quiels and let's have no more chin bell three times, and no answer. furniture sent as Hoodville, and music!" there the stage will meet it; and

> "Where's the folks comin' from?"! queried Joanna.

"I've left my name and address at sole furniture. the Boarders' Exchange," said Harry, clared that the very name of the Adirondacks would insure plenty of boarders."

seems to me a sort of crazy scheme Joanna! where are you?" arter all."

Aunt Tabby and Uncle Selden starve."

"Why didn't they go into the busi- some use. Quick footsteps glided ness themselves?"

"You don't understand them, Joanna. Uncle Selden has had a college through the keyhole. "My poor dear, education, and is writing a very you are worse to-night! Shall I call learned book. And Aunt Tabitha al- |'Dr. De Ray?" ways kept her own maid while the money lasted. They don't understand ant faced old lady came in, carrying a how to make money; I do. And I'm lamp, and followed by a tall, handvery certain they wouldn't have let some man. me undertake this enterprise had they known of it."

"Humph!" again muttered Joanna, but there was a whole volume of meaning in the one word.

sionate eyes.

I'd knowed all the circumstances in place ready for summer boarders."

stone wall.

"Grisly Grange!"

said Joanna, staring this way and that.

Git there trunks off, Tim! Git up, trouble!"

men found themselves in front of an they all had tea, with Dr. De Ray to ancient pile of stone, whose narrow, share it with them. slit like windows reflected the last This is not the first complication faint light of the dying day.

of the lake. An owl hooted sorrow- that he had rented this place for three of workmen and laborers, and in con-anna, naturally reverting to the tory, on the hill, where he is going to that the working classes were at no catch words of her youth, "there's folks set up his studio." here! The windows is open and I see "And how are you going to com-faces at them." "Nonsense, Johanna!" said Harry, gravely. who was a little behind. "How can "Oh," said the doctor, "that is quite known to have made its appearance vacant for a quarter of a century."

perces fluttering from them, "Hehts family fortunes."

Let us inquire. If you please ma'am," so often to risit us about repairs and then come down the path with And Harry blushed radiantly, they trom bearing by some one she had not seen before.

But Josuna also was hurried up the for sleeplessmess, and the French vallently by the horns, but close per peth in the same direction by the tall lieve that onless soun talen exce secure, night organised [temale, who had greeped her firmly tonic in cases of debility of the diges-New England woman, who had once by the arm, and whose strength was tive organs.—Herald of Health. worked in the family, and whom Har | proof even against the New Englandera enorts at release > go!" soreamed Joanna. "What ails ye? Berrarall crazy?" "Every one of us," said the woman grimly, laughing.

or won't you?"

out of." "But we've just come from Hoodville!" cried Joanna. "We ain't been

"Oh, I guess so!" jeezed the woman "It was Patagonia you came from

"Goodness me!" exclaimed Joanna,

"You're Mrs. Moline," said the wo house, and I dare say we can accom- man indifferently. "And t'other one's

Through the rather moldy smellplenty of canned provisions and gro-ling walls of the old hall the two ceries; and the lake is full of black frightened women were dragged up a bass and pickerel, and the forest of dilipidated staircase, into two rooms be, but has the widest scope to work in spare. The speaker ordered the serlighted only by an entry lamp shining of all handicrafts though in a minia- geant-at-arms to lock all the doors to rebuffs. He was always boasting into high transoms over their doors. A truckle bed and a chair formed the

Harry sat.down, trembling in every exultantly, "and the gentleman in limb as she heard the key grate harshcharge there—a very nice man with a lly in its lock, followed by the departwhite cravat and blue spectacles—de- | ing footsteps of the red haired female.

"Where am I?" she asked herself. What is going to happen to me? Oh, is this a dreadful dream, from which "Humph!" snorted Joanna. "It I shall be sure to awake! Joanna, She rattled at the handle of the door:

"But, Joanna, it was necessary to she beat desperately at the mildewed do something," pleaded Harry, pit- walls of her prison; she called aloud, eously. "I couldn't stand by and see | raising her voice to its utmost pitch, At last her summons proved of

along the hall. "What is it?" said a soft voice

Presently the door opened; a pleas-

Harriet sprang to meet them. "Let me out!" she cried. heaven's sake, let me out!"

The old lady stopped in amazement. "Good gracious me!" cried she, "it She stared at Harry with compas- isn't Betsy Pierrepost at all—it is a young girl, and a perfect stranger!"

groaned; Harry laughed; and at sun- only moved in yesterday. Of course pains in the chest, spitting of blood, set they drew up close to a ruinous there was some unavoidable conone wall.

fusion, and it is evident that my attacked Europe in a mild form in 1342 of the driver—tendants have mistaken you for one and may be traced as moving in the

"But there isn't any house here," get back to her former home." "And it's evident," bawled the voice "Nor any lake," faltered Harriet. of Joanna, from the adjoining tran-"Wal, it's the nearest a hoss can git som, where her face was visible like to it, said the driver. "Go through one of the cherubs of Raphael, "that them there bars and keep straight there'll be a law suit unless we're let shead a quarter of a mile, and you'll out pretty considerable soon. Unlock ages as materially to check the income to the house and the lake both. the door, somebody, or there'll be

So the frightful dream came to a ed at 13,000,000, and the rest of the east

we have had," said the doctor, laugh-Below, through dense walls of ever ing. "A long haired artist made his decrease in population in this country green, they caught the steely glitter appearance this morning, declaring fully in the wood; a whippoorwill months. So persistent was he that we sequence a great rise in wages. Prochanted its melancholy lay from a were obliged to compromise matters fessor Thorold Rogers, who has inby abandoning to him the entire use "Good land o' Goshen!" said Jo- of a curious stone tower, or observations disease very thoroughly, states

But it was compromised in due time. "Well," said Joanna, slowly, "it Joanna remained as assistant housemay be ghosts. I never seen none, keeper to Mrs. Thatcher. Harriet out I don't calculate they're this sort Selden countermanded has order for of felks. Look for yourself, Harriet furniture, sanned provisions and city Herry gave a little shriek, as the crestfallen, to Uncle Selden and Aunt | tection than it ever receives.

Here's stone one, coming that handsome asylum doctor coming tall, muscular, female who had improvements to Grisly Grange stated the fait harnelf classed Graves in Saturday Night. -

The Virtues of Vegetables. "Yes, my dear," said the woman, Celery acts upon the pervous sys-Lobinson Crosces on a with a chackle, "this is Grisly Grange, tem, and it is a cure for rheumstiam and you are Betsy Pierrepont, and I'm and neuralgia. Tomatoes stimulate have a direct effect on diseases of the recesses of a joining old country stage, . "How dere you wouch me!" oned kidney. Onlone, garllo and ollves the Adironasck's forests. The had minioned her from behind. "Let disculators aveter with the consehad pinioned her from behind. "Let circulatory system,

> Jewelry in the Past. ists; their hearts were always feeling of quorums, caucauses and 'deadlocks.' in th' city be inshipected at laste to after divine beauty; and the hand folhares Now, look here, if you don't lows the heart. It was so from the re- that particular line," continued the -Epoch. stop struggling it'll be the worse for motest times, and indeed up to the senstor, "which I have never seen in you. Will you come on peaceable? Eighteenth century, when, commer print. Mr. Lincoln was always an cial enterprise opening the floodgates enthusiastic advocate of internal im-"That depends on where you're tak. of eastern wealth, European workman. provements, and while a member of in' me," said Joanna, panting and ship dropped before new and more the legislature left no stone unturted > > touched stone. dres del Sarto and many more; and would prove a veritable El Dorado to of art, but combined it with sculpture ever, was one of deep financial gloom joyaux, beautiful things—to gladden the prosecution of all public works fair women, ought to rank as an art | within the state. par excellence, and not a mere trade, seeing that it is not only independent raised; but an actual count revealed haivest snobs that ever existed, who apart from fine needle work never can rum present with not one man to trable complacency enabled hi

> > ture form. and design can be done by enameling, were open. however, had either been ing that, while diring lately at the chasing, incising, embossing; all that overlooked or else no one for a mo- Duke of Leeds', he was surprised to sculpture can do, whether the por ment supposed that any member find that no fish was served. "That if trait of a friend or the most sugges- would be so rash as to seek an exit easily accounted for, said Thesigh tive story, may be presented in petto from the building through windows "they had probably eaten it all up by the brush, by the burin, by mosaic, | which were more than fifteen feet | stairs." -San Francisco Argonaut. by such modeling as we find in old from the ground. Mr. Lincoln, how-Greek and Etruscan and cinquecinto ever, after a quick, quiet survey of jewel work. There are no silks as the situation, went to one of the win brilliant as minerals, no paint as last dows, and, putting his long, compass ing; and there is no material combin- like legs over the sill, he let himself ing color with translucency in such down until he hung by his finger tips depth and variety as precious stones— and then dropped gently and unhurt except natural flowers.

Now, flowers, best of all ornaments, cannot rank as jewels because they die the senator, "that few men who did to-morrow; a jewel must be an imper | not stand six feet three inches in their ishable possession, for only in an en- | boots would have ventured upon such during material does the true artist heroic measures; but Mr. Lincoln not embody his happiest thoughts and in- only broke that quorum all to smash, vest his closest toil when he obeys the | but also showed how profitable both mystic impulse to create something as | presence of mind and absence of body beautiful as a flower. So the bright may prove to be at one and the same metal, or something as tough as min-time."—New York Tribune. eral formation, remains the proper vehicle for art applied to the finishing touches of dress.—Contemporary Re-

The Black Death.

This disease is believed to have originated in China, and took its name a young lady of the neighborhood was "Poor dear," she muttered, between "I am Harriet Selden," said the from the black spots which usually playfully dallying with a hose on the her teeth. "She dunno what a hor- captive, breathlessly; and Grisly appeared on the person of the sufferer. lawn in front. Occasionally she nets' nest she stickin' her head into. Grange belongs to my uncle, Squire These spots were symptomatic of pu-But I'm glad I'm goin' to sort o' pro- Bernard Selden. And I was coming | trid decomposition, and their appeartect her. I never would hev come if here with my housekeeper to get the ance was nearly always a fatal sign. Beginning with inflammatory boils tion. the case; but now I'm here, I'll be "My dear," said the cld lady, "there and tumors, the black death produced game to the backbone!"

has been some very awkward mistake stupor, mental affections, and palsey a mood for fun himself, quietly arose The stage rocked and heaved over here. This is a Sanitarium for Elderly of the tongue, the last generally bethe rough roads, the hinges creaked, Ladies of Weak Mind. We have rent coming black, as if suffused with the windows rattled. The driver bawl- ed Grisly Hall for one year, with the blood. The characteristics of the disand fetid breath. This pestilence atof the east. Spreading from the north coast of the Black sea to Constantifrom there by many routes over the whole of Europe. Wherever it appeared it committed such fearful ravcrease of population; in China the lost nearly 24,000,000, while a moderate calculation puts the loss in Europe at 25,000,000. London and Venice lost 100,000 inhabitants each; and Madison Journal. Paris, Florence and Norwich half that time so well off in England as during the period which immediately followpromise with me?" asked Harry, ed the ravages of the black death in since then. Chambers' Journal, where the works are excepted with the last the first than the firs and the cel has become stiff is analo common complaint watch doctors find and unless the owner of the watch table repairer he will probably he vio were discussing literary matters.

A Unique Comparison.

spotsgit to get out once, but you won't dandelion prepared in the same way Theres Black Book by LESTER Doots and Shoos will | 1995 and pocketbook -- Washington Post

Window of the Illinois Contini. sensior the other day, "Will hothing CTL COLICER, MULTE, R., MICHAEL STEER STEER STREET, MEN R. AGLA, STILLETT, MEN legislature of Illinois were marked by it shtarted an' outle bin put out wi a quiet and ingenious readines of re- buckit o wather but for an alarm would but to shame the most countries | good at all, an the committee rice promising investments for money, to further the good cause. In 1886 the "Back to the rooms you've dodged Lysippus hammered gold before he Illinois and Michigan canal was begun, and patriotic Illinoisans pro-Many of the old Florentine masters phesied that in cheapening transporbegan life as working goldsmiths- tation and cost of commodities de-Botticelli, Francia, Verrocchio, An- livered almost at the farmers' doors it some never forsook this lovely branch | the state. The following year, howe in marble and bronze, like Benvenuto and disaster, from which the state of Cellini and Pier Maria del Peschia. Illinois suffered so greatly that all in-The royal crown, as well as the coin ternal improvements were suspended of the people, was originally the ar- for a season. During one session of tist's natural province, and it seems to the legislature the majority was very me that the making of jewels—that is, anxious to secure a vote suspending > sordid details, as dressmaking the fact that there was exactly a quo- clastic temperament and impen prevent 'bolting' and secure a vote. of his intimacy with members All that painting can do with color The fact that some of the windows the pecrage, and one day he was say to the ground.

"It is true," sententiously observed

Turned the Hose on the Governor.

Gubernatorial dignity met with a serious mishap. Governor Hoard was sitting on a neighbor's veranda on a pleasant evening, together with quite a party of ladies and gentlemen, while would roguishly permit some sprays to settle gently over the party, at once naively apologizing for her derelic-

and, with a twinkle in his eye, sauntered down the walk in the direction of ed in Volapuk to his horses; Joanna privilege of a ten years' lease—and we lease were burning, unslakable thirst, when a good opportunity offered, to seize the hose and give the roguish' girl a good drenching for her mischeivous pranks. But the latter, of the poor ladies who was trying to wake of the numerous caravan routes of her surroundings, was keenly on though appearing utterly unconscious camy stables for three years. Caus L Smoth the alert, and when the governor was all but ready to spring his joke she nople, and thence to Italy, it radiated | suddenly whirled and turned the hose | squarely on him. A powerful stream struck the manly executive bosom, played festively about the face, and wet the man from head to foot.

While the deluged governor, sputed at 13.000.000. and the rest of the east of on the laws big feir termentor fled. KENDALL'S SPAYIN GURF ed on the lawn, his fair tormentor fled across the street, her merry laughter being echoed by the many amused . spectators of the humorous episode.--

Some Women's Staring Eyes.

We all know who finds mischief for idle hands to do, but nobody has ever said anything about inquisitive brains or staring eyes. My friend, the inquisitive woman, is without exception the most objectionable creature of summer life; she opens her eyes in the morning with a determination to let them look at her neighbors, and when she closes them at night she is certain that they have stared so that they will |. in future recognizé any gown, are acquainted with the size of shoe and glove worn by every woman, know exactly who has wine for dinner and impertently glared at every human A watch is like the human boby. It being as if looking for the missing is just as sensitive as the most delicate link. I never see this specimen that I boarders, and returned, somewhat child and needs more care build proc don't want to get out my purse and don't think it's an elopestate with muslin dra. Tabitha, without having redeemed the list affected by climatic inflatences, that she may get an open glass to inoffer her a nickel to put in the wint and its vitals are just as liable to de proye her vision. She is oftenest an That what does take means indeed in Surely, Joanna," she faltered in sort of panie, "we must have made a Selden. It wasn't for it wasn't for that "said Uncle the signs of the sort of panie, "we must have made a Selden. It wasn't for the sort of panie, "we must have made a Selden. It wasn't for the sort of panie, "we must have made a Selden. It wasn't for that "said Uncle the sort of panie, "we must have made a Selden. It wasn't for that "said Uncle the sort of panie, "we must have made a Selden. It wasn't for that "said Uncle the sort of panie, "we must have made a selden. It wasn't for that be other women any of that have made a selden. It wasn't for that have made a selden women any of that have made a selden. begradges to the other women any of the plantaged of life from a well as

> A little knot of gentlemen 1 makes it a rule to submit it to a repu- from of the Arlington last evening comized just as human petients arel by the way, sonator, that one when they consult quack doctors. What book do you think har helped Last month

Freediscs of the Board of Alder The special committee appoint investigate the recent fire in the Alderman ReDar Chairman

Well, sorr, we find that the cond which was sui generis and which wudn't wurruck an' wear tricks of these later days in the matter | minds, sorr, that hereefther ivery Here is a sample of his genius in ty-four hours before ivery foire, so

> "Funial Perception," Mr. W. H. Levy, who is blind, book, Blindness and that he can tell when he posite an object, and can r whether it be a solitary of or a continuous fence; wheth a close fence or an open one and cometimes whether a wood fence, a stone wall or a hedge. No of the five senses have anything to di with this perceptive power, but the impressions are made on the skin of his face and by it transmitted to the brain. He therefore names this un recognized sense facial perception,-

Where the Bish Went.

Herald of Health...

Samuel Warren, the author of "Te "The question of 'no quorum' was Thousand a Year," was one of the > LESTER Beets and Shoes will please year LESTER Binghamten Beets and Shees St.

The Most Successful Remedy ever discert ered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Read proof below.

OFFICE OF CHARGES A. SHYDER, CLEVELAND BAT AND TROTTING BRED HORSES. DE B.J. KREMATE CO. DOOR RIVER MOVE AND HORSE. Dear Sirs: I have always purchased your Leading Spayin Cure by the half dozen bottles, would like prices in larger quantity. I think it one of the best liniments on earth. I have used

KENDALL'S SPAYIN DE B. J. KENDALL OD.

Dear Sirs: I desire to give you testimonial of my good opinion of your Kendall's Spavin Cure. I have used it for Lameness. Still Joints and Esavins, and I have found it a sure cure, I cord-ally recommend it to all horsemen.

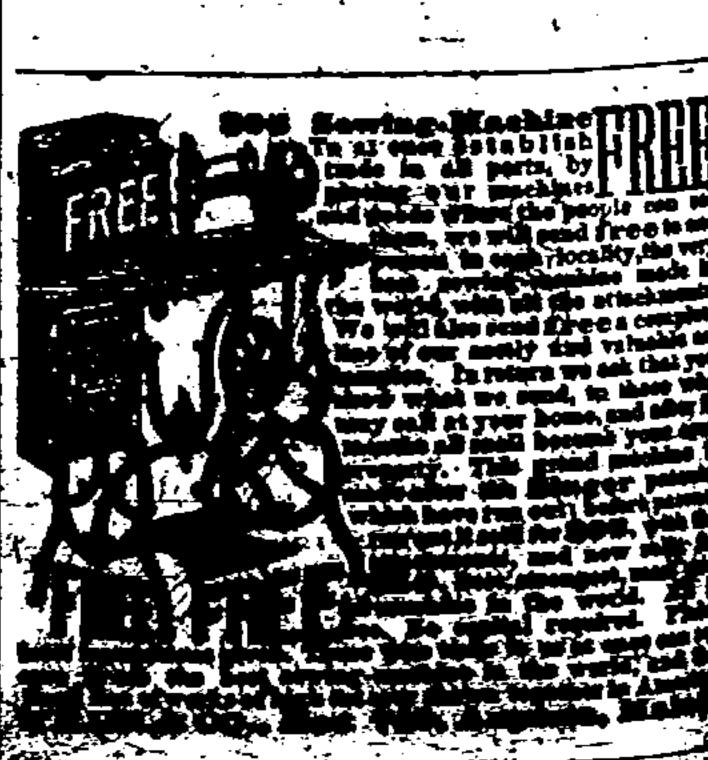

Yours truly.

A. H. Gusser.

Yours truly.

A. H. Gusser. Dr. B. J. Musically Courses, Como, Dec. 19, 1988.
Gents: I feel it my duty to my what I have done with your Mandairs Spayin Cure. There course.

loss a case of any kind. ANDREW TURNER, Yours truly, Price $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. All live to any address on receipt of price by the property total, ye SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Books repaired and the