Belmont Station Robbed.

Saturday night the money drawer at the Erie station in Belmont was broken into and between 70 and 80 cents secured by the thief. It is thought that the guilty man was concealed in the cellar-way when Station Agent Crowley closed the depot, and, when all was quiet, skipped out and pried open the money drawer, securing the small amount of booty. It is said that circumstances have indicated the robber.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, my eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim. No one should fail to try them. Only 25c, guaranteed, at O. E. Vars & Son, druggists.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery free and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

UNION PIPE LINE EXTENSION

Will Lay Line from Bolivar to Clarksville thru Salt Rising and Ohi.

General Superintendent A. R. Dougherty, of the Union Pipe Line, was recently made an inspection of a district for the extension of the Pipe Line, namely, from Bolivar to Salt Rising, to Ohi, to Clarksville and thence connect with the pump station at Nile. The new branch extension for the main line will take twelve miles of pipe. Two pump stations are to be constructed, one between Ohi and Clarksville, very near Ohi, and another at Salt Rising. The branch line will make a complete pipe line circuit in that part of the oil field for the Union Pipe Line company. It is understood that the work will be taken up at once and rapidly pushed.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one I actually cured myself with a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, Editor of the Enterprise, Shoshoville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. At times I felt coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when a coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I never tried it for such a purpose, but it did and it seemed with the second attack of coughing it at once caused it to not only loosen the congestion but the pains were far less severe and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had his numbers." For sale by O. E. Vars & Son, Andover, and N. E. Coston, Greenwood.

Cheyenne, Wyo., April 27.—The sheep men of the Sweetwater country have declared open war upon the cattlemen, and a ranch is imminent unless steps are at once taken to get the warring factions together on the proposition of a satisfactory division of ranges of that section. Information from Lander says the militia there may be called out to prevent a general fight.

Danger of Colds and Grip.

The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by O. E. Vars & Son, Andover, and N. E. Coston, Greenwood.

CUBA VOTED FOR SEWERS.

The System Will Probably be Installed this Year.

The taxpayers of the village of Cuba to the number of 216 cast their ballots on Tuesday upon the question of adopting a sewer and drainage system for that village, and the proposition for the expenditure of not over $11,000 was carried by 32 majority. Sixty-nine women taxpayers voted upon the sewer question, and as they were well-nigh unanimous in favor of the proposition, and worked enthusiastically for it, their influence probably turned the tide to a sewer victory.

* * *

The Cuba Republican says: "Now that the matter is settled we hope the village authorities will not be slow in carrying its mandate into effect. It is a matter of no little importance to the village that the work should be pushed forward with all possible speed, and we hope the authorities will not let any grass grow under their feet in the matter."

WILL BUILD ENGINES.

St. Paul Railroad to Make Its Own Locomotives,

HAS BIG PLANT AT MILWAUKEE.

Works Have Present Capacity of 75 or 80 Engines Yearly—Car Shops Also Located in Same City—St. Paul Pioneer in Constructing Its Own Equipment.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 29.—A announcement was made here that the St. Paul railroad is now in position to build in its own works every locomotive demanded by the entire system. The new locomotive works have been completed, and have at present a capacity of between 75 and 80 engines yearly, which will be sufficient for the needs of the company for several years to come.

The St. Paul is the pioneer in constructing its own equipment, and from now on the company will be independent of manufacturers of freight cars and power. For the last 10 years the company has constructed all the freight cars used on the system, turning out about 2,000 cars yearly.

The wisdom and farsightedness of this move was demonstrated during every period of freight congestion, when the St. Paul was the only company which was not hampered for lack of cars. Over-loading, it is true, there has been lack of cars, but it has always been due to the inability of the company to get its cars returned from the East. The St. Paul now has between 1000 and 50,000 freight cars, and is now in a position to supply itself with cabooses and what is more important, it can get them when wanted.

The new locomotive works are just outside the city limits of Milwaukee on Western avenue and cost over $1,000,000. Employment will be provided for between 3,000 and 4,000 men. In the carshops of the company, also located at Milwaukee, fully 4,000 men are employed.

The St. Paul company has arranged for constructing 28 engines in the new works at a cost. In the car shops are being built 200 stock cars, seven railway postal cars, 200 refrigerator cars, 1,000 box cars, 500 gondola combination cars and 200 ballast cars.

A Commendable Action.

There is something commendable in the action of one Adam Young, an American citizen of Milwaukee, although he was a most disputable and disagreeable man.

It appears that while under mad from the effects of liquor Young decided to kill himself, his wife and his two little children. He imagined that an act of this kind would solve all of his difficulties. The more liquor he drank the more firmly he became fixed in the conviction that the thing to do was to kill his wife and children first and to kill himself afterward.

Possibly during the time he spent chasing his wife, armed with a butcher knife, the effects of the liquor began to die out and his naturally healthy mental faculties asserted themselves. At any rate, after inflicting a few fresh wounds upon the mother of the children and failing to accomplish his purpose a change seemed to come over him. He dropped the knife and was last for a time in profound meditation. A happy idea flashed through his mind. Instead of killing his wife and children first and then killing himself, he decided to kill himself first and then. But happily he did not pause to reason the proposition to a final analysis, but went out and hanged himself.

For this final act Young deserves some measure of credit. He certainly did the right thing at the right time. Let all murderous lovers, husbands and fathers go and do likewise.

In a lecture before the students of the law department of Columbia university Judge Alfred C. Coxe of the United States circuit court said: "Already, I find, there are twice as many judges in New York state today as in the whole of England, which has five times the amount of litigation. What we need is to simplify the procedure in the courts and to discourage useless litigation." Here is expert testimony of which state legislatures, the judiciary and bar associations might well take cognizance.

The report of Alfred Mosely's English labor commission, which toured the United States last fall, claims that the American workmen are more efficient than American. Perhaps it was not to be expected that the national vanity would admit of a different conclusion. It is rather strange, however, that British as well as other foreign workmen continue to flock to this country to better their condition.

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I suffered insufferable agonies from a cough. I tried Your New Discovery and got immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by O. E. Vars & Son, Druggists. Trial bottles free.

A Thoughtful Man.

M. M. Austin of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25 c at O. E. Vars & Son's Drug Store.

HE LOST A THUMB.

Overseer of the D. L. & W. Station at Bath Receives Painful Injury

Samuel Davis, yard overseer at the D. L. & W. station at Bath, experienced an accident Friday morning, which caused him the loss of his thumb from the right hand. He was examining the steam derrick and placed his hand upon one of the cables in close proximity to a pulley over which the cable passed. As he was thus standing engaged in conversation with several of the men about the yard, the derrick was started in action by the engineer and Mr. Davis' hand was drawn into the pulley. His cries caused the engineer to immediately stop the machinery, but not before Mr. Davis' hand had been badly mutilated. He was at once removed to the office of Dr. McNett, who dressed the wound and found it necessary to amputate the thumb at the conjunction with the hand.

NEW TRIAL FOR GLENNON.

Decision Based on Errors in Charge to the Jury.

Albany, April 29.—Chairman Edward G. Glennon, noted through his confidential relations with former Chief of Police W. S. Devery of the New York police department, was awarded a new trial by the court of appeals.

Glennon was found guilty of neglect of duty in failing to suppress a house of prostitution on West 33d street, New York, to whose espionage he had been detailed as a "plain clothes man". He was dismissed from the force and sentenced to six months imprisonment.

From this conviction by the court of general sessions of New York he appealed to the appellate division of the first department, which affirmed the decision. Thence the case came to the court of appeals. The conviction is reversed and a new trial ordered.

The opinion, by Judge Cullen, with which all the judges concur, discussed the history of the case at length. The decision of the court does not enter upon the question of the guilt of Officer Glennon, but is based upon errors in the charge of the original court to the jury. It is held that answers of the court to questions of the jury relating to the power of the officer to suppress the house of prostitution were prejudicial to his case; that the jury was allowed to suppose that he had powers of entry and arrest not permitted him by law.

"The great fault with the charge," says Judge Cullen, "is that so far as it discussed the defendant's powers and duties it dealt with abstractions and generalities only, and even when the jury requested instruction as to the duty of the defendant to obtain evidence, all it received in answer to its request was a recital of the charter provision.

"If the defendant, acting in good faith, though vigilant in his endeavor to discover facts or proof justifying either an arrest or application for a warrant, was unable to do so, then he was not guilty, even though the place was a house of prostitution. This was the vital issue that should have been presented to the jury.

"Had it been fairly submitted and the verdict returned against the defendant, we should not have been disposed to interfere with that judgment unless for most serious errors, but that issue was not fairly presented."

SET HUSBAND'S BED AFIRE.

Because He Wouldn't Get Up—Endangered Fifty Lives in Doing It.

Mount Vernon, April 29.—Because her husband, John Greener, who is 67 years old, would not get up from bed so she could move it, Mrs. Anna Greener set fire to his bedding, exclaiming as she did so: "I'll burn you up, you lazy thing." She imperilled the lives of 50 persons who occupy apartments in the same house.

Mrs. Greener, who is a gray-haired woman of 60, and her husband were arrested by Chief Angevine and Assistant Chief Hicks of the fire department and Policeman Conklin after a desperate fight. Mrs. Greener is charged with arson and her husband is held as a witness.

The Greeners occupy apartments in the big flathouse at 4 West Eighth street. At 10 o'clock at night James B. Carter, a tenant, saw flames issuing from their bedroom. The old man was lying in bed, which was in flames. He was in a semi-conscious condition. Carter sent in an alarm and then put out the flames before the firemen arrived.

When Mrs. Greener was asked by Sergeant Grant if she started the fire she replied: "Sure I did. My husband was so lazy that I set fire to his bed so it would be too hot for him."

Chief Angevine says kerosene had been sprinkled over the floor.

Christiancy Gets Leave of Absence.

Washington, April 29.—United States District Attorney Beach had a conference with Postmaster General Payne regarding the recent abstraction of papers from the safe of the assistant attorney general for the post-office department, with a view to laying the case before the grand jury. If the grand jury takes up the case it is not probable that it will report for at least two weeks. Postmaster General Payne has sent a letter to G. C. Christiancy in which he says the latter's request for an investigation of his official acts will be granted and that he will be given leave of absence until further notice.
