ANDOVER, ALLEGANY COUNTY, N. Y., SEPT. 11, 1889.

L. C. VAN FLEET. Attorney and Counselor at Law. Loan and Real Estate Agency. ANDOVER, N. Y.

THE ANDOVER NEWS, Published every Wednesday at one dollar per year. Job Printing done on short notice and in a first-class manner.

N. P. BRAINARD, M. D., Practicing Physician & Surgeon. Office at Store on Main Street, ... ANDOVER, N. Y.

C. W. O'DONNELL, M.D.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. Residence, Crandall Dwelling, and Buffalo, Cleveland, Chicago, Cincinnati and St. Louis in the West. The road-bed is ballasted

Protestional calls promptly attended day ANDOVER, N. Y.

EL COMSTOCK. M. D.-

and retes are generally lower than those of any other first-class line. Office Hours from 12 M. to 2, and 7

Chice on Greenwood Street, Residence on Pittsburg. The Buffet cars are models of ele-Church Street.

with rock, insuring the minimum of du hard coal engines do away with smoke and cin ders. The coaches are lighted with gas or elecobviates the old-time danger and inconvenience

and South, and connections, which are usuall

made in union Stations, are direct and certain

New York, Philadelphia, Buffalo, and Rochester.

gance, possessing all the luxuries of the fines

sleeping coaches, and furnished in addition wi

service will be the finest in the world.

an elaborate buffet, supplied with refreshments of all kinds, which may be ordered at pleasure. With the new vestibuled train, the Erie Pullman

New York City.—New York passengers by the Eric are landed either hotels, wholesale and retail business business houses, and steamship plers. To European and coastwise passengers, the Erie offers conven-lences which cannot be equaled by any other line

Connections are made with the New York, Nev

ing from Jersey City, as well as the day and night steamers for Albany, and the sound Lines for Newport, Ftll River and Boston, avoiding several miles of confusing and expensive city transfer.

Incoming Steamers.—Patrons expecting friends from Europe.

unacquainted with this country, and who are un able to meet them, will be relieved of any anxiety

in this respect, as authorized Erle agents, famil

coming steamship from European ports, and render any and every assistance in their pewer

There is no charge for this service, and it will be

Tickets.—The Krie has the most complete system of round-trip tickets to the humerous health and pleasure resorts, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, affording the greatest variety of routes and the fewest possible restrictions.

No necessity or business can arise but will find exceptional inducements, and in addition to its ordinary excursion tickets, issues mileage books

monthly commutation, and a variety of tickets.

at reduced rates, entitling the holder to a number of trips between commercial centers and sur-

Colonists.—The time oners for race prospectors and settlers in the West. Trustworthy and disinterested information in regard to any locality desired, will be furnished upon application to line of the most beautiful and romantic lakes and parks in America, and popular excursions and picnic to these charming resorts are made a feature of the passenger service. Special induce ments are offered to societies, churches and

TIME TABLE.

Westward from ANDOVER, N.Y.

GEO. E. ALLEN,

T. C. PLATT, Receiver.

WEST BOUND.

EAST BOUND.

Allentown . . . . 8.31 a. m. . . 2.36  $\bar{p}$ m

Bolivar.....9.00 a. m...  $3.00 \, \bar{p}$ m

| Leave Wellsville....8.00 a. m...2.05 pm

Gen'l Northern Pass. agt., Buffalo N.Y.

L. P. FARMES,

Gen. Pass. Agt.

*Daily, excepting Sundays.

care will be taken of parties and excursions.

The Erie offers low rates and su-iar with the various languages, meet every ord Railway, and all lines leav-

Accommodations are superior in every respec

Through tickets are sold to all doints East,

AT HARMAN'S.

BILLIARDS AND POOL, Hot, Fresh Roasted Peanuts

EVERY DAY. ALL KINDS of TEMPERANCE DRINKS. MILK SHAKE!

TOBACCOS AND

M. H. HARMAN.

PINE AND HEMLOCK UMBER

BOUGH AND PLANED. Little Dressed Flooring, Etc.

-A$$0-FLOUR AND FEED

CURTOR MILLING A SPECIALTY.

WALTER LANPHEARE.

War Declared Against High Prices!

not be bought elsewhere for less than 50 per cent. more than he charges. Splendid Bargains in

A nice fresh line of

Fruits, Dates, Figs, &c. Afine line of STATIONERY

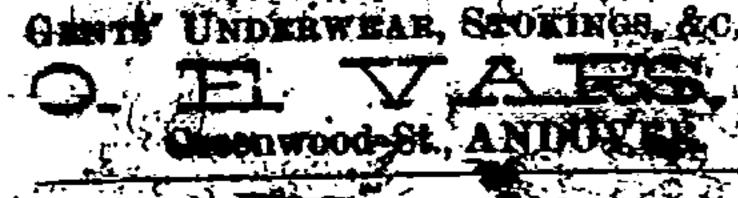

ALBUMS, &C. at very low prices.

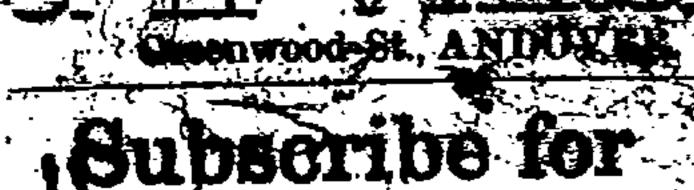

The finest line of Cigars, Tomcco ana Confectionery in town. We are Headquarters for these Goods.

A most complete assortment of PIPES, PIPE-STEMS and smokers' materials. A full line of DRUGS & MEDICINES To give you an idea of prices: I sell all dollar medicines at 85 cents, 50 cent bottles at 44 cents, pills 15c a box, porous plasters 10 cents, three for 25c. What is the use of paying big prices?

Come and see me and I will save you Headquarters for Violin Strings. Powder, Shot, Cartridges, and amurition of all descriptions.

W. W. ATWOOD, Sup't, Wellsville, N. Y. F. M. BAKER Ag't Receiver.

Bolivar...... 10.50 a m., 4.55 p m Arrive Wellsville...11.50 a m..5.55 p m

Ceres......10.25 a m...4.30 p m

A: GYPSY WEDDING .--

a paper establishing his identity as |depths within me, for which voluptu-Butura Simi, captain of a gypsy tribe mustering forty souls. The party were invited to take up their quarters in the garden attached to the prem-Presently the hostess ventured is the direct and popular thoroughtere between New York, Philadelphia and Boston in the Bast.

to inquire in which church the ceremony would take place. "Thy gurden will be our church," replied one of the band, "and our captain is our priest." In a short time the gypsies tricity, and the new system of steam heating got comfortably settied, and the men with little trouble erected seven tents, two of them being pitched a short distance from the five others. In these two tents the bride and Pullman Service.—Pullman's finest Palac bridegroom resided prior to their wedding. The five others accommodated Cleveland, Chicago, Cincinnati, St. Louis and the remainder of the party, which consisted, in all, of twelve men, fifthirteen children. teen women and The first evening was spent in carousing at the inn. The next morning the men surrounded the bridegroom's tent and drank his health with brandy. up town or down town, convenient to the leading. The women assembled at the bride's quarters and ate sweetmeats with her. On a signal given by the captain the whole party withdrew to their tents.

At midday they turned out again in holiday attire for the marriage ceremony. Capt. Simi wore a dark green dolman thrown over his shoulders and a red waistcoat with large silver buttons. He advanced slowly toward the tents. Two young men fetched the bridegroom, while the bride was assisted by two old women. Two fiddles and two bassoons struck up a Zigeuner melody, sung in chorus by all present.

cheerfully arranged upon application to any of the general or division officers. The bride and bridegroom were then led before the captain. Yemra, the wore a red gown, with white trimwell built youth of one-and-twenty, with a pleasant face, a black mustache and bushy hair. A yellow scarf was handed by an old man to the captain, who bound it lightly round the wrists of the happy pair, saying, as he did so, Man and wife must be bound to-the nearest ticket or passenger agent, and special gether." He then took an earthenware jar poured, the contents—a small quantity of wine—over their heads. reciting words to this effect: "Sometimes wine is sour; so is life. times wine is sweet; so is life. existence of Zigeuners is a mixture of sour and sweet." He then took off the yellow scarf and said: "Ye are now a Eastward from ANDOVER, IN. Y true Zigeuner couple."

This brought the ceremony to a close. Train No. 10...... 10.38 a. m. The young people were congratulated by their companions, and afterward they all adjourned to the public room of the Bohemian Mill, where feasting and merrymaking occupied the rest of the day. The company left three days 29.....l:41 p.m. | later, the newly married couple travel-- ling in a commodious new cart, a wedding present from Capt. Simi. -- Vienna Further information may be obtained from Cor. London Telegraph. C. H. RICHARDSON, agent at ANDOVER, or from

Mediæval Belief in Miracles.

It is not easy for a modern Protestant, still less for any one who has the least tincture of scientific culture. whether physical or historical, to picture to himself the state of mind of a man of the Ninth century, however cultivated, enlightened and sincere he may have been. His deepest convictions, his most cherished hopes, were bound up in the belief of the miracu- is the African teak wood that vessels lous. Life was a constant battle be- built of it have lasted fully 100 years. Ceres......9.23 a. m...3.28 pm superstitious among our modern coun- sailing qualities. Eldred ..... 9,50 a. m... 3,55 pm trymen turn to supernatural agencies This wood is one of the most reto suggest others.

> To a man like Eginhard, the mere nails driven into it, from rusting. satisfaction of a religious sentmeent. The East Indian teak wood is some though nearly one half of pertions of best fed best clothen best was obviously a powerful attraction. I what lighter and easier worked, and But, more than this the possession of lalso from its silicious qualities a such a treasure was in immense pract fect germicide to marine life so de the field when they were dug. tical advantage. If the saints were structive to other woods. It requires duly flattered and worshiped there from sixty to eighty years for growth was no telling what benefits might result from their interposition in your dehalf." For physical evils, access to Bg.—Scientific American. the birine was like the grant of the use of a universal pill and cintment nanwisctory; and pilgrimages thereto might suffice to cleanse the per-Camden as chancellor of Cambridge formers from any amount of sin.— Professor T. H. Huxley in Popular Science Monthly.

Platbert's Method. As for me, the more I feel the diffi-The Simple Ceremony by Which a Zigenner | Bulties of good writing, the more my Couple Are Made Man and Wife. | boldness grows. It is this preserves One day a troupe of gypsies halted | me from the pedantry into which in front of the Bohemian Mill, a snug-[should otherwise fall. I have plans looking mill, situated in the Viennese for books the composition of which suburb of Nuszdorf. An old man with | would occupy the rest of my life; and | on this subject: a flowing white beard got down from | if there happen to me, sometimes, one of the carts belonging to the com- cruel moments, which well nigh make pany and inquired of the host whether | me weep with anger (so great do I a gypsy wedding could take place leet my weakness to be), there are well. At the same time he exhibited | myself for joy; something from the

ous is no work, overflows for me in most inebriate, with my own thoughts, as if there came to me, at some window within, a putf of warm perfumes. I shall never go very far and know how much I lack; but the task I undertake will surely be executed by ansome one better endowed, better born for the purpose, than myself. The determination to give to prose | rhymth of verse, leaving it still veritable | prose; to write the story of common life as history or the epic gets written perhaps impossible. I ask myself the question sometimes. Yet it is perhaps have tried. I shall have had my permanent value for my obstinacy. And compass of my voice; and at any rate I shall have passed my life not igis saddening to think how many great men arrive easily at the desired effect by means beyond the limit of conthan many things in Rabelais, Cervan-

tave Flaubert.

* Wholesome Food. Those who are spending thier powers in providing entertainment for the young imagination, whether through bride, is a handsome girl of 17, with any irresistible inclination to write, or eyes and hair as black as jet. She through need of the money thus brought in, have a tremendous respon-Katilu Gyefan, the bridegroom, is a seem in any way to recognize. If it is in the first case that they are sure that they have something to say worth saying, and in no wise detrimative process; and in the latter they should be doubly watchful of their pens, the temptation of profit and their own need coming in as powerful allies of possible evil, or blinding them to the presence of such evil.

Not only should that which they provide for the young be free from wrong, or the suggestions of it, or from anything that might, peradventure, develop into wrong, but it should be aggressively in the other direction. not only innocent but useful, sound and strong and true and healthy. By demanding the true we do not mean to exclude fancy and imagination, but that even with their employment the tone should ring true, and that all falsé sentiment should be frowned at as much as false fact, by which is intended statement of fact not true to lows: nature. While the marketman and the provision dealer are feeding the body, the writer is doing much toward feeding the soul; and a good deal of stimulated, poorly equipped intellect, may be laid at the door of whomsopabulum of poor quality.—Harper's

Teak Wood.

So indestructible by wear or decay

Arrive Bradford...11.35 a. m...5.30 pm only when natural causes seem in markable employed in the human in used a cool apartment in a barn, with over $6,000,000 on deposits in her natural causes seem in district for its markable employed in the human in used a cool apartment in a barn, with over $6,000,000 on deposits in her natural causes seem in district for its markable employed in the human in used a cool apartment in a barn, with sufficient; to Eginhard and his friends | dustries, for its great weight, hardthe supernatural was the rule, and the ness and durability, its weight varying a slatted floor next above the base-places her investments in the West Leave Bradford.... 8.15a m. 2.10 p m sufficiency of natural causes was al- from forty-two to fifty-two pounds per ment. The air can pass up from be- and South at over $75,000,000 more. Eldred...... 10.00a m. 4.05 p m lowed only when there was nothing cubic foot. It works easily, but from low. the large quantity of silex contained, Moreover, it must be recollected the tools for working require to be be deposited three or four feet in was made in Vermont. Respective Allentown...11.22 a m.:5.27 p m that the possession of miracle work- hard, and even then are subject to thickness. If the potatoes were clean loaned in Vermont, every defend a loaned in Vermont, every defendance. ing relics was greatly coveted, not severe wear. It also contains an oil only on high but on very low grounds. Which prevents the fron spikes and sofficient for shipbuilding purposes. It is largely in use in English shipbuild

Dr. Wellington. At the installation of the Marquess the duke received the honorary degree of D. C. L. Immediately after Gretton, who approached the gate feet it is the feet to lington,"-F. F. Gretton.

AGRICULTURAL NOTES.

HOW NOT TO MAKE POOR BUTTER.

A correspondent to Hoard's Dairy- to them, and they are then but man gives the following crisp advice heaps without sufficient vertile

Anything respecting poor butter or if placed in cellars for a will, I suppose, be of universal inter- apartments. In large boxes there, adding that they would pay others also when I can scarce contain est, for where shall we go to find a ted bottoms, placed on the north scarcity of the article? One may of a barn, and raised a foot or may skip over this broad land from point from the ground, they may be sudden leaps. I feel transported, al- to point, like a kingman on a checker | cook and dry until November's board, and wherever he stops he is and if some of the earth has additional sure to find it in excessive supply, but hered to them, dashing cold water he never finds the unwise, unskillful, occasionally on them will tend to keep unfortunate man or woman who made other, I shall have put on the road it. He will often hear of them, but will never meet them face to face. Where is the man that will confess is much easier and more practicable that the poor butter which curses every man who tastes, touches or han-(that is to say, without detriment to dles it, is made in his household? sufficiently to a practical form for comthe natural truth of the subject), is Yet it is certainly made by somebody. mon adoption. What dairymen most need to know a considerable, an original thing to is how not to make poor butter. One thing is certain; every man in our cow as many days as three scres c. who knows? One day I may find a broad land who is making 10 and 12 very good meadow. good motif, an air entirely within the cent butter, knows how to do better than he is doing. There is enough provide against the loss of valuable nobly, often with delight. Yet still it good, useful knowledge afloat among time in a busy season, us where every man who will can | read it, to cure this evil of poor but- for fall pasture. If the ground is scious art. What could be worse built | ter in a single season, if it were put | clean and soft it need not be plowed. in practice by those who are ever comtes, Moliere, Hugo? But then, what sudden thrusts of power! What plaining that "dairying don't pay." power in a single word!—Cor. Gus-Now, my advice to all those who will not use the ideas presented to them by those wno use them is this: Avoid making poor butter by making no show their shoots above ground they butter. This is the only remedy. If should be chopped off. all such would turn to horse, sheep, it," and the question of poor buttermental to the young spirit in its for especially that of the dairy, he must learn to avail himself of as much of

> gies God has given him. SAVE THE POTATOES.

falling fruit from the tree of knowledge and using it with the best ener-

but tractable picking the ripe

Considerable rot is reported among the potatoes in this State, and the ed- fence, nothing is supering. itor of the Country Gentleman tells the best way to save the crop, as fol- pan until the surface in covered the worthlessness of an impoverished the country, have been followed, as tile oil which is evaporated in spiritual nature, an imbecile, poorly was expected, with an extensive prevdo about it? How can we save what land of them. there is left? In answer—dig them as soon as practicable, provided the soil is dry enough for them to come up clean and without dirt adhering to tween saints and demons for the post to be then broken up only on account them. Put them in a cook place, in her savings banks. One in every session of the souls of men. The most of their antique mold or defective where moderate air currents may pass six men, women and children bes up through them. We have for years money in bank. Besides this, the has when placed there, they have never which is Vermont money. rotted to any extent afterwards, al and think, that her per per the crop had to be rejected and left in and have more advantages than

In the absence of such an apart different substitutes may adopted. They may be pited in moderate heaps in the fields, if a stratum of rails and coarse brush can be provided for the heaps to rest on, so that the air may pass under for ventilation. The loose struct with which ward, at a garden party at Sidney, they are covered to the country his name to the porter as Dr. Mes. more, and species by second it blowing off by loose brush may thus remain several we dug when the soil is wet and ad they will be seen to continue them cool and cleanse them, promited they have enough ventilation to day

The preceding simple treatment than the use of sulphate of copper for spraying or otherwise, which, however efficient, has not been reduced

One acre of ensilage will winter.

A supply of extra plow points will Rye may be sown at any time now

The seed may be sown broadcast and cultivated in, or it may be drilled. Keep the burdocks down. They delight in plenty of food, and a plant of burdock will rob the soil for yards around its base. As fast as they For permanent pasture, Peter Hen-or steer raising or potato growing, derson recommends either for fall or an advantageous form of transportation to meet ming and patent leather laced boots. sibility, which many of them do not "The world would be the better for spring sowing, orchard grass as the base grass materd of timothy base grass, with other sorts in the .... prompted to write, they should be very making be solved. If a man is to proper proportion, to give compactsucceed now-a-days in any line, and ness of sod-a view differing from, usually accepted practice.

If you want a fence over which hene cannot fly, make some kind which every man's experience and ideas as need not be high and what artihe can trim down to fit his own case chokes on both sides of it; these will and particular needs. Be wide awake make a hedge, and the stalks will reto catch new thoughts; not gullible, main long after they have lost their and green color. They afford shade and serve as a wind-break. Once planted, they remain and spring up every year —in fact, it is not easy to get rid of them when once they make themthemselves secure. They are ornamental, and hide all imperfections of the fence. For a cheep, efficient, ligih

By heating the milk in a shall st a thin film that crinkles and the ting it away for the cream to riv The unusually frequent and heavy odor of garlie or onions will be rains this season, in large portions of pated. The odor consists of a O. S. heat. It is a good pain of clearly fields of wild one on ge to by chair, alence of the potato rot. Inquiries culture. A crop of potatoes or com. ever it is who furnishes intellectual are repeatedly made, what shall we kept clear of all weeds will clear the Riches of Vermont.

With a population of about 350,-000, she has almost 60,000 depositors and over $16,000,000 to their credit tional banks, and a moderate estimate In such an apartment they may Poor indeed! Mind you, this meant. in the gonelinsion good a state to make more be born and live in."

A Great Surprise Is in store for all was Balsam for the Brows and great guaranteed remedy. West believe that it is sold on its merits that any druggest is multiporised but