FELL FROM SCAFFOLD.

While at Work on the Angelica Presbyterian Church.

Advocate:

While at work in the Presbyterian church Monday morning, Mr. Wilbur of Warren, Pa., who is employed by Parker & Parker, fell from a step ladder, which stood on a scaffold, to the floor striking on his left foot, which was badly strained. He was taken to the Charles Hotel where his injuries were dressed and from there he was taken to his home. His injuries would have been more serious but for the fact that Mr. Gregory partially caught him as he fell.

Too Great A Risk.

In almost every neighborhood someone has died from an attack of colic or cholera morbus, often before medicine can be procured or a physician summoned. A reliable remedy for these diseases should be kept on hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has undoubtedly saved the lives of more people and relieved more pain and suffering than any other medicine in use. It can always be depended upon. EXPLODED IN OVEN.

While Being Warmed In a Cook Stove.

FAMILY BADLY FRIGHTENED.

No Harm Done to the Occupants But House Completely Riddled.

Bolivar Breeze

In the town of Genesee at the head of Butternut Brook is the home of Frank Searles, the family consisting of himself, wife and four children. The house is a frame dwelling of upright and wing. A few days ago he was clearing his land of stumps using compound to blow them out. One day they had used 22 sticks which they had warmed in the oven of a cook stove and sent the eldest boy to the house to warm three more which he put in the oven. It had not been in the oven long before a terrific explosion occurred. Every door and window with their casings were torn loose, the side walls shattered and much of the ceiling ripped off. Mrs. Searles and her children and a lady with her infant child were all in the house. The former was at the organ, playing an accompaniment for one of the children who sat rocking and singing directly between the kitchen and sitting-room door. The mother called him to stand by the organ which he did and had no sooner left the chair than the accident occurred, sending a piece of stone thru the door demolishing the chair and sending the iron with such force that it went thru a sheet iron stove and out the front door. The lady visitor went to the bed where her babe was laid to sleep and expected to find it dead as the ceiling had fallen on it. What was her surprise to find it still sleeping. Mrs. Searls' youngest child was asleep on another bed and the dresser with its glass was thrown on it but it received no injury. No one was hurt in the least which seems wonderful as every dish in the house was broken but one. Mr. Searls who was some distance from the house expected to find them all dead and begged of his hired man who was with him to go and see. Just what caused the compound to explode is a mystery.

CUBA GINSENG.

Will Be Used by U. S. Government For Experimental Purposes.

From Cuba Free Press.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture at Washington has decided to experiment with ginseng culture, and W. A. Bates gardens in this village have been selected to furnish the material. Rodney H. True, pysiologist in charge of the Bureau of Plant Industry, writes that the department will require for use this spring about 2,000 plants and 10,000 germinated seeds and asks Mr. Bates if he can supply them.

As the government always requires the best of everything for experimental purposes, this recognition of the Bates ginseng gardens is a high honor. The compliment is well deserved, however, as Mr. Bates now has the largest and finest garden of cultivated ginseng in the United States, and no one is better prepared to fill this important order than Mr. Bates.

CUBA TEMPERANCE ASSEMBLY.

PROGRAM FOR 1903 IS COMPLETED AND SPEAKERS CHOOSEN.

The Trustees of the Cuba Temperance Assembly Offer an Exceptionally Fine Program this Season.

After careful investigation and much correspondence on the part of the Committee, the program of the Cuba Temperance Assembly for the coming season is now completed. The question has often been asked concerning the programs of the past, "How can you afford to give so much for so small an admission?" The program just completed is equally as good, if not better than any yet given. For the two Sundays we have secured strong Gospel preachers, so as to make these days days of worship. The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will have a day, and have secured for the speaker one of the best on the platform, G. A. R. day will be observed and the speaker for that occasion will meet all expectations, however great. A new feature of the program this year will be "Odd Fellows Day." This is in connection with their annual picnic which had been planned for Cuba this season. The speaker of the day will be a man prominent in this great organization, and his address will be of interest to all. We need say nothing more as to the musical features than to inform you that the Allen Family will again have charge. People said of these excellent musicians last year, that their part alone was worth the price of admission for the whole program. Three grand concerts have been arranged and their success is assured when we tell you that Mrs. Cecilia Way Niles has been engaged to sing, and Mrs. Fred D. Lorey gives readings. The program is now in the hands of the printer, and will soon be ready for distribution. If you do not receive one, write to the Secretary, Allen C. Prescott, Box 566, Cuba, N. Y. Do this before you plan for your vacation. There is no place where you can combine pleasure and profit at so small a cost. Write the Secretary concerning tents, or any information desired. The dates of the Assembly are August 7th to 17th.

W. L. DORGAN, President.

BONE FOOD

Soft and crooked bones mean bad feeding. Call the disease rickets if you want to. The growing child must eat the right food for growth. Bones must have bone food, blood must have blood food and so on through the list.

Scott's Emulsion is the right treatment for soft bones in children. Little doses every day give the stiffness and shape that healthy bones should have.

Bow legs become straighter, loose joints grow stronger and firmness comes to the soft heads.

Wrong food caused the trouble. Right food will cure it.

In thousands of cases Scott's Emulsion has proven to be the right food for soft bones in childhood.

THE GRANGE

Conducted by J. W. DARROW, Press Correspondent New York State Grange.

MRS. SARAH G. BAIRD.

Only Woman Who Ever Held Position of Master of Any State Grange.

Mrs. Sarah G. Baird of Minnesota, the only woman who has held the office of master of a state grange, is one of the strongest women in an order that encourages the women in every way to take places on the level with men. Under her leadership the grange in her own state has prospered, and the state shows greater activity in grange work than for years. It is needless to say that Mrs. Baird is a magnificent speaker, a fine presiding officer and a strong worker in every way. She is in the ninth year of her mastership of the state grange. George W. Baird is gatekeeper of the national grange, and he and Mrs. Baird are charter members of Minnehaha grange, 389, which was organized twenty-eight years ago and has never become dormant. Mr. Baird is master of Minnehaha grange. Speaking of his work, he says:

"Our work in the subordinate grange is now principally—strong—educational lines. Our members have the greatest faith in the Order and have clung to its principles during all the years of our organization. We now see the benefits of organization as never before, and we are enjoying to the fullest the social and educational advantages of our work. We have a well equipped hall and everything necessary to make our meetings a success."

Rhode Island Agricultural College.

The recent election of Mr. Kenyon L. Butterfield of Michigan to the presidency of the Rhode Island Agricultural college bodes well for that institution.

During the past three years he has pursued work in the University of Michigan. His work in the university has been of such a high order that during this year he was appointed lecturer in rural sociology, a new course offered in the university. He believes in thorough technical training for the farmer and it is understood that the Rhode Island board will give him full latitude to carry out his ideas in this direction. He is withal an enthusiastic worker in the grange.

Practical Co-operation.

Some time ago, when prices for beef were so high as to be almost prohibitive, the members of some of the granges in Berkshire county, Mass., co-operated in defying the high prices of the meat trust and getting their own fresh meat at a low price. Some of the farmers raising young stock agreed together to kill off stock as it was needed to supply meat, taking turns and distributing to each other and to other members of the grange at a lower price than meat was selling for in the market. Two important grange ideas were thereby illustrated—fraternity and co-operation.

"Watch the Basket."

Carnegie in his "Empire of Business" sums up the conditions of success for the farmer as well as the business man. He says: "The man who falls is the man who scatters his capital, which means that he has also scattered his brains. He has investments in this, that and the other thing. Don't put all your eggs in one basket is all wrong. I tell you, put all your eggs in one basket and then watch that basket."

The secretary of the Pennsylvania state grange, J. T. Allman, says that in many sections the notion still prevails that the grange is the avowed enemy of the middlemen. This is not correct. We oppose only a surplus of middlemen, endeavoring to shorten as much as possible the route from the producer to the consumer.

The advisability of organizing a national grange life insurance company is under consideration by a committee appointed by the national grange to report at its next meeting. The committee consists of W. K. Thompson, South Carolina; G. S. Ladd, Massachusetts; N. J. Bachelder, New Hampshire.

There is a possibility that the national grange may meet at Niagara Falls next November.

The grange adapts its functions to the everyday work of its members.

Keep up the agitation for grange halls to be owned by the grange.

The grange takes hold of the farmer's very life and essential interests.

TWO PLANTS DESTROYED.

Serious Fire in Glenshaw—Two Hotels and a Handsome Residence Burned.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 20.—A fire which threatened to destroy the whole town of Glenshaw along the Pittsburg and Western railroad broke out in the plant of the Glenshaw Glass company. Assistance was summoned from Etna and from all the surrounding boroughs.

In addition to the total destruction of the plant where the fire originated it destroyed the plant of the Wittmer Brick company, the Jackson and Murray hotels and the residence of John H. Meyers, the handsomest in the town. The loss is estimated at $100,000, with very little insurance.

Three Churches Burned.

St. Johns, N. F., May 20.—Fire has devastated the mining town of Little Bay, where a large copper mine is being worked. Three churches, with the clergymen's residences, the mining company's stores, the government buildings and 40 dwellings were destroyed. The total loss is estimated at $50,000. Two hundred and fifty persons are homeless and relief is being forwarded by the authorities.

Another fire destroyed the lumbering section of Appleton. The mills, much sawn timber and other property were consumed.

Complaints of Dry Weather.

Kingston, May 20.—Yesterday was the warmest day known here at this season in many years. Farmers and fruit growers are complaining of dry weather. All crops are greatly retarded and without rain soon the loss will be heavy. The dry weather has caused many forest fires which have driven many snakes out of the brush. In some instances they have taken refuge in farmers' houses.

Woman Beaten and Robbed.

White Plains, N. Y., May 20.—Two masked robbers broke into the home of Mrs. Marie Durando, near the Mount Kensico cemetery, and after beating her almost to death stole $845 she carried in a belt. Her husband found her lying unconscious in a pool of blood on the kitchen floor.

From the Greenwood Times

FOREST FIRE RAGING

Heavily Wooded Sections of Three Counties Ablaze.

BAD SITUATION IN NORTH WOODS

State a Larger Loser Than the Lumber Companies—Hard to Get Men to Fight Fires—Fishermen and Campers Cause Most of the Fires—Pulp Mills Handicapped.

Glens Falls, May 20.—Reports received at the office of lumber companies here who are heavy Adirondack land holders say that the conditions throughout the woods is critical, by reason of the extended drought. There is hardly a township in the heavily wooded sections of Warren, Hamilton and Essex but what is ablaze.

The state is a heavier loser than the lumber companies for the reason that the latter's fire fighting force is better organized. The fire wardens are heavily handicapped in securing men.

A large portion of the population of the woods where the fires are burning the fiercest is a roving one, and as the money to pay for fighting is not available until the next February it is difficult to secure the force that is needed and in many instances the wardens make but little effort to stop the fires.

One of the worst fires that has been reported so far this season started yesterday on Baird mountain northeast of Luzerne and has already burned over a tract of country six miles long and a mile wide. Fire wardens of three towns are directing the fight but it has passed practically out of their control.

George R. Finch of Finch, Pruin & Co., who are one of the heavy land holders in Adirondack lands, says fishermen and campers are responsible for half of the fires that devastate the north woods yearly. "It takes an expert to put out a camp fire in the woods," said Mr. Finch. "The ground is covered with a thick blanket of dried decayed vegetation that resembles punk. A man may think his camp fire is out and a few days later it will work up, perhaps a couple of hundred yards from the place where it started."

The Hudson river is the lowest that it has been in years. A half dozen of the big lumber drives are hung up on the shoals between the Boreas river and Glens Falls.
