Kellinberger's barn which he entered without opening the doors. Kellinberger is having a new set of doors installed by Ezra Slocum. Burnstein's insurance company is footing the bill.

Amendments Carried Big

Albany, Dec. 17.—Nearly two million persons who went to the polls last November did not take the trouble to vote for or against the five proposed constitutional amendments, all of which, however, were carried. This was revealed this week at a meeting of the State Board of Canvassers. The amendment giving civil service preference to disabled war veterans was carried by a vote of 1,071,517 to 404,454, but there were about 1,500,000 blanks and voids. The amendment allowing absentee voting by war veterans confined to hospitals was carried by 1,119,164 to 256,664. The amendment giving the State the right to contract debts to suppress forest fires was carried by 859,464 to 318,512.
