hound on the pang which seized her and hour, and he might be an Englishnot the came in sight of the gray

The came in sight of the gray in the came in sight of the gray in the came in sight of the gray in the came i with came in sight of the gray man as far as manners and appearance ing she was merely a guest in her old sometime, tenant. le of "home," for she might call it on the side where the village street would be able to arrange and the says he cannot help feeling in- hospitalities of the manor, the good- her father would be able to arrange and short came up to the lodge gates. Hope terested in the place, his mother and ness of the imported "chef," or the ex- for himself any improvements he and have mother who was an involved lady took her place on the sofa Clarissa of soft silk and creamy lace, and had "Oh, my! are you sick, ma'am? I am her hair and dress." Hope; and the young ladies aid not did you get these flowers? Is it to be ster long, fearing they should weary a dinner party?" among her cushions, as the door closed | the manor.

ome just now from New York, and eled drawing room, than they pertheir brother will join them soon, they | force changed into amusement. they ought to have waited till we broad, low couch, and talking English. She was small and dark, with bright eyes and a sallow face, and exquisa tiny handkerchief in one hand, | chaded her face from the flames with a her difficulties with close" to the fire, while she seated herself in a luxurious chair, and holding present,' would she not, Miss Charlleft me now." "She never heard of waffles!" she | ... Hope hughed merrily, and a bright friends and was delighted with passionately, "while pleasure at the prespect of life in the rest of any their pleasure at the prespect of life in the rest of any their pleasure at the prespect of life in the rest of any the result of the rest of any their pleasure at the prespect of life in the rest of any their pleasure at the prespect of life in the rest of any their pleasure at the prespect of life in the rest of any their pleasure at the prespect of life in the rest of any their pleasure at the prespect of life in the rest of any the rest of any their pleasure at the prespect of life in the rest of any their pleasure at the rest of the rest of the rest of any their pleasure at the rest of the rest of it go," said Mrs. Charlton, by way of be- home. "Does he mean to stay long?" in glooniy, irritable, and unlike herself. tural depression, but had bravely faced his troubles, and having let his house to jou, sale and private mansions, but I imagine he does, for he is plantage to the true one. In reality the the manor.

She did not venture to search for the ther, when the news of the engage ther, when the news of the engage of the engage is and private mansions, yet Vienna.

The pression of the engage is and private mansions, yet Vienna.

The pression of the engage is and private mansions, yet Vienna.

The pression of the engage is and private mansions, yet Vienna.

The pression of the engage is and private mansions, yet Vienna.

The pression of the engage is and private mansions, yet Vienna.

The pression of the engage is and private mansions, yet Vienna.

The pression of the engage is and private mansions, yet Vienna.

The pression of the engage is and private mansions, yet Vienna.

The pression of the engage is and private mansions, yet Vienna.

The pression of the engage is and private mansions, yet Vienna.

The pression of the engage is and private mansions is an engage is an engage in the pression of the engage is an engage in the pression of the engage is an engage in the pression of the engage is an engage in the pression of the engage is an engage in the pression of the engage is an engage in the pression of the engage is an engage in the pression of the engage is an engage in the pression of the engage is an engage in the pression of the engage is an engage in the pression of the engage is an engage in the pression of the engage is an engage in the pression of the engage is an engage in the pression of the engage is an engage in the pression of the engage is an engage in the engage in the engage is an e winter in a good sporting ning all sorts of improvements; he is angry feeling she had experienced the manor. district, had betaken himself to Jagoing to drain the meadow by the almaior to see if anything could be done ders, and put up new gates in all the grown into almost a passion of jealhow way to the Fort at Meadhampton house, an old red brick building, ness, I am sure. Why should he do conversation was sure to turn on the such a sad heart months before, she work, sleep and eat. It contains in LE.

came up to the lodge gates. Hope in the lodge gates in the lodge gates. Hope in the lodge gates in the lodge gates. Hope in the lodge gates in the lodge gates. Hope in the lodge gates in the lodge gates. At "at wished to make on his estate, for his bland in Jamaica would prove a valuation in Jamaica would prove a valuation in the supplement to that at home. This immense house has thirteen courtyards—five open and eight covery and a different inctionality, in law owned a different inctionality, in low owned a different inctionality, in law owned a different inctionality, walls. A visitor beach the built in law owned a different inctionality, in law owned a different inctionality, walls, and the jowels that he made in the cottages here of the bought in law owned a different inctionality, means in her power, to keep the fain- Professor Elisha Gray, of Chicago, that the girls were fairly puzzled, and norter, later on, "for the transmitting mearly quarreled on the subject with of the handwriting—a fac-simile or

"Of course not. Ladies are not in-

"Disappointed!" said Hope.

the little girls were at the vicarage, so

'but they do have a deal of compan.

"I thought Mr. Gerrans was the ing dress, looking as well in that subject," he said, smiling. "And now tion of any great event, a celebration) alled on them; it was taking a liberty Their voices, accent, the very pose of t rose and greeted her with the same

"We have been showing Wilming-

"She thought only children liked New York drawing room when a good not know what the sound a good but you have taught me that your nor I may think of at the monage their feet upon the snow to many girls are there for tea; they friendship was too much to ask, and ment. Its chief value, I apprehend, stamping their feet upon the snow to ment. Its chief value, I apprehend, stamping their feet upon the snow to ment. Its chief value, I apprehend, stamping their feet upon the snow to ment. Its chief value, I apprehend, stamping their feet upon the snow to ment. Its chief value, I apprehend, stamping their feet upon the snow to ment. Its chief value, I apprehend, stamping their feet upon the snow to ment.

onsternated!" exclaimed large buildings both in the United by "I shall be ever so pleased, my son, roomed structures of stone and iron, She did not venture to search for the if she is real nice to you," said his mo glass and brick. Brighter days dawned soon for the Austria, has the giant of them all.

THE LARGEST HOUSE.

Is Occupied by 2.112 Persons.

"One sits down and writes on a

"I mean a pen carrying ink, and 000 ilorins. Hope was annoyed. She said bitter he chooses. The invention is now fiercely. "It must be you who sup- phone, for it writes and does not talk est your father is willing to give me." for desultory conversation, but is not "I did not know"— began Hope, sufficient to use in buying or seiling, as Siftings.

His dainty fittle mother, a frequency of sort lace and crimson silk, was shaking lace and crimson silk, was shaking "Going away?" exclaimed Hope, or water, but a sketch could be trans. Chamonic The lady was very anxious said Mrs. Charlton, "and "to have waited till we broad, low couch, and talking English."

with augment in a "arge easy enair; or water, but a sketch could be trans."

Chamouni The lady was very anxious to go part way up the mountain, so two broad, low couch, and talking English.

Yes; at all events for a time; but I the article."

The lady was very anxious to go part way up the mountain, so two broad, low couch, and talking English.

The lady was very anxious to go part way up the mountain, so two broad, low couch, and talking English.

The lady was very anxious to go part way up the mountain, so two broad, low couch, and talking English. fore we quit his house altogether," ment?" stammered Hope, while a rush of feel- desk, or, like the telephone, be hung found the ascent so agreeable that they most of her friends would have shown. ing for which she could not account upon the wall, where it takes up little concluded to go on still further.

Let me present my brother to you, seemed to stille her utterance. space. It is secret, in its communica. The gentleman and guides star have a lock and key, and no one can recently left, they found the lady com-"I had heard so much of you and see the communication which has your mother from my people," he come in his absence. The instrument fright. The bride and the porter had speaking now very rapidly, and may be found good for the distribudisappeared forever from the face of the gists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent looking down upon Hope's flushed face, "that I felt I should come amongst friends when I are come amongst friends when I are but there are a thousand things to speak should be a should be a should but there are a thousand things to speak should be a should b As soon as the frightened woman could SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS. do not know what the sound is in a rived. I thought I had for a while, which it may be applicable that neither speak she explained that they were all which it may be applicable that neither speak she explained that they were all which it may be applicable that neither speak she explained that they were all which it may be applicable that neither speak she explained that they were all which it may be applicable that neither speak she explained that they were all which it may be applicable that neither speak she explained that they were all which it may be applicable that neither speak she explained that they were all which it may be applicable that neither speak she explained that they were all which it may be applicable that neither speak she explained that they were all which it may be applicable that neither speak she explained that they were all which it may be applicable that neither speak she explained that they were all which it may be applicable that neither speak she while it may be applicable that neither speak she while it may be applicable that neither speak she while it may be applicable that neither speak she while it may be applicable that neither speak she will be applied that neither speak she will be applied to the speak she will be applied that the speak she will be applied to the

is said to have been

Every American, European and vour father, In-in Wieden, a suburb of the city just be transmitted over one wire at one cellence of the host's taste. At "at wished to make on his estate, for his apartments of from four to six rooms with the tollate of the host's taste.

ectionery in town. We are Head-▲PE-STEMS and smokers' materials.'

tles at 44 cents, pills loc a box, porme and securic and A will save you

L. C. VAN FLEET, Loan and Real Estate Agency.

THE ANDOVER NEWS, Published every Wednesday at one dollar

N. P. BRAINARD, M. D., Practicing Physician & argeon. Office at Store on Main Street. ANDOVER, N.Y.

A nice fresh line of Leave Bradford..... 8.15a m. .2.10 p m great white gull.

W. W. Arwood, Sup't

What is there in the autumn haze That calls to mind departed days? Or an afterglow of the joys that are fled? What is there in the fading leaf That saddens with unbidden grief? Does it whisner the tale of unfortunate

What is there in the wind's low sigh That fills our eyes when passing by? is it plaintively sobbing, alone! alone! What is there in the chill, brief day That makes one love more tenderly Does it waken a dread of the coming night, to be loved for a season and then forgo stationed off Baton Rouge. Early in was a tempting one, and the boat's nothing could be seen of her.

New York City.—New York passengers by per bark, built in Boston for the Cape | Coston signals to burn if needed.

 $\frac{d}{dx}$ to join the fleet engaged in the block- for a moment from their duties, The first few days passed quietly, | northward.

The Erie offers low rates and su- from the coast of Texas to Havana, sized by a rattling clap of thunder, fol- make all sail. Be alive about it or we yields the best grouse ar be taken of parties and excursions. The cry "Sail ho!" was constantly Allen, for it is coming down upon us our course direct for Galveston, where | are both shut in entirely," was the rewas to report to Commodore Bell ply.

But it now became evident that the utes. ...831 a.m. 236 pm schooner was by no means anxious This move convinced us that we had its deep crimson glare. 10.25 a m. 4.30 p m at last fallen into luck, and that the 10.50 a m. 4.55 p m schooner was what we had been so dil- out. .11.22 a m . 5.27 p m | igently seeking—a blockade runner. ..11.50 a m..5.55 p m | To make assurance doubly sure, I gave the Parrott rifle its extreme elevation, sir!" our colors as a polite invitation for her standing directly across our bow.

there was scarcely enough breeze to give us steerage way. Occasionally boat to you. -Mr. Allen, clear away officers and crew. we could feel a slight puff of air, and, the second cutter and go on board that As I had captured her on the high remembering the experience of the schooner to take charge of her with seas, out of sight of any other vessel. Constitution when chased by two Eng- four of your men. Send her captain | Lreceived one tenth-of our half which lish frigates in 1813. I ordered that and his crew back here in our boat, made a very agreeable addition to my whins he ringed-whoft, and the sails Take a master's mate with you, and bank account, and was a pleasant thoroughly drenched with salt water. | see that your crew are properly | souvenir of my first capture of a block-Still, with all our efforts, it was evi armed." dent that we were not materially jes- "Aye, aye, sir," and the boat was Youth's Companion.

After consulting with my executive out as the boat shoved off, "see if you night—was to send a party in one of us."

the bow of the boat. The chase was now, we estimated, schooner?" I hailed. nearly six miles distant, and, as she There was a moment's pause and spots is!" exclaimed the boss as he was all the time forging ahead several then the hesitating reply, "She has looked up and down the track. The second year of the American knots an hour, there was a prospect of drifted out of sight, sir; I can't make vil war found me acting master on a good long pull for it; but the bait her out!"

sessing all the luxuries of the finest order of Admiral Farragut, I assumed inight should overtake us before i ord Railway, and all lines leav. | strengthened to carry an armament of | keep a sharp lookout on the move-"— ratrons expecting castle, with a complement of ten offi- from the masthead lookouts to the and paced my quarter mess cooks, who hung gazing out of mind occupied in most unpleasant re-My orders were to proceed to Texas, the ports whenever they could escape | flections.

tem of round-trip tickets to the fig. | prospect for excitement and prize | work. The sun was getting low when | a bad quarter of an hour that I was | Our preparations were quick- | the officer of the deck called my atten- | having just then. bank of black clouds making to the firing to feeward, and up shot a rocket, them (after a success

A vivid flash of lightning, empha- there! Fill away, Mr. Allen, and as being the finest, just as Caithness.

the chart by the navigating officer, at | aft, clew lines and reef tackles. Let go. | no further time to lose, and so I laid "No, sir; the cutter and schooner Bayley's voice, as we approache

ing to the eastward. I bundled on my | The squall brought rain with it in tor- | ging and gave three as hearty cheers as | our ship making all light sail in chase. the desire to overhaul the schooner dred men. The vessel was so far to leeward of became second to that of picking up above the horizon, but the breeze was to heave the ship to, and let Mr. Bay- | can return in your boat with the fresh and our canves was drawing ley find me, as I certainly could not schooner's captain and crew," ton signal burned every fifteen min- struck he had lost sight of the chase, By this time the squall had passed, in keeping his boat from filling. One special case is mentioned. ..9.00 a. m. ..3.00 pm that we should come to closer quarters, the rain had ceased, and the moon When the wind lulled he determined how these conspiracies work to ed on canvas until she looked like a the Coston signal was ignited and us, when the schooner that was established letter from the head to I flamed up, lighting all about us with caping from us almost ran him down. "Sail ho!" yelled the forecastle look- ling gun, at short range, and drove the

> And there, sure enough, loomed the sprang on board, and the prize was man was sentenced to four r ward her, at the same time hoisting sails of a schooner on the port tack, taken. to heave to and allow us to overhaul "And it's the Johnnie!" exclaimed the

But our courtesy passed unmoticed forecastle in astonishment upon the fully piloted by her captain, who was and she displayed no colors in return vessel almost under howsprit her very familiar with the bay, had

"Very well, I will send my own other moiety was divided among my sening the distance between the two called away and prepared. "By the way, Mr. Allen," I called officer, I decided that my only hope of can find out from any of them what marsh west of Jersey City the other securing our prize before dark—as of has become of Mr. Bayley. In dodging day, when a Sun man who had been course she could easily evade us by him they have probably run afour of sniping came along and called the I had gone aft to see the boat off and looking spots beside the roadbed, and Bayley had his boat, the first cutter, give these orders, and, as they were asked the cause. These spots looked alled away, the crew carefully armed. executed, I looked to see where the as if the end of a sheavy beant had and a small Gatling gun mounted in schooner lay, but could not find her. struck the earth, and here and there . "Forecastle there, where away is the was a ragged furrow in the dirt.

-I sprang forward, and sure enough mile each way from this, but this is Pullman Service.—Pullman's finest Palac January, 1863, I was officially increw were very ready to make the ef-A signal was burned; but it only

The Jersey Jumping Place.

with his Gatling coffee mill down Fifeshire pheasants are now regarded

The yards flew round and we filled, | 10

Several of our leading hotels and restaurants are making arrangements

bill of fare with good-service at the our bonifaces will not forget this wise recent report from Penang. The coihull, and I felt confident of overhaul- directed that a gun be fired and a Cos- of the capture. When the squall societies making it their business ...9.23 a. m... 3.28 pm and proposed to prevent it if possible. was struggling out of the ragged look- to return to the ship, and, hearing our justice. In July, 1888, during the expension of a warrent in a contract. He at once opened fire with his gat-the same society in Penang. the schooner's crew from the deck and wheel by a well directed fire. Left one Lim Bun Tang, who two nights before that imprisonment for one two nights before the Gal-s