Call for Caucauses.

Caucauses for the election of delegates to said Convention, are appointed to be held in the several towns of the county on Saturday, July 25th, 1903. Polls at such caucauses shall be opened, not earlier than one o'clock p. m., and not later than nine o'clock p. m., and shall be held open not less than one hour.

At each of such caucauses a poll list shall be kept of the persons voting thereat and such list shall be verified by the Chairman and Secretary thereof.

Dated June 18, 1903.

A. MISER WELLMAN, Chairman.
A. B. BURROWS, Secretary.

It Didn't Work. The enemies of the Republican party have been making a great fuss over the fact that the President has taken from the Secretary of State the initiative in the Keshineff matter, and thereby had slighted his cabinet officer. Mr. Hay has emphatically declared and made it very clear that there is a concert of action between himself and the President. Thus another attempt to sow seeds of discord and divide the Republican party, failed to work, and Mr. Hay has refused to be the "stalking horse" for the President's enemies.

A Police Department. With the improvements that are coming to Andover and the increase of population that is sure to come with the new industries, the need of better protection, both to citizen and property, will soon be evident. There are very few villages the size of Andover that do not have a police department. There will need to be an officer on the street during the greater part of the day and night to keep order and protect property. The days of the country constable will have passed and safety will lie in the organizing and equipping of a police department some time in the future.

The Business Men. There was in evidence at the annual meeting of the Business Men's Association, last Monday evening, a spirit of eagerness and as fine appearing a lot of men as any village could wish. We believe that very few villages could have had brought to their door so good and strong additions that have come to Andover during the year past, and the credit is due the Business Men's Association. The marvel of it is the organization is only a year old, and yet $29,000 have been raised for enterprises, part of which is in the $10,000 building now across from the depot, making more than $29 raised for every man, woman and child in the corporation limits. Put to that the $15,000 school building and Rip Van Winkle will awaken and say, "I must have slept a long time."

THE COMING CONVENTION.

The Republicans will hold their caucuses July 25th and their county convention July 30th, at which time candidates for Member of Assembly, Sheriff, County Clerk, Superintendent of the Poor and two Coroners will be placed in nomination. It is one of the failings of the average citizen that he does not attend the caucus of his party and have part in the choice of the delegates sent to the convention. The choice of the candidates rests upon the action at the caucus, for the seeker of office manipulates the wires there rather than at the convention. Undoubtedly the action of the delegates in convention assembled will be for the best interests of the people. However, great care should be exercised that no deals or combinations (for the sake of settling factional disturbances) permit the slipping in of a candidate or candidates who will seek his own rather than the party and the people's interests. "Old Allegany" is so solidly Republican that she is entitled to have the very "finest of the wheat" to fill the positions and serve her best interests. Party strength consists not always in a "peace at any price" policy, but in an independent action that throws off the disturbing elements and makes the prospect for the future secure. The changing conditions and growth in the increase of the population of the villages may change the sentiment of voters. Even now an analysis of the results of elections a few years back will show the changing conditions. Then the fact is, men who are fitted for the positions and whose integrity and ability is beyond question, are the men to be placed in nomination. This we believe the convention will do, and what they do will be for the best interests of their constituency.

As to the towns, a Supervisor, Town Clerk and minor officers will need to be elected. The excise question in the town of Andover will cause some lively discussion and add spice and fight to the election.

How About It? A recent enactment of a law which will be of great interest to the farmers seems to have been lost sight of. It is that twice a year the farmer cut the weeds on the roadside of the premises, and his failure to do so permits the Road Commissioner to do it and charge the cost of the same against the property. It may be well to remember the fact that such a law is, and the benefits of such action is evident; and perhaps it would not be a bad idea if the authorities saw to it that some of the rank grass and weeds were removed from the gutters on some of our village streets.

WILL THERE BE A WAR?

The watchful eye of Robley D. Evans, Rear Admiral of the Navy, sees in the eastern sky a cloud that he believes may develop into war; whether it will come from the internal disturbances in China, or be the outgrowth of the strained relations because of the Manchurian affairs cannot be seen. However, the fact is that Great Britain and America have now the largest fleets of vessels of war ever in Eastern waters. Just across or near by the Russians have the strength of their navy, and Japan is mobilizing her strength in the waters not far away. The student of the affairs of the East cannot but see that perhaps in the near future the outbreak will come, and it will be a war such as the world has never witnessed. Evidently the "Russian Bear" is making a mighty effort to hold the world in her grasp. Some will say, well, Russia has heeded the protest and promised protection to the Jew. Yes, but Russia's diplomatic game has been and will be to draw attention away from the real center of her interest, and Russia wants time to strengthen her navy. The outlook for continued peace is not very assuring, and some declare the war is near at hand.

Pope Leo XIII. The serious illness of Pope Leo XIII. has drawn attention to the head of the church, whose characteristics of life have been piety, strength, diplomacy and kindliness. The steps of training and his rise to the head of the church are given below:

"Joachim Vincent Raphael Lodovico Pecci, afterward Pope Leo XIII., was born March 2, 1810, at Carpineto. He was sent to the Jesuit college at Viberbo, in 1818, where he remained till 1825, when he entered the Collegio Romano, just restored by Pope Leo XII. Two years later he was matriculated as a divinity student at the Gregorian university. In 1832 he won the degree of doctor of theology and entered the College of Noble Ecclesiastics, where those who design to serve the pontifical government, diplomatically or administratively, are trained. In 1837 he was made subdeacon, then deacon, then priest. In 1838 he was made delegate, or governor, of the province of Benevento. In 1841 he was appointed governor of Spoleto. In 1843 he was made apostolic nuncio, or papal embassador, to Belgium, and titular archbishop of Damietta. In 1845 he was made bishop of Perugia, where he arrived in 1846. In 1854 he was made a cardinal. In 1877 he was appointed camerlingo. In 1878 he was chosen pope to succeed Pius IX., deceased."

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

NO PAY, NO PAPER AFTER JANUARY 1, 1904.

The "News" Adopts the Cash in Advance System, Believing it Better for both Publishers and Readers.

The ANDOVER NEWS is to-day the only paper in Allegany county printing eight six-column pages all at home, that does not charge more than $1.00 per year subscription. It is a close thing to issue such a sheet at that price and make both ends meet. The price of print paper has doubled within the past four years. The only way the NEWS can possibly maintain the present $1.00 rate is to carry no deadheads. Believing it unjust that a good subscriber be taxed to help pay for his deadbeat neighbor's paper, we have determined to adopt the "No pay, no paper" policy January, 1st, 1904, and live rigidly up to it after that date. Kindly read the label on your paper and if you are not credited beyond Jan. 1st, 1904, you are hereby notified that your paper will then be discontinued unless you walk up to the Captain's office and settle before that date. After Jan. 1st, 1904, all subscription accounts then due us will be placed in an attorney's hands for collection.

STREET FIGHTING.

CHARLES HOGAN AND DARIUS OSBORN HAVE A SLIGHT MISUNDERSTANDING.

Blows Fell Thick and Fast, On Main Street, Andover, Sunday, and No One Stopped Them.

Sunday afternoon saw one of those outbreaks of a barbaric nature, such as were common among our Norman ancestors, where might made right, but in these days it is called a scrap. It seems that over on the Marsh some time ago, Darius Osborn, called "Dri." for short (?), who lives near Rexville, took it into his head to have pugilistic fun with Charles Hogan of Andover, who was working on a well in the new oil field. Without cause he struck Hogan, and in return was knocked thru a hotel window. Osborn had a gang of friends with him, and Charles seeing that discretion was necessary, "made his sneak," promising "Dri." a chance to have trouble when the odds were even. That time came Sunday, when Osborn came to Andover alone. As he turned the corner from Greenwood street on Main, Hogan saw him and dared him to get out of his buggy, which dare was accepted and "Dri." hitched his horse and faced the music. There were few words but lots of action, and in a very short time "Dri." had a pair of "smoked globes," a cut nose and many minor contutions. No one interfered, and the fight was very quiet, but a disgrace to the town nevertheless. Hogan lost a shirt in the scrimmage, and Osborn lost some blood.

Osborn is a man with a reputation for being a bad man. On one occasion he had to pay $150 for chewing off a man's ear in a fight, but if Hogan's blows had landed on his mouth this time he would have been obliged to chew his human flesh with false teeth hereafter.

BUSINESS MEN MEET.

The Annual Election of Officers—All Old Officers Returned.

At the annual election of officers of the Business Men's Association held at Village Hall last Monday evening, the following officers were re-elected:

President—W. B. Bundy.
Vice President—F. J. Atwood.
Secretary—J. H. Backus.
Treasurer—J. H. Brundage.
Directors for 3 years—A. B. Burrows and C. L. Earley.

The following resolutions were presented and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Business Men's Association protest against the peddlers and venders coming into the town of Andover, and peddling their wares.

Resolved, That this action upon their part is unfair to the merchants and business men of Andover.

Resolved, That the Directors of the Business Men's Association petition the Town Board of the town of Andover, urging them to impose a license fee upon all peddlers and venders coming into the township with wagons and peddling.

The above resolutions were adopted with the understanding that it would in no way hinder the farmers selling their own produce on our streets or elsewhere in the town.

Notice!

All parties indebted to the old firm must make a settlement at once.
