Against the Barge Canal. If the anti canalers are to win cut in November every one who is against it needs to be up and doing. Strong efforts are being made in the cities along the line of the present canal to vote the appropriation (with the exception of Rochester). One of the favorite arguments of the canalers is that the greater portion of the expense is to fall in New York and Buffalo, when addressing the farmers. We believe on analysis of the figures this is true, but if the opponents of the canal will state to the city that 85 per cent. to be borne by them of the $101,000,000 and $54,540 in interest and the huge cost of maintainance, may defeat the canalers in their own bailiwick.

Anti-Mob Law. President Theo. Roosevelt's commendation of Gov. Durbin in handling the mob that were law-breaking bent has been received with only words of praise from all political parties. It has the right. true and American ring. President Roosevelt in characteristic style condemns the mob spirit and commends the upholders of the law. This was to be expected from the man who at the head of a Tammany police had the liquor license law enforced in New York city. Thus it is that the President is gaining friends for the manly and aggressive spirit of Americanism. Every move is indicative of the fact that the present Chief Executive is a worthy successor of the late McKinley and a true American.

Slugging Matches. Apparently little or no interest was taken in the late slugging match between the fighters in California. This is indicative of the growing sentiment against such practices. It is only a few years since that the winner of such a bout would be extolled and admired, and columns would be given in the daily press of his every move. The change is because of change of sentiment. The papers will not print what the people will not read. After the repeal of the Horton law prize fights became a thing of the past in New York state. Other states had preceded or followed with laws abolishing fights in their borders. California won no credit to herself in allowing the fight to take place. It's a species of human brutality fit only for the darker ages. It is well that interest is well nigh gone in such doings.

School commences Aug. 31st, and non-resident pupils are entitled to free tuition in the academic department who can present a Regents preliminary certificate or a ninth grade (uniform) or common school certificate, and Andover High School has been designated by the department where free tuition may be had.

Why don't "Quien Sabe" get after the spitters again? Some places on the streets, evenings when the crowds are out, show the need of an anti-spitters movement. Spit in the street and not on the sidewalk if you must spit at all.

The NEWS has been first and always for Andover's prosperity, and a share of the present results we believe were brought about by advertising Andover. Advertising pays.

A HOUSE FAMINE.

One of the questions that will soon need to be met by the people coming to this village is the question of houses. There soon will be or there already exists a famine of modern up-to date dwellings. There is even now a demand for such places, and what Andover will do with the people coming will be a very important question. There needs to be more houses erected and that immediately. It will be poor judgment to wait until the people come and then build, for the places cannot be made ready. Some wise investor who will take the matter up will make a handsome return of the money expended by erecting a number of dwellings, such as a two or four family house, such as are erected in other places. The new industries are going to bring the people. The silk mill will be in operation before the first of October, and it is expected the enamelling works, or more properly speaking, "The Andover Manufacturing Company," will bring eight or ten families. These are going to bring others, and the facts are apparent that unless something is soon done along this line some who will want to come cannot, because of the lack of dwellings. It would be deplorable if for lack of places to live we should lose desirable people. The "house famine" is not a question of the future; it is now here, and who will undertake to relieve the famine by erecting a number of dwellings, is an open question.

—Since the above was written we learn that the Business Men's Association have contracted for another factory, which will probably employ 20 men at the beginning. This only emphasizes the facts as stated above, We must have more dwellings.

Must Build a New School Building. Bolivar is going thru the throes of an agitation against building a new school building. About the time that Andover's school building was condemned, Commissioner Burdick (then the School Commissioner) sent an order of condemnation to the Bolivar Board of Education. The objectors (in some places they call them anarchists) organized and appealed, thus delaying the matter. Last July the Board received the following, according to the Bolivar Breeze:

STATE OF NEW YORK,
Department of Public Instruction,
Albany.
July 23, 1903.

R. A. WERTMAN,
Bolivar, N Y

Dear Sir: Replying to your communication of the 13th instant I advise you that an appeal to this Department against Commissioner Burdick's order condemning your school building does not act as a stay on the trustees unless such stay is granted by this Department and served upon the Board. It is your duty to go ahead the same as tho no appeal had been taken. Respectfully yours,

CHARLES R. SKINNER,
State Superintendent.

The facts are evident that Bolivar must build a new school building. Andover was wise in acting promptly, and now will have the building ready for occupancy and have the assistance of the non-resident pupils before Bolivar gets started on the enterprise she will surely have to undertake.

Prosperity. Never has the South of the South had as prosperous an era as at the present A careful glance of the statistics will convince the most pessimistic of the wonderful growth. Evidently energy and progress do not belong to the North alone. The increase in exports from Southern ports during the last ten years have been greater than all other custom districts in the country. In an analysis it appears that the exports of cotton increased the most rapidly. Their increase constituted 65 per cent. of the total increase of the country's exports since 1880, the production of coal from 6,000,000 tons to more than 60,000,000, pig iron from less than 400,000 tons to over 3,000,000, petroleum from 300,000 barrels to more than 20,000,000. Thus the South is growing despite the race issues, and the race issue is the only thing that can retard the present prosperous conditions of export.

It is many years since dairies have been able to keep up the production as long as this year, and the price of cheese has been above the average.

Hustling for a Candidate. The Gorman boom for the nomination by the Democrats of Senator Gorman of Maryland has been launched and a concerted movement made to get the Senator into the field as a candidate. Some of the statements set forth in his favor tell how letters from all over the country speak of him as a favorite candidate. His veiled disapproval of the silver question would alienate Bryan's friends. New York, New Jersey and Indiana Democrats are expected to indorse him. They say his declarations on the tariff revision have been conservative. The Cleveland boom is still floating, and also Gen. Miles (retired) has been mentioned. The people are little interested. Mr. Roosevelt's manly course has won the approval of the Republicans and Independents alike, and it matters not whom the Democratic nominee may be. It looks as tho Theodore Roosevelt will succeed himself.

Other towns or villages are advertising their high schools to draw the non-resident pupil. Surely Andover's High School is worth advertising.

ANOTHER INDUSTRY LOCATES IN HUSTLING ANDOVER.

The Business Men Continue to Push, and This Week Tally One Again.

The Business Men's Association landed still another factory in Andover the past week. This time it was a manufactory of Portable Oil Derricks. J. C. Knupp of Warren, Pa., has secured a patent on a very novel and practical oil well derrick, and was seeking to locate a factory for its manufacture. After thoroly investigating the various sites in the Allegany and Northern Pennsylvania fields he decided without further investigation to come to Andover, and signed papers to that effect with the Directors of the Association. The factory will be in operation within 30 days, having rented the Dr. N. P. Brainard building, on railroad lands, to start with. He will undoubtedly purchase that building and build on to it. Inside of 60 days Mr. Knupp says he will have at least 20 men employed in Andover. He has several thousand dollars worth of orders already, waiting to be built, and has several of his derricks in actual service in this field.

This derrick can be removed from one location to another with but little expense in a very short time. One outfit is guaranteed to drill at least fifty wells. It surely will be a boon to oil operators, coming as it does at a time when it is almost impossible to obtain lumber at any price to build derricks, say nothing of the saving.

Hornellsville Fair and Races.

Next week is the Hornellsville Fair and Races. Never have the arrangements been so large or more complete and only good weather is now needed to make the Fair at Hornellsville this year a grand success. The grounds and buildings have been put in perfect repair and every board has received a coat of snow-white paint. The exhibit in all departments will greatly surpass those of previous years. In the race department over 150 horses will contest for the $4800 offered in purses. The program is as follows:

The Hornellsville band of 30 pieces will furnish music, and the world's famous "Loop the Loop," which costs the management $1,000 for the week, may be seen free. The coaching parade on Tuesday will be one of the most spectacular sight ever seen in Western New York. On Wednesday, Governor Odell will address the people, and the 47th Separate Company will act as escort. On Friday will occur the parade of the Prize Stock. This parade will be headed by the Hornellsville band and will march around the track.

A rate of one fare for the round trip will be given on Governor Day (Wednesday), and on other days all railroads will make a rate of one fair and a third for the round trip.

MET WITH A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT

JAMES ROSSITER RUN OVER BY ELECTRIC CARS.

Sunday Afternoon While Bound for Glenwood—Many Witnessed the Accident.

James Rossiter, a well-known young man in Hornellsville, met with a terrible death Sunday afternoon in that city. Rossiter went to a picnic given by the machinists in the afternoon at Glenwood park and while there a ball game was proposed, and Rossiter volunteered to return to Hornellsville for the ball, bat and other articles used in the game. He boarded the electric car which leaves Main street at 3 o'clock to return to the park, carrying with him a ball, bat and a catcher's mit, to be used at the park. At about the time the car left Main street a runaway occurred. A Canisteo man named Vandelinder and his wife were driving when the collar of the harness broke and the horse ran away. The lady was thrown out but fortunately was uninjured. As the car upon which Mr. Rossiter was riding came along he jumped off and went to the assistance of Mr. Vandelinder who was struggling with his horse. When he was thru with the horse he attempted to get back on the car which had started. It is said the step broke and he fell between the first car and the trailer, the wheels of which passed diagonally over his body, fracturing his arms and all of his ribs. The body was picked up and taken to a near-by porch, but he lived only a minute or two after the accident. He was 24 years of age, and is survived by his mother, Mrs. George Dyer, two sisters, Mrs. F. A. Griswold and Mrs. Frank Arnold, and one brother, Frank, all of Hornellsville.

Question in Arithmetic.

Here's one for your boys:

If the painting costs two or three times as much as the paint, and one paint goes twice as far as another, how much are those two paints worth?

If Devoe is worth $1.50 or $1.75 a gallon, how much is the other one worth?

How much is a gallon of paint worth anyhow?

The answer is: Depends on the paint.

The reason is: paint isn't always paint. There are true and false paint and short-measure.

How much is a short-measure gallon worth? How much is false paint worth? How much is Devoe worth?

There are millions a year in answer to this last one.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous services.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
