AN easier GRADE FOUND.

ERIE SURVEYORS SUCCEED IN ESTABLISHING AN EASY GRADE.

The Cuba Patriot Gives Its Readers the Following Concerning Changes Contemplated by the "Old Reliable."

The engineering corps of the Erie railroad, who were here for the past ten days looking up an easier grade between Cuba and Belvidere, finished their labors last Saturday and left town on Monday morning. That they found a comparatively easy grade is in evidence from the stakes set, which follow the heel path side of the old Genesee Valley Canal from a point west of the Erie station, passing between the Cold Storage plants of Ackerly, Sill & Co., and Demcey, Sibley Co., across the lot in rear of residence of A. S. Smith and on east to Black Creek, thence to Belvidere. In all probability the grade established by the survey will be adopted by the Erie in due time, and while it is not to be expected that they will abandon the present road entirely, they will probably run all their thru passenger and heavy freight trains by the easier grade. The lighter trains will doubtless pass over the hill in order to keep in touch with Friendship, which by the way belongs among the progressive towns of Allegany county.

The Erie's Annual Excursion to Niagara Falls and Toronto Exposition.

RELIANCE WINS AGAIN

Beats Challenger by One Minute and 19 Seconds.

AN EXCITING, HARD FOUGHT RACE

Victory Due to Captain Barr's Clever Work —Course a Triangular One, Ten Miles to Each Leg—Squall Struck Observation Fleet.

New York, Aug. 27.—In a glorious whole sail breeze over a triangular course, 10 miles to a leg, the fleet footed defender Reliance again showed her heels to Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger, taking the second race of the cup series by the narrow margin of one minute and 19 seconds.

It was as pretty and as hard fought a contest as has ever been sailed off Sandy Hook, and, had the wind not fallen during the last 10 minutes the record for the course, 3 hours 12 minutes and 15 seconds made by Columbia two years ago in a race against Shamrock II., would have been broken. As it was, Reliance sailed the 30 miles within two minutes and 39 seconds of the record, which speaks wonders for her speed in the wind that was blowing.

Reliance's victory, narrow as it was, would have been very small had not Captain Wringle, the skipper of the British ship, bungled the start, sending his craft over the line 19 seconds after the last gun and handicapping her to that extent.

At every point of sailing the defender's superiority was demonstrated. She gained one minute and 51 seconds in the windward work to the first mark, 40 seconds on the turn to the second mark and 45 seconds on the close reach for home.

Defender's Superiority Demonstrated.

An assemblage of excursion vessels almost as large as that of last Saturday poured down thru the Narrows and out into the Atlantic to witness the vanishing glory of the challenger. The early morning had held out but little hope of a race. A smoky haze hung over the sea and the wind was very light from the south. As the day wore on, however, the curtain lifted slightly, the wind blew strong and clear out of the south and the dancing swell sparkled under the radiance of an August sun.

The course was a beat due south then a broad reach or run as the case might be off toward the Cholera banks and thence home again to the lightship, each leg ten miles.

The spectators watched the jockeying for the start with eager interest. It seemed momentarily as if the spars and hulls of the yachts would clash, but they wheeled and circled like gulls, tacking, gybing and putting about with wonderful ease and grace.

At last when the starting gun had been fired and they bounded across the line, close hauled for the thresh to windward. It was seen that the American skipper by his extremely clever work had again outgeneraled his rival and secured the weather gauge. Not only was the challenger's captain defeated in his effort to secure the windward berth but he actually failed to cross in time to save a handicap of 19 seconds, this time being a dead loss to him. Barr never relinquished his advantage after the start, holding the challenger under his lee all the way to the first mark.

Every Stitch of Canvas Set.

As the racers got further out the weight of the wind steadily increased. Both boats with every stitch was set smashed into the seas, heeling down in the puffs under the press of thousands of yards of light canvas, until their lee rails were awash. Wringe had given his boat a good rap full and sailed thru the Reliance's lee, until satisfied he could not be blanketed, when he flattened his sheets and began to point closer.

The time of turning the first mark was: Reliance, 12:21:30; Shamrock, 12:24:45. Because of time allowance and difference in the start the Shamrock was still six seconds ahead, officially.

HOW THE FRENCH USE CORN.

THE CORN USED IN FRANCE IS A SPECIALLY PREPARED FLOUR, THE PRODUCT OF FRENCH MILLS.

Raised in America, then Shipped to France, and there Baked and Ground and then Re-Shipped to American to be Ate by Frenchmen who have Taken Up their Home Here.

As we now have for residents at least three French people and a new industry owned and managed by Frenchmen, matters concerning their environments are of much interest to all of our people. The writer in conversation with one of the owners of our mill recently was told many interesting things about France and the habits of her people, among which he said that the only way they ever used our American corn, or maze, was either by feeding it to fowls or to take it to French flouring mills and there have it prepared. This is done by first baking the corn and then grinding it, and cannot be had in any other way, as this is an exclusive product of the French mills. This flour cannot be had here without sending to France for it. It is a very fine yellow flour, as fine or finer than our wheat flour. The gentleman sends to France and has shipped him quantities of this corn flour for use in his own family very frequently. Thus the corn is raised in America, then shipped to France where it is baked and ground, and then re-shipped to this country to be ate by our Frenchmen. It is claimed for this flour that it is very palatable and contains the qualities that build bone and muscle, a typical food for growing children.

MILE IN TWO MINUTES

Lou Dillon Breaks World's Trotting Record.

AT THE READVILLE, MASS., TRACK

The Last Quarter Was Completed in 29 Seconds, Making The Full Mile in Two Midutes, Flat.

Before a great crowd of spectators at the Readville (Mass.) track, Lou Dillon trotted a mile in 2 minutes and broke the world's record.

The weather and track conditions were practically perfect when Millard Sanders, driver of the Dillon mare, brought her out. For pacemakers Peggy from Paris and Carrie Nation were used.

On the first score Lou Dillon made a break just before reaching the wire. On the second attempt the word was given. Driver Tanner kept Peggy from Paris directly in front of the peerless chestnut trotter, while McCoy laid her wheel. In this way the trio were at the quarter in 30½ seconds. With never a skip Lou Dillon went down the back stretch. The half was trotted in 1:00¾.

Around the turn to the three-quarters pole the pace quickened, the third quarter being done in 30½ seconds. Then came the real test. Faster and faster came the leading runner and right with her trotted the handsome Lou Dillon. To the amazement of all the last quarter was completed in 29 seconds, thus making the mile in 2 minutes flat.

Looks Like a Penny With a Hole in It.

An observing editor truly remarks that after a country newspaper has "hollered" itself hoarse in efforts to persuade people to patronize the home merchants, and accidentally stumbles onto the fact that some of the fellows whose interests he is endeavoring to protect are sending away for their job printing, it is her shakes his faith in humanity and makes reciprocity look like a penny with a hole in it.
