Angelica Youth Victim Of Bicycle Accident

Duane Guy, 14 of Angelica, died Friday afternoon at St. James Mercy hospital, Hornell from injuries received Tuesday night when he rode his bicycle into the path of an automobile driven by Gerald Breadon on Main street in Angelica.

The increasing popularity of bicycles thruout the country in general makes another highway hazard which should be given the utmost consideration by both motorist and bicycle riders.

A WEEK OF THE WAR

Army Broadcasts From Fighting Fronts

The War Department said a series of "Army Hour" broadcasts every Sunday beginning April 5, 3:30 to 4:30 p. m. EWT, over the NBC network will link men in the armed services fighting abroad with American firesides in this country. The programs will attempt to promote understanding of military and morale problems. They will mark the first time in U. S. history the Army will directly sponsor and supervise a radio program to accomplish a military mission.

Labor

President Roosevelt said by fall labor shortages probably will begin to develop, altho at the present time there is sufficient manpower for war industry. The President stated nowhere in the country is anyone prohibited by law from working more than 40 hours a week. WPB Chairman Nelson, addressing CIO leaders in Washington, asked labor to suspend for the duration the privilege of getting double-time for work on Sundays and holidays.

The President ordered the Office of Defense Transportation to seize the strike-bound Toledo, Peoria and Western Railroad and to operate it "for the successful prosecution of the war." The President acted after the railroad management rejected repeated Government requests that the strike be submitted to arbitration. Labor Secretary said of the 15 million workers to be employed in war industries by next January, about one-third will be women.

Priorities and Allocations

The WPB ordered manufacturers of domestic laundry equipment to halt production by May 15, and manufacturers of certain vending machines, of juke boxes and other amusement machines by May 1. The Board directed retailers of men's and boys' clothing to omit trouser cuffs after March 30. Priority assistance was granted materials needed for repair and maintenance of existing plumbing and heating installations on farms, in residences and office and apartment buildings. The Board limited metallic plates for state and local auto licenses to ten per cent of the weight issued during the year ending July 1.

The Senate completed Congressional action on the second War Powers Bill, which includes provisions for a fine of $10,000 and a year in prison for priorities violations. The WPB said it will begin investigations soon of pig iron distribution in foundries as well as inventory conditions of copper scrap dealers.

Prices

The Labor Department reported its cost of living index on February 15 was 113 per cent of the average for 1935-39 and almost 15 per cent higher than in August 1939. The OPA set price ceilings on gasoline at service stations in 12 Eastern states, Oregon, Washington and the District of Columbia at levels prevailing March 13. A Chicago Federal grand jury indicted 101 cheese dealers, processors and distributors for violation of the Federal anti-trust law.

Aliens

The President established the War Relocation Authority within the Office for Emergency Management to permit persons forced to move from military areas to enlist voluntarily in work corps for the duration of the war. A mill imposing a fine of $5,000 and imprisonment of one year for persons violating regulations in military zones was sent to the White House.

The War Front

Gen. Douglas MacArthur, accompanied by a staff of officers, broke through the Japanese blockade and proceeded from Bataan Peninsula to Melbourne, Australia, to assume Supreme Command of the forces in that region, including the Philippines. Lt. Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright succeeded Gen. MacArthur in command of American troops on Bataan. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek placed Lt. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell, U. S. Army, in command of the Fifth and Sixth Chinese Armies, operating with British Forces in Burma.

"Chuck" Holt is driving a new (to him) Buick sedan.

Supt. W. G. Pope has been confined to the house by illness the past week.

The King's Daughters of the Presbyterian church are advertising a bake sale at Baker's Hardware this Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Goodridge of Elm Valley have purchased the Perkins farm on the Elm Valley-Alfred road and took possession last week.

Mrs. Kenneth Alvord entertained her card club of Wellsville ladies at her home Tuesday evening. Honors were awarded Mrs. Robert Dwyer and Mrs. Fred Shaeffer.

A new order effective April 1st, takes the cuffs off men's trousers. The order is so broad in scope that stores will not be permitted to sell trousers already in stock which have allowances for cuffs. It will also be illegal for tailors, or even purchasers' wives to put cuffs on trousers.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will hold their regular meeting with Mrs. Clara Hann, hostess, at the home of Mrs. Charles Caple, Wednesday, April 1st at 2 p. m. Mrs. Hann will be assisted by Mrs. H. W. Boyd, Mrs. Hulda Brown and Mrs. Elmer Bixby.

"Scotty," the white pet dog owned by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hammond, was instantly killed Monday when struck by a speeding motorist on Barney street. As we have mentioned many times in the past, this might have been a child insofar as the ability of the driver to stop was concerned.

Francis Jones of Wellsville is the only Allegany county sportsman listed in the recent bulletin from the Conservation Department, which lists 22 New York State sportsmen who have been denied the right to secure hunting and trapping licenses for various periods of time. Jones is denied a license during 1942.

Arbor Day and Bird Day Designated By Commissioner

Albany, Mar. 19.—In a proclamation made public today Commissioner of Education Ernest E Cole designated April 17th for the observance of Bird Day, and April 24th, May 1st and May 8th for the observance of Arbor Day in this State. Local authorities may select the the date best suited for their Arbor Day observance. The proclamation follows:

Arbor Day and Bird Day

"There'll be bluebirds over the white cliffs of Dover, Tomorrow, just you wait and see."

Yes, and just as surely tomorrow the robins will return to our wonderful New York trees, the violets will bloom in our broad meadows and the lilacs will spread their fragrance over lawn and park.

How thankful we should be for these symbols of God's love and care! How appreciative of the foresight of those men and women who thru the years have labored to conserve them! Amidst the horror and brutality of the war which finally has engulfed America, they give us a "little bit of heaven." They inspire hope and faith that a better day will surely dawn for mankind—a day when the war clouds will disappear and men the world over will live together in friendship and brotherly love.

This year more than ever before we should exert ourselves to protect and preserve our birds, our trees and our shrubs.

By virtue of my office as Commissioner of Education, it is my duty and high privilege to designate April 17th as Bird Day, that day dedicated since 1915 to "the birds, God's poor who can not wait," and April 24th, May 1st and May 8th, as best suits the convenience of each locality, for the observance of Arbor Day.

These observances will be good for us as well as for the birds and trees. For as Henry VanDyke says:

"He that planteth a tree is a servant of God,
He provideth a kindness for many generations,
And faces that he hath not seen shall bless him."

ERNEST E. COLE,
Commissioner of Education

Department Issues 1942 Spearing Order

Albany, March 21.—Sportsmen thruout the state were advised today by the Conservation Department that the 1942 order regulating the spearing of mullet, carp, dogfish, catfish, bullheads, suckers and eels in all waters of the state except those inhabited by trout became effective today.

During the spearing season which terminates the last day of November, sportsmen may take the aforementioned species of fish by means of spearing in all waters not inhabited by trout.

The spearing order is formulated and issued each year and according to J. V. Skiff, superintendent of the department's Bureau of Inland Fisheries, contains local exceptions designed to protect several species of game fish. The exceptions are incorporated in the order upon the recommendations of game protectors, sportsmen's organizations and other interested groups.

Copies of the 1942 spearing order may be obtained upon request to the Bureau of Inland Fisheries, Conservation Department, Arcade Building, Albany, N. Y.

Under the order, the spearing of fish is not permitted in the following waters, of local interest:

Allegany county: Cuba Lake and Cuba Lake Inlet (Rawson Creek.)

Schuyler county: Cayuta Lake, Waneta and Lamoka Lakes and channel between these two lakes, except that carp only may be taken; Taughannock Creek and Seneca Lake.

Steuben county: Loon Lake, Waneta and Lamoka (Mud Lake) Lakes and channel between these two lakes, except that carp only may be taken, Cohocton River west of the Savona Highway Bridge; Demon Pond, Smith Pond.

Manager Announced for Wellsville Pony League Team

Walter Vangrofski, former manager of the Winston-Salem Club in the Piedmont League will pilot the new Wellsville Pony League baseball team this season, according to an announcement by Roy Brandenberger, business manager.

Vangrofski, a catcher-manager, started in professional baseball in 1930 with the York, Pa., club in the N. Y. P. League.

A patent has just been issued for nylon automobile tires.

WANDERING WITH WILLIE

NOW that the sun is beginning to shine more than seven minutes a day, a lot of the boys are beginning to talk bats and balls, but with the Army nipping in and getting many of the baseball players, we anticipate that softball will be Andover's most popular sport this summer.

(We wouldn't want anyone to let "Bill" McGee know about this) but we think that right in town we have the best fellow to begin talking up softball that we have anywhere in the county.

This fellow we have in mind can get the boys started (and he can keep 'em going too.)

Let's all get together and see if we can't organize two or three teams here in Andover!

WE don't know where the Army has shipped our old friend "Cabe" but it must have been a long way as we haven't even received a card from him lo these many days. We didn't exactly get floored at the news of your marriage "Cabe," we knew for many years that you had that certain look in your eye. But honey, "Corpy" we would like to hear if you are still alive and how it seems to feel sort of marriagable like so many of we oldtimers back in the sticks do.

IT HAS been a long time since Andover folks have had the opportunity to absorb any local original poetry but this poem written by an unknown author, that is he won't admit he wrote it, was handed us by our genial friend Kirk Ruger. It was in his hand writing, he seemed to be pretty well acquainted with how it rhymed, etc. but he won't admit a doggone thing, so you folks can be the judge. This is it:

"Hitler and the Devil"

Old Hitler called the devil
Upon the phone one day
And the telephone girl listened
To all they had to say.

"Hello," she heard Old Hitler's voice
"Is old Satan at home?
Just tell him this is Hitler
Who wants him on the phone."

"Hello," the devil said to Hitler,
And Hitler said "How are you?
I'm raising here a hell on earth,
So just tell me what to do."

"What can I do," the devil said,
"My dear old Hitler Bill,
If there's a thing that I can do
To help I surely will."

Old Hitler says "You listen
And I will try to tell
The way that I am running things
On earth is a modern hell.

I have saved for this for many years
And have started out to kill
This will be a modern job you bet,
Leave it to old Hitler's will.

My army went to Belgium,
Shooting women and children down,
We shot up all her country
And blew up all her towns.

I started out for Paris
With the aid of poison gas
The Belgiums, doggone' em, stopped us,
And would not let us pass.

My submarines are devils,
You ought to see them fight,
They go sneaking thru the stormy seas
And sink the ships on sight.

I was running things to suit me
Until a year or so ago
When a man named President Roosevelt
Told me I had better go slow.

But I didn't listen to him
And he's coming after me
With a million U. S. soldiers
From their homes across the sea.

This is why I called you Satan,
For I want advice from you
I know that you would tell me
Just what I ought to do."

"My dear old Adolph Hitler
There is not much for us to tell
For the U. S. will make it hotter
Than I can for you in hell.

I have been a mean old devil,
But not half as mean as you
And the minute you get down here
I'll give the job to you.

I'll be waiting for your coming,
I'll keep the fires all bright,
I'll have your room all ready
When the U. S. begins to fight!

The boys from U. S. will get you,
I've nothing more to tell,
Hang up the phone and get your hat
And meet me down in hell."

THIS bit of "Nuisance Tax" was handed in a few days ago but it has taken us all week to try and find out the outside track inside our minds. It goes like this—or does it:?

We bought the noble green-faced sticker,
With two bucks-nine we paid the car tax,
Found the sticker with the stick side wrong side,
Found the picture side with not any stick side.
So to get the picture side outside,
Some put glue on the picture side inside,
Stuck it on the windshield stick side outside.
But me, I've put picture side inside.
Why put the picture side outside?
Let the Gov'ment turn it inside outside,
Or let 'em take the outside wrong side.
