ANOTHER SURPRISE IN THE REXVILLE FIELD.

Claim Made that Dougherty & Co. No. 1 Will be a 50 Barrel Well.

Another surprise party was pulled off in the Rexville oil field this week, when the Dougherty No. 1 on the Keenan was drilled in. It is claimed by oil men and those who should be judges that it is the best well yet drilled in, and is reported that it will start off at 100 barrels, tho if it does one-half that amount it is much better property than a farrow cow. This well is south of the Marsh a few rods, but the Andover company, Tracy & Co., have territory almost surrounding it, which this well has proven good. In this well fifty-one feet of oil producing sand was found and the well filled up rapidly. Oil men are anxiously awaiting to see the effect of the shot upon this sand. There is no doubt but that it is a fine well.

THROWN DOWN EMBANKMENT.

George Rumpff, Shawmut Fireman, Seriously Injured.

He was brought back to his brother Fred's house, where he resides, and Dr. Langley summoned. But little could be done for him and he still remains unconscious. Rumpff formerly lived in Wellsville.

The funeral was held Thursday afternoon from the house, Rev. Fred Berry and Rev. G. M. Janes officiating.

Farther Lights.

Beautiful and unique sovenir invitations in the form of a "Tea-pot" called together a large number of the "Farther Lights" at the home of Mrs. R. B. Burrows Wednesday evening. A very pleasant social gathering and the serving of tea and wafers made a very auspicous opening of the years work. It is hoped the "Farther Lights" may be even more successful than ever during the coming winter.

They Looked Nice.

The fire laddies, or rather some of them, looked so nice, all dressed up in the Citizens' Hose Company's old clothes, repressed and renovated, ready for the Cuba parade, yesterday, that our lady compositors threatened to go on a strike if they couldn't accompany them to the station, so if the NEWS is a little later than usual this week lay it to the girls.

A Big Gusher.

A Bad Accident.

Former Hornellsville Boy Had Foot Crushed at Carrolton—Amputation Became Necessary.

Louis Rees, a former Hornellsville boy, residing on Loder street in that city, but now a brakeman for the Erie R. R. Co., at Carrolton, met with a painful disaster Monday morning, which resulted in the loss of his right foot at about the ankle. While in the discharge of his duties as trainman, Rees attempted to board the train, when his foot slipped and he was accidently thrown under the wheels which passed over his right foot. The engine and caboose were detached from the train and the injured man speedily removed to the Emergency Hospital at Salamanca where the injured member was amputated. A brother and a sister of the unfortunate man went to Carrolton and brought him home. Mr. Rees has a large circle of friends in this section who sincerely sympathize with him in his trouble.

His many friends in this vicinity are pleased to know that he has fully recovered from the illness that compelled him to give up his clerical labors several years ago.—Cuba Free Press.

Resurrected.

Citizens' Hose Co. No. 1, of this village, have at last really come to life, pressed the wrinkles out of their pantaloons, dusted their hats and once more formed in line and become a real live hose company. The invitation issued them by the Whipple Hose Co. of Cuba to attend their parade there yesterday, as their guests, was the immediate cause of this resurrection to activity, tho it has been in the minds of many of its members to do so some time previous. The boys who were present at the parade yesterday are loud in praise of the hospitality of the Whipples, and report a splendid time.

KILLED BY THE CARS

Aged Gentleman Struck By the Kenzua Excursion Train.

JOHN CRONIN THE VICTIM

Started to Walk to Andover Sunday Morning on Railroad Track—Deafness Made it Impossible for Him to Hear the Train

John Cronin, Father of Mrs. P. Mulcahy and brother of Mrs. Mary Tolen, who lived with her about two miles east of this village, met with a terrible death about 11 o'clock Sunday morning.

Mr. Cronin had started down the railroad track for Andover when the Kinzua excursion train came along, running at a high speed as third section of train No. 7. He was discovered by the engineer to be on the track. Mr Cronin was deaf and probably did not hear the approach of the train or the warning blasts of the whistle. The engineer was unable to stop the heavy train and Mr. Cronin was struck, the entire train passing over his body, mutilating it in the most horrible manner. It is doubtful if the aged man ever knew what struck him as death was of course instantaneous.

The body was taken to Fowler's undertaking rooms and cared for until the arrival of Coroner Gillette of Cuba, after which it was taken to the home of his daughter.

Funeral services were held at the Blessed Sacrament Church Tuesday morning. The burial was made at Hornellsville.

Pantomine Social.

DEATH OF EDGAR A. SWEET.

DIED SATURDAY NIGHT OF PARALYSIS OF THE HEART.

Deceased Well Known in Andover, His Wife Being Geo. A. Green's Daughter.

Edgar A. Sweet died rather suddenly at his home in Wellsville Saturday night at 8 o'clock, paralysis of the heart being the cause of his death. Mr. Sweet had been sick since Tuesday with an ulcerated sore throat, but was so much better on Saturday that he was sitting up in bed when his physician, Dr. Witter, called on him at 7:30 in the evening. Twenty minutes afterwards he suddenly expired, death being due to heart trouble. Deceased was born in Wellsville, Sept. 4, 1864, and was a son of Lebbeus Sweet, a well known resident of that town. He was married to Miss Lizzie Green of Andover Nov. 29, 1887, who survives him, together with three children, Fannie, aged fourteen; Lebbeus, aged thirteen; and Mary, aged eleven.

The funeral was held Monday from the house at 2 o'clock, Dr. Ward T. Sutherland officiating, and the remains buried in the Farnum cemetery.

FIREMEN AT CUBA.

Citizen's Hose Company Royally Entertained.

GUESTS OF THE WHIPPLES.

Andover Boys Come Back With First Prize Money—A Splendid Time Enjoyed—Nothing Came Up to Mar the Pleasures of the Day.

When we went to press last week the Citizens Hose Company had not returned from Cuba and the details of the Firemens Review were not published. The hose boys return with the highest praise for their hosts, claiming that "Free Cuba" is certainly "it."

The heavy rain at about five o'clock put a dampner on the outside sports but not soon enough but that the citizens won out in the false alarm and got first water, and took first prize in the fat and lean men's drill. L. A. Burrows (225), C. B. Lever (227), J. E. Cannon (108), Ed Kinney (75), carrying off the honors. They put up a perfect four and "Col." Bundy never lost a beat. Lew was just ready to carry off first money in the fat mans race (for firemen only) when the rain came on.

"Bill" Snyder and little brother "Dib" were acting as a Rochambeau Committee and we think landed a few girls for the silk factory.

"Zee Count" couldn't go much to his and the company's disappointment.

Earnie Stearns said he could never have kept up with the hose cart had he not been behind and hung on. He made a great finish, but by some mistake he thought the hydrant was in the St. James hotel instead of in the street on the opposite side.

"Cliff" Vars, winning ways took the Ladies' Relief Corpse and he was helped to beans twice and John Fox didn't get any "meat" for they said it was too high.

The chorus work of the company led by "Cannon's" orchestra was of the usual "takey" character and seemed to be appreciated by the crowd, for wherever "our boys" were a crowd was usually around them. They all seem to know how to make a good time for themselves and entertain others.

Treasurer Ricker and Editor Thornton both expressed themselves "that they thought they ought to live in Andover" (with apologies to Fillmore and Cuba).

Did any one see President Lever run for the hose cart when the alarm of fire was given? We think he thought he had to go to Andover for our own cart, he hasn't been seen since.

"Bob" O'Donnell was in Syracuse and couldn't go with the boys, much to the "fairer" disappointment. "Bob" takes it very "Grace" fully.

John Fox seemed to have recovered his usual health (?) and was certainly the handsomest man in line, kind apologies to Ed Kinney.

Editor Latham on a Wild Horse Ranch.

(Times-Republican, Canisteo, N. Y., Sept. 9, '03.)

We dropped off the electric car yesterday afternoon to see E. A. Heseltine's range horses and found him ready to talk when asked if he had any range horses. He has twenty-four horses and three colts, just arrived, and two cars more are enroute to arrive in about ten days. He sells about one hundred a year and gets from $40 to $115 each. He sold 96 last year. Sells mostly to farmers within a radius of ten miles. This is his fifth year at the business and he has sold four hundred and seventy-five. Purchasers break, sell and buy again the next year. Four out of five of his last year's customers had bought of him before: they make money on them. One of his neighbors gave him $75 for a horse and it afterwards sold for $175; another paid $140 for a span that sold for $[illegible]. The Montana range horse has better legs, better lungs and requires less grain than a New York state horse.

SAN FRANCISCO TO NEW YORK.

CHARLES E. NORRIS MAKES THE LONG TRIP ON FOOT.

His Story as Told the NEWS—Has Not Rode a Mile in the Entire Trip—Walks to Benefit His Health.

Andover entertained a novel guest Monday afternoon, and night, of this week in the person of Chas. E. Norris, an old newspaper man walking from San Francisco to New York, his old home. This is his story as told the NEWS by him.

Mr. Norris was working on the Omaha World—Herald, when Wm. J. Bryan was editor-in-chief, and on account of ill health went to the far west, Denver, Col., and San Francisco. The Pacific Coast was not the climate for him, and his physicians advised him to go home, to die, with consumption. Not having the money to purchase transportation, he started out to walk, on the 8th day of August, 1902, reaching Andover Sept. 14, 1903, and expects to be at Jersey City by the 10th of October. He has walked over 7,000 miles in making the journey. Walking seemed to improve his health. He weighed but 96 pounds when he started, now the scales register 136, when he steps on the platform. He stops at depots and tower houses all night, finding the hard floor better to sleep on than beds, and has the name and address of every tower house operator, station agent and depot assistant between San Francisco and here. He will commence a series of articles in the New York Journal as soon as he reaches New York, upon his strange trip. Mr. Norris has a very pleasing bearing, and is every whit a gentleman. He had on when he visited the NEWS office the 67th pair of shoes worn by him since starting.

Mr. Norris wishes to thank the operators and agents on the main line of the Erie for the kind and gentlemanly treatment he has received at their hands, and assures them he will ever hold them in kind remembrance, for without them he could never have made the terrible long walk that is not yet finished.

High School Briefs

SCHOOL NEWS AS TOLD BY OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

After two weeks of successful opening work, all departments in the High School have settled down to conscientious preparation for the January exams. The pupils are very well pleased with the teachers, and in most cases the teachers are pleased with the work of their pupils. This is the best formula to work on, and every indication points to a successful school year.

About 230 pupils are registered in the several departments of the school, and of these, about 31 are non-resident pupils. About the first of October, it is expected that ten more foreign pupils will register in the junior and High school departments.

Of course we're all looking forward to the completion of the new school building. It is so warm and sultry in the school rooms these days that it is wonderful to think that any work can be accomplished.

A red-hot class in astronomy has been organized in the high school department. The class is composed of girls, entirely. 'Tis rumored that one or two of the fair maidens are pursuing the study of the twinkling stars every night. However they have different instructors than in the class at school.

At the regular meeting of the Phi Chapter, Theta Phi fraternity, Monday night, three candidates were initiated into the bewildering mysteries of the order. Those who faced death in tabloid form were: Joseph Lebold, Ray Snyder and William Lynch. The Chapter will hold regular meetings fortnightly.

If appearances count for anything: "Oh! did'nt he ramble!" has become the slogan of the bad boys in the High school department.

That dignified girl's society, Kappa Zeta, will hold a meeting in the school building, the night of Sept. 22. The following program will be rendered. It is earnestly requested that members refrain from humming "Hiawatha" during the "doins."

Answer to roll call by quotation.
