New Shop Course Starts Next Week

The second of a series of Defense courses to be held in Andover Central School will open next week according to Carl Fribolin, head teacher of agriculture and shop, who is supervising the instruction. The major emphasis in this course will be on metal work and farm machinery repair, with a definite unit on welding, both acetylene and electric.

Other units in the course will include forge and blacksmith work, maintenance and repair of the various types of farm machinery and possibly some work on the metal lathe.

The present course on truck, tractor and auto repairing will be continued to a limited extent for those who wish additional training along this line.

Brinton J. Baker of Alfred Station will continue as instructor in the new course.

Annual Meeting of County W. R. C.

The Allegany County Federation of Women's Relief Corps, auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic, held their annual meeting Friday, April 10th at Angelica.

The morning session was called to order at 10 o'clock, Mrs. Lelia Livermore of Andover, county president presiding in a very gracious manner.

The routine of business included reports of the several corps represented, and several items of business. A fine dinner and social hour at midday was enjoyed by the members.

The afternoon session convened at 2 p. m., with a pleasing program presented by members from the several corps, Mrs. Helen Beach of Andover in charge.

A brief business hour included an invitation for the next county meeting to be held with the corps at Friendship, which was accepted.

The Angelica ladies were most cordial hostesses and gave their visiting members an enjoyable day.

There were about 80 members in attendance.

Andover was represented by Mrs. H. S. Livermore, Mrs. C. S. Reynolds, Mrs. Effie Burbank, Mrs. Dan Witter, Mrs. Frank Davis, Mrs. Grace Wagner, Mrs. L. G. Coleman, Mrs. Althea Hoagland, Mrs. Florence Bines, Mrs. Orren Beach, Mrs. Lottie Drew, Miss Mary White, Mrs. Rider, Mrs. Robert Church, Mrs. J. H. Backus.

Mrs. Margaret Clary of Syracuse has been engaged as county home demonstration, succeeding Mrs. Eleanor P. Milliman, agent for three years past, who has resigned. Mrs. Clary will begin her new work in about two weeks, it is expected.

Mrs. Clary is a graduate of Syracuse University and is now engaged in home service work in Syracuse for a gas company, following similar work in Geneva.

Bolivar Woman Observes 100th Birthday

Mrs. Mary Bliss of Bolivar observed her 100th birthday at the home of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Walter T. Bliss Tuesday, April 14.

Mrs. Bliss was born in Alfred, the daughter of Stephen and Elmina O'Dell Crandall, but soon afterwards moved with her parents to Allentown and since has lived in the vicinity of Allentown and Bolivar.

She is the grandmother of Publisher Hubert D. Bliss of the Allegany County Democrat.

RANDOM SHOTS By RALPH SHAFF

At last the Rod and Gun Club has buckled on the sword and under the leadership of President George Sackett are going to start things rolling. First the club rooms under the A & P store will be cleaned up and put in shape so that the members of the club will have a place to go to get off the street. A caretaker will be in charge each week day evening and only qualified members will be admitted.

At present there is no other place in town where pool and other games may be played. It is hoped that those interested in Rod and Gun Club activities will contact President Sackett, Vice President Victor Hoagland or Treasurer C. C. Backus or R. E. Shaff for membership in the club. The age limit is from 18 years up.

Fishing legally opens in Allegany streams Saturday, April 18 and plenty trout have been put in our streams so there should be some fine catches made by fishermen. The minimum length is seven inches, the limit ten fish.

Lake fishing does not open until the first of May and bass July 1st.

The bullheads and big yellow perch are starting to bite up at the ponds and there is no better place to go and get a good outing than at the far side of the dam where level dry ground makes a good picnic spot.

P.S.—If you chance to hook one of those first large mouth bass while after bullheads or perch, please handle it carefully and return it to the water as he is "hot stuff" if the game warden gets you—at least $12.50 worth, so don't say I didn't warn you.

Fishermen took over 200 fine rainbow trout from cold brook streams near Hammondsport on the opening day, Saturday, April 4th.

I will be seeing some of you on some stream Saturday, the 18th.

Yours, R. E. SHAFF

Local Happenings

"Bud" Dolan Writes From Parris Island

Parris Island, S. C.
March 29, 1942.

Dear Mom, Dad and Kids:

I haven't much time to write as it's nearly time for lights out, so I'll hurry and write as much as I can.

We fired for record and Clyde and I both qualified as marksmen. I didn't have a very good day and didn't make sharpshooter, but I'm quite well satisfied to be a marksman. The day after we shot for record we came back to the main station from the rifle range, and we had no sooner unpacked than we found out that the whole platoon had to go on kitchen duty for a week. We finish our duty there next Friday night and I won't be a bit sorry because it's a rotten job. We have to work about 14 hours a day and I'm thankful it's only for a week. I'm one of the tinware wiper officers and it's a honey of a job, altho there are harder jobs than that, so I can't kick.

When we get out of the mess hall we start bayonet practice, which will probably last about a week and then we will probably be transferred to Quantico or some other Marine camp. Some of the fellows who took the test for radio and communications are going to be sent to a school at Quantico and I'm hoping to be one of them.

The first chance I get I'll have some pictures taken and send them. I don't know when that will be but probably within a couple of weeks. Tell the kids to write. Love,

"BUD"

(This is the Marine's poem) —
A poetic Marine composed it quite a while ago:

"The Best In Service"

You can have your Army khaki
You can have your Navy blue
But there is still another fighter
I'll introduce to you
His uniform is different,
The best you've ever seen
The Germans call him "Devil Dog"
But his real name is Marine.
He trains at Parris Island
The land that God forgot
Where the sand is forty inches deep
And the sun is scorching hot.
He has set many a table
And many a dish he's dried
He has learned to make a bed
And a steady broom can guide.
He has peeled a million onions,
And twice as many spuds,
And then he spends his leisure time
Just washing out his duds.
And now little girlie, take a tip
I'm giving it to you
Just pick yourself a Marine
There is nothing he can't do.
And when he gets to Heaven
To St. Peter he will tell
Another Marine reporting "Sir,"
I've served my time in hell.

Correction

The name of Joseph Hemmer, who was elected second assistant foreman of the Andover fire department at their annual meeting April 3rd was unintentionally omitted from the list of officers in last week's News.

S. D. B. Ladies' Aid Hold April Meeting

The members of the S. D. Baptist Ladies' Aid Society held their April meeting at the home of Mrs. J. L. Williams Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. F. S. Potter presided at the business meeting.

A fine waffle supper and social hour was enjoyed by a company of 14 present.

W. C. T. U. Enjoys Day Guests of Alfred Unit

The Andover Woman's Christian Temperance Union enjoyed a fine day Wednesday as dinner guests of the Alfred W. C. T. U. at the home of Mrs. E. V. Greene. There were over 20 in attendance.

A splendid chicken dinner was served at midday and a social hour enjoyed, followed by an interesting program of musical numbers and readings by the members, in charge of the president, Mrs. H. S. Thayer. The Alfred W. C. T. U. ladies were very gracious hostesses.

The second lesson in "Reconditioning of Furniture," will be given by Mrs. Clarke of Otto, at the Village Hall Tuesday, April 21 at 10:30 a. m. Tureen dinner at noon in the Legion hall.

Several who were to take this lesson were unable to be present for the first lesson. We hope they will all come for the second lesson.

WANDERING WITH WILLIE

ONE day last week several speed records were broken all in about four minutes (so we hear). The whole thing started when one fellow in our fair village decided that so long as Mama was away he would get a little extra "shut-eye" and remained in bed. Papa, however decided that it was time this same young fellow was up, but being busy told this young fellow's younger brother to go dig him out. 'Nuff sed. Down Greenwood went the young fellow and set his bike near the front steps, pointing back up town and ready to mount in a hurry (wise boy). He then went in and filled a glass with Andover's famous cold spring water, went in the bedroom and dumped the glass (and he didn't throw it on the floor either). He then headed back for the garage on the bike, with "big brother" coming so fast behind him that his vest pockets were dipping sand. — And then, doggone it, young brother stayed rather close to pop every time he went out to pump gas or to go up the street, so we don't know yet whether "revenge was sweet."

AND then there's the enthusiastic villager who went up with the firemen Monday to fight grass fire and got so interested in his job that he overran the fire—result, not only are his trousers now cuffless but rather short as well. We don't know who it was (or do we)?

THIS pleasant bit of poetry was written way back in the days of World War No. 1, but has been revamped and brought up to World War 2. Perhaps some of you boys in camp could set it to music and make a doggone good marching tune out of it. Anyway here it is:

Glory Hallelujah!

Oh, may that Beast, the Fuhrer, float
On open sea in open boat,
In bitter cold, without a coat—
Glory Hallelujah!

Without a compass, sail or oar,
A million miles away from shore
Where mighty waves beat high and roar—
Glory Hallelujah!

Sharks rend his boat from stem to stern,
A big whale gulp him down in turn
And the devil get the whole concern,
Glory Hallelujah!

Oh may that Beast, the Fuhrer dwell
In darkest pits of deepest hell
And gnash his teeth and groan and yell—
Glory Hallelujah!

And 'mid his roars and frantic cries,
Oh may eternal ashes rise
And blow forever in his eyes—
Glory Hallelujah!

In burning brimstone may he be
While little devils dance in glee;
Then lock the door and lose the key,
Glory Hallelujah!
