SAYING PRETTY THINGS.

The Reporter Pays Pastor Harrington a Compliment.

Rev. Chas. H. Harrington, pastor of the Baptist church was called to Wellsville Sunday to take the place of Rev. W. C. Gates of the Baptist church at a union service. The Wellsville Reporter has the following to say of the service.

"The Baptist church was packed to the doors Sunday night to listen to the Temperance sermon delivered by the Rev. C. H. Harrington of Andover. Owing to the illness of the pastor, Mr. Harrington with very little time for preparation came and gave a most excellent sermon on the subject. Mr. Harrington is a very pleasing speaker, and tells in a forcible way the truth he has to speak. The sermon was illustrated by many most excellent and appropriate pictures, and under the masterly description of Mr. Harrington carried conviction to the minds of those who saw and heard. The people went away believing they had been richly repaid for their attendance at the service. It will surely aid very materially the no license cause. No one after seeing and hearing the sermon last night would ever dare look into the looking glass again if he voted the license ticket. Mr. Harrington will be given a very cordial welcome and complimentary audience should he again speak in Wellsville."

Five Ways to Cheat.

There are these five ways of badness in paint:

(1) stuffed-out with chalk, or something like that;

(2) barytes, better than chalk, but no covering to it; nobody know it's there;

(3) benzine in the oil, or water, or other such stuffing.

(4) too thin—too much liquid, whatever it is, for the solid;

(5) short measure;

MISS ROSE PATTON.

The Passing of One of Andover's Estimable Young Ladies.

Miss Rose Catherine Patton, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Patton of this town, died at her home about three miles south of this village Sunday evening Oct. 11th in her twenty-fourth year. Death was caused by consumption. During her illness of nearly two years she was a patient sufferer, always having a kind word and smile for all. She was a bright, genial, young woman and had made many warm friends, who sincerely mourn her loss.

The funeral was held at the Blessed Sacrament Church Wednesday morning, where a large circle of friends congregated to pay their last respects to one, who was loved by all. The pall bearers were Peter Joyce, James Dean, Bartley Joyce, Peter Garvin and Edward Horan, schoolmates and associates. She is survived by her father and mother, one brother, John, three sisters, Mis. Michael Cannon, Mrs. Ellsworth Henry and Anna Patton, who nursed her thru her entire illness.

HAD TO SIT UP ALL NIGHT.

SOME UNPLEASANT EXPERIENCES AS WELL AS PLEASING ONES.

Lyceum Operatic Co. Finds a Village on the Boom so Tkoroly that Every Bed in the Place Had an Occupant.

C. W. Pickett, manager of the Lyceum Operatic Co. in a personal letter to the writer, writen enroute on the "Clover Leaf" R. R. says they are having a "great run for their money. Yesterday on account of late trains we were obliged to make three drives of ten miles each. I gave one man a ten dollar note to get us ten miles in one hour. Had to make it or miss last nights date." We clip the following from a Portland, Indiana paper:

The members of the Central Lyceum Bureau Concert Company had a disagreeable experience in Portland last night. They had traveled since early Wednesday morning, coming from Brookfield, Ohio, and arrived here on the G. R. & I. train at midnight. They were worn out with the long ride and were anxious to get some rest; but a diligent search of the city hotels and restaurants failed to disclose an empty bed, even the couches, and at some places tables, being occupied. They finally decided that they could but make the best of an unpleasant situation and finished the night in the easy chairs at the Merchants Hotel, leaving in the morning for Pennville, where they will give a concert this evening.

The company fills one of the numbers of the lecture course billed for Pennville, and promises to be one of the best attractions on the list, as they come highly recommended. It is hoped that they will not harbor an ill-feeling toward Portland because the city was so crowded that they could not be accomodated.

LADIES ELECT OFFICERS.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid Society Doing Good Work.

Wednesday afternoon and evening was a great day for the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church. At the business meeting in the afternoon the following officers were elected for the coming year:

President, Mrs. J. D. Comstock; First Vice President, Mrs. R. A Pease; Second Vice President, Mrs. L. A. Burrows; Secretary, Mrs. Roxie Hann; Treasurer, Mrs. Inez Common; Collectors, Mrs Carrie Hunt and Mrs. Margaret Bundy.

Rev. Adams thanked the ladies for the way they had repaired the church and parsonage and said some very encouraging words. Each member of the Society felt as tho they had been well paid for the work they had done.

The Home of Honest People.

Ed. Everett says Andover people are the most exemplary for honesty in the world. Recently leaving an umbrella by the side of a store building in this village where he was on an errand inside, someone borrowed it. He calculated the expense of a new rain protector, but on going to the store the next night found his umbrella awaiting him just where it had been left the night before. Mr. Everett figures that in no other town in this county would that umbrella have been returned.

They Raised His Salary.

The Presbyterian society's year's work closed last Sunday. Under the leadership of pastor H. D. Bacon the church has been greatly prospered during the past 12 months, and in appreciation of his excellent services the society voted a surprise to him in the way of an increase of $100 a year to his salary for his services the coming year.

SOUR GRAPES NOT RELISHED.

ANOTHER DIG ON CITIZEN'S HOSE COMPANY

With New Men and New Uniforms Andover's Hose Company Might Come to the Front.

We take the following from Wednesdays Wellsville Reporter:

"The Citizens Hose Co. had an invitation to attend the Firemen's parade at Wellsville to-day, but was unable to go owing to the fact that their uniforms are in a very bad condition and hardly fit to go on parade. Many of the men in the company have served since its organization and it is really desirable that some new and younger blood be gotten into; the ranks in order to keep up the interest then with the purchase of new uniforms the Citizen's Hose Co. will again come to the front."

That the Citizens Hose Company need new uniforms there is no question, and Andover people should feel a little ashamed of the fact. But that does not hide the fact that the Reporter is still nursing the old sore it has cherished in its bosom the past few years against the members of the Citizens Hose Co. Now will this sarcastic thrust at the company tend to calm the feelings of the members toward certain Wellsville gentlemen who always make it a point to throw dirt if there is half an opportunity. The members of Citizens Hose Company to-day will average up with any company in the county. In fact it has been necessary to transfer most of the old memberships to the honary list in order to keep the quota of active members below the limit.

About all there is to a hose company is men in uniforms, therefore our Wellsville neighbors could not more effectually have said Citizens Hose Company of this place amounted to nothing.

If the author of this article in the Reporter will remember only a few weeks since he was the guest of the writer in the Citizens Hose Co's. rooms, and made the remark that the boys showed more interest in hose matters in Andover than they did in most places. Lack of interest isn't what most people accuse the Citizens Hose Company of. There is a deal more complaint in Andover to-day because of the interest at the hose rooms than because of any apothy. Why didn't the Reporter tell its readers of the prizes won at the Cuba Convention by the Citizens Hose Company of Andover? It was profuse in its write up of that convention, but utterly ignored the Andover Company who took every prize for which it contested.

ALFRED vs. NIAGARA.

The Alfred University Foot Ball Team Whips Niagara University's Eleven by a Score of 12 to 6.

A very interesting foot ball game was played on Alfred University's Athletic grounds Wednesday. The home team trimming up the Niagara University boys to the tune of 12 to 6.

Among those present from Andover were, Herbert Snyder, who was the efficient referee of the game, Will E. Snyder, G. E. Burdick, James Cannon, Rev. E. J. Rengel, Joe Liebold and Leslie Haun.

The Andover boys were much disappointed in not seeing Andrew Kennedy with the Niagara boys. He was temporarily laid on the shelf in a game a day or two previous and was unable to be present.

To Vote on License.

To the voters of the town of Andover, N. Y.

Please take notice that the following proposition will be submitted to the electors of the town of Andover, N. Y. at the bi-ennial town meeting to be held in said town at the date of the General Election, Nov. 3, 1903.

Question 1. Selling liquor to be drunk on the premises where sold.—Shall any corporation, association, copartnership or person be authorized to traffic in liquors under the provisions of subdivision one of section eleven of the liquor tax law, namely, by selling liquor to be drunk on the premises where sold, in the town of Andover, N. Y.?

Question 2. Selling liquor not to be drunk on the premises where sold.—Shall any corporation, association, copartnership or person be authorized to traffic in liquors under the provisions of subdivision two of section eleven of the liquor tax law, namely, by selling liquors not to be drunk on the premises where sold, in the town of Andover, N. Y.?

Question 3. Selling liquor as a pharmacist on a physician's prescription.—Shall any corporation, association, copartnership or person be authorized to traffic in liquors under subdivision one of section eleven of the liquor tax law, but only in connection with the business of keeping a hotel, in the town of Andover, N. Y., if the majority of the votes cast on the first question submitted are in the negative?

RECEPTION AND SUPPER.

THE M. E. CHURCH GIVE THEIR NEW PASTOR WELCOME.

A Large Number of Andover People, of all Denominations Attended, Good Will and Good Cheer the Keynote.

The chicken pie supper given Wednesday evening by the ladies of the M. E. church drew a crowd, from which they cleared $25.00. After the supper an informal reception was tendered the new pastor and his estimable wife, Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Adams. Impromptu remarks were made by numerous Andover citizens and the cordial hand of welcome was extended by all Andover people, whether priviledged to be at the reception or not.

Four of the speakers were comparatively new residents of Andover and the words of commendation and praise for Andover and her people coming from them was a pleasure to all. Surely Andover people are thankful that our new citizens are pleased with our village, and are also delighted that it has been our privilege to gain as residents such valuable additions to our societies as those who spoke so encouragingly Wednesday evening. Miss Barton Shaw of Iowa gave two fine selections of music that added much to the pleasure of the evening.

A PRETTY COMPLIMENT.

What a Neighboring Paper Says of Our New Methodist Clergyman.

Saturday's Wellsville Reporter contained an excellent half tone of Rev. George William Adams, Andover's new Methodist pastor, accompanied with the following complimentary lines:

Rev. Geo. Wm. Adams, whom the recent conference at Olean assigned to the pastorate of the First Methodist church at Andover, is one of the brightest men in the pulpits of to-day. Mr. Adams came from the People's Methodist church at Olean, where he gave the most satisfactory service to the congregation. Besides being a preacher of great power, Mr. Adams has had considerable experience on the lecture platform and is well known all thru the United States He was at one time connected with the Western Chautauqua bureau at LaGrange, Ind., and the Winchell Lecture bureau of Chicago and among his subjects handled on the platform are the following lectures: "John the Baptist," "Hearod the Great," "Elizabeth the Great," and "Susanna the Good," "An Old Time Crank," "The King is Dead: Long Live the King," a popular lecture giving food for thought and inspiration to action, while not lacking in humor. His lecture on "Our Wives" is a happy blending of hard common sense and superb witicism upon our home rulers.

Mr. Adams' services as a lecturer will very likely be in good demand.
