Take Notice.

At the first meeting of the directors of the Andover Stamping Company it was arranged that parties holding their subscriptions subject to call should have the privilege of making payment in full and receive in return certificates bearing dividends without further delay, and as the buildings are now well under construction and new machinery arriving, it becomes necessary to ask for another payment from those who are Preferred Stock Holders. Not knowing how many will respond to this notice, will state, if a sufficient amount is not raised to meet the present requirements, it will be necessary to make an assessment in order that there be no delay in carrying on the work, therefore, parties desiring dividends at the earliest moment will please make their deposits at either bank, or if further information is desired, you will please see W. B. Bundy at the bank of A. M. Burrows.

A surprise party was held at P. E. Caples' last (Thursday) night. Particulars next week.

Chas. Gustavison expects to leave for Providence, R. I., about Nov. 10th where he will make his future home. Sorry to see Charley go.

It is probable that there will be no "Corwin Hill news" in the voluminous publication which hails from Alfred this week owing to our local editor being slightly indisposed. He's hoping however that Mrs. Elster will soon be able to wield the repotter's pen again.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Caples' baby who came to live with them last week is getting to be quite a large boy. He has grown so fast that this week he commenced to attend school.

Our cheese factory (Stratton) makes 23 cheese each time and they weigh 40 pounds each They began last week making every other day. This is the only factory in the country that has not sold any cheese for less than 10 cents and the patrons don't have to wait two or three months for their pay either. We should be glad to hear of any who can beat this record.

An error in the date of the library meeting for November 11 was made in last weeks NEWS. Remember the meeting is next Wednesday evening.

A DOUBLE FUNERAL.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Reimann Die but Two Days Apart.

LIVED 40 YEARS AT GREENWOOD.

Heart Disease and Pneumonia Cause the Sudden Death of an Aged and Much Respected Couple.

Valentine Reimann of Franklinville, N. Y., was taken suddenly ill last Monday. His daughter, Mrs. Jesse Hunt, was telegraphed for and went to his home election day. Saturday death relieved him of his suffering. His aged wife was taken seriously ill with pneumonia—undoubtedly caused by exhaustion and exposure in caring for her husband,—about the time of Mr. Reimann's death and died Monday.

Valentine Reimann.

Valentine Reimann was a son of Phillip L. and Maria O. Reimann and was born in Windesheim, Prussia, Germany, Mar. 26th, 1828. He came to this country with his parents when he was about 11 years of age, the family settling in Buffalo. Dec. 24, 1851, he was married to Elizabeth Madden Lawrence of Milo, Yates Co., N. Y. To them six children were born, one of which died some years ago. Four girls and one son survives. About the year 1858 he moved to Greenwood, N. Y., where for 40 years he was engaged in the merchantile business. They moved to Machias a few years ago to be near their son, and from there moved to Franklinville last April, where they were comfortably located in the house of their son, E. J. Reimann, on Chestnut street. Mr. Reiman served three years in the Rebelion, having been a member of Company H. 141st N. Y. Volunteers. He has been a member of the M. E. church for many years. Was a member of Urania Lodge F. & A. M., also of Phillips Post G. A. R. of Machias.

Elizabeth Reimann.

Elizabeth M. Lawrence Reimann was born in the town of Milo, Yates Co., N. Y., July 19, 1829. She was a daughter of Silas H. and Caroline Lawrence. Was married to Valentine Reimann Dec. 24, 1851.

Of the six children born to them five survive. Mrs. Chas. Mindis, Ord, Neb.; Mrs. B. B. Freeman, Pontanelle, Iowa; Mrs. Marion Ingalls, Buffalo; Mrs. J. F. Hunt, Andover; E. J. Reimann, Franklinville.

The double funeral of this aged and much esteemed couple was held at the M. E. church at Franklinville Wednesday at one o'clock p. m.

NEW SALVATION ARMY OFFICERS.

Adjutants Elmer and Mamie Johnson Have Charge of the Work at Elmira.

New officers have taken charge of the Salvation Army work in Elmira. Adjutants Elmer and Mamie Johnson have just arrived in Elmira to conduct the local branch.

Adjutant Elmer Johnson has had nearly fifteen year's experience in the work. He will make changes in the men's lodging house and other branches and it is proposed to do better work for the unfortunate men this winter. The second-hand store will also receive more attention and after this week will be open from one to five o'clock every afternoon.

Adjutant Mamie Johnson will have full charge of the work among the poor people, assisted by Sergeant Baker, of Corning. Services will be held every evening in the army hall.

Andover people will remember the Johnsons, as they conducted revival meetings at the Baptist church last winter.

Shawmut Railroad Nearly Done.

The Pittsburg Shawmut & Northern railroad from Hornellsville to Olean is nearly completed and trains will be running on regular train schedule. The underground crossing of the Erie tracks at Friendship has been a very difficult job but the rails are now laid there and cars have been run over it.

THE SUPERVISORS IN SESSION.

The County Law Makers of Allegany County Hold Meeting At Belmont.

OFFICIAL CANVASS MADE ON TUESDAY.

H. A. Barney Unanimously Elected Chairman and Charles Stillman Appointed Clerk. The Committees.

The twenty-nine supervisors of Allegany county met for its annual meeting at the court house in Belmont Monday afternoon at three o'clock.

Chas. Stillman, clerk of the former board, called the meeting to order, and the following supervisors answered to roll call:

Republicans 25, Democrats 3, Prohi 1.

H. A. Barney of Belmont was unanimously chosen chairman of the board, and Chas. Stillman clerk with Fred E. Gleason of Ceres as assistant clerk.

After presenting the usual communications from the State Comptroller stating the amount of state tax to be 13-100 mills on the assessed valuation of $14,717,291, the following committees were announced:

Canvas the Votes.

Tuesday morning the member of the board met and organized as a Board of Canvassers to canvess the vote of Allegany County. Hon. E. J. Norton was chosen as Chairman and Clarence Ricker as clerk. Attorney Eldyn Reynolds appered before the board in behalf of the County Democratic Committe asking the board to recount the vote in the town of West Almond where the Republican candidate for Supervisor was elected by one plurality. Hon. Jesse S. Phillips appeared for the Republican County Committee. As the board had no right to order a recount the figures as sent by the board of inspectors were called correct.

WELLSVILLE NEWS

Flagrant Violations of the Excise Law.

CHIEF OF POLICE TALLYS ONE.

Wellsville Blessed(?) With Knockers, on Improvements, Spicy News from Our Regular Correspondent.

Flagrant violations of the excise law were made by some of the venders of the liquid that inebriates on Sunday according to the statement of the pastor of the M. E. church at the union meeting Sunday evening. The attention of the chief of police was called to the fact, and he saw with his own eyes the violations, but refused to do anything to stop it. What is a policeman for if not to see that men do not violate the law? What does he draw his salary for? To give protection to such as these? The officers of the law should be made to see that if they do not do their duty, something real heavy will drop. We do not believe in being Puritanical, but if we have laws let us see to it that they are enforced. Wellsville is a good town; much cleaner than most towns of its size; few of the things that disgrace a town occur on our streets, but when things occur that are direct violations of the law, the executives should see that they are stopped. If they do not then they should be made to feel that they are breaking their oath to perform their duties and should be removed from office and men put in their places.

To the surprise of all, our chief of police did venture to interrupt a drunken row on our famous street Saturday night. A colored gentleman, who had filled up on poor liquors, became to hilarious to suit the proprietor of the dive known as Dyer's on Loder street, and a free fight was indulged in. How it ever happened that the chief found it out in time to get near it before it was over is a mystery, but we are told he did, and took the colored gentleman before "your honor," Judge Torrey, who sentenced him to the county jail for twenty days. He was from Angelica. Another man, a citizen from Wellsville, was fined five dollars, and set at liberty to continue his beastly work. Look out you citizens of Angelica when you get before the judge of Wellsville's criminal court, for you can not vote in this district.

Some people would not be satisfied if they had a corner lot on Broadway in Heaven, free from taxation. Some of our citizens have been crying for improvements on the streets, and then as soon as the improvements are made sue the town for damages to their property. The majority of the taxpayers had asked for the improvements, and the compliance with their wishes they were made, when, lo! the ever unhappy and dissatisfied begin to howl. The tenders caused the improvements to be torn out from the front of the property of these disgrunted ones. Well, what next?

An effort is being made to locate a canning factory in this village. If sufficient capital can be interested in the movement it will come. We trust our citizens who have capital to invest will bring this industry among us. We certainly need all the industries possible to give employment to our citizens who need this kind of work. Then it would bring others to our town and thus help to build up our village.

It used to be 8 dollars fine for getting drunk, but since election it costs 5 dollars before the Justice. Another victim other than those mentioned above got too much tangle foot in to suit nigot watchman Squires, and so he pulled the poor fellow in and Torrey let him go after paying five dollars.

The Purdy mirjoe book case is referred to J. C. Lee. Purdy is trying to bleed the Erie again for refusal to sell five hundred mile books. Whether or no he will get any money from the old reliable remains to be seen.

Rev. Mr. Adams, professor of elocution and history of Hiram College, Ohio, preached at the Disciples church Sunday morning. He made a favorable impression upon those that heard him. He is expected to supply the pulpit until the new year.

The M. E. Sunday School are to have their Rally Day service Sunday. They are planning for a good time, and expect a large attendance and an impetus to work for the coming winter months.

The new homes of Church and Wilson on Madison street are very pretty and attractive. The families have moved in and are ready to greet their friends.

Rev. Mr. Buch, minister of the German Lutheran church, is very low with an affection of the heart. No services were held in that church yesterday.

Fred Ward has added some new cases to his already well equipped jewelry store. They are of the latest designs. Fred is bound to be to the front.

Dr. Kinney's practice has increased so much that he has secured a driver and office assistant. He certainly is a very skillful physician.

Mrs. Mead Shepherd who suffered a stroke of paralysis some time ago is improving.

Great Harvest and Entertainment Excursion to Buffalo Thursday, Nov. 19.

The election is over, the harvest is ended, and every one along the line of the popular Erie Railroad are now ready for a pleasure trip to the "Queen City of the Lakes" to visit the theatres, and witness the display in a great city of the approaching holiday season. The tickets will be good two days to return. Half fare for children. The special feature of the day will be a visit to the new Historical Society Building at the Park. Don't forget the day. Nov. 19th. Train will leave Andover at 6:15 a. m. Fare round trip $1.50.
