Buy Oil Lease

Verne L. Christman of Wellsville, formerly of Bolivar, William A. Blender of Friendship and Mrs. F. W. Burrows of Andover, operating as the Utter Oil Company have purchased of Richardson, Murphy & Company of Wellsville a lease of the Brown farm, Lot 122, town of Alma, covering about 55 acres. There is a good depth of sand and the lease is surrounded by producing wells. There has been no drilling on the lease for a number of years.

The new owners plan to develop the property by laying out and drilling 20 five-spots, over a period of years. The development work will begin within a short time. The property will be operated in connection with another lease the Utter Oil Company owns in that vicinity.

Blackman—Marten

Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Marten of Ward Road, North Tonawanda, announce the marriage of their daughter, Geraldine L. to Jesse Malcolm Blackman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Blackman, Sr. of Hinsdale, N. Y. The wedding took place Saturday evening, August 15th at 7:30 o'clock at St. John's Lutheran church at St. Johnsburg, N. Y., the Rev. J. W. Thiemecke officiating.

The altar decorations were palms and gladioli. Mrs. J. Walter Thiemecke sang "O Lord We At Thy Altar Stand," with Aug. B. Heubner at the organ. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a princess gown of white satin with a long train, long sleeves and buttons down the back, her veil fell from a headpiece of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of roses and baby breath tied with small ribbons.

Mrs. Arlene Marten, sister of the bride was maid of honor. She wore a blue chiffon dress with short puff sleeves trimmed with lace, with a full skirt and small buttons down the back. She carried a bouquet of pink roses tied with pink ribbons.

Mrs. Kenneth Blackman, Jr., and Miss Jeanette Patterson were bridesmaids. Mrs. Blackman wore a yellow chiffon dress similar to the maid of honor's, she carried a bouquet of yellow roses tied with green ribbon. Miss Patterson wore a pink chiffon dress and carried a bouquet of pink roses tied with blue ribbon. All of the girls wore flowers in their hair. The flower girls were Lois Blackman, sister of the groom and Joyce Marten niece of the bride. Both wore long pink organdie dresses with short puff sleeves, and buttoned down the back and trimmed with small blue bows at the bottom of the skirt. They wore flowers in their hair and carried Colonial bouquets of roses and mixed flowers tied with blue ribbons.

Karlton Randall of Machies acted as best man. The ushers were Wilfred Marten, brother of the bride and Robert Sutherland, uncle of the groom, of Andover. Mrs. Marten, mother of the bride, wore a brown dress with brown accessories. The groom's mother wore a navy blue dress with black accessories. Both wore corsages of pink roses, baby breath and mixed flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Blackman left for a motor trip and upon their return will make their home at 44 Ward Road, North Tonawanda.

And-Well Producers Hold Annual Picnic

The third annual picnic of the And-Well Producers Co-operative, held Sunday at West Greenwood Grange hall was very successful with over 300 in attendance.

Following the dinner an interesting program was enjoyed. The principal speakers were Mrs. Katherine Freeman, who spoke on her experiences at Pearl Harbor, at the time of its attack by the Japs last December; Charles Dumont of Malone, representative of the Bargaining Agency, Glenn Talbot, county president of the Dairymen's League and Clifford Harrington, county Farm Bureau agent. The latter spoke mainly on the advantages of a junior organization and policies dairymen would have to follow during and after the war relative to the efficient use of labor saving devices and the available supply of farm labor.

Green Reunion

The descendants of George Green held their family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Allen of Bennetts Parkway, Hornell, Sunday. A picnic dinner was held on the lawn and a social afternoon enjoyed. Members were present from Perry, Alfred, Almond, Andover and East Valley. The following officers were re-elected for the coming year: Irving Sherwood, Almond, president; Clifford Green, East Valley, vice president and Mrs. Hugh Allen, Hornell, secretary. The reunion will be held next year but because of war conditions no place or date was set.

Harvest Home Very Enjoyable Event

The annual 67th Harvest Home held on the Presbyterian church grounds last Thursday was very well attended, even the weather man did his bit to make the day a success. There were 318 dinner tickets sold.

The feature of the day was a very instructive and interesting description of the geographic structure of Turkey, given by Miss Eleanor DeRemer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John DeRemer. Miss DeRemer has been a mathematics instructor in Turkey for the past six years and has acquired a first hand knowledge of the country and its people, which she described in a very pleasing and comprehensive manner.

Another interesting feature was disclosed in the attendance of the various guests. Mrs. Floyd Richardson has attended each of the 67 annual dinners. William F. Snyder, William Pease and Henry Horan have missed but one annual dinner. Michael Dougherty has missed only three and Mrs. Lillian Sutton was in attendance at the first Harvest Home dinner.

Surrogate Court

Fay E. Boyd, Andover, a nephew is named executor in the will of Mary Snyder, Andover, who died July 22. The value of the estate was given in the petition for probate as not exceeding $5,000 personalty and $2,000 realty. Bequests made in the will included $1,100 to a niece, Mary B. Horton of Hurley, N. M.; $250 to Mark R. Boyd, nephew, Grand Canyon, Ariz.; $200 each to Harry S. Boyd, Batavia, and Fred H. Snyder, brother, Kansas City, Kan., $100 each to W. F. Snyder, brother, Andover, Louis Snyder, Kansas City, Kan., and Jack Saunders, grandnephew, Andover. The family residence in Andover and the residue of the estate were left to the nephew, Fay Boyd, Andover, named executrix.

90 Andover Citizens Donate To First Blood Bank Here

Ninety Andover citizens responded to the Blood Donors appeal in Andover last Thursday. The Mobile Blood Donor Unit with six Red Cross nurses and a doctor from Buffalo were in Andover all day.

Mrs. R. J. O'Laughlin, Mrs. Harriet Hoover and Mrs. Geil Reynolds, Andover nurses, volunteered their services.

Refreshments were served to the blood donors by the American Legion Auxiliary and the Exchange Club.

Plans are under way for a return trip of the Mobile Blood Donor Unit in November.

There were a few rejections due to colds and blood pressures.

WANDERING WITH WILLIE

This week we received another little love note from our "only friend" Fran Cable. "Sarge" evidently feels terrible. The letter follows:

Sunday, 1942

Greetings, Willie:

Where in (censored) do you get that stuff, "Dearest Sarg," that you wrote in your last letter?

I might be your "only friend," but I haven't gotten to the stage where I think of you in connection with moonlight in a garden.

Did you really think that anybody could stoop so low as to be romantic about you? To me, you are just a refugee from an Egyptian tomb. Yes, sir-ee Willie, you remind me of a mummy minus his first aid bandages. So can the Romeo and Juliet stuff.

Thanks Willie for telling me to wait a spell to let my brain flatten out, but if I were you (God forbid) I'd stick to a subject I understood. A hog knows more about a hymn book than you do about a brain. You come from the species commonly called a "solid citizen" (from the neck up.)

You seemed quite interested in the local "Hotel de Luxe" known in our life as the guard house. Altho as yet my name hasn't appeared on the register I do know a bit about it and can't recommend it as one of the places "you simply must visit on your tour." It is equipped with the usual bars outside the window (to keep all unwelcome guests out) and the beds are comfortable, I am told as they are built of soft pine. The service is excellent. To prevent a guest from being robbed, the management always has a guard accompany him. That is all I can say on that subject, Willie, but I want you to know your interest in my welfare is touching.

Willie, you've had a lot of fun with G. Sackett and his Victory Garden in the flood. Did it ever occur to you that that little episode might be sabotage and a possible case for the FBI? You see, Willie, a Victory Garden means food and food is as important as guns in winning this war. Think (impossible) what the consequences would be if all the thousands of Victory Gardens were destroyed as brother George's was.

You see, a spy will stoop to anything to help his country. It is very possible that one did enter said Sackett garden one dark night and planted onions next to his potatoes. As a result, one day in July, the onions reached their growth and the potatoes started to cry their eyes out, thereby flooding the valley and causing untold damage. Anyhow, it's food for thought. Too bad there isn't a parade Labor Day. George could enter his garden as a Victory "float."

In your epistle of the 6th I was pleased to note your mention of a "pot for pennies." It's a good idea as there are some articles hard to get outside of the States. Of course we get smokes cheaper than you can but stuff like matches, tooth brushes, socks, candy and above all handkerchiefs are just the ticket and hard to get. I think that the natives here never heard of a "hankie" before we arrived. They resort to the time-tested method of placing a thumb against the nose (something similar to a salute in the States).

Well, you answer to a psychiatrist's prayer, I think this will do for the present and don't worry yourself about the draft. We may go all out for victory but the only uniform you will wear has long sleeves that tie in the back. An upholstered wall to bat your head against is thrown in free.

As never,
F. E. C.

"Darling":

Forgive us for calling your "Dearest Sarge" in our last letter (and also for the "Darling" in this one) but we know that if we started the letters the way we wanted to the post office department would never let them go thru the mails.

You see, Cabe, we like you and you can't help yourself. Funny, but that's the way life is.

It does make us mad, tho, boiling mad, that you call us so many terrific names, but 30 days in the "brig on land" must pass slow for one of your activity. Don't try to tell us Cabey that you have never been in that guard house that you so aptly described. One who had never been in could not have such a vivid picture pasted in his mind (you notice, honey pie, we said "pasted."

But to get back to army life and its workings, Sarge, we never tried to knock you in any way, but just let you take care of the Army end of our government and we are taking care of the States while you are gone. You got your raise in pay, didn't you? But did we ever get even one word of thanks from you? No, you probably thanked those Senators and some of the other boys. But that's O. K. too —sunshine.

We even let the Red Cross squeeze a pint of blood out of us to send over to you fellows (incidentally it was exactly like your's, tested 86 proof.

You and "Flash" Gath must have about the same superior officers (and that's not saying much for an officer superior to you little hitch-hikers.) Every time they give you the devil, or when you are serving time in the jug you immediately holler for the guard to bring you a pencil and paper and take your meanness out on us. You fellows could cut out some nice paper dolls while you're in there but the guards probably won't let you have any shears.

And then, the first thing you know Sackett will be mad at us too. We promised him faithfully that we would never mention his Victory Garden again and here you both tell folks about it—and we will get the blame.

So, the next time either of you boys are bothered with boils, termites, guards, or any of the little things that make you feel like giving the world the works, don't, yea for heaven's sake don't, jump all over "your only friend."

Some day, perhaps in the distant future, there will be some poor lonesome misguided (and more or less intelligent soul) who will like us just a teeny-weeny bit, you army-toughened, hard-hearted waifs of Uncle Samuel, and then perhaps you will be sorry for all the untruths you have scattered so freely about us. We just long to see that day come—only having two friends in the world, "Flash" and you . . . . . "darling" Sargeant Cabe.

We hope that someone will start that "pot" idea, Cabe, in the near future before you will have to begin that old American salute that you mentioned.

Drop in and see us again some time.

Kind Lady —"What are you crying for, little man? What's your name? Where do you live?"

Small Boy — "That's what's the matter. I don't know my name or where I live. We moved yesterday and mother was married again today.
