

Election next Tuesday.
Go and hear Olive Thompson Saturday evening.
Capt. J. E. Middaugh of Scio was in town Tuesday.

The finest line of gents' ties at Phillips'. Call and see them.
Beebe, Williams & Co. are unloading a car of flour and feed today.

Miss Mary Kinney of Bath visited her brother, Mr. E. Kinney, last week.

Mrs. J. L. Williams, who has been at her former home in Purdy Creek, is in town.

Two voters registered in election district No. 1, and three in district No. 2, last Saturday.

J. B. Martindale will reopen his meat market on Saturday of this week. Call on him when you want good meat.

I have just received a fresh stock of very fine confectionery, which will be sold at very low prices. H. E. MINER.

There will be a ten cent social at Mrs. Cunningham's, Friday evening. Supper from 5:30 to 7. Come one and all, both great and small.

The pulpit of the Presbyterian church will be supplied next Sabbath by Rev. E. C. Hull of Arkport, with whom Rev. Mr. James will exchange.

Next week we expect to print on article on school matters which should be of interest to every person who desires the growth of Andover and her institutions.

The ladies of the M. E. Church will give a 10 cent tea at the church parlors next Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock. All are invited.

Mrs. Martindale has a fine new stock of fall and winter millinery. She thanks the ladies for past favors, and invites them to call on her.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Richardson attended the celebration of the 20th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Richardson, of Belmont, last Saturday.

F. D. Sherwood, Republican nominee for State Senator from this District, was in town Monday. He was accompanied by E. F. Willets, one of the substantial and solid citizens of Hornellsville.

Rev. D. W. Aylesworth, lecturer for the Grand Lodge of Good Templars of New York, will deliver an address on the reform question of the day, "The Liquor Problem," at Prest's opera house Wednesday evening, Nov. 4. All are invited.

Jeremiah Clarke has purchased from R. S. Stevens of Attica, the Holstein bull "Maplewood King Echo." The animal arrived last week and will be a valuable acquisition to the Hill View herd. There are seven cows in his pedigree, on his sire's side, that have given from 100 to 114 pounds of milk in a day, their butter record running from 20 lbs. to 39 lbs. 10 1/2 oz. in seven days.

County Clerk Green will receive a handsome vote in Andover. It is a matter of local pride that Andover has furnished the man who has conducted the affairs of the office on the best business principles that have been known in the Clerk's office for years. This is conceded by everybody to be a fact, and an expression of approval is due Mr. Green, not only from his former home, but from every town in the county.

The C. L. S. C. will meet with Miss Minnie Freeborn next Monday evening if the weather permits. The following order of exercises will be given: Song, Chautauqua; reading the minutes; roll call, quotations from Will Carleton; ten questions on the Social Institutions; one fact each about New York, New Jersey and Massachusetts; questions on American history; table talk about the lesson and the Quakers.

Two years ago the Sons of Veterans secured an entertainment here by the Till Family, which was pronounced one of the finest entertainments ever given in this place. There is good reason to believe that the character impersonator, Olive Thompson, who will appear at Prest's opera house in this place Saturday evening of this week, (Oct. 31) will be equally as successful in pleasing her audience. Secure reserved seats at L. A. Burrows' drug store.
Beebe, Williams & Co. have just received a car load of winter bran.

A Boon to Suffering Humanity.
We publish in this issue a letter from a lady well known in this section, recommending "Dr. Hart's Rheumatic Remedy," to be followed by others, all near by and well known. To suffer from rheumatism when you can find people worse than yourself who have been cured by a remedy, without giving that remedy a trial, seems foolish in the extreme. Make the fullest investigation, then lose no time in getting Rheumatism Can be Cured.

[The exact truth of the following statement is guaranteed by N. P. Brainard, M. D., and J. M. Goodwin, Andover, N. Y.]
ANDOVER, N. Y., May 16, 1889.
Hart Rheumatic Remedy Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

DEAR SIR: I was cured of Inflammatory Rheumatism with three bottles of your Remedy last fall. I have waited long enough now to know that I am cured. I was troubled previous to that time more or less for two years. It is the only treatment I have ever tried that has been of permanent benefit. I take great pleasure in recommending your Remedy, as I am certain it has saved me much suffering.
Very truly yours,
ISADORE M. JONES.

This Remedy cures all Rheumatic troubles, and all blood diseases. 48 page pamphlet mailed free. Price $1.00 per bottle, six for $5. Sold by all druggists. Chronic rheumatism a specialty. Hart Rheumatic Remedy Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

A Chance for Young People.

Every ambitious young man and woman is anxious to become independent and secure a successful start in business life. In no way can this be so surely and easily accomplished, as by the influence of the old and reliable Bryant & Stratton Business College, located in Buffalo, N. Y., since 1854. This well-known school not only gives a most thorough and practical training, but on account of its high standing in the commercial world, it is also able to secure desirable positions for many of its graduates.

Young people, particularly, who are unacquainted in the city, and need help to get a good start, cannot do better than to secure the aid of this famous school. The winter term opens on Monday, Nov. 9th, and will afford an excellent chance to enter upon a profitable course of study.

Notice advertisement in another column, and send for a large prospectus giving full particulars.

Holiday Photographs.

Sutton's photograph gallery in this place will be open the week beginning Monday, November 2. Those wanting work for the Holidays shot take this opportunity of sitting, and thus be assured against disappointment.

A Valuable Book.

Mrs. Sokalski is in town soliciting orders for a new book, "Shepp's Photographs of the World." It is a book composed entirely of pictures; instantaneous photographs of the most noted places of foreign travel, and also of celebrated paintings in the art galleries of England, France and Italy. Lovely views in our own native land are also included. The book contains over 525 full-page pictures, under each of which are a few explanatory lines. It is entirely a new departure in the book line, and every purchaser will study it with interest from beginning to end. All should spare a few moments to the agent when she calls. The book will "do the rest."

Go West via the Erie Lines.

The great "Erie" offers equal, if not better, facilities for handling passengers to the far west than any other route. A direct line of their own to Chicago and through cars to Cincinnati enable them to make exceedingly low rates. Pullman cars on all through trains, which cannot be surpassed for comfort and elegance. For information as to train service and rates call on nearest Erie Agent, or address A. W. Hodler, Division Passenger Agent, Buffalo.

Lumber.

I am prepared to furnish bills of lumber and timber to order. All kinds of lumber, planed, matched or in the rough.

ACME BLACKING is cheaper at 20 cents a bottle than any other Dressing at 5 cents.

A LITTLE GOES A LONG WAYS

because shoes once blackened with it can be kept clean by washing them with water. People in moderate circumstances find it profitable to buy it at 20c. a bottle, because what they spend for Blacking they save in shoe leather.

It is the cheapest blacking considering its quality, and yet we want to sell it cheaper if it can be done. We will pay for a recipe that will enable us to make WOLFF'S ACME BLACKING at such a price that a retailer can profitably sell it at 10c. a bottle. This offer is open until Jan. 1st, 1893.

$10,000 Reward

THE ANDOVER NEWS.

Go and hear Olive Thompson Saturday evening.

Hamilton Ward, Jr. of Belmont was in town Monday evening.

Mrs. W. H. Phillips is visiting friends in Bolivar and Friendship.

Don't fail to see the gents' ties at Phillips'. Great variety to select from.

Mrs. H. C. Norris and daughter Marguerite are visiting friends in Angelica for a few days.

Mr. Julius Updyke will build a new house on Greenwood street, above Grove street. The work will begin at once.

Mr. and Mrs. Leman Lewis and Miss Minnie Lewis, of Belmont, visited the families of Messrs. A. Porter and D. K. Porter Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Haskins and son of Milo, Ill., and Mrs. Dillia Snawder and daughter of Clarence, Mo., have been visiting their sister, Mrs. N. J. Burdick and other relatives.

Mrs. J. Seaman has moved her millinery store to Joseph Krusen's building on Main street, where she is prepared to meet customers, old and new. She invites all the ladies to give her a call.

Mr. Stillman Burdick is building a dwelling house on Center Street, on the land recently purchased from D. D. Remington. The frame is up and the work is being pushed rapidly.

What is an advertisement worth in the ANDOVER NEWS? D. B. Spaulding says his wall paper ad. sold, on Monday of this week, forty double rolls before 9 a. m., and after that he was too busy to keep count. Tuesday over one hundred and twenty-five rolls were sold and borders to match were presented free with each pattern. Some very choice new patterns are still on exhibition. Read his ad. and note the change.

A. Lincoln Camp No. 100, S. O. V., has secured the famous impersonator, Olive Thompson, who will give an entertainment in Prest's opera house on Saturday evening of this week. Costume impersonations of Ben. Butler, T. DeWitt Talmage, Lotta, Aunt Symantha, Gen. Logan, Nellie Bly, all well known people. Also song recitals, autoharp and banjo solos. Don't fail to hear America's greatest character impersonator. Tickets 15, 25 and 35 cents. Reserved seats at L. A. Burrows.
