THE ANDOVER NEWS.
 Your Uncle is coming.
 F. W. Lee, of Whitesville, was in town yesterday.
 Misses Mary and Celia Richardson visited in Belmont, Sunday.

John W. Wignall, the famous baritone soloist, is with "Uncle Rube."
 William Curtin raised a turkey that weighs seven and one-half pounds.
 Arthur Sidman, with his own company, at Prest's Opera House, Friday evening of this week.
 Capt. J. A. Travis came up from Washington to vote. He returned on Tuesday evening.

For sale cheap, this fall, two first-class lumber wagons, 3 1/4 size, at Comstock's shop. Come early and get a good bargain.
 Mr. D. M. Brown, of Otego, is in the Erie station, learning Erie ways. He has passed the requisite examination, and expects to have a position on the road soon.

Sidman always gets a big house in Andover. Go and see him and his own company at Prest's Opera House, Friday evening of this week. They play "A Bad Penny," and a one-act sketch from "Uncle Rube."
 Rev. E. P. Hubbell, of Wellsville, will give his famous lecture, "Courtship and Marriage," at the M. E. Church, Monday evening, Nov. 9th. This lecture is very popular, and should be well patronized. The prices for tickets are very low, being only 15 cents for adults and 10 cents for children under 12 years of age.

On account of the lecture next Monday evening, the C. L. S. C. will meet at 3 p. m., with Mrs. G. B. Herrick. The following is planned for the work: Music—Class Song of 1887; reading of the minutes; roll call—quotations from Bryant; one fact each about Bryant, John Eliot and Roger Williams; twelve questions in the November Crautauquan on "Social Institutions;" also the questions and answers on "American Facts and Fancies;" questions in American History; recess; table talk on the lesson and the World's Fair.

Go and see Arthur Sidman and his own company in "A Bad Penny," at Prest's Opera House, this week Friday evening. A one-act sketch from "Uncle Rube" will also be given. Reserved seats at L. A. Burrows.

Sidman carries his own orchestra.
 Owen Welch had a son born to him last Monday.
 A brand new boy arrived at Patrick Gallagher's on Tuesday.
 Arthur Sidman and his own company at Prest's Opera House, this week Friday evening. See advertisement elsewhere.

By the collapse of a scaffold last Friday, Richard G. Jones, of Lanphear Valley, received a broken leg and other injuries.
 Oliver Jackson has purchased a lot from J. C. Green on Greenwood street, and will build a dwelling house at once. Thus Andover grows.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist Church will meet with Mrs. Wallace Richardson, on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 11th. All are cordially invited.
 The Elmira Advertiser was on hand Wednesday morning with full election returns. This is the only morning daily received here on the morning of publication.

Ray Smith is now clerking in W. H. Phillips' store. He began his duties on Monday. This shows an increase of business for Mr. Phillips, who now has two assistants.
 Mr. Lewis Bassett and Miss Nora Bloss, daughter of Hiram Bloss, were married, Wednesday evening, Nov. 4th, 1891, at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Jared Kenyon officiating.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Presbyterian Church will hold an "avoidupois sociable" in Prest's Opera House, Friday evening, Nov. 13th. Supper will be furnished at 40 cents per hundred weight.
 Arthur Sidman's company will not produce "Uncle Rube" at their entertainment at Prest's Opera House, Friday evening. They will give a one-act sketch from "Uncle Rube," and a lively comedy entitled "A Bad Penny." The audience will be pleased.

The youngsters of Andover have organized a skating club for the winter. It is called the T. A. S. Club. Its members are: John Burdick, captain; Herbert Snyder, Walter Hammond, Dennis Doran, Frank Doran, George Cochran, Bennie Miner, Harry Dutcher and Henry Phillips.
 Beginning last Monday, this division of the Erie had much improved mail facilities. A postal car is now run on trains 10 and 29, and mail is received and thrown off by these trains the same as by trains 3 and 12. The Andover postoffice consequently receives and sends two mails each way daily instead of one.

Thanksgiving Dinner.
 The ladies of the M. E. Church will serve their annual Thanksgiving Dinner at the church parlors, Thanksgiving Day, at 1 o'clock p. m. The ladies desire to express their appreciation of the patronage that has been extended to them in the past, and extend a cordial invitation to all to come and eat Thanksgiving dinner with them this year. The price for dinner will be 25 cents. The following will be the bill of fare:

Roast Turkey.
 Roast Meats.
 Potatoes.

Death of Willis Slocum.
 Willis Slocum died, of consumption, at his residence in this village, on Tuesday, Nov. 3d, 1891. His age was 57 years. He had been, for many years, a sufferer from the disease which took him away. Willis Slocum was well known and universally respected in Andover. He held the office of Collector in this town, for many years, and was always faithful and prompt in the discharge of his duties. His familiar form will be missed from our streets, and many are they who will wish that his health and life could have been longerspared. He has been a great sufferer, and his family and friends may find some consolation in the fact that his sufferings are ended. The funeral services were held at the Baptist Church in this village Thursday afternoon, the burial taking place in the Bundy cemetery.

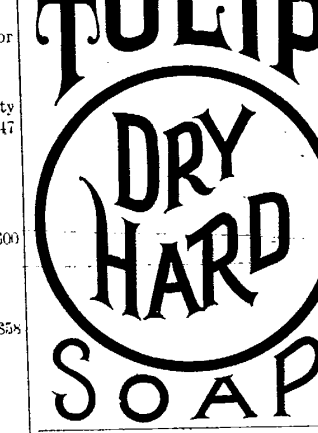

Miss M. M. Janes,
 Teacher of Music—Piano and Organ. Reduced Terms. For the better accommodation of those attending school, or whose time is limited, Miss Janes will give half-hour lessons for 18 cents each; or 24 lessons, of one hour each, for $8.

Go West via the Erie Lines.
 The great "Erie" offers equal, if not better, facilities for handling passengers to the far west than any other route. A direct line of their own to Chicago and through cars to Cincinnati enable them to make exceedingly low rates Pullman cars on all through trains, which cannot be surpassed for comfort and elegance. For information as to train service and rates call on nearest Erie Agent, or address A. W. Bodle, Division Passenger Agent, Buffalo.

Excursion to New York.
 The Erie Railway will run a grand excursion to New York on Monday, November 9. Tickets good on regular trains on above date (except No 8), and for return passage on any regular train (except train 5) on or before Sunday Nov. 15. Pullman cars are run on all through trains. The fare for the round trip from Andover is only $7.30.
