THE PUBLISHER.

IS THIS TRUE? One of the stories being circulated around Europe is that Russia would be willing to see Great Britian join forces with Japan, in the theory that it would be more creditable for the bear to be whipped by Japan and Great Britian than by Japan alone. This of course carries the inference that Russia expects to be beaten, and thinks it would be ignominious to suffer defeat at the hands of a little country like Japan. Evidently Russia is at her old tricks of trying to provoke some one else to start a quarrel in order that she may reap the benefit. There never has been any straightforwardness about Russia's methods in dealing with other nations. Indeed it is always well to expect Russia to do exactly opposite to what she professes she wants to do. That Hague tribunal organized at the initiation of the Czar was evidently only a blind, for while he was pretending peace he was planning for war. Russia evidently wishes to percipitate a war to cover up her tracks and schemes believing that in the final outcome she has everything to gain and nothing to loose. The one thing that balks her plans now is evidently the straightforward diplomatic methods pursued by this government.

RURAL MAIL CARRIERS. After about six months of the sending out of Andover post office mail by a rural delivery carrier the convenience and receiving of mail and papers every day by the patrons is very much appreciated, and will be a loss not easily supplied if for any reason the route should be suspended.

The carrier is looked forward to with a degree of interest by the housewives and farmers, little realized by the townsman. He, the carrier, is the daily connecting link between the farmer and the world outside, and is undoubtedly to be one of the important factors in making farm life endurable and to place it on a higher plane in the world of industries. The first routes were tried as an experiment during the administration of postmaster general, Charles Emory Smith, (altho John Wanamaker was the originator of the idea) The result has been a gratifying success and with the growth comes the work of making the service permanent and more effective. In order to secure this the pay of the carriers should be increased and it is hoped the bill now before congress increasing the pay of the carriers from $600 to $720 will be one of the bills that will pass the house during this session.

THE THIRTEEN SUPERSTITIONS The very absurd notions and whims that some people are governed by are the outgrowth of superstitiousness, and of course much of such nonsense finds its way into the papers. The finding of a horse shoe, the crossing of the street during the passing of a funeral procession, along with a multitude of other things are supposed to be large factors in ones fortunes or misfortunes. Perhaps the worst of all the popular or unpopular superstitious whims is the dire result of the temporary association of exactly 13 persons. It is all foolerol and yet one so governed will allow such foolishness to have large control over one's feelings. Here is a case in point. Last week one Charles Vandercoit of Sharon, Pa. died suddenly from natural causes in his home. Nothing remarkable about the man or his death. But his death was heralded the length and breadth of the land, because it happened that two evenings before, Monday, he had attended (as a member) Sharon's Common Council meeting at which there were thirteen present. Such reports are nonsensical in the extreme. Mr. Vandeiholt would probably have died even if there had been a greater or less number present at the meeting and nothing would have been thought of the matter. If the newspapers must resort to foolish and degrading superstitions to furnish news it certainly is not a very creditable undertaking.

MONEY COUNTS. That the semblance of grades of life and makes much for social standing is a very evident fact, and an excellent illustration was recently enacted in the corridors of a New York city hotel. A famous sculptor whose studio is in what was once a stable up town in 50's was sitting in the corridor of the Waldorf Astoria and heard a group of men discussing a piece of property for sale on the same street as his studio. The group was composed of the swaggery, showily dressed type that advertise their riches in adornments of the body. A couple of men cast disapproving glances at the sculpture as he sat taking it in. A question arose about point in the description of the property which no one seemed to known about. "I can tell you about that if I will not be interfering in your business," suggested the sculpture. "You see the place is directly opposite my stable and I happen to know." Mention of stable immediately thawed the group. So it is often that pretense of wealth will knock down barriers otherwise unsurmountable and it is certainly true in town or city. How easily judgment may be warped is easily seen and thru such conditions men of little character, often no character at all, gain entrance to respectable homes and society because they dress well and act it. So long as money is considered more a cleaner card or "entree" to society then character, just so long will "codfish aristocracy" have the swing.

The only way for merchants to keep trade home is to create home trade. Experience has proven that advertising in a home paper is a profitable investment.

President Smith of the Mormon church ought to be able to answer the question, What is home without a mother-in-law?

The Russian officers in charge of the war in the far east would make good organizers of "Don't worry clubs."

Dr. Russell Cornwell of Philadelphia intimates that the churches are being swamped by over organization. The Brooklyn Eagle pertinently inquires, Are they not giving more attention to amusement than religion?

That "unthinkable" and "unspeakable" Hearst as he has been called is causing a lot of thinking and some speaking among the Democrats. He is going right on capturing delegations to the Democratic National Convention.

Andover is enjoying now the fruit of last years agitation, a pay roll and people spending more money each week than at any time in her history.

Did you notice how the wagons rattled on the streets the other day after the snow had melted off? Seemed strange after over 100 days gliding on runners didn't it?

The Searchlight says that the man who gulps down 20 cents worth of bear a day swallows in one year 5 pair of shoes, 400 loaves of bread, 12 sacks of potatoes, 2 suits of clothes, 4 tons of coal, a barrel of sugar and 27 pounds of coffee.

PROTECTS THE SYSTEM AGAINST CATARRH.

Hyomei Prevents Colds and Cures Grip and Catarrh. Money Back if It Fails.

"An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." A few breaths of Hyomei thru the heat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit will check a cold or the grip at the start, and prevent serious and lasting illness.

In all catarrhal troubles and diseases of the air passages, Hyomei has a positive action not possessed by any other medicine or treatment. It is pleasant and convenient to use; simply put 20 drops of Hyomei in the inhaler and breathe it a few minutes, four times a day. In this way, every particle of air that enters the lungs is charged with a healing balsamic vapor that kills all catarrhal germs, soothes and relieves the irritated mucous membrane, vitalizes the blood with ozone, and makes a permanent and complete cure.

A Hyomei outfit costs only $1, and contains an inhaler, medicine dropper and bottle of Hyomei. The inhaler lasts a lifetime and when more Hyomei is needed, extra bottles can be obtained for 50c.

L. A. Burrows gives his personal guarantee with every Hyomei outfit he sells to refund the money if it does not cure.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contains Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists. Price 75c. per bottle.

L. A. BURROWS' UNUSUAL OFFER.

Sell Dr. Howard's Specific at Half-Price, and Guarantee a Cure.

"It isn't often that I have faith enough in the medicine put up by other people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure," said L. A. Burrows to a News man who dropped into his store. "but I am glad to sell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that basis.

"The Dr. Howard company, in order to get a quick introductory sale, authorizes me to sell their regular fifty cent bottles at half-price, 25 cents and, altho I have sold a lot of it, and have guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory.

"One great advantage of this specific," he continued, "is its small dose and convenient form. There are sixty doses in a vial that can be carried in the vest pocket or purse, and every one has more medicinal power than a big pill or tablet or a tumbler of mineral water.

The March Chautauquan.

In the March Chautauquan in his series on "The Racial Composition of the American People," John R. Commons discusses social and industrial problems as conditioned by immigration.

A fully illustrated article on "Panama and Its Neighbors," by Gilbert H. Grosvenor, describes the proposed Panama Canal and tells of life in Panama, Columbia and Venezuela.

Who Is to Blame?

I We know of property in Andover that was offered for sale two years ago for $400. To-day the owner wants $800 for the same property. Who is responsible for this advance in property? The Andover Business Men's Association and none others. The very ones who have been the subject of abuse by many of those who are now reaping the reward of nearly two prices for their property.

If it's a bilious attack, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and a quick recovery is certain. For sale by O. E. Vars & Son, Andover, and N. E. Coston, Greenwood.
