

THE ANDOVER NEWS

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

HAMILTON C. NORRIS, EDITOR
ANDOVER, N. Y., Jan. 4, 1893.

The experiment of sending mail through pneumatic tubes is to be tried between New York and Brooklyn.

A Maine man who has invented a flying machine, has hired another man to try the thing. This inventor may not be such a fool after all.

Governor Flower has appointed Judge Maynard to the vacancy in the Court of Appeals caused by the election of Judge Andrews to be chief Judge. The appointment doesn't give the best of satisfaction even to certain Democrats.

Senator Hill is said to be opposed to postponing the constitutional convention, which is appointed to be held in February. If this is true it is reasonably safe to wager that it won't be postponed. But we hardly believe Mr. Hill has thus expressed himself, and the chances are the convention will not be held in February.

An effort is being made by several prominent Chicago business men to buy independence hall in Philadelphia, the house where Abraham Lincoln died in Washington, and the Surratt tavern in Maryland, where the conspiracy to assassinate Lincoln was hatched, with a view of transporting them to Chicago for exhibition purposes.

The February number of Toilettes is out, as beautiful as ever. We have often heard our lady friends talking about toilettes, but could never understand or appreciate the word. We do now. That handsome fashion magazine Toilettes has given us the full meaning of the word. Every month it illustrates over one hundred new styles for women and children. The latest issue gives fancy dress toilettes, evening and ball toilettes, walking toilettes, dinner and reception toilettes, and many others. The price is only $1.50 a year or 15 cents a copy. For Toilettes Publishing Co., 129 West Twenty-third st., New York.

Columbus Stamps.

On the first of January the Post-office department issued a set of postage stamps in honor of Christopher Columbus. They are about twice the size of the stamps now in use, and the designs are taken from paintings, engravings and sculptures representative of Columbus at various stages of his expedition of discovery. They will be issued only during 1893. There are fifteen different values, ranging from one cent to five dollars. This is the description of five of the stamps:

Two cent—"Landing of Columbus," after the painting by Vanderlyn in the rotunda of the Capitol at Washington. Color, purple maroon.

Three cent—"Flagship of Columbus," the Santa Maria in mid ocean, from a Spanish engraving. Color, medium shade of green.

Four cent—"Fleet of Columbus," the three caravels—Santa Maria, Pinta and Nina—in mid ocean, from a Spanish engraving. Color, ultramarine blue.

Five cent—"Columbus Soliciting Aid from Isabella," after the painting by Brozik in the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Color, chocolate brown.

WEST GREENWOOD NEWS.

About twenty-five converts is the result of the four weeks' revival meetings in the Mead school house.

Mr. Bennett deborned about 150 head of cattle in this place last week.

Surprise parties are getting to be quite numerous in this vicinity.

Last Monday evening a large company of young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Pease and spent a pleasant evening.

The Friday evening previous a party was held at the home of Geo. Hartman.

The Alliance sociable at the Lane school house last Thursday evening was well attended. A free supper was served and an enjoyable time reported.

INDEPENDENCE NEWS.

New Years was a stormy and disagreeable day.

Annual church meeting of the S. D. B. church was held here Sunday. Comrade and Mrs. J. P. Remington took a trip to Belmont last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Efner Potter, of Almond, visited his uncle, Mr. C. F. Potter, one day last week.

Mrs. J. D. Jacobs is happy over a Christmas present of a fine, new Brussels carpet for her parlor. Pshaw! that's nothing. I wouldn't put a carpet like that in my poultry house.

I thank the Lord for what is "good," I don't propose to let it escape my grasp, but hold on to it. And don't you dare forget it. And not the least of blessings are hard beech and maple, good, I snuggle to my base heater. And toast my shins with wood.

In the case of Mrs. Antoinette Potter the News was correct in stating that she was dead, but incorrect in the date of death and time of the funeral. She died a little after 2 o'clock on Tuesday morning, Dec. 27, and services were held at 11 o'clock a. m. Thursday. Elder Jared Kenyon officiating. There was a very large attendance, people from Salamanca, Friendship, Alfred Centre, Hornellsville and surrounding towns being present. She had suffered intensely for about three years with bronchial consumption, and had been in poor health for many years, but her faith in God never faltered, and she died triumphant. She leaves a husband, three sons and one daughter, besides an aged father and mother (Mr. and Mrs. Harry Enos, of Nile, who were too feeble to attend the funeral,) and a large number of relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

B. S. Bassett of Alfred Centre, and Mrs. Mary Green of this place were married last week Thursday, Dec. 29, 1892. They are a most worthy couple and sincere congratulations are in order. "Long may they live, and happy may they be," is the wish of Gumption.

The Crandall children are improving. Last week Wednesday evening there was a happy gathering at the elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Chase, Whitesville, where over 60 invited guests sat down to a bountiful supper provided by the genial host and hostess, and all went "merry as a marriage bell," till weary nature could stand no more, when the guests departed for their several homes, happy as clams at high tide.

"Seeing is Believing." And a good lamp must be simple; when it is not simple it is not good. Simple, Beautiful, Good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. All metal, tough and seamless, and made in three pieces only, it is absolutely safe and unbreakable. Like Aladdin's of old, it is indeed a "wonderful lamp," for its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, softer than electric light and more cheerful than either.

Look for this lamp—The Rochester. If the lamp dealer hasn't the genuine Rochester, and the style you want, send to us for our new illustrated catalogue and we will send you a lamp solely by express—your choice of over 2,000 varieties from the Largest Lamp Store in the World.
