THE ANDOVER NEWS.

Mrs. C. Mingus is reported as just alive. Her husband is also failing.

Prangen Bros' ice house at the pond is being filled with fine eleven inch ice.

It only costs eight cents now to register a letter or parcel sent through the mails.

The next meeting of the C. L. S. C. will be Jan. 9 at four p. m. at the parlors of the M. E. church.

Don't forget the donation for Rev. G. W. Gibson at the M. E. church parlors, Tuesday evening, Jan. 10. Take an open heart with you and don't forget your pocket book.

A Wellsville man has a horse which he has named "Nail," because his wife can't drive it. It would be interesting to know whether the woman could hit the horse on the head.

There will be a donation for Rev. G. M. James at Prest's opera house, Wednesday evening, Jan. 18. All are invited and it is hoped a large crowd will be present. Don't forget the date.

Attention is again called to the fact that special meetings will be held at the Baptist church for at least two weeks, beginning next Sunday. Rev. E. B. Cornell is expected to be present.

It would be a good thing to begin the new year by using printed note heads and envelopes, if you don't already use them. The News will furnish and print them cheap, in any desired quantity.

Wednesday evening will occur the marriage of one of Andover's estimable young men, and a young lady from our neighboring village of Jasper. Further particulars next week.

A little wreck occurred this afternoon just west of the Main street crossing. A west bound pusher ran into the engine of an east bound train which was switching some cars. Both engines and one or two cars were damaged, the cars but slightly.

Cards announcing the marriage of Miss Maud Wescott and Mr. Ernest C. French, in Ewing, Neb., Dec. 24, have been received by several Andover people. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ella Wescott, formerly of this place, and both she and Mrs. French have the best wishes of their Andover friends for happiness and prosperity in their new home.

The cards of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Caldwell of Brookville, Pa., have been received in town. Mrs. Caldwell will be remembered as Miss Cora Patterson, who visited at Mrs. M. J. Atwood's last summer.

W. D. Moulton has retired from the editorial chair of the Cuba Patriot, and H. S. Wagoner takes his place. Mr. Wagoner is getting out a good paper and will, we are sure, be heartily welcomed to Allegany's circle of newspaper men.

Mr. F. R. Hinchey is partially disabled with a lame shoulder. He was at the big ice house testing the machinery for putting ice into the building when an accident occurred which "threw him," and his shoulder took the brunt of the fall.

The new year came in on skates, so to speak. Saturday night the pond above this village was filled with merry young people. A number of skaters were over from Alfred Centre. The Andover band was present and furnished music for the skaters.

The corporation street lamps let their light shine, and are appreciated by the public. In addition to those erected by the village, Messrs. James Owen and Geo. E. Brown have, by private enterprise placed a light near the tannery and grist mill, which fills a long felt want.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cartwright had lots of company during the holidays. Last week we gave an account of Christmas doings at their home, participated in by his wife's family and friends. Last Saturday Mr. Cartwright's side of the house had their inning. Among those present were Mr. E. R. Carpenter and family, Mr. S. C. Cartwright, Miss Eunice Cartwright, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kapke, and Mr. Dell Clair and family. An exchange of presents all around helped to make the day pass pleasantly, and the occasion was very enjoyable.

The News man isn't in the habit of telling his readers what he has to eat. Ordinarily it wouldn't interest them much, and an editor's menu isn't supposed to be elaborate enough to bug over, anyway. But as an exception to general rules we propose to state that we began the new year by feasting on turkey. The fowl was the generous gift of Rev. J. D. Biden of this place. It was young, juicy, fat, tender and altogether as fine a specimen as ever strutted around a farmer's yard. To say that we appreciated Father Biden's kindness, as well as the dinner of which his gift formed the most conspicuous part, is putting it mildly indeed. We hope the esteemed rector will live to enjoy many New Years dinners as much as we enjoyed ours in '93.

Personal.

Mr. P. Gallagher is the father of a new girl baby.

Mr. W. A. Barney went to Friendship this morning, where he will work "on the block."

Mr. E. H. Turner of Alfred Station was in Andover last Friday and made the News a call.

Mr. Elmer Mead of Dundee has been the guest of Mr. G. B. Proper and family during the past week.

Mr. Ziba Kennedy of Michigan, a former Andover resident, is visiting friends in this place and vicinity.

Mr. G. W. Watson and family of West Almond spent New Years at the home of Mr. C. A. Robinson in this place.

Mrs. W. G. Richardson and two children of Richburg and Master Florio Lewis of Friendship are visiting at J. W. Richardson's.

Mr. A. A. Hinchey of Elm Valley, Pa.

left yesterday for a trip to Michigan. He went by way of Buffalo, where he was to make a stop on business.

Prof. Armstrong and wife, with Misses Sherman, Quigley and Strang, who were absent during the holiday vacation, have returned, and school is again running smoothly.

Mr. S. S. Randolph and wife of Cuba and Mr. Robert Bowen and wife of Binghamton visited at the home of the former's son, Mr. D. E. Randolph, during the past week.

Rev. Father Barlow of Ellicottville, Rev. Father Huston of Tonawanda, Rev. Father Naughton of Hammond, Rev. Father Gardiner of Hornellsville and Rev. Father Long of Buffalo, were recent guests of Rev. Father Biden.

The Sacred Concert.

The event of the season in the musical line proved to be the sacred concert given at the church of the Blessed Sacrament in this village, last week Wednesday evening, and which was participated in by about fifty of the best vocalists in this place. The affair was under the immediate supervision of Prof. La Frone Merriman of Hornellsville, and it goes without saying that the success which attended the performance was largely due to the efforts of this noted conductor. Added to this was the fact that Andover possesses a liberal supply of most excellent musical talent, the best of which was at Prof. Merriman's command in this instance. Prof. Merriman was accompanied by his Hornellsville orchestra. The following is the program which was rendered:

Organ Prelude—Communion in E.....Baptiste
Miss Rose Christine Cummins
Duet—O salutaris hostia.....Perry
Miss Mary and Mr. John Cannon.
Address.....Rev. James E. Mooney
Chorus—Inimatus, from Stabat Mater.....Rossini
Solo by Miss Minnie Clair.
Song—Come Unto Me.....Barry
Mr. Frank P. Tucker.
Violin Solo—Variations on an old French Air.....DA
Prof. La Frone Merriman.
Chorus Selection—"On Judah's Plain".....Maggott
Chorus—"Who Knows What the Bells say"
Organ Solo—Offertory in D Minor.....Baptiste
Chorus Selection—"On Judah's Plain".....Lestie
Song—"The King of Love My Shepherd Is"
Mr. Tucker.
Choir Selection.....Mozart
Chorus—Gloria, from the 14th Mass.....Clark
Lestie
March—La Beaux.....Clark
Organ and Orchestra.

It may perhaps be hardly fair to say that any person was entitled to more credit than the others in the manner of rendering the different selections, but we believe it is generally conceded that the duet by Mr. and Miss Cannon, which was sung in Latin, and the solo by Miss Clair, were among the ones most pleasing to the audience. The address by Rev. Father Mooney, who is assistant rector of St. Joseph's Cathedral in Buffalo, should not pass unnoticed. It was a most appropriate prelude to the feast of music which followed, and the information derived from the brief address, coming from one eloquent in words and graceful in manner, amply repaid all present for the time and money spent in attending the concert.

Rev. Father Lanagan of Niagara Falls, and Rev. Father Sheahan, chancellor of the Buffalo diocese, were present, and expressed themselves as much pleased with the whole affair. In the chance of the church also sat Rev. G. W. Gibson and wife, Rev. G. M. James, wife and daughter, and Mrs. Wayne Brewster and daughter.

The entertainment was a financial success, but not the least of the benefits derived were those of a social nature. Not a church or choir of the village was unrepresented in the circle of singers, and the unanimity of action is most pleasant to contemplate.

But probably the person most to be thanked for this splendid musical festival is Rev. J. D. Biden. It was he who conceived the thought and formulated the plans for the successful carrying out of the project, and while we praise those who carried the affair to a successful conclusion, let us not forget him who inspired it and labored hard for its ultimate success.

The A. O. H. Ball.

The ball given Monday evening by Andover Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, was a great success. Ninety-four couples were present, beside a large crowd of spectators. In addition to this, over thirty tickets were sold to those who could not come, swelling the total receipts to about $125. Nearly every town in this section was represented. Everything was so well arranged that those present couldn't help having a good time, and the verdict the next day was "Splendid," by a unanimous vote. The supper was served at the American House, and was as fine a meal as merry dancers could wish for. The following committees had charge of the affair:

Arrangements—D. P. Regan, F. A. McGinty, T. Hyland.
Reception—F. C. Lynch, Thomas Flynn, Henry C. Joyce, Jas. Pardon, J. J. Arnold.
Floor—F. J. Myles, Harry Joyce, J. C. McAndrew, Wm. Pardon.

Comforts For Cold Days.

We are still keeping up our full line of comfortable Underwear for those who thought Indian Summer would last till Spring.

These zero-times will continue, so says the prognosticator, for some time, and there's mighty little comfort in this kind of weather for those who haven't a good suit of Underwear. There is comfort for both mind and body for those who possess a suit of ours.

And again, have you suitable bed-covering for these cold nights? We've a nice line of Bed Blankets, "downy" in price and quality, and comfortable for less than you can make them.

Be comfortable and be wise by purchasing your winter goods of us.
